Memorandum 86-27

Subject: Study L-1010 - Estate and Trust Code (Opening Estate Administration--draft of tentative recommendation)

Attached to this memorandum is a draft of the tentative recommendation relating to opening estate administration, made in conformance with Commission decisions at the January 1986 meeting. The staff has no further comments on the draft at this point. We hope at this meeting to approve the draft to distribute to interested persons and organizations for comment.

Respectfully submitted,

Nathaniel Sterling
Assistant Executive Secretary

STAFF DRAFT

TENTATIVE RECOMMENDATION
Relating To
OPENING ESTATE ADMINISTRATION

The provisions of the proposed law governing the opening of estate administration generally follow both the organization and substance of existing law. There is some reorganization,<sup>1</sup> together with many simplifications and technical and clarifying changes.<sup>2</sup> Of the substantive changes made by the proposed law, minor changes are noted in the Comments to the specific provisions of the proposed law and major changes are described below.

1. For example, existing law provides two parallel though not identical procedures for probating a will and appointing a personal representative. The proposed law reorganizes these procedures in a single uniform proceeding for opening estate administration. This is consistent with current practice through consolidated Judicial Council forms.

2. Included is simplification of terminology. The proposed law replaces existing references to executors, administrators, administrators with the will annexed, and special administrators, with a single reference to "personal representative," unless a special reference to one particular type is called for. Existing references to granting of letters, granting of administration, admission as executor, and other varieties of terminology intended to refer to court appointment of a personal representative have been standardized to refer to "appointment of a personal representative." References to the "trust" of the personal representative have been replaced by references to the office of the personal representative. Removal from office is the standardized phrase for such variants as revocation or annulment of letters.

Filing of will with court. Existing law requires the custodian of a will to deliver the will to the named executor within 30 days of being informed of the testator's death.<sup>3</sup> However, once the will is in the hands of the named executor, there is no further mechanism by which interested persons may learn of the contents of the will, other than by commencing litigation. The proposed law imposes a duty on the executor to file the will with the court, and provides an expeditious procedure for release by the court of any will being offered for probate.

Time for probate of will. Under existing law a will may be admitted to probate at any time after the death of the decedent.<sup>4</sup> To assure some finality in probate proceedings, the proposed law precludes probate of a will after close of administration.

3. Prob. Code § 320.

4. Prob. Code § 323. Admission of a will to probate and failure to contest a will do not preclude probate of a subsequent will. Prob. Code § 385; Estate of Moore, 180 Cal. 570, 182 P. 285 (1919).

Setting petition for hearing. Existing law provides a minimum 10 days before a petition for administration of a decedent's estate may be heard.<sup>5</sup> The proposed law increases the minimum hearing time to 15 days in recognition of the fact that interested persons may require some additional time to prepare for the initial hearing in the administration of the estate.<sup>6</sup>

Notice of hearing. In the interest of simplicity and economy, the proposed law consolidates in a single form the various notices of hearing to open probate administration, whether served or published. The consolidated form of notice includes important information for interested persons that is not required by existing law to be included: (1) The notice must refer to the availability in the court file of any will to be probated. (2) The notice must inform the recipients that if independent administration authority is granted, the personal representative may administer the estate without supervision.

In addition to the persons on whom notice is required to be served,<sup>7</sup> the proposed law requires such additional notice as the court may authorize. This requirement may be important in situations where there are other interested parties who might not otherwise receive actual notice, such as trust beneficiaries or creditors. THE LAW REVISION COMMISSION IS CURRENTLY STUDYING WHETHER ACTUAL, AS OPPOSED TO PUBLISHED, NOTICE TO KNOWN OR REASONABLY ASCERTAINABLE CREDITORS SHOULD BE REQUIRED, IN LIGHT OF RECENT DUE PROCESS OF LAW DEVELOPMENTS. THE COMMISSION SOLICITS COMMENTS AND SUGGESTIONS CONCERNING IMPLEMENTATION OF SUCH AN ACTUAL NOTICE REQUIREMENT.

5. Prob. Code § 327.

6. Likewise, the proposed law requires that interested persons receive 10 days actual notice, allowing for mailing time, etc., in order to allow sufficient time for preparation for the hearing.

7. Heirs of the decedent (so far as known to the petitioner) and devisees and executors named in the decedent's will. Prob. Code § 328.

Will contest. Existing statutes appear to put the burden of proof on a will contestant rather than on a will proponent,<sup>8</sup> but lack detail on the specific burdens and order of proof in will contests.<sup>9</sup> The proposed law provides useful detail in this area.<sup>10</sup>

In a will contest a jury determination may be had of a number of issues involving the validity of the will.<sup>11</sup> The jury trial scheme has been criticized not only because it is erratic in the issues it leaves to the jury,<sup>12</sup> but also because jury verdicts upholding a contest are reversed on appeal in the great majority of cases.<sup>13</sup> Jury trial in probate matters is not constitutionally required,<sup>14</sup> and there is a substantial waste of time and resources in going through the jury trial, appeal, and reversal process. Moreover, the

8. Prob. Code § 371. This seems to conflict with the general rule that, "The party affirming is plaintiff and the one denying or avoiding is defendant." Prob. Code § 1230.

9. The cases have resolved this statutory ambiguity by imposing the burden of proof of due execution on the proponent of the will, and the burden of proof of lack of testamentary capacity or undue influence on the contestant.

10. The detail is drawn from Uniform Probate Code Section 3-407.

11. Probate Code Section 371 provides for a jury trial of the following issues:

- (1) Competency of the decedent to make a will.
- (2) Freedom of the decedent from duress, menace, fraud, and undue influence.
- (3) Due execution and attestation of the will.
- (4) Any other question substantially affecting the validity of the will.

whole process has the effect of postponing enjoyment of the estate for several years, which gives unmeritorious contestants leverage to obtain compromise settlements to which they should not be entitled. For these reasons, the proposed law leaves questions of fact in will contests to the judge rather than the jury.

