

Memorandum 83-78

Subject: Study L-704 - Statutory Short Form of General Power of Attorney

Attached is a draft of legislation that would provide a "statutory short form power of attorney," which could be a durable power of attorney. See Section 2540 on pages 2-4 of the attached draft.

The principal can grant the attorney-in-fact powers concerning all or less than all of the matters listed on page 3 of the attached draft. The draft contains "constructional sections" which spell out in considerable detail the precise powers the attorney-in-fact has if granted one or more of the general grants listed on page 3 of the draft. For example, assume that the authority granted includes authority with respect to "real estate transactions" (listed in paragraph (A) in the portion of the form on page 3 of the draft). The "constructional provision" (Section 2460) gives authority to the attorney-in-fact to do everything listed in the section (see pages 7-9 of the enclosed draft).

With minor modifications, the draft is the same as a New York statute that was originally enacted in 1948 and subsequently recodified in 1963. We have retained the detailed and somewhat verbose constructional provisions of the New York law which describe in great detail the specific grants of authority included within the authority granted in the statutory form with respect to general areas of authority. See Sections 2460-2473 of the draft legislation. You should check these detailed statements to determine whether anything should be added to the detailed statements. We have made some editorial revisions in the provisions of the New York statute and some additions. The additions are noted in the Comments to the various sections. The "WARNING" that must appear on the statutory form is more lengthy than the one that appears in the New York statute. The attached draft does not authorize the making of medical decisions on behalf of the principal. This will be a separate form. See Memorandum 83-61.

The New York form was developed before New York had any statutory provisions authorizing a durable power of attorney. However, the New York form could be modified by the user of the form to give a durable power of attorney by adding a statement on the form that the power of attorney shall not be affected by the subsequent incapacity of the principal. The attached draft includes a provision that the power of attorney is a durable one but permits the user of the form to make it not a durable one by making a revision in the form.

The staff believes that the attached draft would be a very useful addition to the California law. Not only would it permit use of the statutory short form power of attorney, but a power of attorney that was not on the statutory form could incorporate one or more of the constructional provisions in the statute and thus avoid the need to include in the power of attorney detailed statements of the authority conferred. If the draft is approved, the staff suggests that a recommendation be prepared for review by the Commission with a view to submitting it to the 1984 legislative session.

We have revised Section 2400 of the Civil Code to provide that the new statutory short form power of attorney is the only printed form of durable power of attorney that may be sold in this state for use by a person who does not have legal counsel. Is this a desirable provision?

Respectfully submitted,

John H. DeMouilly
Executive Secretary

SECTION 1. Section 2400 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

2400. (a) A durable power of attorney is a power of attorney by which a principal designates another his or her attorney in fact in writing and the writing contains the words "This power of attorney shall not be affected by subsequent incapacity of the principal," or "This power of attorney shall become effective upon the incapacity of the principal," or similar words showing the intent of the principal that the authority conferred shall be exercisable notwithstanding the principal's subsequent incapacity. For the purposes of this article, a durable power of attorney does not include a proxy given by a person to another person with respect to the exercise of voting rights that is governed by any other statute of California.

(b) A No printed form of a durable power of attorney may be sold in this state for use by a person who does not have the advice of legal counsel unless the form is a statutory short form power of attorney that satisfies the requirements of Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 2450). shall include the following notice in 10/point bold face type:

- 2. These powers will exist for an indefinite period of time unless you limit their duration in this document. These powers will continue to exist notwithstanding your subsequent disability or incapacity.

Comment. Section 2400 is amended to replace the warning statement in subdivision (b) with the requirement that the printed form be a statutory short form power of attorney. See Section 2450.

SEC. 2. Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 2450) is added to Title 9 of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code, to read:

(3) It contains the exact wording of paragraph 5 of the form set out in Section 2450.

§ 2455. Modifications of the statutory short form power of attorney

2455. A power of attorney which satisfies the requirements of Section 2454 is not prevented from being a "statutory short form power of attorney," as this phrase is used in this chapter, by the fact that it also contains additional language which does any one or more of the following:

(3) To release in whole or in part, to assign the whole or a part of, to satisfy in whole or in part, and to enforce by action, proceeding, or otherwise, any mortgage, incumbrance, lien, or other claim to any interest in real property which exists, or is claimed to exist, in favor of the principal.

(6) To demand, to receive, and to obtain by action, proceeding, or otherwise any money or other thing of value to which the principal is, or may become, or may claim to be entitled as the proceeds of an interest in real property or of one or more of the transactions enumerated in this section, to conserve, to invest, to disburse, or to utilize anything so received for purposes enumerated in this section, and to reimburse the agent for any expenditures properly made in the execution of the powers conferred on the agent by the statutory short form power of attorney.

Comment. Section 2460 is the same in substance as Section 5-1502A of the New York General Obligations Law.
