Memorandum 80-80

Subject: Annual Report for 1980

Attached is a draft of the Annual Report for 1980. The attached draft will be revised to reflect the Commission's decisions as to its 1981 legislative program and priorities for topics for study.

Please mark your suggested editorial revisions on the attached copy. Return the marked copy to the staff at the meeting so your suggestions can be taken into account when the report is prepared for final printing. Please raise any matters that concern you about the Annual Report at the meeting.

Note that the Annual Report recommends that the topic "unincorporated associations" be dropped from the Commission's agenda. This topic merits study, but we doubt that we would study the topic within the next few years. We recommend dropping the topic. If it remains on our agenda, the members of the Commission will need to report any client in the form of an unincorporated association (partnership, etc.) in their conflict of interest reports. We negotiated an agreement with the staff of the Fair Political Practices Commission that our proposed conflict of interest code not be revised to require such broad reporting if the Commission determines to drop this topic from its calendar of topics. Our conflict of interest code has been approved without significant substantive change by a subcommittee of the Fair Political Practices Commission. When the full Commission has approved the code, we will advise you when and what you will have to report.

Sincerely,

John H. DeMouilly
Executive Secretary

SUMMARY OF WORK OF COMMISSION

The Commission plans to submit a major recommendation to the 1981 session. This recommendation will propose the enactment of a new comprehensive statute relating to enforcement of judgments. Recommendations designed to reduce the cost of probating estates and other recommendations also will be submitted to the 1981 session.

In 1980, the Commission recommended 15 bills to the Legislature. Fourteen were enacted. One bill was not enacted, but substantially similar legislation was enacted. The 1980 bills dealt with:

- quiet title actions.
- guardianship-conservatorship law.
- security for costs.
- probate homesteads.
- special assessment liens.
- married women as sole traders.
- enforcement of liens and judgments after death.
- assignments for the benefit of creditors.
- enforcement of claims and judgments against public entities.
- valuation evidence.
- state tax liens.
- agreements for entry of paternity and support judgments.
- vacation of streets and service easements.
- interest rate on judgments.

Commission recommendations enacted by the 1980 session affected 477 sections of the California statutes; 153 new sections were enacted, 125 sections were amended, and 199 sections were repealed.

During 1981, the Commission plans to continue work on other major projects:

- problems under the community property statutes.
- whether a Marketable Title Act should be enacted in California.
- various aspects of the Probate Code.

Other topics will also be considered to the extent time and resources permit.

ANNUAL REPORT FOR THE YEAR 1980

INTRODUCTION

The primary objective of the California Law Revision Commission is to study the statutory and decisional law of this state to discover defects and anachronisms and to recommend legislation to make needed reforms.

The Commission consists of a Member of the Senate appointed by the Committee on Rules, a Member of the Assembly appointed by the Speaker, and seven additional members appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate. The Legislative Counsel is an ex officio nonvoting member of the Commission.

The Commission assists the Legislature in keeping the law up to date by:

- (1) Intensively studying complex and sometimes controversial subjects;
- (2) Identifying major policy questions for legislative attention;
- (3) Gathering the views of interested persons and organizations; and
- (4) Drafting recommended legislation for legislative consideration.

The efforts of the Commission permit the Legislature to determine significant policy questions rather than to concern itself with the technical problems in preparing background studies, working out intricate legal problems, and drafting needed legislation. The Commission thus enables the Legislature to accomplish needed reforms that otherwise might not be made because of the heavy demands on legislative time. In some cases, the Commission's report demonstrates that no new legislation on a particular topic is needed, thus relieving the Legislature of the need to study the topic.

The Commission may study only topics that the Legislature by concurrent resolution authorizes it to study. The Commission now has a calendar of 31 topics,¹ including four topics added by the Legislature at the 1980 session.

Commission recommendations have resulted in the enactment of legislation affecting 5,848 sections of the California statutes: 2,451 sections have been added, 1,262 sections amended, and 2,135 sections repealed. Of the 134 Commission recommendations submitted to the Legislature, 122 (90%) have been enacted into law either in whole or in substantial part.²

The Commission's recommendations and studies are published in pamphlet form and later in the form of bound volumes. A list of past publications and information on where and how copies of publications may be obtained may be found at the end of this Report.

1981 LEGISLATIVE PROGRAM

The Commission plans to submit the following recommendations to the 1981 Legislature:

(1) Tentative Recommendation Proposing the Enforcement of Judgments Law, 15 Cal. L. Revision Comm'n Reports 2001 (1980).

(2) Recommendation Relating to Durable Power of Attorney (November 1980), published as Appendix VII to this Report.

(3) Recommendation Relating to Nonprobate Transfers (November 1980), published as Appendix VIII to this Report.

(4) Recommendation Relating to Liability of Marital Property for Debts (November 1980), published as Appendix IX to this Report.

(5) Recommendation Relating to Revision of the Guardianship-Conservatorship Law (October 1980), published as Appendix X to this Report.

(6) Recommendation Relating to Statutory Bonds and Undertakings, 15 Cal. L. Revision Comm'n Reports 1701 (1980).

Other recommendations will be submitted if work on them is completed in time to permit their submission to the 1981 Legislature.

MAJOR STUDIES IN PROGRESS

Enforcement of Judgments

The Commission plans to propose for enactment by the 1981-1982 session of the Legislature a package of bills that will provide a modern, comprehensive enforcement of judgment statute and make necessary conforming changes in existing statutes. See Tentative Recommendation Proposing the Enforcement of Judgments Law, 15 Cal. L. Revision Comm'n Reports 2001 (1980). This package of bills is the result of a study conducted over the past five years. The new enforcement of judgments statute covers such matters as the manner of levy of execution, exemptions, redemption, third-party claims, judgment liens, and other creditors' remedies.

The Commission anticipates that a significant portion of its time and resources during 1981 will be devoted to considering the comments and suggestions of interested persons and organizations relating to these bills and making any necessary changes in the bills.

