First Supplement to Memorandum 84-68

Subject: Topics and Priorities for 1985 (Uniform Acts)

One duty imposed by statute upon the Law Revision Commission is the duty to:

Receive and consider proposed changes in the law recommended by the . . . National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws

There are three Uniform Acts that the staff believes should be considered by the Law Revision Commission during 1985.

Uniform Premarital Agreements Act. Some time ago, the Commission directed the staff to prepare this Uniform Act in a form suitable for enactment in California and to distribute it to interested persons for review and comment. We have provided a copy of the draft to Commissioner Gregory for review prior to distribution for review and comment. (Commissioner Gregory served as the Chairman of the Committee of the Uniform Law Commissioners that drafted this Uniform Act.) This is an important project. There is a great need for statutory provisions dealing with this subject. The staff recommends that this project be given a top priority with a view to submitting a recommendation to the 1985 session, if possible, or to the 1986 session at the latest.

Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act. At its 1984 Annual Meeting, the Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws approved a new Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act. The Law Revision Commission has been engaged in revision of the law relating to creditors' remedies for a number of years. On numerous occasions, the staff and members of the Commission have noted the need for a modern statute governing fraudulent transfers. However, we have not undertaken to draft the needed statute ourselves because the Uniform Commissioners have been engaged in that task. The present Uniform Act was approved in 1918. The present act needs to be modified to reflect the developments since then, such as the new Bankruptcy Code, proposed amendments to the Model Business Corporation Act of the Committee on Corporate Laws of the Section of Corporation, Banking and Business Law of the American Bar Association, the enactment of the Uniform Commercial Code, and at least one significant judicial decision.

A copy of the new Uniform Act is attached as Exhibit 1. (We do not ask that you read the Uniform Act at this time.) Because the staff has considerable familiarity with the existing California statute, we believe that we can prepare material to distribute for review and comment without too much drain on staff resources. Accordingly, we would give this Uniform Act a top priority with the view to submitting our recommendation to the 1986 legislative session.

Uniform Statutory Will Act. At its 1984 Annual Meeting, the Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws approved a new Uniform Statutory Will Act. This Act does not provide for a statutory will form such as the one that now exists in California. Instead, the new Uniform Act is designed to provide a scheme of testamentary disposition of broad utility. The Act contemplates that a testator will adopt the statutory will through incorporation by reference in a "simple will." The Act does not provide a battery of optional schemes or provisions, but it does permit modifications and additions to be made by the will which adopts the statutory-will scheme generally or for some portion of the testator's estate. The statutory will may be the entire will of a testator and thus apply to all of the testator's testamentary estate, or it is adaptable to apply to a portion of the testator's estate as part of a will which includes other devises.

A copy of the new Uniform Act is attached as Exhibit 2. (We do not ask that you read the Uniform Act at this time.) The staff recommends that the Commission review the new Uniform Act during 1985 when time permits. It is anticipated that this will be a widely adopted Uniform Act and, in view of the Commission's activity in the probate law field, the staff believes that it is desirable that the Commission review the new Uniform Act to determine whether it would be a desirable enactment for California. If the Commission agrees, the staff suggests that the Commission provide the Estate Planning, Trust and Probate Law Section of the State Bar with copies of the Uniform Act and request that they make a careful study of the Act and give the Commission their views. When the views of the State Bar Section are available, the Commission can give this project further consideration.

Respectfully submitted,

John H. DeMouilly
Executive Secretary

2 holder of a judicial lien subsequently obtained by legal or 4 SECTION 2. INSOLVENCY.

5 (a) A debtor is insolvent if, at a fair valuation, the sum 6 of the debtor's debts is greater than all of the debtor's assets.

7 (b) A debtor who is generally not paying his [or her] 8 debts as they become due is presumed to be insolvent.

9 (c) A partnership is insolvent under subsection (a) if, at 10 a fair valuation, the sum of the partnership's debts is greater 11 than the aggregate of all of the partnership's assets and the sum 12 of the excess of the value of each general partner's 13 nonpartnership assets over the partner's nonpartnership debts.

