Subject: Study 39.32-Wage Garnishment Procedure

Attached are two copies of the revised statute and Comments relating to wage garnishment procedure. The staff would like to have this recommendation approved for printing at the April meeting. Accordingly, we request that you mark your editorial changes on one copy of the draft (and the preliminary portion when you receive that) and turn it in to the staff at the April meeting.

The decisions made at the last meeting have required extensive revision of the prior draft. Because of the shortness of time between meetings we have not had time to have a completely clean draft typed. Also, there may be a few minor editorial revisions required. We will forward the preliminary portion of the recomendation to you in a supplement to this memorandum.

Two omissions in the attached draft are noted for your attention:
(1) The prior draft included an exemption for paid earnings. We have not included that exemption in the attached draft. We found that the special rules concerning exemptions for amounts due for delinquent support payments and the complications caused by the new wage assignment for support provisions would have made the provision for an exemption for paid earnings very complex. We plan to take up this exemption when we consider exemptions generally, Until then the federal exemption will apply.
(2) The prior drafi included a special exemption for retirement fund payments. We have not included that exemption in the attached draft for the same reason we did not include the exemption for paid earnings. The whole matter of retirement exemptions will be considered when we consider exemptions generally.

There is one change we recommend be made in the attached draft. Section 723.023 relates to the priority of orders generally. We suggest that in lieu of subdivision (b), the draft provide that the earnings withholding order indicate the time at which it is issued and that where two orders are served on the same day, the employer comply with the order first issued. This will avoid the need to indicate the date of the judgment on the order and would be a better rule in the opinion of the staff.

Respectfully submitted,

John H. DeMoully Executive Secretary

Code of Civil Procedure
§682 (technical amendment)

SECTION 1. Section 682 of the Code of Civil Procedure 1 amended to read:
682. The writ of execution must be issued in the name of the people, sealed with the seal of the court, and subscribed by the clerk or judge, and be directed to the sheriff, constable, or marshal, and it must intelligibly refer to the judgment, stating the court, the county, and in municipal and justice courts, the judicial district, where the judgment is entered, and if it be for money, the amount thereof, and the amount actually due thereon, and if made payable in a specified kind of money or currency, as provided in Section 667, the execution must also state the kind of money or currency in which the judgment is payable, and must require the officer to whom it is directed to proceed substantially as follows:

1. If it be against the property of the judgment debtor, it must require such officer to satisfy the judgment, with interest, out of the personal property of such debtor, on is it is egringt the earningt of suth debter, stueh lewy whall be mute in eecerdance with Seetion 608 m and if sufficient personal property cannot be found, then out of his real property; or if the judgment be a lien upon real property, then out of the real property belonging to him on the day when the abstruct of judgment was filed as provided in Section 674 of this code, or at any time thereafter.
2. If it be against real or personal property in the hands of the personal representatives, heirs, devisees, legatees, tenants, or trustees, it must require such officer to satisfy the judgment, with interest, out of such property.
3. If it be issued on a judgment made payable in a specified kind of money or currency, as provided in Section 667, it must also require such officer to satisfy the same in the kind of money or currency in which the judgment is made payable, and such officer must refise payment in any other kind of money or currency; and in case of levy and sale of the property of the judgment debtor, he must refuse payment from any purchaser at such sale in any other kind of money or currency than that specified in the execution. Any such officer collecting money or currency in the manner required by this chapter, must pay to the plaintiff or party entitled to recover the same, the same kind of money or currency received by him, and in case of neglect or refusal to do so, he shall be liable on his official bond to the judgment creditor in three times the amount of the money so collected.
4. If it be for the delivery of the possession of real or personal property, it most require such officer to deliver the possession of the same, describing it, to the party entitled thereto, and nay at the sume time require such officer to matisfy any cost, damages, rents, or profits recovered by the same judgment, out of the personal property of the person against whom it was rendered, and the value of the property for which the judgment was rendered to be specified therein if a delivery thereof cannot be had; and if sufficient personal property cannot be found, then ous of the real property, as provided in the first subdivision of this section.

723.011. As used in this chapter:
(a) "Earnings" means compensation payable by an empioyer to an employee for personal services performed by such employee whether denominated as wages, salary, commission, bonus, or oherwise.
(b) "Employes" means a public officer and any individual who performs services subject to the control of an mphoreveto towin what shall be done and how it shall be done

Comment. Section tamen states definitions used in applying this chapter. This chapler deals only with the garnishment or withholding of earnings for services rendered in an employer-employee relationship. See Section 723.020. Subdivisions (b) and (c) are based on the common law requirements for such relationship. It should be noted that an employee may be given considerable discretion and still be an employee as long is his employer fons tho legal right to control both method and result. However, no attempt is nade here to incorporate specific case law arising out of situations involving problems and issues unrelated to the purposes and procedures relevant in applying this chapter. "Employee" includes both private and pubhe employecs. See subdivisions (b), (c), and (f). See also Section 710 .
"Earnings" cmbraces ail remuneration "whether denominated its wages, satary, commission, bonus, or otherwise." The infinite variety of forms which such compensation can take precludes a more precise statutory definition. Accordingly, the Judicial Counel will be required in some efremnstances to provide by rule, consistent with the statutory definition, whether certain items are an employee's earoings and, if so, the earmings period to which such earnings are attributable. See Section 723.150. One such item will probubly be vacation credits or puy. Different employers will treat this form of compensition diferentiy. Generally speaking, however, vacation pay should be subject to withholding only when paid, ie, when the employee goes on vacation or terminates his employment in circumstances where he has the right to be paid his acerned benefits.

Unlike the definition of "earnings" used in Tithe III of the federal Consumer Credit Protection Act of 1968, the term used here does not include "pertodic payments pursuant to a pension or retirencat program." Ex amptions aprlicable to such payments are provided by varioun sections of the Calffornia atatutes. Thear statutes apgy uness greater exemption Is avalibie under the federal Consumer Credit Frotection Act of 3960 .

This chapter has no effect on judgment collection procedures that do not involve the withholding of an employee's earnings. See, e.g., Section 690.18 (retirement furds).

However, where an employee's earnings are sought to be garnished, the creditor must comply with the provisions of this chapter. This rule applies to public entities as well as private persons. This chapter, for example, imposes limitations on the state's ability to garnish wages for tax delinguencies pursuant to its warrant and notice procedures. See Article 4 (commencing with Section 723.070),

The Enployees' Eamings Protection Law has no effect on matters that are preernpted by the federal law, such as federal bankruptcy proceeding -including proceedings under Chapter XIII of the Bankruptoy Act-and Eederal tax collection procedures. E.g., InT, ReV Come of \(1954, $ 6334\) (c). Code $ 1158,12420 ; Labor Cone sis 224, 300. Finally, this chapter does not affect the procedures for the examination of a debtor of the judgment debtor provided in Chapter 2 (Sections 717-723) of this part. See Comment to Section 723.154.

(4) The date of termination specified in a notice of termination served on the employer by the ievying ofelicer.
(b) Except as otherwise provided by statute, an employer shall withald the amounts required by an earnings withholding order from all carnings of the employee payable for any pay period of such employee which ends during the withholding perioi.
(c) An empioyer is not liable for any amounts withheld and paid over to the lewying officer purbuent to an earninga withholding order prior to service upon the employer pursuant to paragraph (3) or (4) of subdivision (a).