Probate Code

The 1980 session of the Legislature directed the Commission to make a study of the Probate Code. In response to this directive, the Commission plans to study portions of the Uniform Probate Code and the existing California law relating to those portions. As a result of its study so far, the Commission plans to recommend legislation to the 1981 legislative session relating to durable powers of attorney¹ and nonprobate transfers.² As its time and resources permit, the Commission will study additional areas of the probate law.

Marketable Title Act and Related Matters

The Commission has commenced active study of another major topic—whether a Marketable Title Act should be enacted in California. This study will also cover two other topics on the Commission's agenda—whether the law relating to possibilities of reverter and powers of termination should be revised, and whether Section 1464 of the Civil Code should be repealed or revised.

Professor James L. Blawie, Santa Clara Law School, the

¹ See Recommendation Relating to Durable Power of Attorney (November 1980), published as Appendix VII to this Report.

² See Recommendation Relating to Nonprobate Transfers (November 1980), published as Appendix VIII to this Report.

Commission's consultant on this topic, has prepared an analysis of the areas and problems that might be covered in this study. Because of the complexity and magnitude of the study, the Commission anticipates that a number of years will elapse before comprehensive legislation on this subject can be recommended for enactment.

Community Property

Another major topic under active study by the Commission is the law relating to community property. Work on this study has been divided into two phases. The first phase covers the liability of various kinds of community property and separate property to third-party creditors for debts and tort obligations of either or both spouses. The Commission plans to submit a recommendation on this portion of the study to the 1981 Legislature. See Recommendation Relating to Liability of Marital Property for Debts (November 1980), published as Appendix IX to this Report. Professor William A. Reppy, Jr., Duke Law School, is the Commission's consultant on this phase of the topic.

The second phase covers the problems in connection with equal management and control of community property, the division of community property upon dissolution of marriage, and related problems. Professor Carol S. Bruch of the Law School, University of California at Davis, is preparing a background report on this phase of the topic.

Adoption

The existing adoption statute is in great need of reorganization and simplification. In addition, substantive changes appear to be needed. The Commission has retained Professor Brigitte M. Bodenheimer of the Law School, University of California at Davis, as its consultant on this topic. Her background report is published. See New Trends and Requirements in Adoption Law and Proposals for Legislative Change, 49 So. Cal. L. Rev. 10 (1975). (The background study does not represent the views of the Commission; the Commission's views will be reflected in its own recommendation.)

The Commission's staff has commenced work on a new comprehensive adoption statute and is following closely the development of the Revised Uniform Adoption Act and other legislative proposals in this field. The Commission's Executive Secretary serves as a member of the subcommittee of the Uniform Laws Commissioners now engaged in preparing a Revised Uniform Adoption Act.

Topics for Future Consideration

The Commission now has a number of major studies on its calendar. Because of the substantial and numerous topics already on its calendar (four of which were added by the 1980 Legislature), the Commission does not at this time recommend any additional topics for inclusion on its calendar of topics.

FUNCTION AND PROCEDURE OF COMMISSION

The California Law Revision Commission consists of one Member of the Senate, one Member of the Assembly, seven members appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate, and the Legislative Counsel who is ex officio a nonvoting member.¹

The principle duties of the Law Revision Commission are to:

(1) Examine the common law and statutes for the purpose of discovering defects and anachronisms.

(2) Receive and consider suggestions and proposed changes in the law from the American Law Institute, the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws,² bar associations, and other learned bodies, and from judges, public officials, lawyers, and the public generally.

(3) Recommend such changes in law as it deems necessary to bring the law of this state into harmony with modern conditions.³

The Commission is required to file a report at each regular session of the Legislature containing a calendar of topics selected by it for study, listing both studies in progress and topics intended for future consideration. The Commission may study only topics which the Legislature, by concurrent resolution, authorizes it to study.⁴

The Commission's work on a recommendation is commenced after a background study has been prepared. In some cases, the study is prepared by a member of the Commission's staff, but some of the studies are undertaken by specialists in the fields of law involved who are retained as research consultants to the Commission. This procedure not only provides the Commission with invaluable expert assistance but is economical as well because the attorneys and law professors who serve as research consultants have already acquired the considerable background necessary to understand the specific problems under consideration.

The background study is given careful consideration by the Commission and, after making its preliminary decisions on the subject, the Commission ordinarily distributes a tentative ¹ See Gov't Code § 10301. See also Gov't Code §§ 10300-10340 (statute establishing Law Revision Commission).

² The Commission's Executive Secretary serves as an Associate Member of the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws.

³ See Gov't Code § 10330. The Commission is also directed to recommend the express repeal of all statutes repealed by implication or held unconstitutional by the California Supreme Court or the Supreme Court of the United States. Gov't Code § 10331.

⁴ See Gov't Code § 10335.

recommendation to the State Bar and to numerous other interested persons. Comments on the tentative recommendation are considered by the Commission in determining what recommendation, if any, the Commission will make to the Legislature. When the Commission has reached a conclusion on the matter, its recommendation to the Legislature, including a draft of any legislation necessary to effectuate its recommendation, is published in a printed pamphlet.⁵ In some cases, the background study is published in the pamphlet containing the recommendation.⁶

The Commission ordinarily prepares a Comment explaining each section it recommends. These Comments are included in the Commission's report and are frequently revised by legislative committee reports⁷ to reflect amendments⁸ made after the recommended legislation has been introduced in the Legislature. The Comment often indicates the derivation of the section and explains its purpose, its relation to other sections, and potential problems in its meaning or application. The Comments are written as if the legislation were enacted since their primary purpose is to explain the statute to those who will have occasion to use it after it is in effect. They are entitled to substantial weight in construing the statutory provisions.⁹ However, while the Commission endeavors in the Comment to explain any changes in the law made by the section, the Commission does not claim that every inconsistent case is noted in the Comment, nor can it anticipate judicial conclusions as to the significance of existing

⁶ In some cases, the background study may have been previously published in a law review. For a listing of background studies published in law reviews, see 10 Cal. L. Revision Comm'n Reports 1108 n.5 (1971), 11 Cal. L. Revision Comm'n Reports 1008 n.5 & 1108 n.5 (1973), and 13 Cal. L. Revision Comm'n Reports 1623 n.5 (1976).

