ANNUAL REPORT FOR THE YEAR 1985

INTRODUCTION

The California Law Revision Commission¹ was created in 1953 (as the permanent successor to the Code Commission) with the responsibility for a continuing substantive review of California statutory and decisional law.² The Commission studies the California law to discover defects and anachronisms and recommends legislation to make needed reforms.

The Commission assists the Legislature in keeping the law up to date by:

- (1) Intensively studying complex and sometimes controversial subjects;
- (2) Identifying major policy questions for legislative attention;
- (3) Gathering the views of interested persons and organizations; and
- (4) Drafting recommended legislation for legislative consideration.

The efforts of the Commission permit the Legislature to determine significant policy questions rather than to concern itself with the technical problems in preparing background studies, working out intricate legal problems, and drafting needed legislation. The Commission thus enables the Legislature to accomplish needed reforms that otherwise might not be made because of the heavy demands on legislative time. In some cases, the Commission's report demonstrates that no new legislation on a particular topic is needed, thus relieving the Legislature of the need to study the topic.

The Commission consists of:

—A Member of the Senate appointed by the Committee on Rules.

—A Member of the Assembly appointed by the Speaker.

—Seven members appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate.

—The Legislative Counsel who is an ex officio member.

The Commission may study only topics that the Legislature by concurrent resolution authorizes it to study. The Commission now has a calendar of 23 topics.³

Commission recommendations have resulted in the enactment of legislation affecting 8,728 sections of the California statutes:

² See 1 Cal. L. Revision Comm'n Reports, Annual Report for 1954 at 7 (1957).

³ See list of topics under "Calendar of Topics Authorized for Study" set out in Appendix I infra.

3,761 sections have been added, 2,084 sections amended, and 2,883 sections repealed. Of the 196 Commission recommendations submitted to the Legislature, 179 (91%) have been enacted in whole or in substantial part.⁴

The Commission's recommendations and studies are published as pamphlets and later in hardcover volumes. A list of past publications and information on where and how copies may be obtained may be found at the end of this Report.

1986 LEGISLATIVE PROGRAM

The Commission plans to recommend a comprehensive trust statute for enactment by the 1986 session of the Legislature.

THE PROBATE CODE STUDY

The Commission is now devoting its time and resources almost exclusively to the study of probate law and procedure.⁵ The goal is to submit an entire new Probate Code for enactment at the 1987 legislative session.

During 1985, the Commission sent drafts of portions of the new code to interested persons and organizations for review and comment. This practice will continue in 1986.

The Commission is working in close cooperation with the Estate Planning, Trust and Probate Law Section of the State Bar and the Probate and Trust Law Section of the Los Angeles County Bar Association. The views of members of the public and of lawyers, judges, court commissioners, probate referees, and others who work in the probate law field are being sought and will be taken into account in preparing the new code. A special effort has been made to obtain the suggestions of members of the probate and trust law committees of local bar associations. The California Bankers Association has appointed a special committee to work with the Commission.

The Commission has retained the following expert consultants to assist the Commission in its study of probate law: Professor Paul E. Basye, Hastings College of the Law, Professor Gail B. Bird, Hastings College of the Law, Professor Jesse Dukeminier, U.C.L.A. Law School, Professor Susan F. French, U.C. Davis School of Law, Professor Edward C. Halbach, Jr., U.C. Berkeley Law School, and Professor Russell D. Niles, Hastings College of the Law.

⁵ In 1980, the Legislature directed the Commission to make this study. 1980 Cal. Stats. res. ch. 37.

CALENDAR OF TOPICS FOR STUDY

The Commission's calendar of topics is set out in Appendix I to this Report. Each of these topics has been authorized for Commission study by the Legislature.⁶ Because of the substantial and numerous topics already on its calendar, the Commission does not at this time recommend any additional topics for inclusion on its calendar of topics.