14 (d) Assets under this section do not include property 15 that has been transferred, concealed, or removed with intent to 16 hinder, delay, or defraud creditors or that has been transferred 17 in a manner making the transfer voidable under this [Act].

18 (e) Debts under this section do not include an obligation 19 to the extent the obligation is secured by a valid lien on 20 property of the debtor not included as an asset.

21 SECTION 3. VALUE.

22 (a) Value is given for a transfer or an obligation if in 23 exchange for the transfer or obligation property is transferred 24 or an antecedent debt is secured or satisfied, but value does not 25 include an unperformed promise made otherwise than in the 26 ordinary course of the promisor's business to furnish support to 27 the debtor or another person.

(b) For the purposes of Sections 4(a) (2) and 5, a person gives a reasonably equivalent value if the person acquires an interest of the debtor in an asset pursuant to a regularly conducted, noncollusive foreclosure sale or execution of a power of sale for the acquisition or disposition of the interest of the debtor upon default under a mortgage, deed of trust, or security agreement.

(c) A transfer is made for present value if the exchange between the debtor and the transferee is intended by them to be contemporaneous and is in fact substantially contemporaneous.

SECTION 4. TRANSFERS FRAUDULENT AS TO PRESENT AND FUTURE CREDITORS.

(a) A transfer made or obligation incurred by a debtor is fraudulent as to a creditor, whether the creditor's claim arose before or after the transfer was made or the obligation was incurred, if the debtor made the transfer or incurred the obligation:

1 (1) with actual intent to hinder, delay, or defraud any 2 creditor of the debtor; or 3 (2) without receiving a reasonably equivalent value in 4 exchange for the transfer or obligation, and the debtor:

5 (i) was engaged or was about to engage in a 6 business or a transaction for which the remaining assets of the 7 debtor were unreasonably small in relation to the business or 8 transaction; or

9 (ii) intended to incur, or believed or reasonably 10 should have believed that the debtor would incur, debts beyond 11 the debtor's ability to pay as they became due.

12 (b) In determining actual intent under subsection (a) (1), 13 consideration may be given, among other factors, to whether:

14 (1) the transfer or obligation was to an insider;

15 (2) the debtor had retained possession or control of the 16 property transferred after the transfer;

17 (3) the transfer or obligation was disclosed or 18 concealed;

19 (4) before the transfer was made or obligation was 20 incurred, the debtor was sued or threatened with suit;

21 (5) the transfer was of substantially all the debtor's 22 assets;

23 (6) the debtor had absconded;

24 (7) the debtor had removed or concealed assets;

25 (8) the value of the consideration received by the 26 debtor was reasonably equivalent to the value of the asset 27 transferred or the amount of the obligation incurred;

(9) the debtor was insolvent or became insolvent shortly after the transfer was made or the obligation was incurred;

(10) the transfer had occurred shortly before or shortly after a substantial debt was incurred; and

(11) the debtor had transferred the essential assets of the business to a lienor who had transferred the assets to an insider of the debtor.

20 SECTION 5. TRANSFERS FRAUDULENT AS TO PRESENT 21 CREDITORS.

22 (a) A transfer made or obligation incurred by a debtor is 23 fraudulent as to a creditor whose claim arose before the transfer 24 was made or the obligation was incurred if the debtor made the 25 transfer or incurred the obligation without receiving a 26 reasonably equivalent value in exchange for the transfer or 27 obligation and the debtor was insolvent at that time or the debtor becomes insolvent as a result of the transfer or obligation.

(b) A transfer made by a debtor is fraudulent as to a creditor whose claim arose before the transfer was made if the transfer was made to an insider for other than a present, reasonably equivalent value, the debtor was insolvent at that 1 time, and the insider had reasonable cause to believe that the 2 debtor was insolvent.