Commeni. Section 723.022 states the basic rules governing the employer's duty to withhold pursuant to an earnings withholding order.

Subdivision (b) requires the employer to withhold from all earnings of an employee payable for any pay period of such employee which ends during the "withholding period." See Section 723.150 (Judicial Council authorized to adopt rules regarding the pay period to which commissions, bonuses, and the like are attributable). The "withholding period" is described in subdivision (a). It should be noted that only earnings for a pay period ending during the withholding period are subject to levy. Eamings for prior periods, even though still in the possession of the employer, are not subiect to the order. An employer may not however, defer or accelerate any payment of earmings to an employee with the intent to defeat or diminish the satisfaction of a judgment pursuant to this chapter. See Section 723.133.

Comment. Section 729,005 specifies when the amount a withheld pursuant to an order must be paid over to the levying officer. Regaralies whether payment is required, the omplayar is required to and an employer's return to the levying officer. See Sections 723.104 and 723.126 .

\section*{§723.026. Levying officer's duty to pay over amounts received and make retire on writ}
723.026. (a) The levying officer shall receive and account for all amounts received pursuant to Section 723.025 . He shall pay each amount so received over to the person entitled thereto within 15 days after its receipt,
(b) Notwithstanding Section 683, where an earnings withholding order has been served prior to the time the writ of execution is made returnable under subdivision (a) oi Section 683, the levying offteer may, in his discrethon, abe has return un the writ of exeaution at efther of the following times:
(1) The return on the writ of execution may be made after the earnings withholding order terminates and the amount witheld by the employer has been paid ofer to the levying officer.
(2) The raturn on the writ of execution may be made at a tire earlier than the time apecified in paragraph (1). In such case, the Issuance of the earninge witholding order and the date of its gervice on the employer shall be indicated on the writ, or separately and attached thereto, and a supplemental return on the earnings withholding order shall be made at the time provided in paragraph (1) in the same manner as the writ was returned.
(c) Nothing in subdivision (b) extends the time within which a levy may be made on the writ of execution pursuant to which the earnings withholding order was 1asued.

Comment. Subdivision (a) of Section 723.026 continues a requirement of subdivision (c) of former Section 682.3. Subdivision (b) permits the levying officer either to return the writ of execution at the time provided in paragraph (2) or sfter the earnings witholding order expires. See also Section 683. Ordinarily, the levying officer will dalay making his return of the writ of execution until the earnings witholding order expires so he can avoid the need to make a supplemental return. However, the fudgment creditor may desire to secure another writ \(s 0\) he can levy on property other than earninge after the time for levy of the writ of execution under which the earnings withholding order was issued has expired. In such a case, the levying officer can return the writ of execution and make a supplemental return on the earnings withholding order later, thus permitting the creditorto obtain another writ of -19- (c) makes clear that subdivision (b) does not extent the time within which a levy may be made on the writ of execution. A levy on the earnings of the employee or on other property mist be made within the time otherwise prescribed by law. See Section \(763.103(c)\).
5723.027 . Creditor required to notify levying officer when judgment satisfied: notice of termination
723.027. If the judgment pursuant to which the earning withholding order is lasted las patigfled before the order otherwise terminates pursuant to section 723.022, the judgment creditor shall promptly notify the levying officer who shall promptly terminate the order by serving a notice of termination on the employer.

Comment. Section 723.027 requires the judgment creditor to give notice of satisfaction of the judgment to the levying officer if the earnings withholding order has not yet terminated. See Section 723.022.

In some cases, the employer will be aware of the satisfaction by virtue of having himself withheld the amount necessary to satisfy the judgment. See Section 723.022(a) (2). In this case, Section 723.027 does not apply. However, the judgment may be satisfied by additional payments from the debtor or through other debt collection procedures instituted by the creditor. If this is the case, Section 723.027 applies, and the creditor has the duty to notify the levying officer promptly of the satisfaction so that the levying offices may serve a notice of termingtion on the employer. Service of the notice of termination is to be made on the person, and at the address, Indicated in the employer's return. See Sections 723.101 (c) and \(723.126(\mathrm{~b})(5)\). As Wo the general duty of \(s\) creditor to furnish a debtor a satisfaction of judgment, see section 675.
§ 723.028. Withholding order for costs and interest

See Section 723.102. It is not entitled to any priority over the orders of other creditors, and the creditor is required to comply with the waiting period prescribed by Section 723.107 .
§ 723.029. Lien created by service of earnings withholding order
723.029. Service of an earnings withholding order creates a lien upon the earnings required to be withheld pursuant to such order. Such lien shall continue for a period of one year from the date such earnings became payable.

Comment. Section 123.029 provides a special rule for the commencemont of a lien of execution on earnings. Compare subdivisions (c) and (d) of Section 688 which provide that the lev, under a writ of execution creates a lien on the property levied upon for a period of one year from the date of the issuance of the execution. Service of an earnings withholding order is a form of levy of execution. See Section 723.021. However, the lien on each tmotaliment mons for a year from the date the earnings became payable. This rule is comparable to that provided for judgment liens for alimony and child support payments by Section 674.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

The purpose of Section 723.029 is to protect the employer against stale chains and to give the levying creditor priority over competing clams by third parties where the priority questions are not already regulated by other provisions of this chapter. See Section 723.023 ; see also Labor Code Section 300. For example, if installments are not promptly paid, competing clams may arise under conflict-of-iaw's rules (see Sanders \(v\). Armour Fertilizer Works, 292 USS. 190 (1934) or in supervening proceedings under the Bankruptcy Act ($67(a)).

\section*{§723.030. Withholding groer for aupgort}
723.030. (a) A "withhoiding order for pupport" is an earringe withholding order on a wilt of execution issued upon a judgment for aelinguent amounts payabie upon a judgment for the support of a cinild, or sponse ar armer spouse, of the judgment debtor, including ressonable attorney's fees allowed in connection with the obtaining of such judgrent. A withholding order for support shall be denoted as such on its fact.
(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter;
(1) An employer shali continue to withhold pursuant to a Withholding order for support until the earliest of the dates specified in paragraphs (2), (3), or (4) of subdiviaion (a) of Section 723.022, except that an Withholding order for support shall automatically terminate one year after the employee is no longer employed by the employer.
(2) A withholding order for support shall be given priority over any other earnings withholding order. An employer upon whom a withholdiag order for support is served shail withhold and pay over earnings of the employee purauant to such order even though be is already required to comply with another earnings withholding order.
(3) Subject to paragraph (2) and to Article 3 (commencing with Section 723.050), an employer shall withhold earnings pursuant to both a withholding order for support and another earnings withholding order simuitaneously.