FUNCTION AND PROCEDURE OF COMMISSION

The principal duties of the Law Revision Commission⁷ are to:

(1) Examine the common law and statutes for the purpose of discovering defects and anachronisms.

(2) Receive and consider suggestions and proposed changes in the law from the American Law Institute, the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws,⁸ bar associations, and other learned bodies, and from judges, public officials, lawyers, and the public generally.

(3) Recommend such changes in law as it deems necessary to bring the law of this state into harmony with modern conditions.⁹

The Commission is required to file a report at each regular session of the Legislature containing a calendar of topics selected by it for study, listing both studies in progress and topics intended for future consideration. The Commission may study only topics which the Legislature, by concurrent resolution, authorizes it to study.¹⁰

The Commission's work on a recommendation is commenced after a background study has been prepared. In some cases, the study is prepared by a member of the Commission's staff, but

⁶ Section 8293 of the Government Code provides that the Commission shall study, in addition to those topics which it recommends and which are approved by the Legislature, any topics which the Legislature by concurrent resolution refers to it for study.

⁷ Gov't Code §§ 8280-8297 (statute governing California Law Revision Commission).

⁸ The Commission's Executive Secretary serves as an Associate Member of the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws.

¹⁰ See Gov't Code § 8293. In addition, Code of Civil Procedure Section 703.120 requires the Commission to review statutes providing for exemptions from enforcement of money judgments each 10 years and to recommend any needed revisions.

some of the studies are undertaken by specialists in the fields of law involved who are retained as research consultants to the Commission. This procedure not only provides the Commission with invaluable expert assistance but is economical as well because the attorneys and law professors who serve as research consultants have already acquired the considerable background necessary to understand the specific problems under consideration. Expert consultants are also retained to advise the Commission at meetings.

The background study is given careful consideration by the Commission and, after making its preliminary decisions on the subject, the Commission ordinarily distributes a tentative recommendation to the State Bar and to numerous other interested persons. Comments on the tentative recommendation are considered by the Commission in determining what recommendation, if any, the Commission will make to the Legislature. When the Commission has reached a conclusion on the matter, its recommendation to the Legislature (including a draft of any legislation necessary to effectuate its recommendation) is published in a pamphlet.¹¹ In some cases, the background study is published in the pamphlet containing the recommendation.¹²

The Commission ordinarily prepares a Comment explaining each section it recommends. These Comments are included in the Commission's report and are frequently revised by legislative committee reports¹³ to reflect amendments¹⁴ made after the recommended legislation has been introduced in the Legislature. The Comment often indicates the derivation of the

¹² Background studies may be published in law reviews. For a list of background studies published in law reviews, see 10 Cal. L. Revision Comm'n Reports 1108 n.5 (1971), 11 Cal. L. Revision Comm'n Reports 1008 n.5 & 1108 n.5 (1973), 13 Cal. L. Revision Comm'n Reports 1628 n.5 (1976), 16 Cal. L. Revision Comm'n Reports 2021 n.6 (1982), and 17 Cal. L. Revision Comm'n Reports 819 n.6 (1984).

¹⁴ Many of the amendments made after the recommended legislation has been introduced are made upon recommendation of the Commission to deal with matters brought to the Commission's attention after its recommendation was printed. In some cases, however, an amendment may be made that the Commission believes is not desirable and does not recommend.

section and explains its purpose, its relation to other sections, and potential problems in its meaning or application. The Comments are written as if the legislation were enacted since their primary purpose is to explain the statute to those who will have occasion to use it after it is in effect. They are entitled to substantial weight in construing the statutory provisions.¹⁵ However, while the Commission endeavors in the Comment to explain any changes in the law made by the section, the Commission does not claim that every inconsistent case is noted in the Comment, nor can it anticipate judicial conclusions as to the significance of existing case authorities.¹⁶ Hence, failure to note a change in prior law or to refer to an inconsistent judicial decision is not intended to, and should not, influence the construction of a clearly stated statutory provision.¹⁷

