Dear Professor DeMouilly:

We are enclosing the 119 stencils comprising our study on Evidentiary Problems in Eminent Domain Cases. When you run the stencils we would appreciate your making an additional 15 copies for our files.

We will have for you shortly an addendum to our Moving Cost study.

We plan next to prepare an outline for an overall eminent domain statute. We expect this to give us a better framework within which to present the individual studies and to aid in avoiding contradictions and conflicts. If this does not meet with the approval of the Commission, will you kindly let us know.

Until the overall picture is considered, we request that you consider our recommendations as to the Evidence and Moving Cost statutes to be tentative only. We will undoubtedly find some changes desirable in light of our further studies.

Sincerely,

/s/ Robert Nibley