Comment. Section (23.030 provides specien rules for an earnings witholding order to enfore a jucgment for Gelinquent support payments for a chat on apouse on former apouse of the fudgnent debtor. An equatige whenohtus order for supports is given a different effect than other witholiong orders: the is effective untll the employer has withend the full anourt spectifed in the order or he is served with s nottce of terminetion, in which case the date of termatior. will be apecufied in the actice. See subdiviston (b)(1). Thus, the ditiholding order for support doen not termante 130 day afiver service (it may, of course, be modified). The witholding order for support is subject to special exemption rulea (See Bection 723.052). Ex Bien when in effect, it does not necessarily preciude withoiding on either a prior or subsequent order. If not earlier terminated, the order automatically terminates one year after the employee ia no longer employed by the employer. Thus, for example, if the employee is lald off but returna to work for the same employer within one year from the bate of the layoff, the employer must withhold pursuant to the withoiding order for support. On the other hand, if the erployee docs not return to work until more than one year fron the date he was ladd oft, the order explres at the end of the year, and nothing is withheld pursuant to the order when the employee returns to work.

The earnings wthhoiding order for support is given priority over any other earnings withholding order. But see Section \(/ 23.031\) (wage assignment for support given priority). However, a prior earnings withholding order remains in effect, and a judgment creditor may still obtain an earnings withholding order even where there is already \(\begin{gathered}\text { in effect a prior earnings withholding }\end{gathered}\) order for support. Thus, where there are faororders it effect-one for support and one for another nobligation-the wending amount with eld for support is deducted from the employees earrings fret. The amount, if any, that may be with eld pursuant to the onernoter is detemmed by subtracting the amount withheld pursuant to the withholding order for support from the amon that otherwise monk be withed pursuant to the other, h order. See Sections 723.077 and \(\% 23.050\) and the Comments thereto.

(b) An otter hade pursuant tr e Section 4701 of the Civil Code shall be given priority over any caroling athbolding order as provided in that section. An employer upon whom an order made pursuant to Section 4701 is served shall withhold and pay over the earnings of the employee parsuant to such order even though the employer is already required to cowply with an earning withholding order.
(c) Subject to subdivisions (b), (d), and (c), an employer shall withhold earnings of an employee pursuant to both an order made under Section 4701 of the Civil code and an earnings withholding order.
(d) The employer shall withhold pursuant to an earnings withholding order only to the extent that the sum of the amount withheld parBunt to the order made under Section 4701 of the Civil Code and the amount with eld pursuant to the earnings withholding order does not exceed the amount that may be withheld under Articie 3 (commencing with Section 723.050).

Comment. Section 723.031 states the effect of a wage assignment for support made pursuant to Section 4701 of the Civil Code on an earnings withholding order.

The rule stated in subdivision ( 0 ) of Section 723.031 is required to avoid conflict with the federal Consumer Creditor Protection Act. That act requires that the amount withheld purmant to a wage assignment inder Section 4701 of the Civil Code be inciuded in deternining whether any amount may be witheld pursuant to an earnings mithholding order on an ordinary judgment. See Bubdivision ( \(c\) ) of Section 302 of the act ("The term 'garnishment' means any legal or equitable procedure through which the earnings of any individual are requited to be wthhetd for payment of any debt."). Under subdivision (e), the amount that could be withheld pursuant to an earninge whthholding order for taxes would be computed in the same mannet as for an ordinary eamings withholding ordet using the table prepared pursuant to Section 723.074 unless the earninge withholding order for taxes is obtalned under Section 723.076.

Coament. Section 723.050 provides the standard exemption applicable to all earmings withholding orders other thar orders issued on a judgment for delfrquent anounts payable on a fudgment for child or epouaal support (Sectlont 723.052 ) or certain orders for taxes (Section 723.076). See alao Sections 723.031 (wage agaiguments for support), 723.074 and 723.076 (taxes). See aiso jection \%a3.051 (exenption obtained by special hardship showing).

Section 723.050 reflecta poliefes ghthat to (those underlying Sectims 302 and 303 of the federal Consumer Credit Protection Act. 15 U.S.C. 今\% 1678 -1673 (1970). Thus, in determining the amount of the debtor"s earnirgs subject to garnishrnent, undes both this section nod the federal law, certain basic amounts withheld pursuant to law are first deducted. However, federn law tequires the dedvetion of sll amounts actually "roguired by baw to be withbeld." For example, the anount actually withheld for foderal income tax purposes from the debtor's eatmings is deducted in determining his earnings subject to garnishment "cuatiabie earnings"). Thus, a debtor claiming a greater number of exeraptions wil have less income withheld and therefore more subject to garnishment. This produces the anomalous situation that a debtor with a large family and greater needs may have more eamings garnished than a single debtor with the sane gross income and with more limited needs. Moreover, the federal statute does not elaborate upon what are considered to be "amounts required by law to be withheid." To alleviate these problems, Section 723.050 specifies whibeld for fodordand state income taxes, nocial security, and state dathbitymanace beeparagraphs (1)-(4) of subdivision (a). Curconely, the socia security tax rate is \(5.83 \%\) (INT. REN. COOR OF \(1454,431 \%\) ), the state disability insisance rate is \(1 \%\) availabte earmurg is fixed senording to a tormula and is not necessandy the amount achualy deducted from the debtor's earnings. One of the mujee benefits of this scheme is that it permifs tables lo be prepared which indicate the exact amount to be withheld hem any given amount of grosy earnings. Subdivision ( \(d\) ) tierecta the ludicial Council to prepare tables which will be disfittuto to cturbyers required to wthotod earnings. See Section 23. Wh(b). A: employer therefore generally need not make any computations but will shagly withold pursuant to an earnings withholding order the amount listed th the tables provided his.

# Both the federal scheme and section 723.050 make some provi-) (sions for the effect of inflation. The federal statute, however, merely provides a floor based on the Federal minimum wage. That is, the federal statute does not permit the creditor to reduce the debtor's weekly disposable earnings below an amount equal to 30 times the federal minimum wage. As the federal ramimum wage is increated, this floor is increased accordingly. (Under the federal law in effect on January 1, 1976, if a debtor's disposable earaings are less than \($ 69\) per week, no garnishment is permited; if his disposable carnings are between \($ 69\) and \($ 92\), all his distosable earnings above \($ 69\) are subject to gamishmentit ins dispusable eamings ate more than \($ 92\) a week, 25 pertent of his disposable eurnings are subject to garnishment.) This thoor is not an exemption excluded from every debtotit eatnisas. In concrast, paragraph (5) of gubdiviaion (a) provides a basic mintman exempton that is always deducted in deternining available arniag. Moreover, subdiviaion (b) providea a formula that precludes witholding less than \($ 5\). From \($ 10\) to \($ 45\) avallable earninge, a 50 -percent rule is amplicable and, above \($ 45\) avallable earnings, 25 percent of the avallable earninge may be witheid. Cf. Section 723.074 (state taxes).

Where a wage asstgnment for support under Section 4701 of the Civil Code is in effect, the amount wheltheld from the debtor's earnings pursuant to such wage assigament is deducted from the amount that otherwise would be withheld pursuant to the withholding table prepared by the Judicial. 723.052. (a) Except as provided in Bubduvision (b), ondy one-half of the earninge of che fudgment debtor plus any amotnt witheid from the fudgment debtor's earndigs pursuant to a wage asalgrinent under Section 4701 of the Civil Code is exempt from levy under this chapter where the earaings withiolding order is a whtholding order for support under Section 723.030
(b) Upon motion of any. Interested party, the court shall make an equitable division of the fudgrent debtor's earnings that takes into account the needs of all the pergons the judgment debtor is requiced to support and shall effectuate such division by an order determinting the amount to be withheld from the judgmant debtor's earnings purguant to the withholding order for support.