4 SECTION 6. WHEN TRANSFER IS MADE OR OBLIGATION IS INCURRED.

5 For the purposes of this [Act]:

6 (1) a transfer is made:

7 (i) with respect to an asset that is real property other 8 than a fixture, but including the interest of a seller or 9 purchaser under a contract for the sale of the asset, when the 10 transfer is so far perfected that a good-faith purchaser of the 11 asset from the debtor against whom applicable law permits the 12 transfer to be perfected cannot acquire an interest in the asset 13 that is superior to the interest of the transferee; and 14 (ii) with respect to an asset that is not real property 15 or that is a fixture, when the transfer is so far perfected that a 16 creditor on a simple contract cannot acquire a judicial lien 17 otherwise than under this Act that is superior to the interest of 18 the transferee;

19 (2) if applicable law permits the transfer to be perfected 20 as provided in paragraph (1) and the transfer is not so 21 perfected before the commencement of an action for relief under 22 this [Act], the transfer is made immediately before the 23 commencement of the action;

24 (3) if applicable law does not permit the transfer to be 25 perfected as provided in paragraph (1), the transfer is made 26 when it becomes effective between the debtor and the transferee;

27 (4) a transfer is not made until the debtor has acquired rights in the asset transferred;

(5) an obligation is incurred:

(i) if oral, when it becomes effective between the parties; or

(ii) if evidenced by a writing, when the writing executed by the obligor is delivered to or for the benefit of the obligee.

21 SECTION 7. REMEDIES OF CREDITORS.

22 (a) In any action for relief against a transfer or 23 obligation under this [Act], a creditor, subject to the limitations 24 provided in Section 8, may obtain:

25 (1) avoidance of the transfer or obligation to the extent 26 necessary to satisfy the creditor's claim;

27 [(2) an attachment or other provisional remedy against the asset transferred or other property of the transferee in accordance with the procedure prescribed by [];]

(3) subject to applicable principles of equity and in accordance with applicable civil rules of procedure,

1 (i) an injunction against further disposition by the 2 debtor or a transferee, or both, of the asset transferred or of other property;

3 (ii) appointment of a receiver to take charge of the asset transferred or of other property of the transferee; or 4 (iii) any other relief the circumstances may require.

5 (b) If a creditor has obtained a judgment on a claim against the debtor, the creditor may, if the court so orders, levy execution on the asset transferred or its proceeds.

7 SECTION 8. DEFENSES, LIABILITY, AND PROTECTION OF TRANSFEREE.

8 (a) A transfer or obligation is not voidable under Section 9 4(a) (1) as against a person who took in good faith and for a reasonably equivalent value or any subsequent transferee or obligee.

10 (b) Except as otherwise provided in this section, to the 11 extent a transfer is voidable in an action by a creditor under Section 7(a) (1), the creditor may recover judgment for the value 12 of the asset transferred, as adjusted under subsection (c), or the amount necessary to satisfy the creditor's claim, whichever is less. The judgment may be entered against:

13 (1) the first transferee of the asset or the person for whose benefit the transfer was made; or 14 (2) any subsequent transferee.

15 (c) If the judgment under subsection (b) is based upon the value of the asset transferred, the judgment must be for an amount equal to the value of the asset at the time of the 16 transfer, subject to adjustment as the equities may require.

17 (d) A creditor may not recover under subsection (b) (2) from a good-faith transferee or obligee who took for value or from any subsequent transferee or obligee.

18 (e) Notwithstanding voidability of a transfer or an obligation under this [Act], a good faith transferee or obligee is 19 entitled, to the extent of the value given the debtor for the transfer or obligation, to 20 (1) a lien on or a right to retain any interest in the asset transferred;

21 (2) enforcement of any obligation incurred; or 22 (3) a reduction in the amount of the liability on the judgment.

(f) A transfer is not voidable under Section 5(b):

23 (1) to the extent the insider gave new value to or for the benefit of the debtor after the transfer was made unless the 24 new value was secured by an otherwise unavoidable lien;

25 (2) if made in the ordinary course of business or financial affairs of the debtor and the insider; or 26 (3) if made pursuant to a good-faith effort to rehabilitate the debtor and the transfer secured present value 27 given for that purpose as well as an antecedent debt of the debtor.

1 (g) A transfer is not voidable under Section 4(a) (2) or 2 Section 5 of this [Act] if the transfer results from:

3 (1) termination of a lease upon default by the debtor 4 when the termination is pursuant to the terms of the lease and 5 applicable law; or

6 (2) enforcement of a security interest in compliance 7 with Article 9 of the Uniform Commercial Code.