⁷ Special reports are adopted by legislative committees that consider bills recommended by the Commission. These reports, which are printed in the legislative journal, state that the Comments to the various sections of the bill contained in the Commission's recommendation reflect the intent of the committee in approving the bill except to the extent that new or revised Comments are set out in the committee report itself. For a description of the legislative committee reports adopted in connection with the bill that became the Evidence Code, see Arellano v. Moreno, 33 Cal. App.3d 877, 884, 109 Cal. Rptr. 421, 426 (1973). For an example of such a report, see Appendix V to this Report.

⁸ Many of the amendments made after the recommended legislation has been introduced are made upon recommendation of the Commission to deal with matters brought to the Commission's attention after its recommendation was printed. In some cases, however, an amendment may be made that the Commission believes is not desirable and does not recommend.

case authorities.¹⁰ Hence, failure to note a change in prior law or to refer to an inconsistent judicial decision is not intended to, and should not, influence the construction of a clearly stated statutory provision.¹¹

The pamphlets are distributed to the Governor, Members of the Legislature, heads of state departments, and a substantial number of judges, district attorneys, lawyers, law professors, and law libraries throughout the state.¹² Thus, a large and representative number of interested persons are given an opportunity to study and comment upon the Commission's work before it is considered for enactment by the Legislature.¹³ The annual reports and the recommendations and studies of the Commission are bound in a set of volumes that is both a permanent record of the Commission's work and, it is believed, a valuable contribution to the legal literature of the state.

¹¹ The Commission does not concur in the Kaplan approach to statutory construction. See Kaplan v. Superior Court, 6 Cal.3d 150, 158-59, 491 P.2d 1, 5-6, 98 Cal. Rptr. 649, 653-54 (1971). REPORT ON STATUTES REPEALED BY IMPLICATION OR HELD UNCONSTITUTIONAL

Section 10331 of the Government Code provides:

The commission shall recommend the express repeal of all statutes repealed by implication, or held unconstitutional by the Supreme Court of the State or the Supreme Court of the United States.

Pursuant to this directive, the Commission has reviewed the decisions of the United States Supreme Court and of the California Supreme Court published since the Commission's last Annual Report was prepared,¹ and has the following to report:

(1) No decision of the United States Supreme Court or the California Supreme Court holding a statute of this state repealed by implication has been found.

(2) No decision of the United States Supreme Court holding a statute of this state unconstitutional has been found.²

(3) Three decisions of the California Supreme Court held statutes of this state unconstitutional.³

¹ This study has been carried through 27 Cal.3d 284 (advance sheet no. 17, June 19, 1980) and 100 S. Ct. 1672 (advance sheet no. 15, June 1, 1980).

² One decision of the U.S. Supreme Court held statutes of this state in violation of federal law. In California Retail Dealers Association v. Midcal Aluminum Inc., 100 S. Ct. 937 (1980), the court held Business and Professions Code Sections 24752, 24862, 24864-24866, and 24880—which provide a wine pricing system to be set by wine merchants and fines, license suspension or revocation penalties for selling below established prices—constitute resale price maintenance in violation of the Sherman Anti-Trust Act, 15 U.S.C.A. § 1, et seq.

³ Four other decisions of the California Supreme Court imposed constitutional qualifications on the application of statutes of this state without invalidating any statutory language:

In Pryor v. Municipal Court, 25 Cal.3d 238 (1979), the court held that Penal Code Section 647(a)—which declares that a person is guilty of disorderly conduct "who solicits anyone to engage in or who engages in lewd or dissolute conduct in any public place"—is unconstitutionally vague. Rather than rule the statute unconstitutional, however, the court chose to adopt a limited and specific construction of the statute to "prohibit only the solicitation or commission of conduct in a public place or one open to the public or exposed to public view which involves the touching of the genitals, buttocks, or female breast, for purposes of sexual arousal, gratification, annoyance, or offense, by a person who knows or should know of the presence of persons who may be offended by the conduct."

In In re Waters of Long Valley Creek Stream System, 25 Cal.3d 339 (1979), the court held that Water Code Sections 2500 et seq.—which give the State Water Resources Control Board broad authority to determine future riparian rights—should not be interpreted as allowing the extinguishment of such rights since such an interpretation would violate California Constitution Article X, Section 2, which requires that water resources be put to beneficial use to the fullest extent of which they are capable.

In In re Perrone C., 26 Cal.3d 49 (1980), the court held Welfare and Institutions Code Section 602—which provides for a jurisdictional hearing of a juvenile before a juvenile court to determine if that person is a ward of the court—unconstitutional if heard by a juvenile court referee absent a stipulation by the parties conferring judicial power on the referee since California Constitution Article VI, Section 22,

In Hays v. Wood, 25 Cal.3d 772 (1979), the court held a provision of the Political Reform Act of 1974—Government Code Section 87207, subdivision (b) (2)—unconstitutional as violating the equal protection principles of the state and federal constitutions. The unconstitutional provision required public officials who are also attorneys or brokers to disclose the names of their clients if the public official's income from the client is equal to or exceeds $1,000 per calendar year. By way of contrast, the comparable provision for other officials subject to reporting requirements—Government Code Section 87207, subdivision (b) (3)—provides a $10,000 threshold. The court held that the later provision is applicable to all public officials subject to reporting requirements.

