

Memorandum 93-19

Subject: 1993 Legislative Program

Attached to this memorandum is a chart showing the status of the Commission's 1993 legislative program. The following matters are noteworthy.

AB 22055 (Assembly Judiciary): Quieting Title to Personal Property

Unexpected opposition has surfaced to this recommendation previously thought to be noncontroversial. The opposition must be removed if the recommendation is to remain in the Committee bill. This matter is discussed in Memorandum 93-26.

AB 2209 (Assembly Judiciary): Parent and Child Relationship for Intestate Succession

AB 2209 was supposed to have contained the Commission's parent/child inheritance recommendation. It would have been the basis of the Judiciary Committee miscellaneous noncontroversial probate bill. Instead, AB 2209 as introduced contains old Commission recommendations limiting inheritance by in-laws and by remote relatives. See Exhibit pp. 1-6. These recommendations have not previously been enacted due to opposition of the heir tracers. The parent/child intestate succession material should be amended into AB 2209 in due course.

Special Needs Trusts

An inconsistency in the special needs trust legislation enacted last session on Commission recommendation has been called to our attention. The legislation requires that notice be given to various state officers when a guardian or conservator petitions for a special needs trust. Prob. Code § 3602(f). But no notice is required when there is no guardian or conservator and a guardian ad litem petitions for a special needs trust. Prob. Code § 3611.

There is no apparent reason for this inconsistency, and the staff proposes to add the missing language to Section 3611:

Prob. Code § 3611 (amended). Order of court

SEC. _____. Section 3611 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

3611. In any case described in Section 3610, the court making the order or giving the judgment referred to in Section 3600 shall order any one or more of the following:

(a) That a guardian of the estate or conservator of the estate be appointed and that the remaining balance of the money and other property be paid or delivered to the person so appointed.

(b) That the remaining balance of any money paid or to be paid be deposited with the county treasurer, provided that (1) the county treasurer has been authorized by the county board of supervisors to handle the deposits, (2) the county treasurer shall receive and safely keep all money deposited with the county treasurer pursuant to this subdivision, shall pay the money out only upon the order of the court, and shall credit each estate with the interest earned by the funds deposited less the county treasurer's actual cost authorized to be recovered under Section 27013 of the Government Code, (3) the county treasurer and sureties on the official bond of the county treasurer are responsible for the safekeeping and payment of the money, (4) the county treasurer shall ensure that the money deposited is to earn interest or dividends, or both, at the highest rate which the county can reasonably obtain as a prudent investor, and (5) funds so deposited with the county treasurer shall only be invested or deposited in compliance with the provisions governing the investment or deposit of state funds set forth in Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 16640) of Part 2 of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code, the investment or deposit of county funds set forth in Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 53600) of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code, or as authorized under Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 2400) of Part 4 of this code; or in an insured account in a financial institution in this state, or in a single-premium deferred annuity, subject to withdrawal only upon the authorization of the court, and that the remaining balance of any other property delivered or to be delivered be held on such conditions as the court determines to be in the best interest of the minor or incompetent person.

(c) That if notice of the time and place of the hearing is mailed to the State Director of Health Services, the Director of Mental Health, and the Director of Developmental Services at the office of each director in Sacramento at least 15 days before the hearing, that the remaining balance of any money be paid to a special needs trust established under Section 3604 for the benefit of the minor or incompetent person.

(d) If the remaining balance of the money and other property to be paid or delivered does not exceed twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) in value, that all or any part of the money and other property be held on such other conditions as the court in its discretion determines to be in the best interest of the minor or incompetent person.

(e) If the remaining balance of the money and other property to be paid or delivered does not exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000) in value and is to be paid or delivered for the benefit of a minor, that all or any part of the money and the other property be paid or delivered to a parent of the minor, without bond, upon the terms and under the conditions specified in Article 1 (commencing with Section 3400) of Chapter 2.

(f) If the remaining balance of the money or other property to be paid or delivered is to be paid or delivered for the benefit of the minor, that all or any part of the money and other property be transferred to a custodian for the benefit of the minor under the California Uniform Transfers to Minors Act, Part 9 (commencing with Section 3900).

Comment. Subdivision (c) of Section 3611 is amended to require notice to the Director of Health Services, the Director of Mental Health, and the Director of Developmental Services before a hearing under that subdivision. This parallels the comparable requirement under Section 3602(f).

This could be added to the Judiciary Committee probate bill (AB 2209) or another probate bill.

Respectfully submitted,

Nathaniel Sterling
Executive Secretary

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 2209, as introduced, Committee on Judiciary. Probate:
intestate succession.

Existing law prescribes the heirs of a decedent to whom the estate of the decedent that was not effectively disposed of by will passes.

This bill would delete certain of these provisions relating to the part of an estate not passing to the surviving spouse, and would delete provisions relating to a decedent who had a predeceased spouse.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: no.
State-mandated local program: no.

4 SEC. 2. Section 6402.5 of the Probate Code is 5 repealed.

6 6402.5. (a) For purposes of distributing real property
7 under this section if the decedent had a predeceased 8 spouse who died not more than 15 years before the 9 decedent and there is no surviving spouse or issue of the 10 decedent, the portion of the decedent's estate
11 attributable to the decedent's predeceased spouse passes
12 as follows:

13 (1) If the decedent is survived by issue of the 14 predeceased spouse, to the surviving issue of the 15 predeceased spouse; if they are all of the same degree of 16 kinship to the predeceased spouse they take equally; but 17 if of unequal degree those of more remote degree take in 18 the manner provided in Section 240.