SECTION 9. EXTINGUISHMENT OF CAUSE OF ACTION.

A [cause of action] [claim for relief] with respect to a fraudulent transfer or obligation under this [Act] is extinguished unless action is brought:

(a) under Section 4(a) (1), within 4 years after the transfer was made or the obligation was incurred or, if later, within one year after the transfer or obligation was or could reasonably have been discovered by the claimant;

(b) under Section 4(a) (2) or 5(a), within 4 years after the transfer was made or the obligation was incurred; or Act.

UNIFORM STATUTORY WILL ACT

SECTION 1. DEFINITIONS.

In this [Act]:

(1) "Child" means, except as otherwise modified by this paragraph, any child of the natural parent whose relationship is involved. An adopted individual is the child of the adopting parents and not of the natural parents, but an individual adopted by the spouse of a natural parent is also the child of either natural parent. An individual born out of wedlock is not the child of the father unless the individual is openly and notoriously so treated by the father. The term does not include any individual who is only a stepchild, a foster child, a grandchild, or any more remote descendant.

(2) "Issue" of an individual means all lineal descendants of all generations, with the status of a child at each generation being determined by the definition of child contained in this [Act].

(3) "Personal representative" includes executor, administrator, successor personal representative, special administrator, and persons who perform substantially the same functions relating to the estate of a decedent under the law governing their status.

(4) "Property" means an interest, present or future, legal or equitable, vested or contingent, in real or personal property.

(5) "Representation" means the estate is divided into as many equal shares as there are surviving issue in the nearest degree of kinship and deceased individuals in the same degree who left issue surviving the decedent, each surviving issue in the nearest degree receiving one share and the share of each deceased individual in the same degree being divided among issue of that individual in the same manner.

(6) "Statutory-will estate" means the entire testamentary estate, except as the will otherwise provides.

(7) "Surviving spouse" means the individual to whom the testator was married at the time of death except a spouse from whom the testator was then separated under a decree of separation, whether or not final, or written separation agreement signed by both parties. An individual separated from the testator whose marriage to the testator continues in effect under the law of this State solely because an existing judgment of divorce or annulment of the marriage is not recognized as valid in this State is not the testator's surviving spouse under this [Act]. An individual whose marriage to the testator at the time of death is not recognized in this State solely because an existing judgment of divorce or annulment of a previous marriage of either or both of them is not recognized as valid in this State is the testator's surviving spouse under this [Act].

1 (8) "Testamentary estate" includes every interest in 2 property subject to disposition or appointed by a will of the decedent.

3 (9) "Testator's residence" means one or more properties 4 normally used at the time of the testator's death by the testator 5 or the surviving spouse as a residence for any part of the year.
6 If the property used as a residence is a unit in a cooperative or 7 other entity, it includes all rights and interests relating to that 8 unit. If the property is used in part for commercial, 9 agricultural, or other business purpose, the testator's residence 10 is an area not exceeding [3] acres, which includes the structure 11 used in whole or in part as a residence and structures normally 12 used by the testator in connection with the dwelling and 13 excludes structures and areas outside the dwelling primarily 14 used for commercial, agricultural, or other business purpose.

15 (10) "Trustee" includes an original, additional, or 16 successor trustee, whether or not appointed or confirmed by the 17 court.

18 SECTION 2. MAKING STATUTORY WILL.

19 Any individual having capacity to make a will under the laws 20 of this State may make a statutory will under this [Act]. The 21 will must be executed in a manner recognized as valid under the 22 laws of this State.

23 SECTION 3. INCORPORATION BY REFERENCE.

24 (a) A will may incorporate by reference the provisions of 25 this [Act] in whole or in part and with any modifications and 26 additions the will provides. To the extent that an express 27 provision of a will conflicts with a provision of this [Act], the express provision of the will governs.

(b) A provision that all or part of the testator's testamentary estate is to be disposed of in accordance with the [Enacting State's] Uniform Statutory Will Act incorporates by reference provisions of this [Act] in effect on the date the will is executed.