In the case of a will contest after probate (i.e., a proceeding to revoke the probate of a will), existing law requires an award of costs against an unsuccessful contestant and, if the contest is successful, gives the court discretion to award costs either against the person who resisted the contest or against the estate.<sup>15</sup> The proposed law removes the court discretion and requires the award to be made against the estate; the personal representative or other interested person has the duty to defend a will admitted to probate.

The proposed law also adds attorney's fees to the award of costs. This addition is intended to encourage a potential contestant to make the challenge at the initial probate hearing rather than waiting to see the outcome of any will contest and then commencing a second proceeding to revoke probate. The award of attorney's fees is also intended to discourage delaying and other obstructive tactics after a will has already been admitted to probate.

Competence of person appointed personal representative. Existing law requires that a person appointed as personal representative be an adult, resident of the United States, and have sufficient understanding and integrity, among other qualifications.<sup>16</sup> The governing statutes do not, however, include a conflict of interest among the disqualifications of a personal representative even though the conflict of interest would require removal of the personal

15. Prob. Code § 383.

16. Prob. Code §§ 401, 420. The United States residency requirement applies to administrators but not executors. The proposed law eliminates some of the existing grounds for disqualification such as "drunkenness," "improvidence," and conviction of an "infamous crime", in favor of the general ground that the person is incapable of executing or is otherwise unfit to execute the duties of the office.

representative from office upon appointment.<sup>17</sup> The proposed law cures this problem by adding as a ground for disqualification that the person would be removed from office if appointed. This will save needless court proceedings, as well as substantial amounts of time, and will avoid unnecessary problems and complications in the administration of the estate.

Priority for appointment as administrator. The priority of persons for appointment as administrator of the estate of a decedent corresponds to their priority for inheriting the estate of the decedent under the laws governing intestate succession.<sup>18</sup> Recent changes in the law governing intestate succession<sup>19</sup> have rendered the appointment priority scheme inconsistent. The proposed law conforms the priority for appointment as administrator to the current law governing intestate succession.

Priority of surviving spouse. Ordinarily the surviving spouse of the decedent has first priority for appointment as personal representative.<sup>20</sup> However, where the surviving spouse was in the process of dissolving the marriage and was living apart from the decedent at the time of the decedent's death, the surviving spouse may have a lower priority, depending upon whether the surviving spouse has waived the right to petition for a determination that property passes to the surviving spouse without administration.<sup>21</sup> The proposed law does not distinguish between a surviving spouse who waives the right to petition and one who does not. Any surviving spouse who was in a pending proceeding to dissolve the marriage and who was living apart from the decedent has an inherent conflict of interest with the decedent's heirs and should have lower priority.

20. Prob. Code § 422(a)(1).

21. Prob. Code § 422(a)(6).

Appointment of disinterested person as personal representative.

If two persons of equal rank seek appointment as personal representative and are unable to agree, the court is faced with the difficult choice of appointing a person whose interests are antagonistic to those of another person equally entitled to appointment. In this situation, appointment of a disinterested person would be beneficial. The proposed law authorizes the court to make such an appointment; a similar technique is used where two creditors are unable to agree (see discussion immediately below).

If no person entitled to higher priority seeks appointment as personal representative, a creditor may be appointed personal representative, but if another creditor objects, the court may appoint a third person instead.<sup>22</sup> The proposed law broadens court discretion to allow appointment of a neutral party whether or not a creditor objects. This may be important for the protection of the estate or other interested parties, as well as for the protection of creditors who may not have received notice of the pendency of the administration proceedings.

Administrator with the will annexed. Because an administrator with the will annexed (c.t.a.) was not selected by the testator to execute the testator's will, the law does not permit the administrator c.t.a. to exercise discretionary powers granted to an executor by the will.<sup>23</sup> In some circumstances exercise of a discretionary power would be desirable and beneficial for the estate and persons interested in the estate. For this reason the proposed law enables the court in its discretion to authorize exercise of discretionary powers by the administrator c.t.a.

Special administrator. Existing statutes provide for appointment of a special administrator where there are problems of delay in appointing a general personal representative, where there is a vacancy in the office of the personal representative, or for a number of other causes.<sup>24</sup> The statutory listing of grounds is unduly restrictive, since there may be other situations where temporary appointment of a special administrator would be beneficial to the estate and interested parties. For example, it may be desirable to liquidate some of the estate assets immediately for tax purposes or to prevent foreclosure, even though a general personal representative will eventually be appointed in due course. The proposed law permits the court to appoint a special administrator to exercise such powers as may be appropriate under the circumstances for the preservation of the estate, if immediate appointment appears necessary. Likewise, the proposed law makes clear that a special administrator may be appointed for a specific purpose or with specific powers and duties,<sup>25</sup> or may be granted general powers of a personal representative where it appears to the court proper to grant such powers.<sup>26</sup>

22. Prob. Code §§ 422(a)(11), 425.

23. Prob. Code § 409.

Upon termination of the special administrator's appointment, the special administrator must deliver the estate assets immediately to the general personal representative and render an account.<sup>27</sup> In some cases it may be desirable for the special administrator to retain control during the transitional period, for example to complete a transaction, and the proposed law enables the court to authorize this. It may also be wasteful for the special administrator to render a separate account where the same person is appointed general personal representative. In this situation, the proposed law permits the

24. Prob. Code § 460.

25. This provision is drawn from Uniform Probate Code Section 3-617.

26. Existing statutes are unduly rigid in this respect, listing limited situations where a general grant of authority is proper and requiring, rather than permitting, a general grant of authority in these situations. See Prob. Code § 465.