Comment. Section 723.052 retains the substance of the former law applicable to a wage garnishment on a fudgment for deilnquent amounts payable for child or spousal support. Since the federal limitations do not apply to such a gernishment (subdiviaion (b) of Section 303 of the federal Consumer Credit Protection Act), this case was covered by the exemption of one-half of the judgment debtor's earnings provided by aubdiviaion (a) of former Section 690.6. Section 723.052 makes ciear that, In applying the 50 -percent-of-earnings exemption, the amount withheld frote the earnings of the fudgment debtor purguant to a wage assignment for aupport under Section 4701 of the Civil Code is inciuded in computing the 50 percent of the fudgment debtor's earntngs that may be withneid. For examm ple, if 30 percent of the fudgment debtor's earnings are withheld pursuant to a wage asaignment for support, an additional 20 percent may be witheid pursuant to the earnings withholdang order on the writ issued on the judgment for delinquent amounte payeble for child or spousal support.

Subdivision (b) makes the 50mpercent-of-earnings standard provided by subdivision (a) Bubject to the power of the court to make an order that more or less of the eanting of whe fudgment debtor be withtreld where the earnings withtolding otder is on a writ lesuef on a fudgment for delinquent amounts payable fot child ar spousal support. Upon the motion of any interested party, the court ahall make ari equitable diviaion of the fudgment debtor's earntngs between, for example, his first wife and children and himself and hig seconce family. This continues the zubstance of prior law. See Rankins ys Eanking. 52 Cal. App. 2d 231, 126 p. 20 125 (1942). For rules relatiris to the priority to be given a withholding order for support, see Section 723.030.

\section*{Article 4. Earnings Withholding Orders for Taxes}

\section*{§ 723.070. Definitions}
723.070. As used in this article:
(a) "State" means the State of California and includes any officer, department, board, or agency thereof.
(b) "State tax liablity" means a liability, including any penalties and accrued interest and costs, for which the state would be authorized to issue (1) a warrant pursuant to Section 1785 of the Unemployment Insurance Code or Section 6776, 7881, \(9001,16071,18906,28191,30341\), or 32365 of the Revenue and Taxation Code or (2) a notice of levy pursuant to Section 1755 of the Unemployment Insurance Code or (3) a notice or order to withhold pursuant to Section 6702, 7851, 8952, 11451, 16101, 18817, 26132,30311 , or 32381 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

Comment. Section 723.070 provides definitions for terms used in this article.
"State" means the state or any agency thereof. Where the term "state" is used in this article, it refers to the particular state agency that administers the particular tax law under which recovery of the delinquent tax is sought. See Section \(723.011(d)\).
The definition of "state tax liability" makes this article apply to those tax liabilities for which a warrant may be issued pursuant to Section 1785 of the Unemployment Insurance Code (unemployment compensation contribution) or Section 6776 (sales and use taxes), 7881 (vehicle fuel ticense tax), 9001 (use fuel tax), 16071 (gift tax), 18906 (personal income tax), 26191 (bank and corporation taxes), 30341 (cigarette tax), or 32365 (alcoholic beverage tax) of the Revenue and Taxation Code or for which a notice of levy may be given pursuant to Section 1755 of the Unemployment hnsurance Code (anemployment compensation contributions) or for which a notice or order to withhold may be given pursuant to Section 6702 (sats and use tax). 7831 (vehicle fuel license taxi, \(8955^{x}\) (use hel tax), 11451 (private car tax, 16101 (gift tax), 18817 (per onal income tax), 26132 (bank and corporation taxes), 3031] (cigarette tax), or 3231 (alohntie beverage tax) of the Revenue and Taxation Cods.
$723.071. Exeissive procedure for witholding earnings for state 10. liobility 7220.unt. This chapter do: not limit the state's right to collect a state tux lubility except that (a) no levy upon eamings of an employee held by an employer is effective unless such levy is made in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and (b) the methods of collection referred to in subdivision (b) of Section 783.070 may not be used to require an employer to withhold earnings of an employee in payment of a state tax liability.
Comment. Section 723.071 makes clear that the levy procedure for withholding earnings of an employee for the collection of state tax liability provided in the Employees' Earnings Protection Law is exclusive. The authorization, for example, to direct orders to third persons who owe the taxpayer money found in Section 18817 (personal income tax) and Section 26132 (bank and corporation tax) of the Revenue and Taxation Code is limited by Section 723.071. This article deals, however, only with levy on earnings to collect certain state taxes. The collection of federal taxes is accomplished pursuant to federal law and cannot be limited by state law. See Int. Rev. CODE of 1954, & 6334 (c), As to other taxes not within the scope of this article, the tax obligation must be reduced to judgment, and the taxing authority may then obtain an earnings withholding order like any other creditor; such order is treated the same as any other earnings withholding order, and this article does not apply.
§ 723.072. Withholding order for taxes; notice and opportunity for review of liability before order issued 723.072. (a) A "withholding order for taxes" is an earnings withholding order issued pursuant to this article to collect a state tax liability and shall be denoted as a withholding order for taxes on its face.
(b) A withholding order for taxes may only be dssued where:
(1) The existence of the state tax liability appears on the face of the taxpayer's return, including a case where after moors in mathenaticol computations in the return hatye beercrateded; ol
(2) The whe tax thbiby has born asessed or Etermitect, as protere ko the Mevgue and Takation Code of Cammaymont masuranct Cote, and the tappaye hud notice of he proged assesment or the propesed awsonent of deternitution reviewed by approprute adminatnave prucetures, whether on not he took ndvantuse of that opportunity.
(c) In any asse where a state tar hophlty has been 1977 , and the state terermines that the tequirements of subdivision (b) thay not bave been satistied, the state may send a "Notice of Proposed lssuance of Withholding Order for "paes" to the tanpayer at his last known address by fret-chas mal, postage prepaid. The notice shall advise the taxpayer that le may tave the assessment or determination reviewed by appropriate administrative procedures and how he may obtain such a review. If the taxpayer is sent such a notice and requests such a review within 30 days from the date the notice was mailed to him, the state shall provide appropriate administrative procedures. for review of the assessment or determination and shall not issue the withhoiding order for taxes until the administrative review procedure is completed. If the taxpayer is sent such a notice and does not request such a review within 30 days from the date the notice was mailed to him, the state may issue the withholding order for taxes.
(d) A withholding order for taxes may be issued whether or not the state tax liability has been reduced to judgment.

\begin{abstract}
Commant. Section 723.072 provides that no withholding order for taxes may be issued unless the state tax liability either appears on the face of the taxpayer's tax return or has been determined in an administrative proceeding in which the taxpayer had rotice and an opportunity for administrative review. See Greene v. Franchise Tax Board, 27 Cal. App.3d 38, 103 Cal. Rptr. 483 (1972). However, no review of the taxpayer's tax liability is permitted in couri proceedings under this chapter. See Section 723.082.