The pamphlets are distributed to the Governor, Members of the Legislature, heads of state departments, and a substantial number of judges, district attorneys, lawyers, law professors, and law libraries throughout the state.¹⁸ Thus, a large and representative number of interested persons are given an opportunity to study and comment upon the Commission's work before it is considered for enactment by the Legislature.¹⁹ The annual reports and the recommendations and studies of the Commission are republished in a set of hardcover volumes that is both a permanent record of the Commission's work and, it is believed, a valuable contribution to the legal literature of the state. These volumes are available at most county law libraries

LEGISLATIVE HISTORY OF RECOMMENDATIONS SUBMITTED TO 1985 LEGISLATIVE SESSION

The Commission recommended nine bills and one concurrent resolution for enactment at the 1985 session.²¹ The concurrent resolution and eight bills were enacted.

Estate Planning and Probate

Three bills relating to estate planning, probate, and related matters were recommended by the Commission for enactment at the 1985 session.

Clarifying revisions. Assembly Bill 97, which became Chapter 359 of the Statutes of 1985, was introduced by Assembly Member Alister McAlister. The Commission did not publish a recommendation relating to this bill. This bill was introduced as an urgency measure to make clarifying revisions in provisions previously enacted upon Commission recommendation.

As enacted, Assembly Bill 97 requires the giving of notices under the Probate Code to a stepchild or foster child only if the person giving the notice has actual knowledge of facts which a person would reasonably believe give rise under Section 6408 to the parent-child relationship, thus avoiding the expense of giving notice to stepchildren and foster children and those claiming through them where such persons are not reasonably believed to be heirs, devisees, or legatees of the decedent or testator.

The bill added Section 591.9 to the Probate Code making clear that various provisions that apply when real property is sold under court supervision do not apply when real property is sold under independent administration authority. The new section also makes clear that when independent administration authority includes authority to sell real property, the bond of the executor or administrator must be increased to include the estimated value of the real property in the decedent's estate.

The bill also made other technical and clarifying amendments.

Probate law and procedure. Assembly Bill 196, which became Chapter xxx of the Statutes of 1985, was introduced by Assembly Member McAlister to effectuate three Commission recommendations. See Recommendation Relating to Transfer Without Probate of Certain Property Registered by the State, 18 Cal. L. Revision Comm'n Reports 129 (1986); Recommendation

²¹ Senate Bill 641, which became Chapter 100 of the Statutes of 1985, enacted the substance of a previously submitted Commission recommendation relating to admissibility of duplicates in evidence. See Recommendation Relating to Admissibility of Duplicates in Evidence, 13 Cal. L. Revision Comm'n Reports 2115 (1976).

Relating to Distribution Under a Will or Trust, (January 1985) published as Appendix VI to this Report; Recommendation Relating to Effect of Adoption or out of Wedlock Birth on Rights at Death, (January 1985) published as Appendix VII to this Report. See also Communication from California Law Revision Commission Concerning Assembly Bill 196, reprinted as Appendix XIII to this Report and noted in the Assembly Journal for July 15, 1985, at page 3444. This bill was enacted after a number of substantive, technical, and clarifying amendments were made.

Powers of attorney. Senate Bill 1270, which became Chapter 403 of the Statutes of 1985, was introduced by Senator Bill Lockyer to effectuate the Commission's recommendation on this subject. See Recommendation Relating to Durable Powers of Attorney, (January 1985) published as Appendix VIII to this Report. See also Communication from California Law Revision Commission Concerning Senate Bill 1270, Senate J. (July 15, 1985) at page 2613, reprinted as Appendix XV to this Report. This bill was enacted after amendments were made.

Real Property Law

Assembly Bill 96, which became Chapter 157 of the Statutes of 1985, was introduced by Assembly Member McAlister to effectuate two Commission recommendations. See Recommendation Relating to Recording Severance of Joint Tenancy, (January 1985) published as Appendix IV to this Report, and Recommendation Relating to Abandoned Easements, (January 1985) published as Appendix V to this Report. See also Communication from Law Revision Commission Concerning Assembly Bill 96, Senate J. (June 13, 1985) at page 1871, reprinted as Appendix X to this Report. The bill was enacted after amendments were made.

