SUMMARY OF WORK OF COMMISSION

Recommendations to 1985 Legislative Session

The California Law Revision Commission plans to submit a number of recommendations to the 1985 session of the Legislature in the fields of probate law and family law.

The probate law recommendations relate to the transfer without probate of certain state registered property, durable powers of attorney, living wills, distribution under a will or trust, and the effect of adoption or out of wedlock birth on rights at death.

The recommendations relating to family law deal with such matters as provision for support if the support obligor dies, dividing jointly owned property upon marriage dissolution, division of employee pension benefit plans, and litigation expenses in family law proceedings.

Other recommendations to the 1985 legislative session deal with protection of mediation communications, recording severance of joint tenancy, abandoned easements, and creditors' remedies.

Recommendations Enacted by 1984 Legislative Session

In 1984, 21 of 25 bills recommended by the Commission were enacted. Statutory forms for durable powers of attorney for health care and for property matters were enacted. Legislation to avoid the need for probate and to reduce the delay and expense of probate was enacted. Other bills enacted in 1984 dealt with:

- Uniform Transfers to Minors Act
- Garnishment of periodic payments from trusts
- Use of affidavit of death to clear title to real property
- Wills and intestate succession
- Spousal support
- Special appearances in family law proceedings
- Liability of earnings of stepparent for child support
- Award of family home to spouse having custody of children
- Reimbursement for educational expenses at dissolution of marriage
- Marital property transmigrations
- Liability of marital property for debts
- Creditors' remedies
- Quiet title and partition judgments
- Dormant mineral rights

- Severance of joint tenancy
- Dismissal of civil actions for lack of prosecution
- Statute of limitations for felonies

Commission recommendations enacted by the 1984 session affected 377 sections of the California statutes: 169 new sections were enacted, 140 sections were amended, and 68 sections were repealed.

Commission Plans for 1985

During 1985, the Commission plans to devote its attention almost exclusively to the preparation of a new Probate Code for introduction at the 1986 legislative session.

To: THE HONORABLE GEORGE DEUKMEJIAN
Governor of California and
THE LEGISLATURE OF CALIFORNIA

In conformity with Government Code Section 8293, the California Law Revision Commission herewith submits this report of its activities during 1984.

I am pleased to report that at the 1984 legislative session 21 of 25 bills introduced to implement the Commission's recommendations were enacted.

A number of members of the Legislature deserve special recognition for their assistance to the Commission:

(1) Senator Robert C. Beverly authored and secured the enactment of legislation to provide funds so that the Commission could continue its law reform work.

(2) Assembly Member Alister McAlister, who serves as the Assembly Member of the Commission, authored 13 of the Commission recommended measures enacted in 1984. The integrity, hard work, and wise counsel of Assembly Member McAlister has contributed significantly to the favorable legislative reaction to Commission recommended measures at the 1984 legislative session and to the overall success of the Commission's law reform activities during the 12 years he has served as a member of the Commission.

Senator Barry Keene, the Senate Member of the Commission, introduced and obtained the enactment in 1984 of three important Commission recommended bills.

(3) Assembly Members Elihu Harris and Byron Sher each introduced two Commission recommended measures that were enacted in 1984.

(4) Assembly Members Gwen Moore and Philip Isenberg each introduced a Commission recommended measure that was enacted in 1984.

(5) Senator William Lockyer introduced a Commission recommended measure that was given interim study during 1984.

Respectfully submitted,

DAVID ROSENBERG
Chairperson

ANNUAL REPORT FOR THE YEAR 1984

INTRODUCTION

The California Law Revision Commission¹ was created in 1953 (as the permanent successor to the Code Commission) with the responsibility for a continuing substantive review of California statutory and decisional law.² The Commission studies the California law to discover defects and anachronisms and recommends legislation to make needed reforms.

The Commission assists the Legislature in keeping the law up to date by:

- (1) Intensively studying complex and sometimes controversial subjects;
- (2) Identifying major policy questions for legislative attention;
- (3) Gathering the views of interested persons and organizations; and
- (4) Drafting recommended legislation for legislative consideration.

The efforts of the Commission permit the Legislature to determine significant policy questions rather than to concern itself with the technical problems in preparing background studies, working out intricate legal problems, and drafting needed legislation. The Commission thus enables the Legislature to accomplish needed reforms that otherwise might not be made because of the heavy demands on legislative time. In some cases, the Commission's report demonstrates that no new legislation on a particular topic is needed, thus relieving the Legislature of the need to study the topic.

The Commission consists of:

—A Member of the Senate appointed by the Committee on Rules.

—A Member of the Assembly appointed by the Speaker.

—Seven members appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate.

—The Legislative Counsel who is an ex officio member.

