

First Supplement to Memorandum 93-51

Annual Report for 1993: Unconstitutional Statutes Report

Research is nearly complete on the part of the Annual Report for 1993 entitled "Report on Statutes Repealed by Implication or Held Unconstitutional." Only one reportable case was found — Alfredo A. v. Superior Court, 5 Cal. 4th 1, 849 P.2d 1330, 18 Cal. Rptr. 869 (1993) (exclusion of non-judicial days in calculation of time juvenile may be held after a warrantless arrest under Welf. & Inst. Code §§ 602 and 631 violates 4th Amendment of U.S. Constitution). However, the Supreme Court granted a rehearing in this case on July 15.

The material on pages 924-25 of the Annual Report draft attached to Memorandum 93-51 will be adjusted accordingly.

Respectfully submitted,

Stan Ulrich
Assistant Executive Secretary