27. Prob. Code §§ 466-467.

special account to be combined with the first general account of the general personal representative.<sup>28</sup>

Nonresident personal representative. A nonresident personal representative remains subject to the jurisdiction of the probate court and must maintain a current address with the Secretary of State for service of process.<sup>29</sup> Nonetheless, for practical purposes a nonresident may be effectively beyond the reach of the court and interested persons. As a partial remedy for this problem, the proposed law adds express authority for the court to require a bond where appropriate.

28. The fees of the special administrator would not be allowed until the final account (unless agreed to by the general personal representative); this would conform the law to statewide practice. The proposed law also conforms the award of attorney's fees for extraordinary services to the general rules on such awards, and recognizes agreements among interested persons on splitting fees between special and general administrations.

29. Prob. Code §§ 405.1-405.6.

Bond of personal representative. A recent addition to existing law requires the court to excuse the filing of a bond if all beneficiaries waive the bond in writing,<sup>30</sup> but permits the court to require a bond for good cause.<sup>31</sup> The proposed law enables the court in its discretion to require a bond in any case, whether or not good cause is demonstrated; the bond is inexpensive insurance that the court should be allowed to require notwithstanding waiver by the beneficiaries.

Existing law gives the court discretion to fix the amount of the bond of the personal representative based on the estimated value of personal property in the estate and the probable annual gross income of the estate.<sup>32</sup> The proposed law makes clear that the court has authority to prescribe a minimum bond regardless of the value of property and the income of the estate, but the bond should not be greater than the estimated value and income. This approach will provide greater guidance to the court, will be simpler to administer, and will adequately protect persons interested in the estate.

Existing law allows the personal representative the cost of the bond, not exceeding one half of one percent of the amount of the bond.<sup>33</sup> The Commission is informed that although bond costs vary around the state, the cost of a personal representative's bond is generally less than the statutory allowance. If bond costs were to exceed the statutory allowance, it would be appropriate to allow the excess cost if reasonable. Surety bond premiums are controlled by the marketplace, not by the statutory allowance. For these reasons, the proposed law eliminates the specific statutory allowance in favor of a general provision allowing recovery of the reasonable cost of the bond.

31. Prob. Code § 543.

32. Prob. Code § 541(a).

33. Prob. Code § 541.5. In the case of a bond in an amount less than $4,000 the amount allowed is $50.

The guardianship and conservatorship law provides a three-year statute of limitations for recovery on a bond,<sup>34</sup> but the law governing administration of decedents' estates includes no comparable provision. The proposed law provides a four-year statute of limitations for recovery on the bond for both decedents' and guardianship estates, running from the close of administration. This is consistent with the general statute of limitations for written instruments.<sup>35</sup>

Informing personal representative of duties. The proposed law includes a requirement that a statement of duties and liabilities be delivered to the personal representative by the clerk at the time the personal representative files the oath of office. The statement of duties and liabilities is a general statement, derived from comparable statements used in a number of probate courts around the state.<sup>36</sup> The statement should be helpful in giving the personal representative a basic understanding of the responsibilities involved in the office.

Suspension of powers of personal representative. Existing law enables the court to restrain the personal representative from taking actions adverse to the interests of interested persons in limited situations, such as where probate of a lost or destroyed will is pending.<sup>37</sup> This provision is useful, but is unduly restricted.<sup>38</sup> The proposed law includes a general provision to enable the court to suspend the powers of the personal representative either generally or as to specific property or duties.<sup>39</sup> In order to protect against abuse, the proposed law also authorizes the court to award attorney's fees where a petition to suspend powers is brought unnecessarily.

Removal of personal representative. The existing statute specifies a number of grounds for removal of a personal representative, including such causes as embezzlement, mismanagement, and removal from the state.<sup>40</sup> This statutory statement is obsolete in two respects--(1) nonresidents may now serve as personal representatives; and (2) other grounds developed by the cases such as having an adverse interest or engaging in hostile acts are not reflected in the statute. The proposed law restates the grounds for removal consistent with existing law.

Removal of a personal representative may be ordered without cause upon petition of a person having higher priority.<sup>41</sup> Automatic removal may be inappropriate in some cases, however, as where administration is nearly complete at the time of the petition. For this reason the proposed law gives the court discretion to deny the petition for removal where to grant the petition would be contrary to the sound administration of the estate.

§ 8000. Petition

8000. (a) Any interested person may, at any time after the death of the decedent, commence proceedings for administration of the estate of the decedent by a petition to the court for an order determining the date and place of the decedent's death and either or both of the following:

- (1) Probate of the decedent's will.
- (2) Appointment of a personal representative.

(b) A petition for probate of the decedent's will may be made regardless of whether the will is in the petitioner's possession or is lost, destroyed, or beyond the jurisdiction of the state.

Comment. Section 8000 restates former law without substantive change. See, e.g., former Prob. C. § 323 (petition for probate of will). The court having jurisdiction is the superior court of the proper county. Sections 7050 (jurisdiction in superior court), 7051 (venue), and 7070-7072 (transfer of proceedings).

NOTE. The interrelation of this provision with the various limitation periods and protection of BFPs, as well as the evidentiary effect of an unprobated will, is under study.

§ 8001. Failure of person named executor to petition

8001. Unless good cause for delay is shown, if a person named in a will as executor fails to petition the court for administration of the estate within 30 days after the person has knowledge of the death of the decedent and that the person is named as executor, the person may be held to have waived the right to appointment as personal representative.

Comment. Section 8001 restates former Probate Code Section 324 without substantive change. If the person named as executor is held to have waived the right to appointment, the court may appoint another competent person as personal representative. § 8002. Contents of petition 8002. (a) The petition shall be in writing, signed by the petitioner, and filed with the clerk.