In Jesse W. v. Superior Court, 26 Cal.3d 41 (1980), the court held that Welfare and Institutions Code Sections 253 and 254—which provide for a rehearing de novo of any matter heard before a referee of juvenile court—are unconstitutional violations of the Double Jeopardy clause of the United States Constitution, Fifth Amendment.

In San Francisco Labor Council v. Regents of University of California, 26 Cal.3d 785 (1980), the court held Education Code Section 92611—which compels the Regents of the University of California to fix minimum salary rates at or above the prevailing wage rates in various localities—conflicts with California Constitution Article IX, Section 9, which gives the Regents full powers of organization and government over the University of California.

limits referees to subordinate judicial duties.

In Olson v. Cory, 26 Cal.3d 672 (1980), the court held amended Government Code Section 68203—which limits the annual cost-of-living increases in judicial salaries previously provided by statute to a maximum of five percent—unconstitutional as to any judge who served any portion of his term or the unexpired term of a predecessor judge prior to January 1, 1977, and as to judicial pensioners whose benefits were based on the salary for the office of such a judge because, under California Constitution Article VI, Section 16, and Government Code Sections 71145 and 71180, a judge is entitled to contracted-for-benefits during the remainder of his term. The decision was modified in 27 Cal.3d 203 (1980) to provide that amended Government Code Section 68203 would affect the salaries of judges serving a protected term once they embark on a new term.

One decision held a California Rule of Court unconstitutional. In Mosk v. Superior Court, 25 Cal.3d 474 (1979), the court held Rule 902.5 of the California Rules of Court—which authorizes a public hearing of an investigation of judicial misconduct by the Commission on Judicial Performance—unconstitutional as being inconsistent with California Constitution Article VI, Section 18, subdivision (f), which mandates confidentiality of proceedings before the Commission.

RECOMMENDATIONS

The Law Revision Commission respectfully recommends that the Legislature authorize the Commission to complete its study of the topics previously authorized for study (see "Calendar of Topics for Study" supra) and to remove from its calendar of topics the topic listed under "Topics to Be Removed From Calendar of Topics" supra.

Pursuant to the mandate imposed by Section 10331 of the Government Code, the Commission recommends the repeal of the provisions referred to under "Report on Statutes Repealed by Implication or Held Unconstitutional," supra, to the extent that those provisions have been held to be unconstitutional.

APPENDIX II

REPORT OF SENATE COMMITTEE ON JUDICIARY ON ASSEMBLY BILL 2115

[Extract From Senate Journal for May 20, 1980 (1979-1980 Regular Session)]

In order to indicate more fully its intent with respect to Assembly Bill 2115, the Senate Committee on Judiciary makes this report.

Assembly Bill 261 was introduced to effectuate the "Recommendation of the California Law Revision Commission Relating to Agreements for Entry of Paternity and Support Judgments," 15 Cal. L. Revision Comm'n Reports 1237 (1980).

The following revised comment to Section 11476.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code reflects the intent of the Senate Committee on Judiciary in approving Assembly Bill 2115.

Comment. Section 11476.1 is amended to provide procedures for waiver of the noncustodial parent's due process rights in connection with an agreement for entry of judgment of paternity or for periodic child support or both. The procedures are designed to satisfy the constitutional standards announced in Isbell v. County of Sonoma, 21 Cal.3d 61, 577 P.2d 188, 145 Cal. Rptr. 368 (1978), and County of Ventura v. Castro, 93 Cal. App.3d 462, 156 Cal. Rptr. 66 (1979). See Recommendation Relating to Agreements for Entry of Paternity and Support Judgments, 15 Cal. L. Revision Comm'n Reports 1237 (1980).

A provision has been added to Section 11476.1 making clear that an agreement for entry of judgment may be made before the birth of the child and that the agreement may be conditioned on the birth of the child.

Subdivision (b) limits the use of an agreement for entry of judgment to cases where the constitutional requirements of the Isbell and Castro cases are satisfied. Subdivision (d) is a new provision which implements subdivision (b) (2).

Subdivision (e) continues the substance of a former provision of Section 11476.1. The informational notice required by paragraph (2) of subdivision (e) need not be a separate document; the informational notice may be stamped or typed on the copy of the judgment.

Subdivision (f) adopts the procedure of Civil Code Section 4700—the general provision relating to modification or revocation of a child support order. Insofar as Section 11476.1 formerly limited modification or revocation to a case of changed circumstances, Section 11476.1 was inconsistent with the general provision of Section 4700. The reference to Section 4700 also picks up the procedural provisions of that section. See Civil Code § 4700 ("Any order for child support may be modified or revoked as the court may deem necessary, except as to any amount that may have accrued prior to the date of the filing of the notice of motion or order to show cause to modify or revoke. The order of modification or revocation may be made retroactive to the date of the filing of the notice of motion or order to show cause to modify or revoke, or to any date subsequent thereto. The order of modification or revocation may include an award of attorney fees and court costs to the prevailing party.").

Subdivision (g) supersedes the last paragraph of Section 11476.1 as the section read prior to its amendment. The superseded paragraph was consistent with Civil Code Section 246 prior to the amendment of Section 246 in 1976. The substitution of subdivision (g) eliminates the inconsistency created by the 1976 amendment.

Subdivision (h) is drawn from Section 270b of the Penal Code.

Subdivision (i) makes clear that Section 11476.1 has no application to a case after a civil action has been commenced. Hence, the section has no application, for example, to the procedure for a stipulated judgment.

APPENDIX III
REPORT OF
SENATE COMMITTEE ON JUDICIARY
ON ASSEMBLY BILL 2146

[Extract From Senate Journal for May 20, 1980 (1979-1980 Regular Session)]

In order to indicate more fully its intent with respect to Assembly Bill 2146, the Senate Committee on Judiciary makes the following report.

Assembly Bill 2146 was introduced to effectuate the "Recommendation of the California Law Revision Commission Relating to Enforcement of Claims and Judgments Against Public Entities," 15 Cal. L. Revision Comm'n Reports 1257 (1980). Except for the revised comments set out below, the Law Revision Commission comments to the various sections of Assembly Bill 2146 reflect the intent of the Senate Committee on Judiciary in approving the various provisions of Assembly Bill 2146.