Creditors' Remedies

Assembly Bill 98, which became Chapter 41 of the Statutes of 1985, was introduced by Assembly Member McAlister.

As enacted, Assembly Bill 98 makes technical and clarifying revisions in the Enforcement of Judgments Law enacted by Chapter 1364 of the Statutes of 1982 upon recommendation of the Commission.

The Commission did not publish a recommendation relating to Assembly Bill 98, but the Commission's Comments to the individual bill sections are printed as Appendix XI to this Report.

Family Law

Assembly Bill 150, which became Chapter 362 of the Statutes of 1985, was introduced by Assembly Member McAlister to effectuate three Commission recommendations. See Recommendation Relating to Provision for Support if Support Obligor Dies, 18 Cal. L. Revision Comm'n Reports 119 (1986); Recommendation Relating to Dividing Jointly Owned Property Upon Marriage Dissolution, 18 Cal. L. Revision Comm'n Reports 147 (1986); Recommendation Relating to Litigation Expenses in Family Law Proceedings, (March 1985) published as Appendix IX to this Report. See also Communication from California Law Revision Commission Concerning Assembly Bill 150, Senate J. (June 13, 1985) at page 1871, reprinted as Appendix XII to this Report. The bill was enacted after amendments were made.

Uniform Transfers to Minors Act

Assembly Bill 690, which became Chapter 90 of the Statutes of 1985, was introduced by Assembly Member Byron Sher.

As enacted, Assembly Bill 690 gives a transferor of property under the Uniform Transfers to Minors Act authority to designate one or more persons as successor custodians in case the original custodian is unable, declines, or is ineligible to serve or resigns, dies, becomes incapacitated, or is removed. The bill requires that the transferor designate the successor custodians either in the document that creates the custodianship or in a separate document executed as part of the same transaction that created the custodianship and contemporaneously with the execution of the document that created the custodianship. The Commission did not publish a recommendation relating to this legislation.

Mediation

Assembly Bill 1030, which became Chapter xx of the Statutes of 1985, was introduced by Assembly Member McAlister to effectuate the Commission's recommendation on this subject. See Recommendation Relating to Protection of Mediation Communications, (January 1985) published as Appendix III to this Report. See also Communication from California Law Revision Commission Concerning Assembly Bill 1030, reprinted as Appendix XIV to this Report and noted in the Assembly Journal for July 15, 1985, at page 3444. The bill was enacted after amendments were made.

Revision of Commission's Enabling Statute

Assembly Bill 195 was introduced by Assembly Member McAlister at the request of the Commission to amend Government Code Section 8288 to allow the employees of the Commission and members of the Commission appointed by the Governor to advocate in their official capacity the passage by the Legislature or approval by the Governor of legislation recommended by the Commission, and to add a provision that the office of a member of the Commission appointed by the Governor becomes vacant if the member is absent, without excuse, from three consecutive Commission meetings. See Annual Report, 18 Cal. L. Revision Comm'n Reports 13 n.18 (1986).

Assembly Bill 195 was amended in the Senate to add a provision permitting members of the Legislature appointed to the Commission to designate an alternate who, in the absence of the legislative member, shall be counted toward a quorum, may vote, and may receive compensation and expenses for attending meetings of the Commission. The bill passed the Senate as so amended. At the request of the Commission's Chairperson, Assembly Member McAlister requested that the bill be placed on the inactive file, and the bill was not enacted.

Resolution Approving Topics for Study

Assembly Concurrent Resolution 4, introduced by Assembly Member McAlister and adopted as Resolution Chapter 25 of the Statutes of 1985, continues the Commission's authority to study topics previously authorized for study.