(b) The petition shall contain all of the following information:

(1) The jurisdictional facts, including the date and place of the decedent's death.

(2) The street number, street, city, and county of the decedent's residence at the time of death.

(3) The name, age, address, and relation to the decedent of each heir and devisee of the decedent, so far as known to or reasonably ascertainable by the petitioner.

(4) The character and estimated value of the property of the estate.

(5) The name of the person for whom appointment as personal representative is petitioned.

(c) A copy of the decedent's will, if any, shall be attached to the petition and the petition shall state whether the person named as executor in the will consents to act or waives the right to appointment.

Comment. Subdivision (a) of Section 8002 is drawn from former Probate Code Section 440 (application for letters of administration). Subdivisions (b) and (c) restate portions of former Probate Code Sections 326 (petition for probate of will) and 440 (petition for letters of administration), but substitute the address for the residence of heirs and devisees, add an express requirement that a copy of the will be attached, and provide for notice to heirs and devisees reasonably ascertainable by the petitioner. The provision of former Probate Code Section 440 for signature by counsel for the petitioner is not continued.

§ 8003. Setting and notice of hearing

8003. When the petition is filed:

(a) The hearing on the petition shall be set for a day not less than 15 nor more than 30 days after the petition is filed. At the request of the petitioner made at the time the petition is filed, the hearing upon the petition shall be set for a day not less than 30 nor more than 45 days after the petition is filed.

(b) The petitioner shall serve, and publish or post, notice of the hearing in the manner prescribed in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 8100).

Comment. Section 8003 restates former Probate Code Sections 327 (probate of will) and 441 (application for letters), except that the 10-day minimum period is increased to 15 days and the petitioner rather than the clerk has the duty of giving notice.

(b) If appointment of the personal representative is contested, the grounds of opposition may include a challenge to the competency of the personal representative or the right to appointment. If the contest asserts the right of another person to appointment as personal representative, the contestant shall also file a petition and serve notice in the manner prescribed in Article 2 (commencing with Section 8130) of Chapter 2, and the court shall hear the two petitions together.

(c) If a will is contested, the procedure is that prescribed in Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 8200).

8100. The notice of hearing of a petition for administration of a decedent's estate, whether served pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 8110) or published or posted pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 8120), shall state substantially as follows:

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER

ESTATE OF _____

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, and contingent creditors of _____ and persons who may be otherwise interested in the will and/or estate:

A petition has been filed by _____ in the Superior Court of _____ County requesting that _____ be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of _____ [under the Independent Administration of Estates Act] [and for probate of the decedent's will, which is available for examination in the court file]. Section 8100 restates the second sentence of former Probate Code Section 328 and continues former Probate Code Section 333(b), except that reference to notice of the decedent's death is eliminated from the caption, the type size is not specified, and a reference to the decedent's will is added. Cf. Section 8124 (type size). Section 8100 also restates the last sentence of former Probate Code Section 441 without substantive change. Section 8100 consolidates the published or posted notice with the general notice served on heirs or beneficiaries, so that there is a single form of notice.

Article 2. Service of Notice

§ 8110. Persons on whom notice served

8110. (a) At least 10 days before the hearing of a petition for administration of a decedent's estate, the petitioner shall serve notice of the hearing on all of the following persons:

(1) Each heir of the decedent, so far as known to or reasonably ascertainable by the petitioner.

(2) Each devisee and executor named in any will being offered for probate.

(b) The petitioner shall give other notice as the court prescribes.

Comment. Subdivision (a) of Section 8110 restates the first part of the first sentence of former Probate Code Section 328 and a portion of the second sentence of former Probate Code Section 441, but adds to paragraph (1) the provision limiting service to known heirs. Cf. §§ 7300-7302 (notices). Subdivision (b) is new. It should be noted that in case of service by mail, the time for service is extended by five days in the case of a place of address within California, by 10 days in the case of a place of address outside California, and by 20 days in the case of a place of address outside the United States. Code Civ. Proc. § 1013 (extension of time for service); Est. & Trusts Code § 7200 (general rules of practice govern).

§ 8121. Publication of notice

8121. (a) Notice shall be published for at least 10 days. Three publications in a newspaper published once a week or more often, with at least five days intervening between the first and last publication dates, not counting the publication dates, are sufficient.

(b) Notice shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the city where the decedent resided at the time of death, or where the decedent's property is located if the court has jurisdiction pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 7051. If there is no such newspaper, the decedent did not reside in a city, or the property is not located in a city, then notice shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the county which is circulated within the community in which the decedent resided or the property is located.

(c) For purposes of this section, "city" means a charter city as defined in Section 34101 of the Government Code or a general law city as defined in Section 34102 of the Government Code.

Comment. Section 8121 continues subdivision (a) of former Probate Code Section 333 without substantive change, except that the fifth sentence of former Probate Code Section 333 is continued in Section 8123 (posting of notice). #### § 8122. Good faith compliance with publication requirement

8122. The Legislature finds and declares that, to be most effective, notice of hearing should be published in compliance with Section 8121. However, the Legislature recognizes the possibility that in unusual cases due to confusion over jurisdictional boundaries or oversight such notice may inadvertently be published in a newspaper that does not satisfy Section 8121. Therefore, to prevent a minor error in publication from invalidating what would otherwise be a proper proceeding, the Legislature further finds and declares that notice published in a good faith attempt to comply with Section 8121 is sufficient to provide notice of hearing and to establish jurisdiction if the court expressly finds that the notice was published in a newspaper of general circulation published within the county and widely circulated within a true cross-section of the community in which the decedent resided or the property was located in substantial compliance with Section 8121.