Government Code § 906 (added).

Comment. Section 906 is added to provide rules governing when interest is payable on claims allowed in whole or in part or on amounts offered by the public entity to settle or compromise claims. The section makes clear that the public entity can condition its allowance or offer by providing different rules concerning interest than those specified in Section 906. Section 906 recognizes that a public entity may allow a claim in whole or in part. See Sections 912.6 (local public entity), 965 (state). Section 906 does not affect or limit the applicability of Section 926.10 (interest on liquidated claim against public entity) in cases covered by that section.

Government Code § 965.5 (added)

Comment. Section 965.5 is a new provision that prescribes the time within which a money judgment against the state or a state agency is enforceable and the method of enforcement.

The 10-year period provided in subdivision (a) is drawn from Code of Civil Procedure Section 681. Subdivision (a)—not Code of Civil Procedure Sections 681 and 685—prescribes the period of enforceability of a money judgment against the state or a state agency. Where the judgment is payable in installments, the 10-year period commences to run when the last installment becomes payable.

Subdivision (b) is drawn from the second sentence of former Section 955.5 but subdivision (b) applies to all money judgments, whereas the provision of former Section 955.5 was limited to a tort liability claim, settlement, or judgment. See also Section 965.6. Subdivision (b) is consistent with the general rule under case law. See Westinghouse Elec. & Mfg. Co. v. Chambers, 169 Cal. 131, 145 P. 1025 (1915); Meyer v. State Land Settlement Bd., 104 Cal. App. 577, 286 P. 743 (1930).

Subdivision (b) makes clear that execution and other remedies under the Code of Civil Procedure for the enforcement of money judgments do not apply to enforcement of a money judgment against the state or a state agency. The effect of subdivision (b) is that no money or property belonging to, in the custody of, or owing to the state or any state agency is subject to garnishment, execution, or attachment to enforce a claim, settlement, or judgment against the state or any state agency for the payment of money. But see Section 865.9 (Regents of the University of California).

APPENDIX IV

REPORT OF ASSEMBLY COMMITTEE ON JUDICIARY ON SENATE BILL 1541

[Noted in Assembly Journal for May 29, 1980 (1979-1980 Regular Session)]

In order to indicate more fully its intent with respect to Senate Bill No. 1541, the Assembly Committee on Judiciary makes the following report.

Senate Bill No. 1541 was introduced to effectuate the Recommendation of the California Law Revision Commission Relating to State Tax Liens, 15 Cal. L. Revision Comm'n Reports 29 (1980). Except for the new and revised comments set out below, the Law Revision Commission comments to the sections of Senate Bill No. 1541 reflect the intent of the Assembly Committee on Judiciary in approving the bill.

Code of Civil Procedure § 675. Satisfaction of judgment

Comment. Section 675 is amended to delete former subdivision (e) which is superseded by subdivision (c) of Section 7174 of the Government Code.

Fish & Game Code § 8052. Release or subordination of lien

Comment. Former Section 8052 is continued in Section 7174 of the Government Code.

Government Code § 6103.8. Fee for recording or filing certain releases; periodic billing

Comment. Section 6103.8 is amended to revise the cross-references in subdivisions (a) and (c). The provision formerly found in Section 675 of the Code of Civil Procedure for recording satisfaction of a state tax liability has been superseded by subdivision (c) of Section 7174 of the Government Code. Former Sections 6758, 7873, 8997, 16066, 16067, and 30323 are continued in Section 7174 of the Government Code. Former Section 10100 of the Revenue and Taxation Code was repealed by Chapter 563 of the Statutes of 1972.

Government Code § 7150. Application of definitions

Comment. Sections 7150-7164 are new. These sections continue provisions formerly found in Section 8048 of the Fish and Game Code, Sections 3423 and 3772 of the Public Resources Code, Sections 6757, 7872, 8996, 16063, 18881, 26161, 30322, and 32363 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and Section 1703 of the Unemployment Insurance Code. The application of the definitions in this article to Section 38532 of the Revenue and Taxation Code (timber yield tax) is new.

Government Code § 7150.5. Agency

Comment. Section 7150.5 is a new provision that avoids cumbersome repetition in the sections where the defined term is used.

Government Code § 7170. Property to which state tax lien attaches

Comment. Section 7170 continues the substance of provisions formerly found in subdivisions (a), (b), and (c) of the following sections: Section 8048 of the Fish and Game Code, Sections 3423 and 3772 of the Public Resources Code, Sections 6757, 7872, 8996, 16063, 18881, 26161, 30322, and 32363 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and Section 1703 of the Unemployment Insurance Code. Section 7170 supersedes the provisions relating to the property to which the tax lien attaches formerly found in Sections 38532 and 38533 of the Revenue and Taxation Code. Terms used in Section 7170 are defined in Sections 7151-7164.

Government Code § 7171. Recording or filing of notice of state tax lien

Comment. Section 7171 continues the substance of provisions formerly found in subdivisions (b), (c), and (d) of the following sections: Section 8048 of the Fish and Game Code, Sections 3423 and 3772 of the Public Resources Code, Sections 6757, 7872, 8996, 16063, 18881, 26161, 30322, and 32363 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and Section 1703 of the Unemployment Insurance Code. Section 7171 supersedes provisions formerly found in the first sentence of Section 38532 and the first sentence of Section 38533 of the Revenue and Taxation Code. Paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) of Section 7171 requiring that the notice of state tax lien identify the agency giving notice of the lien is new and continues a provision formerly found in Section 7221. Terms used in Section 7171 are defined in Sections 7150.5-7164.