The Commission may study only topics that the Legislature by concurrent resolution authorizes it to study. The Commission now has a calendar of 23 topics.³

¹ See Gov't Code §§ 8280-8297 (statute establishing Law Revision Commission).

² See 1 Cal. L. Revision Comm'n Reports, Annual Report for 1954 at 7 (1957).

³ See list of topics under "Calendar of Topics Authorized for Study" set out in Appendix I infra.

Commission recommendations have resulted in the enactment of legislation affecting 8,641 sections of the California statutes: 3,726 sections have been added, 2,039 sections amended, and 2,876 sections repealed. Of the 183 Commission recommendations submitted to the Legislature, 166 (91%) have been enacted into law either in whole or in substantial part.⁴

The Commission's recommendations and studies are published as pamphlets and later in hardcover volumes. A list of past publications and information on where and how copies may be obtained may be found at the end of this Report.

1985 LEGISLATIVE PROGRAM

The Commission plans to recommend legislation on the following subjects to the 1985 Legislature:

- (1) Living wills.⁵
- (2) Provision for support if support obligor dies.⁶
- (3) Transfer without probate of title to vehicles, undocumented vessels, manufactured homes, mobile homes, and commercial coaches.⁷
- (4) Dividing jointly owned property upon marriage dissolution.⁸
- (5) Creditors' remedies.⁹
- (6) Durable powers of attorney.¹⁰
- (7) Division of employee pension benefit plans.¹¹
- (8) Litigation expenses in family law proceedings.¹²

⁴ See list of recommendation and legislative action in Appendix II infra.

⁷ See Recommendation Relating to Transfer Without Probate of Certain Property Registered by the State (November 1984), published as Appendix XVII to this Report.

⁸ See Recommendation Relating to Dividing Jointly Owned Property Upon Marriage Dissolution (November 1984), published as Appendix XVIII to this Report.

¹⁰ See Recommendation Relating to Durable Powers of Attorney (January 1985). This recommendation will be separately published.

- (9) Distribution under a will or trust.¹³
- (10) Protection of mediation communications.¹⁴
- (11) Recording severance of joint tenancy.¹⁵
- (12) Effect of adoption or out of wedlock birth on rights at death.¹⁶
- (13) Abandoned easements.¹⁷

The Commission also recommends that the 1985 Legislature make revisions in the statute relating to the Commission.¹⁸

THE PROBATE CODE STUDY

The Commission is now devoting its time and resources almost exclusively to the study of probate law and procedure.¹⁹ The goal is to submit an entire new Probate Code to the 1986 legislative session. During 1985, the Commission will send drafts of portions of the new code to interested persons and organizations for review and comment.

The Commission is working in close cooperation with the Estate Planning, Trust and Probate Law Section of the State Bar and the Probate and Trust Law Section of the Los Angeles County Bar Association. The views of members of the public and of lawyers, judges, court commissioners, probate referees, and others who work in the probate law field are being sought and ¹⁴ See Recommendation Relating to Protection of Mediation Communications (January 1985). This recommendation will be separately published.

¹⁶ See Recommendation Relating to Effect of Adoption or Out of Wedlock Birth on Rights at Death (January 1985). This recommendation will be separately published. The Commission also recommends the enactment of urgency legislation to provide that a stepchild or fosterchild is not a child for the purposes of a statutory requirement that notice be given to heirs, issue, or children unless the stepchild or fosterchild is an adopted child or unless the person giving the notice has actual knowledge that the child is a child under Section 6408 of the Probate Code.

¹⁷ See Recommendation Relating to Abandoned Easements (January 1985).

¹⁸ The Commission recommends that:

(1) Section 8288 of the Government Code be amended to allow the employees of the Commission and members of the Commission appointed by the Governor to advocate the passage by the Legislature or approval by the Governor of legislation recommended by the Commission.

(2) A new provision be added to the statute relating to the Commission providing that the office of a member of the Commission appointed by the Governor becomes vacant if the member is absent for three consecutive regular meetings of the Commission unless the member is excused from attending.

¹⁹ In 1980, the Legislature directed the Commission to make this study. 1980 Cal. Stats. res. ch. 37.

will be taken into account in preparing the new code. A special effort has been made to obtain the suggestions of members of the probate and trust law committees of local bar associations. The California Bankers Association has appointed a special committee to work with the Commission.

The Commission has retained the following expert consultants to assist the Commission in its study of probate law: Professor Paul E. Basye, Hastings College of the Law, Professor Gail B. Bird, Hastings College of the Law, Professor Jesse Dukeminier, U.C.L.A. Law School, Professor Susan F. French, U.C. Davis School of Law, Professor Edward C. Halbach, Jr., U.C. Berkeley Law School, and Professor Russell D. Niles, Hastings College of the Law.