(c) An incorporation by reference of provisions of this [Act] may be in the following or a substantially similar form:
"Except as otherwise provided in this will, I direct that my testamentary estate be disposed of in accordance with the [Enacting State's] Uniform Statutory Will Act."

28 SECTION 4. SHARES UNDER STATUTORY WILL.

29 The statutory-will estate passes as provided in Sections 5 30 through 9.

1 SECTION 5. SHARE OF SPOUSE.

2 (a) The share of the surviving spouse is:

3 (1) if there is no surviving issue, the entire 4 statutory-will estate; or 5 (2) if there is a surviving issue,

6 (i) subject to any lien or encumbrance, the 7 testator's residence and tangible personal property, except 8 personal property held primarily for investment or for 9 commercial, agricultural, or other business purpose;

10 (ii) the greater of [$300,000], or one-half of the 11 balance of the statutory-will estate; and 12 (iii) subject to subsection (b), an interest in the 13 remaining portion of the statutory-will estate, including any 14 property that would pass under subsection (a) (2) (i) or 15 (a) (2) (ii) but disclaimed by the surviving spouse, in a trust 16 upon the terms set forth in Section 6.

17 (b) If the personal representative, other than the 18 surviving spouse, determines that the trust under Section 6 19 would be uneconomical, the entire statutory-will estate passes to 20 the surviving spouse.

21 SECTION 6. TRUST FOR SPOUSE AND ISSUE.

22 Property held in trust under Section 5(a) (2) (iii) is held upon 23 the following terms:

24 (1) During the life of the surviving spouse, the entire 25 net income must be paid to or for the benefit of the surviving 26 spouse in quarter-annual or more frequent installments. Net 27 income accrued or undistributed on the death of the surviving spouse must be paid to the estate of the spouse. If any unproductive property is held in the trust, the surviving spouse at any time by written instrument delivered to the trustee may compel conversion of the unproductive property to productive property.

 (2) During the life of the surviving spouse, the trustee at any time may pay to or for the benefit of the surviving spouse and issue of the testator amounts of the principal the trustee deems advisable, giving reasonable consideration to other resources available to the distributee, for the individual's needs for health, education, support, or maintenance. For the purpose of making these discretionary payments, the principal shall be administered as two separate shares, which at the inception of the trust shall be equal. One share is the surviving spouse's share of the principal. During the life of the surviving spouse, no payments may be made from the surviving spouse's share to anyone other than the surviving spouse.
 Primary consideration must be given to the needs of the surviving spouse and the children who are under the age of [23] years or under disability. The trustee may rely in good faith on a written statement furnished by a beneficiary. The discretion to pay principal to or for the benefit of any individual includes the discretion after that individual's death to pay

1 expenses incurred before the individual's death and funeral and 2 burial expenses. If the trustee, other than the surviving 3 spouse, determines that continuation of the trust is 4 uneconomical, the trustee may terminate the trust by distribution 5 of principal to the surviving spouse. Principal that in the 6 exercise of the trustee's discretion is paid to or for the benefit 7 of any issue may be charged against any share of income or 8 principal thereafter existing for that issue or for any ancestor 9 or descendant of that issue, if the trustee upon equitable 10 considerations so determines. If the surviving spouse or any 11 issue is serving as trustee, the trustee's discretion provided in 12 this paragraph is not exercisable in favor of that trustee except 13 as necessary for the trustee's needs for health, education, 14 support, or maintenance nor is the trustee's discretion 15 exercisable in favor of the trustee's estate, or the trustee's 16 creditors, or the creditors of the trustee's estate.

17 (3) On the death of the surviving spouse, the principal, 18 unless retained in trust under Section 8 or 9, must be paid, 19 subject to any charges made by the trustee under paragraph 20 (2), to the children of the testator in equal shares if all of the 21 children are then living, otherwise to the then living issue of 22 the testator by representation or, if no issue of the testator is 23 then living, to the individuals who would be entitled to receive 24 the estate as if the property were located in this State and the 25 testator had then died intestate domiciled in this State under the 26 law as it then exists in the proportions so determined.