Government Code § 7172. Duration of state tax lien

Comment. Section 7172 continues the substance of provisions formerly found in subdivisions (a) and (e) of the following sections: Section 8048 of the Fish and Game Code, Sections 3423 and 3772 of the Public Resources Code, Sections 6757, 7872, 8996, 16063, 18881, 26161, 30322, and 32363 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and Section 1703 of the Unemployment Insurance Code. The provisions that determine when the liability is "due and payable" have been retained in these 12 sections. For the purpose of subdivision (a), the date of creation of a state tax lien is the date that the liability is "due and payable" under these 12 sections. See Section 7162.

Section 7172 also supersedes provisions formerly found in the third and fourth sentences of Section 38532 of the Revenue and Taxation Code. For an exception to Section 7172, see Revenue and Taxation Code Section 16063.

Government Code § 7174. Release or subordination of lien

Comment. Section 7174 supersedes the following repealed provisions:

- | | |
|-----------------|---|
| Subdivision (a) | Fish & Game Code § 8052; Pub. Res. Code §§ 3423.8 (first sentence), 3772.8 (first sentence); Rev. & Tax. Code §§ 6758, 7873, 8997, 16066, 18884, 26162 (first sentence), 30323, 38534; Unemp. Ins. Code § 1704. |
| Subdivision (b) | Rev. & Tax. Code §§ 6758.5, 7873.5, 8997.5, 18884.5, 26162.5, 30323.5, 38535; Unemp. Ins. Code § 1704.5. |
| Subdivision (c) | Code Civ. Proc. § 675(e). |
| Subdivision (d) | Rev. & Tax. Code § 18888. |
| Subdivision (g) | Pub. Res. Code §§ 3423.8 (second sentence), 3772.8 (second sentence); Rev. & Tax. Code §§ 6759, 16067, 18885, 26162 (second sentence), 30324, 38536; Unemp. Ins. Code § 1705. |

The inclusion of these provisions in this chapter makes them applicable to all state tax liens as defined in Section 7162. Under former law, the provisions were applicable to some but not all state tax liens. Subdivisions (e) and (f) are new. See also Section 7223 (filing of certificate of release, partial release, or subordination).

Government Code § 7220. Filing of notice of state tax lien

Comment. Section 7220 is amended to make a specific reference to Section 7171 which authorizes the taxing agencies referred to in Section 7150.5 to file a notice of state tax lien as provided in this chapter.

Government Code § 7227. Filing fee

Comment. Section 7227 is amended to add the last clause to the second sentence. The clause is drawn from Section 72361.3 (fee of county recorder). See also Section 7174 (duty of taxing agency when liability satisfied).

Government Code § 27282. Documents recordable without acknowledgment

Comment. Section 27282 is amended to correct the cross-references to the state tax lien provisions which are now found in Sections 7151-7191. The addition of the reference in paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) to certificates of partial releases is a nonsubstantive revision that makes clear that partial releases are recordable. The former references to Sections 10099, 10100, 16064, 18882, and 18883 of the Revenue and Taxation Code have been deleted in view of the repeal of those sections. See 1972 Cal. Stats. ch. 563 (repealing former Sections 10099 and 10100 of the Revenue and Taxation Code); 1977 Cal. Stats. ch. 481 (repealing former Sections 16064, 18882, and 18883 of the Revenue and Taxation Code).

Revenue & Taxation Code § 6756. Priority of tax

Comment. Section 6756 is amended to correct the cross-reference to the state tax lien provisions which are now found in Sections 7150-7191 of the Government Code.

Revenue & Taxation Code § 7872. Lien of tax

Comment. Section 7872 is amended to delete provisions that are continued in Chapter 14 (commencing with Section 7150) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code, and to change the word "Controller" to "board." "Board" means the State Board of Equalization. Section 20.

Revenue & Taxation Code § 16063. Lien of tax

Comment. Section 16063 is amended to delete provisions that are continued in Chapter 14 (commencing with Section 7150) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code. Subdivision (b) constitutes a special exception to Government Code Section 7172 and makes clear that the 10-year period which limits the life of a state tax lien commences to run from the time a deficiency determination is issued. This continues a provision formerly found in subdivision (a).

Revenue & Taxation Code § 16071. Warrant for collection of tax

Comment. Section 16071 is amended to correct the cross-reference to the state tax lien provisions which are now found in Sections 7150-7191 of the Government Code. The section is also amended to change the period from three years to 10 years after the last recording of a notice of state tax lien during which a warrant may issue under this section and to make clear that the provision applies to the "filing" of a notice of state tax lien as well. These latter changes make Section 16071 consistent with other comparable sections. See, e.g., Rev. & Tax. Code §§ 6776, 7881, 9001, 30301, 30341, 32365, 32381, 38502; Unemp. Ins. Code §§ 1753, 1785, 1852.

Revenue & Taxation Code § 18866. Release or subordination of lien

Comment. Section 18866 continues former Section 18884 as that section applied to a lien imposed pursuant to this article.

Revenue & Taxation Code § 18867. Release of lien when liability legally unenforceable

Comment. Section 18867 continues the portion of former Section 18884.5 which applied to a lien imposed under Section 18863 or 18864.

Revenue & Taxation Code § 18868. Conclusive effect of certificate

Comment. Section 18868 continues former Section 18885 as that section applied to a lien imposed pursuant to this article.

Revenue & Taxation Code § 18869. Collection of costs of recording from taxpayer Comment. Section 18869 is new and is consistent with subdivision (d) of Section 7174 of the Government Code.

Revenue & Taxation Code § 18884. Release or subordination of lien

Comment. Former Section 18884 is continued in Section 18866 of this code and in Section 7174 of the Government Code.

Revenue & Taxation Code § 18884.5. Release of lien when liability unenforceable

Comment. Former Section 18884.5 is continued in Section 18867 of this code and in Section 7174 of the Government Code.

Revenue & Taxation Code § 18885. Conclusive effect of certificate

Comment. Former Section 18885 is continued in Section 18868 of this code and in Section 7174 of the Government Code.