CALENDAR OF TOPICS FOR STUDY

The Commission's calendar of topics is set out in Appendix I to this Report. Each of these topics has been authorized for Commission study by the Legislature.²⁰ Because of the substantial and numerous topics already on its calendar, the Commission does not at this time recommend any additional topics for inclusion on its calendar of topics.

FUNCTION AND PROCEDURE OF COMMISSION

The principal duties of the Law Revision Commission¹ are to:

(1) Examine the common law and statutes for the purpose of discovering defects and anachronisms.

(2) Receive and consider suggestions and proposed changes in the law from the American Law Institute, the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws,² bar associations, and other learned bodies, and from judges, public officials, lawyers, and the public generally.

(3) Recommend such changes in law as it deems necessary to bring the law of this state into harmony with modern conditions.³

²⁰ Section 8293 of the Government Code provides that the Commission shall study, in addition to those topics which it recommends and which are approved by the Legislature, any topics which the Legislature by concurrent resolution refers to it for study.

¹ Gov't Code §§ 8280-8297 (statute governing Law Revision Commission).

² The Commission's Executive Secretary serves as an Associate Member of the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws.

³ See Gov't Code § 8289. The Commission is also directed to recommend the express repeal of all statutes repealed by implication or held unconstitutional by the California Supreme Court or the Supreme Court of the United States. Gov't Code § 8290.

The Commission is required to file a report at each regular session of the Legislature containing a calendar of topics selected by it for study, listing both studies in progress and topics intended for future consideration. The Commission may study only topics which the Legislature, by concurrent resolution, authorizes it to study.⁴

The Commission's work on a recommendation is commenced after a background study has been prepared. In some cases, the study is prepared by a member of the Commission's staff, but some of the studies are undertaken by specialists in the fields of law involved who are retained as research consultants to the Commission. This procedure not only provides the Commission with invaluable expert assistance but is economical as well because the attorneys and law professors who serve as research consultants have already acquired the considerable background necessary to understand the specific problems under consideration. Expert consultants are also retained to advise the Commission at meetings.

The background study is given careful consideration by the Commission and, after making its preliminary decisions on the subject, the Commission ordinarily distributes a tentative recommendation to the State Bar and to numerous other interested persons. Comments on the tentative recommendation are considered by the Commission in determining what recommendation, if any, the Commission will make to the Legislature. When the Commission has reached a conclusion on the matter, its recommendation to the Legislature, including a draft of any legislation necessary to effectuate its recommendation, is published in a pamphlet.⁵ In some cases, the background study is published in the pamphlet containing the recommendation.⁶

The Commission ordinarily prepares a Comment explaining each section it recommends. These Comments are included in the Commission's report and are frequently revised by legislative committee reports⁷ to reflect amendments⁸ made after the recommended legislation has been introduced in the Legislature. The Comment often indicates the derivation of the section and explains its purpose, its relation to other sections, and potential problems in its meaning or application. The Comments are written as if the legislation were enacted since their primary purpose is to explain the statute to those who will have occasion to use it after it is in effect. They are entitled to substantial weight in construing the statutory provisions.⁹ However, while the Commission endeavors in the Comment to explain any changes in the law made by the section, the Commission does not claim that every inconsistent case is noted in the Comment, nor can it anticipate judicial conclusions as to the significance of existing case authorities.¹⁰ Hence, failure to note a change in prior law or to refer to an inconsistent judicial decision is not intended to, and should not, influence the construction of a clearly stated statutory provision.¹¹

⁴ See Gov't Code § 8293. In addition, Code of Civil Procedure Section 703.120 requires the Commission to review statutes providing for exemptions from enforcement of money judgments each 10 years and to recommend any needed revisions.

⁵ Occasionally one or more members of the Commission may not join in all or part of a recommendation submitted to the Legislature by the Commission.

⁶ Background studies may be published in law reviews. For a list of background studies published in law reviews prior to 1983, see 10 Cal. L. Revision Comm'n Reports 1108 n.5 (1971), 11 Cal. L. Revision Comm'n Reports 1008 n.5 & 1108 n.5 (1973), 13 Cal. L. Revision Comm'n Reports 1628 n.5 (1976), 16 Cal. L. Revision Comm'n Reports 2021 n.6 (1982), and 17 Cal. L. Revision Comm'n Reports 819 n.6 (1984).