Few state tax liabilities are reduced to judgment. Subdivision (d) recognizes this.

\section*{§ 723.073 . Provisions governing tex withhelding orders}
723.073. Except as otherwise provided in this article, the provisions of this chapter govern the procedures and proceedings concerning a withholding order for taxes.
For the purposes of this atticle, a reference in this chapter to a "levying officer" shail be deemed to mean the specific state agency seeking to collect a state tax liablifty under this article.

Comman. Section 72 1.073 makes clear that the provisions of this chupter governing eaming: witholding orders are appheabic to withholding orters for taxes except to the extent that this article contains spectal provisions applicable to such uder.
§ 723.074 . Agency hased withbolding order for taxes

(c) Uneas a lewar monmet spechitod in the order, the amount to be withheld pursuant to an order issued under this section is two times the maximum amount that may be withheld under Section 723.050, except that the state may require that ten dollars ($10) be withheld if, the amount of the taxpayer's earninge is sufficient that a portion of his earnings would be withheld pursuant to Section 18806 of the Revenue and Taxation Code if such eamings were subject to withholding under that section but the amount of his eamings is not sufficient to permit withholding under Section 723.050 . In determining whether the earnings are sufficient so that a portion of the earnings would be withheld pursuant to Section 18806 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, the table issued under that section applicable to a single person without allowance for additional exemptions shail be used. The state shall prepare withholding bables for determining the amount to be withheld from the earnings of employees for representative pay periods pursuant to orders issued under this section. The tables may prescribe the amounts to be witheld according to reasonable earning brackets. The tables shall be used to determine the amount to be withheld in all cases where the tables permit computation of the amount to be withheid.

Comment. Section 723.074 specifies the procedure to be followed when the state taxing agency itself issues the withholding order for taxes. In such case, no application to a court for the order is required. Under an order issued pursuant to Section \(7 \mathbf{2 3} 0.04\), the employer may be required to withhold not more than twice the amount permitted to be withheld pursuant to Section 723.050 (except that \($ 10\) is required to be witheld in certain instances where the umount of earnings would not be sufficient to require withholding under Section 723.050). The state laxing agency provides the employer with withholding tables preseribing the amount to be withheld pursuant to orders issued under this seation. The amount by the employer unless the order itself specifies a lesser amount or the amont to be whthek is reduced purstant to subdivision (c) or (d) of Section 123.075 . Within days from the date of service, the employer shall deliver to the texpayer a copy of the ordor and the notice, except that immediate delivery shall be made where a jeopardy withholding order for taxes has been served. If the taxpayer is no longer employed by the employer and the employer does not owe him any earnings, the employer is not required to make such delivery.
(c) The state shall provide for an administrative hearing to reconsider or modify the amount to be withheld pursuant to the withholding order for taxes, and the taxpayer may request such a hearing at any time after service of the order. If the taxpayer requests a hearing, the hearing shall be provided, and the matter shall be determined, within 15 days after the request is received by the state.
(d) After the state has made its determination under subdivision (c), the taxpayer may file a claim of exemption to claim the exemption provided by Section 723.051 , in the manner provided in Section 723.105 , with a court of record in his county of residence. No fee shall be charged for fling such claim of exemption. After hearing, the court may modify the withholding order for taxes previously issued, but in no event shall the amount required to be withheld be less than that permitted to be withheld under Section 723.050.
(e) The employer is not subject to any civil liablility for failure to comply with subdivision (b). Nothing in this subdivision limits the power of a court to hold the employer in contempt of court for failure to comply with subalvision (b).

Comment. Section 723.075 requires service of a copy of the order and a notice informing the employce of the effect of the order and his right to hearings and other remedies. (b) The state may, at any time, apply to a court of record in the county where the taxpayer was last known to reside for the issuance of a withholding order for taxes under this section to colled a state tax liability.
(c) The application for the order shall include an affidavit stating that the state has served upon the taxpayer both of the following:
(1) A copy of the application.
(2) A notice informing the taxpayer of the purpose of the application and his right to appear in regard to the application.
(d) Upon the filing of the application, the court shall immediately set the matter for hearing and the court clerk shall send a notice of the time and place of the hearing by first-class mail, postage prepaid, to the state and the taxpayer. The notice shall be deposited in the mail at least 10 days before the day set for the hearing.
(e) After bearing, the court shall issue a withholding order for taxes which shall require the taxpayer's employer to withhoid and pay over all earnings of the taxpayer other than that amount which the taxpayer proves is exempt under Section 723.051 , but in no event shal the amount to be withheld be less than that permitted to be withheld under Section 723.050.
(f) The state may issue a temporary earnings holding order, which shall be denoted as such on its face, in any case where the state interds to apply for a withholding order for taxes under this section and has determined that the collection of the state tax liability will be jeopardized in whole or in part if the temporary earnings holding order is not issued. The temporary earnings holding order shall be directed to the taxpayer's employer and shall require hirn to retain in his possession or under his control all or such portion of the earnings of the taxpayer then or thereater due as is specified in the order. Together with the temporary earnings holding order, the state shall serve upon the employer an additional cony of the order aud a notice informing the taxpayer of the effect of the order and of his right to remedies provided in this chapter. Sections '723.3 13 and 723.154 apply to temporary earnings holding orders issued under this section.

Comment. Section 723076 pries apredure shelby the taxing age ne can wotan an ores, after court hearing, that requires the employer to withhold ail of the employee's earnings in excess of the amount asential for the support of the taxpayer and his family. An order may be obtained under Section 723.076 that requires the withholding of more than the amount that the state taxing agency could require the employer to withhold pursuant to an order issued by the agency itself under Section 723.074. This grant of :authority is not intended as a directive that such authority be used generally. This extreme remedy could be harsh in its application and should be used sparingly. The state taxing agency is always entitled to a withholding order in an amount not less than the amount permitted to be withheld under Section 723.050 even though there is a court heating on the employee's claim that all of his family. Provision is made in subdivision (f) of Section 723.076 for a temporary order directing the employer to hold any earnings of the employer then or thercufter due. Such orders should be used only in mare and unusual cases.

\section*{§723.077. Priority of orders}
723.077. (a) Subject to subdivision (b), an employer upon- whom a withholding order for taxes is served shall withhold and pay over earnings of the employee pursuant to such order and shall cease to withhold earnings pursuant to any priork order except that a withholding order for support shall be given priority as provided in Section 723.030. When an employer is required to cease withholding earnings pursuant to a priorhorder, he shall notify the judgment creditor who obtained the priororder that a supervening withholding order for taxes is in effect.
(b) An employer wall met whohbeanimgs of an employee pursuant wo whtholding order for taxes if a prior withholding order for tare is br ohoct and, in such case, the subsequent whomithy order for taxes is ineffective.