Revenue & Taxation Code § 18888. Liability for recording release of lien

Comment. Former Section 18888 is continued in Section 7174 of the Government Code which applies to the recording of a release of lien with respect to all state tax liens as defined in Section 7162 of the Government Code. See also Section 18869.

Revenue & Taxation Code § 18933. Priority of tax

Comment. Section 18933 is amended to correct the cross-reference to the state tax lien provisions which are now found in Sections 7150-7191 of the Government Code.

Comment. Section 32386 is amended to correct the cross-reference to the state tax lien provisions which are now found in Sections 7150-7191 of the Government Code, and to add the last paragraph which makes Section 32386 consistent with other comparable provisions. See, e.g., Rev. & Tax. Code §§ 6756, 18933, 26312, 30321, 38531; Unemp. Ins. Code § 1702.

APPENDIX V
REPORT OF
SENATE COMMITTEE ON JUDICIARY
ON ASSEMBLY BILL 1676

[Extract From Senate Journal for February 28, 1980 (1979-1980 Regular Session)]

In order to indicate more fully its intent with respect to Assembly Bill 1676, the Senate Committee on Judiciary makes the following report.

Assembly Bill 1676 is intended to effectuate the Recommendation of the California Law Revision Commission Relating to Quiet Title Actions, 15 Cal. L. Revision Comm'n Reports 1187 (1980). Except for the new and revised comments set out below, the comments contained under the various sections of Assembly Bill 1676 as set out in the Commission's recommendation reflect the intent of the Senate Committee on Judiciary in approving the various provisions of Assembly Bill 1676.

The following new and revised comments also reflect the intent of the Senate Committee on Judiciary in approving the various provisions of Assembly Bill 1676.

§760.030. Remedy cumulative

Comment. Subdivision (a) of Section 760.030 continues the substance of the third paragraph of former Section 751 and the first portion of the third paragraph of former Section 751.1. Subdivision (b) is new. Other proceedings that may be available to clear title to property include actions concerning real property titles affected by public improvement assessments (Sections 801.1-801.15), actions under the Destroyed Land Records Relief Law and Cullen Earthquake Act (Sections 751.01-751.28 and 751.50-751.65), partition actions (Sections 872.010-874.240), actions to quiet title to tax-deeded property (Rev. & Tax. Code §§ 3591-3617 and 3950-3972), actions to remove a cloud on title (Civil Code § 3412), and declaratory relief actions (Code Civ. Proc. § 1060). For special actions and proceedings to clear title, see Sections 770.010-770.080 (identity of person in chain of title), 771.010-771.020 (land dedicated for public improvement), and 772.010-772.060 (right of entry or occupation of surface lands under oil or gas lease). See also Civil Code § 794 (quitclaim of expired oil, gas, or mineral lease).

§ 761.030. Answer

Comment. Paragraphs (1) and (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 761.030 are comparable to subdivisions (a) and (b) of Section 872.410 (partition). Paragraph (3) is drawn from Section 431.30(b) (contents of answer in general rules of pleading). See also Section 760.060 (rules of practice in civil actions govern this chapter except where inconsistent). The verification requirement is a specific application of Section 446 (when complaint is verified, answer must be verified).

Subdivision (b) continues the substance of former Section 739. It provides an express exception to Section 1032 (costs in superior court).

§ 762.090. State as party

Comment. Section 762.090 is a specific application of Government Code Section 945 (a public entity may sue and be sued). It is intended to resolve any doubt whether the doctrine of sovereign immunity still applies in quiet title actions since enactment of the Governmental Liability Act in 1963. Cases that state in holding or dictum that the state may not be made a party to a quiet title action on the basis of sovereign immunity are no longer good law. See, e.g., State v. Royal Consol. Mining Co., 187 Cal. 343, 202 P. 133 (1931). For a listing of specific statutes authorizing quiet title actions against the state that predate the 1963 Governmental Liability Act, see 2 A. Bowman, Ogden's Revised California Real Property Law, § 27.67, at 1367-68 (TICOR-CEB 1975); see also former Section 738.5 (escheat under Alien Land Law) and Sts. & Hy. Code § 9012 (refunding of bonds).

§ 764.070. Effect on State of California and United States

Comment. Section 764.070 continues the substance of provisions formerly located in the first portion of the second paragraph of former Sections 751 and 751.1, but eliminates the implication that the United States may be sued in a quiet title action under this chapter. The United States may be sued in a quiet title action only in federal court. See 28 U.S.C. §§ 1346(f), 2409a; California v. Arizona, 99 S.Ct. 919, 924 (1979). The state may be made a party to a quiet title action. See Section 762.090 and Comment thereto.

APPENDIX VI
REPORT OF
SENATE COMMITTEE ON JUDICIARY
ON ASSEMBLY BILL 2121

[Extract From Senate Journal for June 18, 1980 (1979-1980 Regular Session)]

In order to indicate more fully its intent with respect to Assembly Bill 2121, the Senate Committee on Judiciary makes the following report:

Assembly Bill 2121 is intended to effectuate the "Recommendation of the California Law Revision Commission Relating to Application of Evidence Code Property Valuation Rules in Noncondemnation Cases," 15 Cal. L. Revision Comm'n Reports 301 (1979). The following comments also reflect the intent of the Senate Committee on Judiciary in approving the various provisions of Assembly Bill 2121.

Evidence Code § 810 (amended)

Comment. Section 810 is amended to remove the limitation on application of this article to eminent domain and inverse condemnation proceedings. This article does not attempt to define market value and does not apply the eminent domain definition of market value to other cases; it is limited to procedural rules for determining market value, however defined.

This article applies to any action or proceeding in which the value of real property, or real and personal property taken as a unit, is to be determined. See Section 811 and Comment thereto ("value of property" defined). See also Sections 105 and 120 ("action" includes action or proceeding). These cases include, but are not limited to, the following:

(1) Eminent domain proceedings. See, e.g., Code Civ. Proc. § 1263.310 (measure of compensation is fair market value of property taken).