19 (2) If there is no surviving issue of the predeceased
20 spouse but the decedent is survived by a parent or 21 parents of the predeceased spouse, to the predeceased
22 spouse's surviving parent or parents equally.

23 (3) If there is no surviving issue or parent of the 24 predeceased spouse but the decedent is survived by issue
25 of a parent of the predeceased spouse, to the surviving
26 issue of the parents of the predeceased spouse or either
27 of them, the issue taking equally if they are all of the same
28 degree of kinship to the predeceased spouse, but if of 29 unequal degree those of more remote degree take in the 30 manner provided in Section 240.

31 (4) If the decedent is not survived by issue, parent, or 32 issue of a parent of the predeceased spouse, to the next
33 of kin of the decedent in the manner provided in Section 34 6402.

35 (5) If the portion of the decedent's estate attributable
36 to the decedent's predeceased spouse would otherwise
37 escheat to the state because there is no kin of the 38 decedent to take under Section 6402, the portion of the 39 decedent's estate attributable to the predeceased spouse
40 passes to the next of kin of the predeceased spouse who

1 shall take in the same manner as the next of kin of the 2 decedent take under Section 6402.

3 (b) For purposes of distributing personal property
4 under this section if the decedent had a predeceased
5 spouse who died not more than five years before the 6 decedent, and there is no surviving spouse or issue of the 7 decedent, the portion of the decedent's estate
8 attributable to the decedent's predeceased spouse passes
9 as follows:

10 (1) If the decedent is survived by issue of the 11 predeceased spouse, to the surviving issue of the 12 predeceased spouse; if they are all of the same degree of 13 kinship to the predeceased spouse they take equally; but 14 if of unequal degree those of more remote degree take in 15 the manner provided in Section 240.

16 (2) If there is no surviving issue of the predeceased
17 spouse but the decedent is survived by a parent or 18 parents of the predeceased spouse, to the predeceased
19 spouse's surviving parent or parents equally.

20 (3) If there is no surviving issue or parent of the 21 predeceased spouse but the decedent is survived by issue
22 of a parent of the predeceased spouse, to the surviving
23 issue of the parents of the predeceased spouse or either
24 of them, the issue taking equally if they are all of the same
25 degree of kinship to the predeceased spouse, but if of 26 unequal degree those of more remote degree take in the 27 manner provided in Section 240.

28 (4) If the decedent is not survived by issue, parent, or 29 issue of a parent of the predeceased spouse, to the next
30 of kin of the decedent in the manner provided in Section 31 6402.

32 (5) If the portion of the decedent's estate attributable
33 to the decedent's predeceased spouse would otherwise
34 escheat to the state because there is no kin of the 35 decedent to take under Section 6402, the portion of the 36 decedent's estate attributable to the predeceased spouse
37 passes to the next of kin of the predeceased spouse who 38 shall take in the same manner as the next of kin of the 39 decedent take under Section 6402.

40 (c) For purposes of disposing of personal property

1 under subdivision (b), the claimant heir bears the burden
2 of proof to show the exact personal property to be 3 disposed of to the heir.

4 (d) For purposes of providing notice under any 5 provision of this code with respect to an estate that may 6 include personal property subject to distribution under 7 subdivision (b), if the aggregate fair market value of 8 tangible and intangible personal property with a written 9 record of title or ownership in the estate is believed in 10 good faith by the petitioning party to be less than ten 11 thousand dollars ($10,000), the petitioning party need not 12 give notice to the issue or next of kin of the predeceased 13 spouse. If the personal property is subsequently 14 determined to have an aggregate fair market value in 15 excess of ten thousand dollars ($10,000), notice shall be 16 given to the issue or next of kin of the predeceased spouse
17 as provided by law.

18 (e) For the purposes of disposing of property pursuant 19 to subdivision (b), "personal property" means that 20 personal property in which there is a written record of 21 title or ownership and the value of which in the aggregate 22 is ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or more.

23 (f) For the purposes of this section, the "portion of the 24 decedent's estate attributable to the decedent's
25 predeceased spouse" means all of the following property
26 in the decedent's estate:

27 (1) One-half of the community property in existence
28 at the time of the death of the predeceased spouse.

29 (2) One-half of any community property, in existence 30 at the time of death of the predeceased spouse, which was 31 given to the decedent by the predeceased spouse by way 32 of gift, descent, or devise.

33 (3) That portion of any community property in which 34 the predeceased spouse had any incident of ownership 35 and which vested in the decedent upon the death of the 36 predeceased spouse by right of survivorship.

37 (4) Any separate property of the predeceased spouse 38 which came to the decedent by gift, descent, or devise of 39 the predeceased spouse or which vested in the decedent 40 upon the death of the predeceased spouse by right of 1 survivorship.

2 ~~(g)~~ For the purposes of this section, quasi/community
3 property shall be treated the same as community 4 property.

5 ~~(h)~~ For the purposes of this section:

6 ~~(1)~~ Relatives of the predeceased spouse conceived
7 before the decedent's death but born thereafter inherit 8 as if they had been born in the lifetime of the decedent.

9 ~~(2)~~ A person who is related to the predeceased spouse
10 through two lines of relationship is entitled to only a 11 single share based on the relationship which would 12 entitle the person to the larger share.