Comment. Section 8124 supersedes the introductory portion of subdivision (b) of former Probate Code Section 333. Nothing in Section 8124 precludes a smaller type size than referred to in the section, so long as the notice remains readable. See also Code Civ. Proc. § 1019 (type size variations).

§ 8125. Affidavit of publication or posting

8125. CHAPTER 3. PROBATE OF WILL

Article 1. Production of Will

§ 8200. Delivery or filing of will by custodian

8200. (a) Unless a petition for probate of the will is earlier filed, the custodian of a will shall, within 30 days after having knowledge of the death of the testator, do one of the following:

(1) File the will with the clerk of the superior court of the county in which the estate of the decedent may be administered.

(2) Deliver the will to the person named in the will as executor, who shall, within 10 days after delivery of the will, either petition for probate of the will or file the will with the clerk of the superior court of the county in which the estate of the decedent may be administered.

(b) A person who fails to comply with the requirements of this section is liable for all damages sustained by any person injured by the failure.

(c) A will filed with the clerk pursuant to this section shall be released by the clerk for attachment to a petition filed with the court for probate of the will, or otherwise upon receipt of a court order for production of the will.

Comment. Section 8200 is drawn from former Probate Code Section 320. Section 8200 adds a filing requirement for the named executor in possession of a will and a procedure for production of the filed will.

The same proof shall be required as if the original will were produced.

Comment. Section 8202 restates former Probate Code Section 330 without substantive change. Proof of a duly authenticated copy may be made in the same manner as proof of an original will. Thus the court may authorize a copy to be presented to the witnesses and the witnesses may be asked the same questions with respect to the copy as if the original will were present. See Article 2 (commencing with Section 8220) (proof of will).

§ 8220. Evidence of subscribing witness

8220. Unless there is a contest of a will:

(a) The will may be proved on the evidence of one of the subscribing witnesses only, if the evidence shows that the will was executed in all particulars as prescribed by law.

(b) Evidence of execution of a will may be received by an affidavit of a subscribing witness to which there is attached a photographic copy of the will, or by an affidavit in the original will that includes or incorporates the attestation clause.

(c) If no subscribing witness resides in the county, but the deposition of a witness can be taken elsewhere, the court may direct the deposition to be taken. On the examination, the court may authorize a photographic copy of the will to be made and presented to the witness, and the witness may be asked the same questions with respect to the photographic copy as if the original will were present.

will on its face conforms to all requirements of law, permit proof of the will by proof of the handwriting of the testator and one of the following:

(a) Proof of the handwriting of any one subscribing witness.

(b) Receipt in evidence of one of the following documents reciting facts showing due execution of the will:

(1) A writing in the will bearing the signatures of all subscribing witnesses.

(2) An affidavit of a person with personal knowledge of the circumstances of the execution.

Comment. Section 8221 restates the fourth sentence of former Probate Code Section 329, except that the writing need not appear "at the end" of the will. The signatures of subscribing witnesses no longer must appear at the end. Section 6110 (execution). If the subscribing witnesses are competent at the time of attesting the execution, their subsequent incompetency, from whatever cause, will not prevent the probate of the will, if it is otherwise satisfactorily proved. § 8226. Effect of admission of will to probate 8226. (a) If no person contests the validity of a will or petitions for revocation of probate of the will within the time prescribed in this chapter, admission of the will to probate is conclusive.

(b) Admission of a will to probate does not preclude the subsequent probate of another will of the decedent before the close of administration, and the court may, but need not, determine how any provisions of a will are affected by another will.

(c) After the close of administration, no other will may be admitted to probate.

Comment. Subdivision (a) of Section 8226 restates the first portion of former Probate Code Section 384 without substantive change. The time within which a contest must be made is before or at the hearing (Section 8004), and the time within which revocation of probate may be sought is 120 days after the will is admitted or, in the case of a minor or incompetent person, before the close of estate administration (Section 8270).

Subdivision (b) restates former Probate Code Section 385. Subdivision (b) is consistent with Section 6120 (revocation by subsequent will). If more than one will is admitted to probate, the court should determine what provisions, if any, control nomination of an executor.

Subdivision (c) is new. It precludes probate of another will after close of administration. Cf. Estate of Moore, 180 Cal. 570, 182 P. 285 (1919). For treatment of after-discovered property, see Section ____ (distribution and discharge).

Article 3. Contest of Will

§ 8250. Summons

8250. When an objection is made pursuant to Section 8004, the clerk shall issue a summons directed to the persons required by Section 8110 to be served with notice of hearing of a petition for administration of the decedent's estate. The summons shall contain a direction that the persons summoned file with the court a written pleading in response to the contest within 30 days after service of the summons.

Comment. Section 8250 restates the last portion of the first sentence of former Probate Code Section 370, but replaces the citation with a summons. Service of the summons must be made in the manner provided by law for service of summons in a civil action. Section 7200 (general rules of practice govern). Section 8250 does not limit the persons to be notified, and thus requires notice to all affected persons wherever residing, including minors and incompetents.

If the demurrer is overruled, the petitioner or other interested persons may, within 10 days thereafter, answer the objection.

§ 8252. Trial

8252. (a) At the trial, the proponents of the will have the burden of proof of due execution. The contestants of the will have the burden of proof of lack of testamentary intent or capacity, undue influence, fraud, duress, mistake, or revocation. If the will is opposed by the petition for probate of a later will revoking the former, it shall be determined first whether the later is entitled to probate.

(b) The court shall try and determine any contested issue of fact that affects the validity of the will.