Comment, Section 20 m & b , why fore proxy a tax wi holding order is to is e dive. wt elect to other earnings withholding orders. A whinging one for taxes takes privity over any prorlonder overt one for support of another withboldmeg order for taxes As intimated in the Comment to oherforder. Thus, where a theta sa ta in effect and a subsequent tax order is recessed, the morphy will continue to Trifhold rapport, and the amount withed pursuant to the tax order will be reduced by the amount with eld pursuant to the withholding order for supports. Similarly where it ax order is in effect and reppore is served, the swat order again takes priority. See the Comments to Sections 723.030 and 723.050. However, where the prionforder is for the collection of a debt other than for taxes orsupport, the tax order displaces the priorforder, and the employer must withhold only pursuant to the tax order until the tax debt is completely paid. If the earnings withholding order for taxes is satisfied during the withholding period of the prior border (Section 723.022), the employer must then again withhold pursuant to the priorforder. Where there is a prior tax order in effect, the second tax order is ineffective; the employer may not withhold pursuant to the second order and must promptly notify the agency which issued or obtained the second order of the reason for his action. See Section 723.104 (b).

As to the effect of a wage assignment for support under Section 4701 of the Civil Code, see Section 723.031 (e). As indicated in the ornament bo Section 723.031 , s. wage assignment for support under Civil Code Section 470 . takes priority over any earnings withoiding order. Thus where a wage assignment for support is in effect and a subsequent tax order is received, the employer will continue to with old pursuant to the wage assignment, and the amount withed pursuant s to the tax order will be reduced by the amount whinelu pursuant to the wage assignat for support.

Similarly, where a tex order ts in effect and a wage assignment for support is served, the wage assignment this priority. See the Comments to Sections 723.031 and 7a3.020.

Comment. Subdipision (a) as Section 723.102 requires a Judgment creditor to apply for an earnings witholding order to the levying officer in the county whare the order is to be gexved. As a prerequisite \(1 / 2=\) to applying for the earnings whholding orcer, the fudgent creditor must have obtalined the issuance of a writ of execution to the county where the order is to be served. See Section ?23.101 (place where service may be made). For the required content of the application, see Section 729.12 i . An earnings witholdrid order shall be promptly Lssued on the ex parte application of a fadgment creditor. The debtor may clain an exemption pmsuant to section 723.105 , have such order modified or temilnaled, and aven recover frota the creditor amounts withheld and patd over pursuant to such ordex; but thig boes not affect the intial fssuance of the orter. The earaings withholing order will be effective only if served before the time for the return of the writ under subdivision (a) of Section 683 has expired. See Section 723.103 (c).

For apecial provisions regarding the issuance of a withholding order for taxes, see Articie 4 (commencing with Section 723.070). §723.103. Service of order and Information on employer 723.103. (a) The levying officer shall aerve upon the designated employer all of the following:
(2) The form for the employer's return.
(3) The notice to employee of earnings whtholding order in the form prescribed pursuant to Section 723.120 and 723.122 .
(b) At the time he makes service phatant to subdivision (a), the fratut cirar stall provide the employer with a copy of the employer's intructions and withbolding table refereet to in Section 723.127. The Judicial Council may adort nules pescribing the circunstances when compliance with this subdivasion is not requited.
(c) No aarntaga whomblank onder shait be served upon the employer after the time specified in subdivision (a) of Section 683 for the return of the writ of exccution under which the order was issued has expired.

Comnent. Section 723.103 prescribes what must be served upon the employer by the levying officer and when such service must be accompilahed to be effective. Spryice of the eamings wthholding order must be completed befere the writ is retiurnable. See Bection 10 no 683 (writ asy be made returnable now less thatimore than 60 days after

The emgioyer is required to deliver these papers to the employee within ten days of service. See Section 723.104. The person to be served and the manner of service of the earnings witholding order and reiated documents is specified in Section 723.101.

S 723.104. Delivary of papers to empioyen; amployer's retum 723.104. Any empioyer who is served with an earnings withholding order shall:
(a) Deliver to the judgment debtor a copy of the earnings withholding order and the notice to employee of earnings withholding order within ten days from the date of service. If the judgment debtor is no longer employed by the employer and the employer does not owe him any earhings. the employer is not required to make such dalivery. The employer te not subject to any civil labifity for fediure to comply with this subdiviaion. Nothing in this subdivision limita the power of a court to hold the employer in contempt of court for failure to comply witin this subdivision.
(b) Complete the employer's return on the form provided by the kevising officer and mail it by first-class mail, postage prepaid, to the levsings of ficer within 15 days from the date of service. If the earnings withholding order is ineffective, the employer shall state in his employer's return that he is not complying with the order for this reason and shall return the order to the levying officer with the employer's return.

Comment. Section 723.104 regures the employer to deliver to the employee a copy of the order and a notice advising the employee of his riahts.

Section 723.104 aho requires the employer to fill out and mail an employer's return to the lexg ns off.cer who serves an carnitugs withholdirg order. Such a return thust be made even though the order is not given effect. See Comment to Section 723.023. If the order is not given effect, the employer must indicate the reason and returit the order. For the form of the return, see Section 723.126.

The last two sentences of subdivision (a) meke clear that an employer is not liable for civil damages if he falls to give the employee the notice advising the employee of his rights. The section does not preclude the Labor Coumissioner from taking action under the Labor Code if the employer consistently fails to give his employee the notice be \(1 s\) required to deliver under subdivision (a). Moreover, although the employer is not civilly liable, he may be subject to puniohment for contempt. This would be appropriate where the employer falls to give the employee notice out of malice or willful neglect but would not be appropriate where the employer merely insdvertently fails to give the notice. § 723.105 . Judgment debtor's doim of exemption 723.103. (a) A judgment debtor may claim an exemption under section 723051 if:
(1) No prior hearing has been held with respect to the earnings withholding order; or
(2) There has been a material change in circumstances since the time of the last prior hearing on the earnings withholding order.
(b) A claim of exemption shall be made by fling with the levying officer an original and one copy of (i) the fudgment debtor's claim of exemption and (2) the fudgment debtor's financial atatement.
(c) Upon the filing of the clain of exemption, the levying officer shall promptly send to the judgment, creditor by first-class mail, postage prepaid, all of the following:
(2) A copy of the financial statement,
(3) A notice of claim of exemption, stating that the claim of exemption has been filed and that the earnings withholding order will be terminated, or modified to reflect the amount of earnings claimed to be exempt in the claim of exemption, unless a notice of opposition to the claim of exemption is filed with the rove mig y officer by judgment creditor within 10 days after the date of the mailing of the notice of claim of exemption.
(d) A judgment creditor who desires to contest a claim of exemption shall, within 10 days after the date of the mailing of the notice of claim of exemption, file with the levying officer a notice of opposition to the claim of exemption.
(e) If the lensing , theater does not receive a notice of opposition within the 10 -day period, he shall the employer one of the following:
(1) A notice that the earnings withholding order has been terminated if all of the judgment debtor's earnings was claimed to be exempt.
(2) A modified earnings withholding order which reflects the amount of earnings claimed to be exempt in the claim of exemption if only a portion of the judgment debtor's earnings was claimed to be exempt.
(f) If a notice of opposition to the clairn of exemption