(2) Inheritance taxation. See, e.g., Rev. & Tax. Code §§ 13311, 13951 (property taxed on basis of market value).

(3) Breach of contract of sale. See, e.g., Civil Code §§ 3306, 3307 (damages for breach of real property contract based on value of property).

(4) Mortgage deficiency judgments. See, e.g., Code Civ. Proc. §§ 580a, 726 (judgments calculated on fair market value or fair value of property).

(5) Gift taxation. See, e.g., Rev. & Tax. Code § 15203 (gift tax computed on market value of property).

(6) Fraud in the purchase, sale, or exchange of property. See, e.g., Civil Code § 3343 (measure of damages includes damages based on actual value of property).

(7) Other cases in which no statutory standard of market value or its equivalent is prescribed but in which the court is required to make a determination of market value, such as marriage dissolution. See, e.g., In re Marriage of Folb, 53 Cal. App. 3d 862, 126 Cal. Rptr. 306 (1975).

This article applies only where market value is to be determined, whether for computing damages and benefits or for any other purpose. In cases involving some other standard of value, the rules provided in this article are not made applicable by statute.

The introductory proviso of subdivision (a) ensures that, where a particular provision requires a special rule relating to value, the special rule prevails over this article. By virtue of subdivision (b), property tax assessment and equalization proceedings, whether judicial or administrative, are not subject to this article. They are governed by a well-developed and adequate set of rules that are comparable to the Evidence Code rules. See, e.g., Rev. & Tax. Code §§ 402.1, 402.5 (valuation and assessment rules); Rev. & Tax. Code §§ 1606, 1609, 1609.4, 1636-1641 (equalization proceedings); Cal. Admin. Code, Tit. 18 (public revenues regulations).

Nothing in this section intended to require a hearing to ascertain the value of property where a hearing is not required by statute. See, e.g., Rev. & Tax. Code §§ 14501-14505 (Inheritance Tax Referee permitted but not required to conduct hearing to ascertain value of property).

Evidence Code § 811 (amended)

Comment. Subdivision (b) of Section 811 is amended to include personal property only when valued together with real property. The effect of this amendment is to limit the scope of the evidence of market value provisions to actions involving real property or real and personal property combined. See Section 810 (article provides rules applicable to action in which "value of property" to be ascertained). Actions involving personal property alone are governed by general law, including the general rules of evidence prescribed in this code, although where appropriate the court may look to the special rules prescribed in this article.

Evidence Code § 813 (amended)

Comment. Paragraph (2) of Section 813(a) is amended to make clear that either spouse may testify as to the value of community property since both spouses are the owners. In addition, paragraph (2) authorizes either spouse to testify as to the value of the separate property of the other spouse as well as to his or her own separate property. This authority may be useful in cases under the Family Law Act where the character of the property is in dispute as well as in other cases requiring valuation where the nonowning spouse may be a more competent valuation witness than the owning spouse.

Subdivision (c) of Section 813 is amended to make clear that a person claiming to be an owner may testify as an owner in litigation over title. Such litigation may arise, for example, between a buyer and seller concerning title to and value of real property under a contract of sale, or between a landlord and tenant concerning characterization and value of property as trade fixtures.

Evidence Code § 814 (amended)

Comment. Section 814 is amended to make technical changes. While the value of property may be determined by reference to matters listed in Sections 815 to 821 where appropriate, an opinion as to value may also be based on any other matter that satisfies the general requirements of Section 814. See, e.g., City of Los Angeles v. Retlaw Enterprises, Inc., 16 Cal.3d 473, 486 n.8, 546 P.2d 1380, 1388 n.8, 128 Cal. Rptr. 436, 444 n.8 (1976) (price trend data admissible); People ex rel. Dep't of Transp. v. Southern Pac. Transp. Co., 84 Cal. App.3d 315, 325, 148 Cal. Rptr. 535, 541 (1978) (replacement cost of land as opposed to improvements admissible); South Bay Irr. Dist. v. California-American Water Co., 61 Cal. App.3d 944, 980, 133 Cal. Rptr. 166, 191 (1976) (capitalization based on nonrental income admissible); Redevelopment Agency v. Del-Camp Invs., Inc., 38 Cal. App.3d 836, 842, 113 Cal. Rptr. 762, 766-67 (1974) (capitalization based on gross rentals admissible); People ex rel. Dep't of Pub. Works v. Home Trust Inv. Co., 8 Cal. App. 3d 1022, 1026, 87 Cal. Rptr. 722, 724 (1970) (noncomparable sales admissible in appropriate circumstances).

Evidence Code § 822 (amended)

Comment. Section 822 is amended to limit the application of subdivision (a) to eminent domain and inverse condemnation cases despite the general expansion of this article to cover real property valuation cases generally. See Sections 810 and 811 and Comments thereto. The introductory portion of subdivision (a) is also amended to make clear that subdivision (a) regulates only the bases for an opinion of value admissible in evidence; it does not purport to prescribe rules or regulations governing the practice of the appraisal profession outside of expert testimony in a case.

Subdivision (b) is added to make clear that the exclusion of the matters listed in subdivision (a) in eminent domain and inverse condemnation cases does not imply that those matters are admissible in other cases. The rules governing admissibility in other cases of matters listed in subdivision (a) are found in Section 814 and in the general Evidence Code rules relating to relevance, prejudice, and the like.

Evidence Code § 823 (new)

Comment. Section 823 is drawn from Code of Civil Procedure Section 1263.320(b) (fair market value in eminent domain proceeding of property for which there is no relevant market). Section 823 is included because there may be no relevant market for some types of special purpose properties such as schools, churches, cemeteries, parks, utilities, and similar properties. See Code Civ. Proc. § 1263.320(b) and Comment thereto.