Comment. Section 8252 supersedes former Probate Code Section 371. Subdivision (a) is drawn from Uniform Probate Code Section 3-407. Subdivision (b) eliminates jury trial in will contests. Jury trial is not constitutionally required. There is a high percentage of reversals on appeal of jury verdicts, with the net result that the whole jury/appeal process serves mainly to postpone enjoyment of the estate, enabling contestants as a practical matter to force compromise settlements to which they would not otherwise be entitled. See Recommendation Proposing the Estate and Trust Code, ___ Cal. L. Revision Comm'n Reports ___ (1986).

(a) Within 120 days after a will is admitted to probate, any interested person, other than a party to a will contest and other than a person who had actual notice of a will contest in time to have joined in the contest, may petition the court to revoke the probate of the will. The petition shall include objections setting forth written grounds of opposition.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), a person who was a minor or who was incompetent at the time a will was admitted to probate may petition the court to revoke the probate of the will at any time before the close of administration of the estate.

Comment. Subdivision (a) of Section 8270 restates the first and second sentences of former Probate Code Section 380 but omits reference to some of the specific grounds of opposition. 8271. (a) Upon the filing of the petition, the clerk shall issue a summons directed to the personal representative and to the heirs and devisees of the decedent, so far as known to the petitioner. The summons shall contain a direction that the persons summoned file with the court a written pleading in response to the petition within 30 days after service of the summons.

(b) The summons shall be served and proceedings had as in the case of a contest of the will.

Comment. Subdivision (a) of Section 8271 supersedes former Probate Code Section 381, substituting a summons for the citation. The former requirement that the summons be issued within the time allowed for filing the petition is not continued. The summons must be directed to the devisees mentioned in the will as to which revocation of probate is sought, as well as to heirs and any personal representative appointed by the court. The summons may be directed to minors or incompetent persons, or to the personal representative of a deceased person.

Subdivision (b) continues the first sentence of former Probate Code Section 382, except that the provision for a jury trial is not continued. See Section 7204 (trial by jury). For the burden of proof on proponents and contestants of the will, see Section 8252 (trial).

Article 1. General Provisions

§ 8400. Appointment necessary

8400. (a) A person has no power to administer the estate until the person is appointed personal representative and the appointment becomes effective. Appointment of a personal representative becomes effective when the person appointed is issued letters.

(b) Subdivision (a) applies whether or not the person is named executor in the decedent's will, except that a person named executor in the decedent's will may, before the appointment is made or becomes effective, pay funeral expenses and take necessary measures for the maintenance and preservation of the estate.

Comment. Section 8400 restates former Probate Code Section 400 without substantive change. Letters may not be issued until the person appointed takes the oath of office and gives any required bond. See Section 8403 (oath) and Article 5 (commencing with Section 8480) (bond). 8401. (a) Notwithstanding Section 8401, a petitioner for appointment as personal representative may deliver money, securities, or personal property in the petitioner's possession to any of the following financial institutions, or allow any of the following financial institutions to retain money, securities, and personal property already in its possession, for deposit in any of the following accounts:

(1) An account in a bank or trust company insured by a government agency or collateralized.

(2) An account in an insured savings and loan association.

(3) An account consisting of shares of an insured credit union.

(b) The petitioner shall obtain and file with the court a written receipt including the agreement of the financial institution that the money, securities, or other personal property, including any earnings thereon, shall not be allowed to be withdrawn except upon authorization of the court.

(c) In receiving and retaining money, securities, or other personal property under this section, the financial institution is protected to the same extent as though it had received the money, securities, or other personal property from a person who had been appointed personal representative.

8402. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, a person is not competent to act as personal representative in any of the following circumstances:

(1) The person is under the age of majority.

(2) The person is incapable of executing, or is otherwise unfit to execute, the duties of the office.

(3) There are grounds for removal of the person from office pursuant to Section 8502.

(4) The person is not a resident of the United States.

(5) The person is a surviving partner of the decedent and an interested person objects to the appointment.

(b) Paragraphs (4) and (5) of subdivision (a) do not apply to a person named as executor or successor executor in the decedent's will.

Comment. Paragraph (a)(1) of Section 8402 continues a provision of former Probate Code Section 401 without substantive change. Paragraph (a)(2) supersedes the remainder of former Probate Code Section 401.

Paragraph (a)(3) is new; it enables the court to deny appointment of a personal representative if the personal representative would be subject to removal, for example for a conflict of interest that is sufficient to require removal. This would reverse the result in cases such as Estate of Backer, 164 Cal. App. 3d 1159, 211 Cal. Rptr. 163 (1985).

Paragraph (a)(4) and subdivision (b) restate former Probate Code Section 420 without substantive change. Paragraph (a)(5) and subdivision (b) continue former Probate Code Section 421 without substantive change.

For contest of appointment, see Section 8004.

§ 8403. Oath

8403. (a) Before letters are issued, the personal representative shall take and subscribe an oath to perform, according to law, the duties of the office. The oath may be taken and dated on or after the time the petition for appointment as personal representative is filed, and may be filed with the clerk at any time after the petition is granted.

(b) The oath constitutes an acceptance of the office and shall be attached to or endorsed upon the letters.

§ 8404. Statement of duties and liabilities

8404. At the time the personal representative files the oath of office, the clerk shall deliver to the personal representative a statement of some of the duties and liabilities of the office in substantially the following form:

DUTIES AND LIABILITIES OF PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVE

When you have been appointed a personal representative of an estate by this court, you become an officer of the court and assume certain duties and obligations. An attorney is best qualified to advise you regarding these matters. You should clearly understand the following:

1. You must manage the estate's assets with the care of a prudent person dealing with someone else's property. This means you must be cautious and you may not make any speculative investments.

2. You must keep the money and property of this estate separate from anyone else's, including your own. When you open a bank account for the estate, it must be in the name of the estate. All estate accounts must earn interest. Never deposit estate funds in your personal account or otherwise commingle them with anyone else's property. The securities of the estate must also be held in the name of the estate.