Is filed with the levying officer within the 10 -day period, the levying officer shall promptly file the judgment debtor's claim of exemption and financial statement and the notice of opposition to the claim of exemption with the court clerk and the court clerk shall set the matter for hearing, which hearing shall be held within 15 days after the date the documents are filed with the court clerk by the levying officer. The court clerk shall send a notice of the time and place of the hearing to the judgment debtor and judgment creditor by first-class mail, postage prepaid. The notice shall be deposited in the mail at least 10 days before the day set for hearing.
(g) If, after hearing, the court orders that the earnings withholding order be modified or terminated, the clerk shall promptly transmit a certified copy of the order to the levying officer who shall promptly serve on the employer of the judgment debtor (1) a copy of the modified earnings withholding order or (2) a notice that the earnings withholding order has been terminated. The court may order that the earnings withholding order be terminated as of a date which precedes the date of hearing. 7.
If the court determines that any amount. Withheld pursuant to the earnings withholding order shall be paid to the judgment debtor, the court may make an order directing the person who holds such amount to pay it to the judgment debtor.
(h) If the earnings withholding order is terminated by the court, unless the court otherwise orders or unless there is a material change of circumstances since the time of the last prior hearing on the earnings withholding order, the judgment creditor may not apply for another earnings withholding order directed to the same employer with respect to the same judgment debtor for a period of 130 days following the date of service of the earnings withholding order or 60 days after the date of the termination of the order, whichever is later.,
(i) If un employer has withheld and paid over amounts pursuant to an earnings withholding order after the date of termination of such order but prior to the receipt of notice of its termination, the judgment debtor may recover such amounts only from the levying officer if he still holds.
such amounts or, if such amounts have been paid over to the judgment creditor, from tine judgment editor. If the employer has withheld amounts pursuant to an earnings withholding order after termination of the order but has not paid over'such amounts to the levying officer, the employer shallpay over such amounts to the judgment debtor.
(j) An appeal lies from any court order under this section modifying or terminating an earnings withholding order. Such appeal shall be taken in the manner provided for appeals in the court in which the proceeding is had. An appeal by the judgment creditor from an order modifying or terminating the earnings withholding order does not stay the order from which the appeal is taken. Notwithstanding the modifying or terminating, the cormungs withholding order, appeal, until such time as the ordering set aside or modified, the allowing the clainin of exemption in whole or re part order emmen shall be given the sade effect as if the appeal had not been taken.
Comment. Section 23.105 ont lines generally the procedure for the hearing of a debtor' claims for the exemption under Section 723.051. Section 690.50 is not applicable.

A debtor is not limited as to the time within which he must claim an exemption. However, unless there has been a material change in either his income or his needs, he may claim an exemption only one during the period the order is in effect. See subdivision (a). A simitar limitation applies to a judgment creditor, if a withholding order is terminated by the court, the judgment creditor may not apply for the issuance of an earnings withholding order directed to the same employer for the same debtor for 130 days. following the date of service of a prior

If the judgment creditor's notice of opposition is filed within 10 days, the levying officer files the documents with the court clerk who sets the matter for hearing and notifies both parties. Subdivision ( \(f\) ).

After hearing, the court may order that the earnings withholding order be modified or even terminated. The date fixed for termination of the order may precede the date of the hearing. See subdivision (g). The court may order amounts withheld in excess of the amount determined to be proper to be paid to the judgment debtor. See subdivision ( \({ }^{(8)}\). Where the date of termination is made retroactive, an employer may have already withheld and paid over pursuant to the emends withholding order prior to recept of notice of termination. Subdivision ( 6 ) of Section 723.022 makes clear that the employer is not liable to the debtor for such amomets, and sud vision t) of Section 723.105 authorizes the debtor to recover sh eh amounts from lis creditor. Where amounts rave been withheld but not yet paid over to thenmation, the employer is required to pay those amounts to the employee judgment debtor. See subdivision (i).

Comment. Section 723.107 precludes a creditor who has obtained un earnings withholding order which has gone into effed hamate mother ortarman may period following the expiator of hit prom order. The purpose of this limitation is to eve other creditors 10 day period during which their earing whtholdang orders can be served while the original creditor is precluded from competing with them. The * original creditor may apply tor the second earnings withholding - order either before or after his prior order expires. But service of the second order on the same employer while the original order is in effect will be ineffective under Section 723.023, and service during the 10 -day period following expiration of the - original order in mbititer conation 793.107. The Judicial Council shall preschbe the form of the applications, notices, chams of exemption, orders, and other documents required by this chapter and only such forms may be used to implement this chapter. Any such form prescribed by the Judicial Council is deemed to comply with this chapter.

Comment. Section 723.120 requires the Judicial Council to prescribe the forms necessary for the purposes of this chapter. Various sections prescribe information to be contained in the forms; but the Judicial Council has complete authority to adopt and revise the forms as necessary and may require additional information in the forms or may omil information from the forms that it determines is unnecessary.

Comment:
Section 723.127 requires the preparation of employer's instructions that provide the employer with the information he needs to comply with the law The In provides the employer with a copy of the employer's instructions with the earnings withholding order. See Section 723.103.

\section*{§ 723.128. Judgment creditor's notice of opposition}
723.128. The "judgment creditor's notice of opposition to the claim of exemption' shall be executed under oath and shall include all. of the following:
(a) The name and last known address of the judgment debtor and, if known, his social security number.
(b) The name and address of the judgment creditor.
(c) The date of mailing of the notice of claim of exemption.
(d) The amount of the Judgment debtor's claim of exemption which the judgment creditor claims is not exempt.
(e) The factual and legal grounds for the judgment creditor's opposition to the claim of exemption.

Comment. Section 723.128 specifies the information to be included in the judgment creditor's notice of opposition to the claim of exempt lion. The form is prescribed by the Judicial Council. See Section 723.120. Although Section 723.128 requires the notice to be executed "under oath," this may generally be done by a statement signed under penalty of perjury. See Section 2015.5.

\section*{Article 7. Administration and Enforcement}
§ 723.150. Rules
723.150. The Judicial Council shall adopt rules for the administration of this chapter, including rules prescribing the pay period or period to which various forms of prepaid or deferred earnings are to be allocated and the method of computing the amount to be withheld from such forms of earnings under Section 723.050.

Comment. Section 723.150 requires that rules be adopted for the administration of this chapter. Such rules inciude specific requirements regarding the treatment of various forms of prepaid and deferred earnings such as, but not limited to, commissions, bonuses, retroactive pay increases, vacation benefits, prepaid earnings, advances, and draw account payments.
§ 723.151. Liaison with federal administrator
723.151. The Judicial Council may perform all acts required by the Administrator of the Wage and Hour Division of the United States Department of Labor as conditions to exemption of this state from the earnings garnishment provisions of the Consumer Credit Protection Act of 1968 (15 U.S.C. Secs. 1671-1677), including, but not limited to:
(a) Representing and acting on behalf of the state in relation to the Administrator of the Wage and Hour Division and his representatives with regard to any matter relating to, or arising out of, the application, interpretation, and enforcement of the laws of this state regulating withholding of earnings.
(b) Submitting to the Administrator of the Wage and Hour Division in duplicate and on a current basis, a certified copy of every statute of this state affecting earnings withholding, and a certified copy of any decision in any case involving any of those statutes, made by the Supreme Court of this state.
(c) Submitting to the Administrator of the Wage and Hour Division any information relating to the enforcement of earnings withholding laws of this state which he may request.