27 SECTION 7. SHARES OF HEIRS WHEN NO SURVIVING SPOUSE.

(a) If there is no surviving spouse, the statutory-will estate passes, subject to Sections 8 and 9, as follows:

(1) if there is surviving issue, in equal shares to the children of the testator if all of them survive, otherwise to the surviving issue of the testator by representation;

(2) if there is no surviving issue, to the individuals entitled to receive the estate as if the property were located in this State and the testator had died intestate domiciled in this State in the proportions so determined.

(b) Unless the personal representative determines that a trust would be uneconomical, property to which Section 8 or Section 9 applies shall be distributed to the trustee. If the personal representative determines that a trust would be uneconomical, the property passes under subsection (a) free of trust. The discretion provided in this subsection to the personal representative is not exercisable by any of the testator's issue serving as personal representative.

1 SECTION 8. TRUST IF CHILD UNDER SPECIFIED AGE.

2 (a) If property is distributable under Section 6(3) or 3 Section 7 to a child of the testator who is under the age 4 specified in the will or, if the will does not specify an age, 5 under the age of [23] years, all shares distributable to issue of 6 the testator shall be held in a trust under this section. In 7 exercising powers under subsections (b) and (c), primary 8 consideration must be given to the needs of children who are 9 under the age of [23] years or under disability.

10 (b) Until no living child is under the age determined 11 under subsection (a), the trustee shall pay the income and 12 principal of the trust to or for the benefit or account of one or 13 more of the issue of the testator in amounts the trustee deems 14 advisable for their needs for health, education, support, or 15 maintenance. Income not so paid may be added to principal.

16 (c) The trustee at any time in its discretion may 17 distribute to a beneficiary the share, in whole or in part, of the 18 trust to which the distributee would be entitled if the trust then 19 terminated. If the whole of a share has been distributed under 20 this subsection, the trustee thereafter shall not make any 21 further distribution of income or principal to that distributee or 22 issue of that distributee.

23 (d) The trust terminates when no living child is under 24 the age determined under subsection (a) or the trustee in its 25 discretion determines that continuation of the trust is 26 uneconomical.

27 (e) Subject to subsection (c) and Section 9, the property in the trust must be distributed upon termination to the issue of the testator in proportion to the shares determined at the death of the surviving spouse under Section 6(3), or at the death of the testator under Section 7, if there is no surviving spouse.
In determining the amount to be distributed to any distributee, the trustee shall charge the share of that distributee with any partial distribution made under subsection (c) and may charge, in its discretion, the share of that distributee with distributions under subsection (b) to or for the benefit or account of the distributee, or issue or ancestor of the distributee. If any issue whose share is held in trust under this section dies before the complete distribution of the share, the property to which the issue would have been entitled if living must be distributed to the assignees, or, if none, to the estate of the deceased issue.

 (f) If an issue is serving as trustee, the discretion of the trustee under this section is not exercisable, except as necessary for that individual's needs for health, education, support, or maintenance, in favor of that individual, or that individual's estate, or that individual's creditors, or the creditors of that individual's estate.

28 SECTION 9. EFFECT OF DISABILITY AT DISTRIBUTION.

29 (a) If property becomes distributable by a personal 30 representative or trustee to an individual under the age 31 specified in the will or, if the will does not specify an age,

1 under the age of [23] years, or to an individual who the 2 personal representative or trustee determines cannot effectively 3 manage or apply the property by reason of mental illness, mental 4 deficiency, physical illness or disability, chronic use of drugs, 5 chronic intoxication, or other cause: (i) the personal 6 representative or trustee, as to either principal or income, may 7 distribute part or all of the property to the distributee directly, 8 by deposit or investment in the distributee's name or for the 9 distributee's account, or to a guardian or conservator for the 10 distributee; (ii) the personal representative may distribute to 11 the trustee in trust under subparagraph (iii); or (iii) the 12 trustee may retain all or any of the property in trust for the 13 distributee and thereafter at any time the trustee may distribute 14 or apply part or all of the principal or income to or for the 15 benefit or account of the distributee.