3. There are many restrictions on your authority to deal with the estate's property. You should not spend any of the estate's money until you have received either permission from the court or if so advised by your attorney. You may reimburse yourself for official court costs paid by you to the County Clerk and for the premium on your bond. You may not pay fees to your attorney or to yourself without prior order of the court. If you do not obtain the court's permission when it is required, you may be removed as personal representative and/or you may be surcharged, i.e., you may have to reimburse the estate from your own personal funds. You should consult with your attorney concerning the legal requirements affecting sales, leases, mortgages, and investments of estate property.

4. You must attempt to locate and take possession of all the decedent's property. You must arrange to have a court-appointed referee determine the value of the property. (You, rather than the referee, must determine the value of certain "cash items" and your attorney will advise you as to this procedure.) Within ninety (90) days after your appointment as personal representative you must file a form entitled "Inventory and Appraisalment" with the court. This form lists all the assets of the estate and the appraised values.

5. You should determine that there is appropriate and adequate insurance covering the assets and risks of the estate. Maintain the insurance in force during the entire period of the administration.

6. You must keep complete and accurate records of each financial transaction affecting the estate. You will have to prepare an accounting of all money and property you have received, what you have spent, and the date of each transaction. You must describe in detail what you have left after the payment of expenses ("balance on hand"). Your accounting will be reviewed by the court. Save your receipts because the court may ask to review them. If you do not file your accounts as required, the court will issue an order for you to do so. You will be removed as personal representative if you fail to comply.

You should cooperate with your attorney at all times. You and your attorney are responsible for completing the estate administration as promptly as possible. When in doubt, contact your attorney.

Comment. Section 8404 is new. It is drawn from general instructions given to personal representatives by a number of courts. The statement of duties and liabilities need not conform precisely to the listing in this section, and may be more inclusive. If the Judicial Council prescribes the form of the statement, the Judicial Council form supersedes the form provided in this section. See Section 7201 (Judicial Council authority).

§ 8405. Form of letters

8405. Letters shall be signed by the clerk under the seal of the court and shall include:

(a) The county from which the letters are issued.

(b) The name of the person appointed as personal representative, and whether the personal representative is an executor, administrator, administrator with the will annexed, or special administrator.

(c) Whether the personal representative is authorized to act under the Independent Administration of Estates Act, and whether the authority includes or excludes sale, exchange, or granting an option to purchase real property under the Act.

§ 8406. Suspension of powers of personal representative

8406. (a) On petition of any interested person, the court may suspend the powers of the personal representative in whole or in part, for a time, as to specific property or circumstances or as to specific duties of the office, or may make any other order to secure proper performance of the duties of the personal representative, if it appears to the court that the personal representative otherwise may take some action that would jeopardize unreasonably the interest of the petitioner. Persons with whom the personal representative may transact business may be made parties.

(b) The matter shall be set for hearing within 10 days unless the parties otherwise agree. Notice as the court directs shall be given to the personal representative and attorney of record, if any, and to any other parties named in the petition.

(c) The court may, in its discretion, if it determines that the petition was brought unreasonably and for the purpose of hindering the personal representative in the performance of duties, assess attorney's fees against the petitioner and make the assessment a charge against the interest of the petitioner.

Comment. Section 8406 continues and broadens former Probate Code Sections 352 and 550. It is drawn from Section 3-607 of the Uniform Probate Code. The provision for assessment of attorney's fees is new. Section 8406 includes but is not limited to the situations where the personal representative is appointed before or pending probate of a will, or pursuant to a previous will, or where there is litigation over the bond of the personal representative and it is alleged that the estate is being wasted.

Article 2. Executors

§ 8420. Right to appointment as personal representative

8420. The person named as executor in the decedent's will has the right to appointment as personal representative.

Comment. Section 8420 is an express statement of the concept that the named executor has first priority for appointment as personal representative. Cf. former Probate Code Section 407. Section 8420 does not apply if the person named is not qualified for appointment under Section 8401 (qualifications) or has waived the right to appointment.

(b) A designation shall be in writing and filed with the court. Unless the will provides otherwise, if there are two or more holders of the power to designate, the designation shall be unanimous, unless one of the holders of the power is unable or unwilling to act, in which case the remaining holder or holders may exercise the power.

(c) Except as provided in this section, an executor does not have authority to name a coexecutor, or a successor executor or coexecutor.

Comment. Section 8422 restates former Probate Code Section 403 without substantive change. Cf. Section 10 (singular and plural). An executor designated pursuant to this section must be appointed by the court. See Section 8400 (appointment necessary).

company, the court may, and to the extent required by the Banking Law (Division 1 (commencing with Section 99) of the Financial Code) shall, appoint the successor trust company as executor.

Comment. Section 8423 restates former Probate Code Section 404 without substantive change. A trust company is a corporation or association that is authorized to conduct the business of a trust company in this state. A trust company may act as an executor. See Sections 83, 300; Fin. Code § 1580.

Article 3. Administrators With the Will Annexed

§ 8440. Appointment

8440. An administrator with the will annexed shall be appointed as personal representative if no executor is named in the will or if the sole executor or all the executors named in the will have waived the right to appointment or are for any reason unwilling or unable to act.

Comment. Section 8440 supersedes former Probate Code Section 406. A person named as an executor may be unwilling or unable to act because the person is dead or incompetent, renounces or fails to petition for appointment, fails to appear and qualify, or dies or is removed from office after appointment and before the completion of the administration.

No executor of a deceased executor is, as such, authorized to administer the estate of the first testator. Section 8522 (vacancy where no personal representatives remain). However, the deceased executor may have the power to designate a successor executor. See Section 8422 (power to designate executor). And the executor of the deceased executor may qualify independently for appointment as an administrator with the will annexed pursuant to this section.