REPORT ON STATUTES REPEALED BY IMPLICATION OR HELD UNCONSTITUTIONAL

Section 8290 of the Government Code provides:

The commission shall recommend the express repeal of all statutes repealed by implication, or held unconstitutional by the Supreme Court of the state or the Supreme Court of the United States.

Pursuant to this directive, the Commission has made a study of the decisions of the United States Supreme Court and the California Supreme Court handed down since the Commission's last Annual Report was prepared²² and has the following to report:

²² This study has been carried through 38 Cal.3d 912 (Advance Sheet No. 21, August 1, 1985) and 105 S.Ct. 3552 (Advance Sheet No. 18, July 15, 1985).

(1) No decision of the United States Supreme Court or the California Supreme Court holding a statute of this state repealed by implication has been found.

(2) No decision of the United States Supreme Court holding a statute of this state unconstitutional has been found.

(3) One decision of the California Supreme Court holding a statute unconstitutional has been found.

In In re William A. Misener, 38 Cal.3d 543 (1985), the court held that Penal Code Section 1102.5, which compels the defendant to supply the prosecution with evidence that can impeach defense witnesses, is unconstitutional because it violates that aspect of a defendant's privilege against self-incrimination under Section 15 of Article 1 of the California Constitution which requires the prosecution to carry the entire burden of proving defendant's guilt.

RECOMMENDATIONS

The Law Revision Commission respectfully recommends that the Legislature authorize the Commission to complete its study of the topics previously authorized for study (see "Calendar of Topics Authorized for Study" set out as Appendix I to this Report).

Pursuant to the mandate imposed by Section 8290 of the Government Code, the Commission recommends the repeal of the provisions referred to under "Report on Statutes Repealed by Implication or Held Unconstitutional," supra, to the extent that those provisions have been held unconstitutional.

APPENDIX I

CALENDAR OF TOPICS AUTHORIZED FOR STUDY

The Commission has on its calendar of topics the topics listed below. Each of these topics has been authorized for Commission study by the Legislature.

Creditors' remedies. COMMUNICATION FROM CALIFORNIA LAW REVISION COMMISSION CONCERNING ASSEMBLY BILL 96

[Extract from Senate Journal for June 13, 1985 (1984-85 Regular Session)]

MOTION TO PRINT IN JOURNAL

Senator Lockyer moved that the following report be printed in the Journal.

Motion carried.

Assembly Bills 96 and 150 were amended after the bills had passed the Assembly. The following comments have been revised to reflect these amendments. They supersede the original comments contained in the commission's recommendation and the revised commission comment printed in the Assembly Journal for April 23, 1985.

ASSEMBLY BILL 96

Civil Code § 683.2 (amended)

Comment. Subdivision (b) of Section 683.2 is amended to make clear that nothing in the subdivision affects any rights of a bona fide purchaser or encumbrancer. For purposes of the subdivision, "knowledge" of a written agreement of the joint tenants includes both actual knowledge and constructive knowledge through recordation of the agreement.

Subdivision (c) is added to Section 683.2 to require that, in the case of a recorded real property joint tenancy, severance by written declaration or by other instrument must be recorded as required by subdivision (c) to be effective to terminate the right of survivorship of the other joint tenants. Subdivision (d) permits joint tenants to agree among themselves concerning the manner or effect of a severance, to join in the severance, or to make a deed from one to another, without being subject to the requirements of subdivision (c). Subdivision (e) is amended so that the new recording requirement will not make ineffective a nonrecorded severance where the severance was made before January 1, 1986.