Comment. Section 723.151 authorizes the Judicial Council to do whatever is required by the federal administrator to obtain and maintain a state exemption from the earnings garnishment provisions of the Consumer Credit Protection Act. A similarly broad grant of power as that contained in the first paragraph of Section 723.151 is found in Government Code Section 25210 (county participation in Economic Opportunity Act of 1964). Subdivisions (a), (b), and (c) are based on the language of 29 Code of Federal Regulations Section 870.55 (a), requiring the state administrator to act as liaison with the federal administrator.
§ 723.152. Fraudulent withholding by employer
723.152. If an employer withholds earnings pursuant to this chapter and, with the intent to defraud either the Judgment creditor or the judgment debtor, fails to pay such withheld earnings over to the levying officer, the employer is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Comment. Section 723.152 is based on Labor Code Section 227 (failure to make agreed payments to health, welfare, or similar fund).

\section*{§ 723.153. Employer not to defer or accelerate payment of earnings} 724.153. (a) No employer shall defer or accelerate any payment of earnings to an employee with the intent to defeat or diminish thugereditor's rights under an earnings withholding order issued pursuant to the procedures provided by this chapter.
(b) If an employer violates this section, the judgment creditor may bring a civil action against the employer to recover the amount that would have been with held and paid cover pursuant to this chapter had the: employer not violated this section. The remedy provided by this subdivision is not exclusive.

Comment. Section 723.133 makes clear that an employer may neither defer nor accelerate payment of earnings to an employee in an attempt to avoid compliance with an earnings withholding order and specifies the measure of damages in case of a violation.
§723.154. Remedies of judgment creditor; limitation of employer's liability 723.154. (a) If an employer fails to withhold or to pay over the amount he is required to withhold and pay over pursuant to this chapter, the judgment creditor may bring a civil action against such employer to recover such amount. The remedy provided by this subdivision is not exclusive.
(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), an employer who complies with any written order or written notice which purports to be given or served in accordance with the provisions of this chapter is not subject to any civil or criminal liability for such compliance unless he has actively participated in a fraud.

Comment Section 62.1 ing whborizes suit by a creditor against an employer both where the employer fuils to withhold properly and where he faits to pay over amounts withheld. This remedy is independent of the procedure provided in Chapter 2 (Sections 717-723) of this part, und Section 723.134 makes clear that uppionatal proceeding under Chapter 2 are not a prerequisite to sisit by thr tredite against the employer. Whether or not the court tan order the employer to withhold and pay over in a Chapter 2 procesding is a matter not dealt with in the Employees Eanings Protection Law.
Subdivision (b), makes clear that an employer is protected from liability where be complies with an order or written notice Wheh appears proper on 1 it tace. Occasionally, through mistake, inadvertence, or ever deliberate misconduct, an emplover miy be sent an order or notice which appears valid but which has been mproperly obtaned or served. For example, a creditor mive metwe the tay moratoritim on service of a second carnings withlolding order. See Section 723.107 and Comment thereto. The employer is not required in such circumstances to go bryond the document itself and is not subject to liability where be complies with its directions and is not actively participating in a fraud. The remedy of the injured party in such a case is to proceed against the person who falsified the docmment or who improperly obtained a the documentor cauned it to be prematurely to be served.
This section also makes clear that, where an employer is complying with a prior order, he is not liable for failing to comply with is subsequent valit order--even though the prior order is in fact invalid-unless he is actively participating in a fraud.

(g) No assignment of er enter for wages or setery, earned or to be earted, thent be is valid under any circumstances; if the wages or salary earned or to be earned are paid under a plan for payment at a central place or places established under the provisions of Section 204a of thris eoce.
(h) This section shat does not apply to deductions which the employer may be requested by the employee to make for the payment of life, retirement, disability or unemployment insurance premiums, for the payment of taxes owing from the employee, for contribution to funds, plans or systems providing for death, retirement, disability, unemployment, or other benefits, for the . payment for goods or services furmished by the employer to the employee or his family at the request of the employee, or for chartable, educational, patriotic or similar purposes.
(i) No assigmment of wages or silary shall be valid unles at the thne of the making thereof, such wages or salary have been earned, except for nectsities of life and then only to the person or persons furnishing such necessities of life directly and then only for the amount needed to furnish stich necessities.
Comment. Section 300 is amended to make the section consistent with the Employees' Earnings Protection Law (CODE CIV. Proc. \($ 723.010\) et seq.).

Subdivision (a). Suldivision (a) makes clear that the shortened phrase "assignment of wages" continues prior law us to the kind of instrument dealk with in this section, Cand clarifies the relationship between Section 300 and Civil Code Section 4701 (wage asoignment for support).

 hetween : whe whe arbignome athe a subsequently served earning whinolding erde; where al wage assigmont is in effect and the chirgs whthokhm order is served, the employer sholl mus whither pariant on the order until after the end of the pay period during winich the orcer was served. Thus, the wage asmumett is, in ffect, given an exclusive preference for that pay period and the debtor is given an opportunity to put his affairs in order. Such action may include revoking the wage assignment as to uncarned wages pursuant to suidivision (I). Even where the debtor revokes the wage assignment prior to the end of the pay period (but after receipt of an earnings withholding order), the operation of the order is suspended until after the current pay period. Hence, the debtor is afforded an opportunity to retain his unearned wages for the current pay period only. After such moratoriam, the earnings withholding order has a priority over the assignment if the latter remains in effect. The unimited preference formerly given to an assignment of unearned wages or salary is not continued because this preference would permit a judgment debtor to give preference to one creditor and to defeat the claims of other creditors who seek to collect on their judgments under the Employees' Earnings Protection Law.

Subdivision ( \(d\) ). See the Comment to subdivision ( 5 ).
Subdivision ( e ) Subdivision (e) continues the substance of a provision formerly found in Section 300 and extends the scope of the former provision to cover the statement provided for in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b)

Subclivision ( \(f\) ). The first sentenee of subdivision ( f ), which makes an assignment of unearned wager or salary revocable at Thy time by the maker thereof, replaces a portien of the former proistom of Sectione 300 which restricted the amount of uneamed wages or salary that could be assigned. The former 50 -percent limitation on the amount of wages or salary that can be assigned has been continued in subdivision (d). The former 25 -percent "hardship" limitation has not been continued because subdivision (f) permits the person making the assigmment of wages or salary to be carned to revoke the assignment at any time. Thus, where an assignment becomes too onerous, especially after service of an earnings withholding order, the assignment may be revoked. The dolayed preference given the earning withhoidiag order under subdivision (c) will generally require persons having judgnents, including support orders, to use the procedure provided the the Employees' Earnings Protection Law-rather than Section 300 -to enforce their judgments: but it avoids conlict between wage assignments and orders issted pursuant to the Employees' Earnings Protection Law.
Subdivisions ( \(\rho\) ) , ( \(h\) ), and (1): Subdivisiuas ( \(g\) ), ( \(h\) ), and (1) continue without substanive change provisions formery contained in Section 300 . It shoude be roted that the inappicability of Section 300 to the deductions eferred to in subdivision (h) means not only that complianes with the Eomalites and limitations provided in Section 300 is not required bit aloo that Section 300 provides no spocial prierenees bor such deductions.