16 (b) Unless terminated earlier, a trust under subsection 17 (a) (iii) terminates upon the attainment of the required age, 18 removal of the disability, or death of the distributee. The 19 trustee shall distribute the remaining trust property to the 20 distributee or personal representative of the distributee's estate.

21 (c) This section does not apply to distributions to a 22 surviving spouse of the testator.

23 SECTION 10. POWERS OF APPOINTMENT.

24 (a) A will incorporating by reference the terms of this 25 [Act] does not exercise a power of appointment unless (1) the 26 will complies with any conditions imposed on the exercise of the 27 power, (2) the appointment is within the scope of the power, and (3) the will expressly refers to the power or expresses an intent to exercise any power of appointment held by the testator.

(b) If a power of appointment is exercised as provided in subsection (a), the appointed property passes as part of the statutory-will estate unless the will provides otherwise.

28 SECTION 11. SURVIVAL.

29 An individual who does not survive the testator by [30] days 30 is treated as if the individual predeceased the testator.

31 SECTION 12. APPOINTMENT OF PERSONAL 32 REPRESENTATIVE AND TRUSTEE.

33 (a) The person named in the will as personal 34 representative or trustee is entitled to serve, if qualified, as 35 personal representative or trustee.

36 (b) If no qualified person is named in the will as personal 37 representative, or the named person is incapacitated, unwilling 38 to serve, or dead, and a qualified alternate is not named in the 39 will, priority for appointment as personal representative is 1 determined by the law of the state of decedent's domicile at 2 death.

3 (c) If no qualified person is named in the will as trustee, 4 or the named person is incapacitated, unwilling to serve, or is 5 dead, and a qualified alternate is not named in the will, the 6 personal representative may appoint, without court approval, a 7 qualified person, including a person serving as personal 8 representative, to serve as trustee.

9 (d) If a personal representative or trustee resigns, is 10 removed, becomes incapacitated, or dies, the surviving spouse, 11 or if there is no surviving spouse or the surviving spouse is 12 unable or unwilling to act, a majority of the adult children of 13 the testator, may appoint a qualified successor personal 14 representative or trustee.

15 (e) In all other cases, personal representatives and 16 trustees shall be appointed by the court.

19 SECTION 13. POWERS.

20 (a) Except as expressly provided in the will, a personal 21 representative has all powers available to personal 22 representatives by law including powers set forth in [Enacting 23 State's Personal Representatives' Powers Act].

24 (b) Except as expressly provided in the will, a trustee 25 has all powers available to trustees by law including powers set 26 forth in [Enacting State's Trustees' Powers Act].

27 (c) Except as expressly provided in the will, the personal representative or trustee shall observe the standards in dealing with the estate that would be observed by a prudent person dealing with the property of another, and if the personal representative or trustee has special skills or is named personal representative or trustee on the basis of representation of special skills or expertise, the person is under a duty to use those skills. Except to the extent qualified property is not available, only property that qualifies for the estate tax marital deduction under the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, may be allocated to the surviving spouse under Section 5 or to the surviving spouse's share of principal in a trust established under Section 6.

25 any reorganization, merger, or consolidation of any entity the 26 securities of which constitute part of the property held;

27 (11) deposit the securities with a voting trustee or committee of security holders even if under the terms of deposit the securities may remain deposited beyond the time they become 2 more agents to perform any act of administration, whether or not discretionary;

3 (19) continue any unincorporated business or venture in which the decedent was engaged at the time of death;

4 (20) incorporate any business or venture in which the decedent was engaged at the time of death;

an individual directly to the devisees or heirs of the individual;

6 (22) perform any other act necessary or appropriate to administer the trust.

7 (b) Except as expressly provided in the will, the personal representative, in the administration of the estate, has 8 all of the powers of a trustee conferred under subsection (a).
In addition, the personal representative has the power to satisfy 9 written charitable pledges of the decedent, irrespective of whether the pledges constitute binding obligations of the 10 decedent or were properly presented as claims, if in the judgment of the personal representative the decedent would have 11 wanted the pledges completed under the circumstances.

12 (c) Except as expressly provided in the will, the personal representative or trustee shall observe the standards in dealing with the estate that would be observed by a prudent person 13 dealing with the property of another, and if the personal