Severance of a joint tenancy terminates the right of survivorship, leaving the parties in a tenancy in common relationship. A conveyance of a joint tenant's interest both severs the joint tenancy and substitutes the transferee as a new party in the tenancy in common relationship. If the instrument effecting the severance is not recorded as required by subdivision (c), that subdivision provides that the severance of the joint tenancy is not effective to terminate the survivorship right of the nonsevering joint tenant. Thus, if a conveyance by a joint tenant is not recorded as required, the transferee holds the interest conveyed as a tenant in common, subject to a right of survivorship in the nonsevering joint tenant. APPENDIX XI

CALIFORNIA LAW REVISION COMMISSION COMMENTS TO AB 98 (1985) (1985 Cal. Stats. ch. 41)

Assembly Bill 98 was drafted and recommended by the California Law Revision Commission. The Comments set out below have been prepared by the Commission to explain the provisions of Assembly Bill 98 as enacted.

Code of Civil Procedure § 488.450 (technical amendment). Attachment of securities

Section 488.450 is amended to correct a technical defect. Chapter 927 of the Statutes of 1984 amended Section 488.450 in connection with a revision of the Commercial Code provisions relating to uncertificated securities. The second sentence, as added to Section 488.450, erroneously referred to a writ of execution and notice of levy whereas the correct reference under the Attachment Law is to a writ of attachment and notice of attachment.

Code of Civil Procedure § 489.010 (added). Application of Bond and Undertaking Law

Section 489.010 makes clear that the Bond and Undertaking Law applies in attachment. This makes no change in the law. See the Comment to the repeal of former Sections 489.010-489.050.

Code of Civil Procedure § 681.030 (technical amendment). Rules for practice and procedure; forms

Subdivision (b) of Section 681.030 is amended to provide a rule on the effect of the use of an official form in a language other than English. This amendment continues the substance of former Section 693.060(b) which related to the use of a Spanish language form in connection with the dwelling exemption.

COMMUNICATION FROM CALIFORNIA LAW REVISION COMMISSION CONCERNING ASSEMBLY BILL 150

[Extract from Senate Journal for June 13, 1985 (1984-85 Regular Session)]

MOTION TO PRINT IN JOURNAL

Senator Lockyer moved that the following report be printed in the Journal.

Motion carried.

Assembly Bills 96 and 150 were amended after the bills had passed the Assembly. The following comments have been revised to reflect these amendments. They supersede the original comments contained in the commission's recommendation and the revised commission comment printed in the Assembly Journal for April 23, 1985.

ASSEMBLY BILL 150

Civil Code § 4800.4 (added)

Comment. Section 4800.4 reverses the rule that the court in a dissolution or separation proceeding has no jurisdiction over property of the parties other than community or quasi-community property. See, e.g., In re Marriage of Leversee, 156 Cal. App.3d 891, 203 Cal. Rptr. 481 (1984); In re Marriage of Askren, 157 Cal. App.3d 205, 203 Cal. Rptr. 606 (1984); Schindler v. Schindler, 126 Cal. App.2d 597, 272 P.2d 566 (1954); Walker v. Walker, 108 Cal. App.2d 605, 239 P.2d 106 (1952); cf. Porter v. Superior Court, 73 Cal. App.3d 793, 141 Cal. Rptr. 59 (1977) (general discussion). Section 4800.4 supplements provisions governing community property held in joint tenancy form by extending the jurisdiction of the court to separate property held in joint tenancy form as well. It is consistent with the general rule that the court has jurisdiction to settle the property rights of the parties and with the principle that the court has jurisdiction to settle matters submitted to it by the parties. Section 4351 (jurisdiction of court); see, e.g., Allen v. Allen, 159 Cal. 197, 113 P.160 (1911). It is also consistent with the rule that the court may reserve jurisdiction to divide community property that has become tenancy in common by operation of law upon dissolution or separation. See, e.g., Marriage of Borges, 83 Cal. App.3d 771, 148 Cal. Rptr. 118 (1978); Comment, Post-Dissolution Suits to Divide Community Property: A Proposal for Legislative Action, 10 Pac. L.J. 825 (1979).

Subdivision (a) supplements Section 4800 by giving the court express jurisdiction over joint tenancy or tenancy in common separate property submitted by a party in a property division proceeding under the Family Law Act. Property subject to division