The pamphlets are distributed to the Governor, Members of the Legislature, heads of state departments, and a substantial

⁷ Special reports are adopted by legislative committees that consider bills recommended by the Commission. These reports, which are printed in the legislative journal, state that the Comments to the various sections of the bill contained in the Commission's recommendation reflect the intent of the committee in approving the bill except to the extent that new or revised Comments are set out in the committee report itself. For a description of the legislative committee reports adopted in connection with the bill that became the Evidence Code, see Arellano v. Moreno, 33 Cal. App.3d 877, 884, 109 Cal. Rptr. 421, 426 (1973). For an example of such a report, see Appendix III to this Report.

⁸ Many of the amendments made after the recommended legislation has been introduced are made upon recommendation of the Commission to deal with matters brought to the Commission's attention after its recommendation was printed. In some cases, however, an amendment may be made that the Commission believes is not desirable and does not recommend.

⁹ E.g., Van Arsdale v. Hollinger, 68 Cal.2d 245, 249-50, 437 P.2d 508, 511, 66 Cal. Rptr. 20, 23 (1968). See also Milligan v. City of Laguna Beach, 34 Cal.3d 829, 831, 196 Cal. Rptr. 38, 39 (1983) ("To ascertain the legislative intent, courts have resorted to many rules of construction. However, when the legislature has stated the purpose of its enactment in unmistakable terms [e.g., in official comments], we must apply the enactment in accordance with the legislative direction, and all other rules of construction must fall by the wayside. Speculation and reasoning as to legislative purpose must give way to expressed legislative purpose."). The Comments are published by both the Bancroft-Whitney Company and the West Publishing Company in their editions of the annotated codes.

¹⁰ See, e.g., Arellano v. Moreno, 33 Cal. App.3d 877, 109 Cal. Rptr. 421 (1973).

¹¹ The Commission does not concur in the Kaplan approach to statutory construction. See Kaplan v. Superior Court, 6 Cal.3d 150, 158-59, 491 P.2d 1, 5-6, 98 Cal. Rptr. 649, 653-54 (1971). For a reaction to the problem created by the Kaplan approach, see Recommendation Relating to Erroneously Ordered Disclosure of Privileged Information, 11 Cal. L. Revision Comm'n Reports 1163 (1973). See also 1974 Cal. Stats. ch. 227.

number of judges, district attorneys, lawyers, law professors, and law libraries throughout the state.¹² Thus, a large and representative number of interested persons are given an opportunity to study and comment upon the Commission's work before it is considered for enactment by the Legislature.¹³ The annual reports and the recommendations and studies of the Commission are republished in a set of hardcover volumes that is both a permanent record of the Commission's work and, it is believed, a valuable contribution to the legal literature of the state. These volumes are available at most county law libraries and at some other libraries. Some hardcover volumes are out-of-print, but others are available for purchase.¹⁴

REPORT ON STATUTES REPEALED BY IMPLICATION OR HELD UNCONSTITUTIONAL

Section 8290 of the Government Code provides:

The commission shall recommend the express repeal of all statutes repealed by implication, or held unconstitutional by the Supreme Court of the State or the Supreme Court of the United States.

Pursuant to this directive, the Commission has made a study of the decisions of the Supreme Court of the United States and of the Supreme Court of California handed down since the Commission's last Annual Report was prepared¹ and has the following to report:

(1) One decision of the United States Supreme Court holding a statute of this state unconstitutional has been found.

In Southland Corp. v. Keating, 104 S.Ct. 852 (1984), the court held Corporations Code Section 31512 in the Franchise Investment Law unconstitutional under the Supremacy Clause of the United States Constitution because it conflicts with Section 2 of the Federal Arbitration Act. The conflict arises because Section 31512, as interpreted by the California Supreme Court in Keating v. Superior Court, 31 Cal.3d 584, 645 P.2d 1192, 183 Cal. Rptr. 360 (1982), requires judicial consideration of claims under the Franchise Investment Law, whereas the Federal Arbitration

¹ This study has been carried through 36 Cal.3d 926 (Advance Sheet No. 27, October 2, 1984) and 104 S.Ct. 3593 (Advance Sheet No. 18, July 15, 1984).

Act mandates the validity of a contract provision requiring arbitration.

(2) No decision of the United States Supreme Court or the California Supreme Court holding a statute of this state repealed by implication has been found.

(3) No decision of the California Supreme Court holding statutes of this state unconstitutional has been found.

RECOMMENDATIONS

The Law Revision Commission respectfully recommends that the Legislature authorize the Commission to complete its study of the topics previously authorized for study (see "Calendar of Topics Authorized for Study" set out as Appendix I to this Report).

Pursuant to the mandate imposed by Section 8290 of the Government Code, the Commission recommends the repeal of the provisions referred to under "Report on Statutes Repealed by Implication or Held Unconstitutional," supra, to the extent that those provisions have been held unconstitutional.