Article 5. Bond

§ 8480. Bond required

8480. (a) Except as otherwise provided by statute, every person appointed as personal representative shall, before letters are issued, give a bond approved by the court. If two or more persons are appointed, the court may require either a separate bond from each or a joint and several bond.

(b) The bond shall be for the benefit of interested persons and shall be conditioned that the person appointed as personal representative shall faithfully execute the duties of the office according to law.

(c) If the person appointed as personal representative fails to give the required bond, letters shall not be issued. If the person appointed as personal representative fails to give a new, additional, or supplemental bond, or to substitute a sufficient surety, pursuant to court order, the person may be removed from office.

Comment. Subdivisions (a) and (b) of Section 8480 restate without substantive change former Probate Code Section 410, the first sentence of subdivision (a) of former Probate Code Section 541, and former Probate Code Section 544. Subdivision (c) continues the effect of a portion of former Probate Code Section 549; it is a special application of Code of Civil Procedure Section 996.010. 8481. (a) The will may waive the requirement of a bond.

(b) If a petition for appointment of a personal representative alleges that all beneficiaries have waived in writing the requirement of a bond and the written waivers are attached to the petition, the court may direct that no bond be given. This subdivision does not apply if the will requires a bond.

(c) Notwithstanding the waiver of a bond by a will or by all the beneficiaries, on petition of any interested person the court may for good cause require that a bond be given, either before or after issuance of letters. If a beneficiary requests a bond, the request is in itself good cause to require a bond in an amount not less than the amount the court determines is sufficient to secure the interest of the beneficiary.

- (1) The estimated value of the personal property.
- (2) The probable annual gross income of the estate.
- (3) If independent administration is granted as to real property, the estimated value of the real property.

(b) If the bond is given by personal sureties, the amount of the bond shall be twice the amount fixed by the court pursuant to subdivision (a).

(c) Before confirming a sale of real property the court shall require such additional bond as may be proper, not exceeding the maximum requirements of this section, treating the expected proceeds of the sale as personal property.

(1) An account in a bank or trust company insured by a government agency or collateralized.

(2) An account in an insured savings and loan association.

(3) An account consisting of shares of an insured credit union.

(b) In a proceeding to determine the amount of the bond of the personal representative (whether at the time of appointment or subsequently), upon production of a receipt showing the deposit of property of the estate in the manner described in subdivision (a) the court may order that the property shall not be withdrawn except on authorization of the court and may, in its discretion, do either of the following:

(1) Exclude the property in determining the amount of the required bond or reduce the amount of the bond to be required in respect of the property to an amount the court determines is reasonable.

(2) If a bond has already been given or the amount fixed, reduce the amount to an amount the court determines is reasonable.

Article 6. Removal from Office

§ 8500. Procedure for removal

8500. (a) Any interested person may apply by petition for removal of the personal representative from office. A petition for removal may be combined with a petition for appointment of a successor personal representative pursuant to Article 7 (commencing with Section 8520). The petition shall state facts showing cause for removal.

(b) Upon a petition for removal, or if the court otherwise has reason to believe from the judge's own knowledge or from other credible information, whether upon the settlement of an account or otherwise, that there are grounds for removal, the court shall issue a citation to the personal representative to appear and show cause why the personal representative should not be removed. The court may suspend the powers of the personal representative and may make such orders as are necessary to deal with the property pending the hearing.

(c) Any interested person may appear at the hearing and file written allegations showing that the personal representative should be removed or retained. The personal representative may demur to or answer the allegations. The court may compel the attendance of the personal representative and may compel the personal representative to answer questions, on oath, concerning the administration of the estate. Failure to attend and answer is cause for removal of the personal representative from office.

(d) The issues shall be heard and determined by the court. If the court is satisfied from the evidence that the citation has been duly served and cause for removal exists, the court shall remove the personal representative from office.

Comment. Section 8500 supersedes portions of former Probate Code Section 451. Subdivision (b) restates portions of the first sentence of former Probate Code Section 521 without substantive change. Subdivision (c) restates former Probate Code Sections 522 and 523 without substantive change. The court may enforce its orders by any proper means, including contempt. § 8502. Grounds for removal

8502. A personal representative may be removed from office for any of the following causes:

(a) The personal representative has wasted, embezzled, mismanaged, or committed a fraud upon the estate, or is about to do so.

(b) The personal representative is incapable of properly executing the duties of the office or is otherwise not qualified for appointment as personal representative.

(c) The personal representative has wrongfully neglected the estate, or has long neglected to perform any act as personal representative.

(d) Removal is otherwise necessary for protection of the estate or interested persons.

(e) Any other cause provided by statute.

Comment. Section 8502 restates former Probate Code Section 524 and portions of the first sentence of former Probate Code Section 521, except that permanent removal from the state is not continued as a ground for dismissal. See Article 9 (commencing with Section 8570) (nonresident personal representative). A conflict of interest may be ground for removal under subdivision (d); it should be noted, however, that not every conflict necessarily requires removal for protection of the estate, depending on the circumstances of the particular case. Other causes for removal are provided in this article and elsewhere by statute. See, e.g., Sections 8480 (bond required), 8577 (failure of nonresident personal representative to comply with Section 8573), 8500 (failure to attend and answer).

8503. (a) Subject to subdivision (b), an administrator may be removed from office, on the petition of the surviving spouse or a relative of the decedent entitled to succeed to all or part of the estate, or the nominee of the surviving spouse or relative, if such person is higher in priority than the administrator.

(b) The court in its discretion may refuse to grant the petition:

(1) Where the petition is of a person or the nominee of a person who had actual notice of the proceeding in which the administrator was appointed and an opportunity to contest the appointment.

(2) Where to do so would be contrary to the sound administration of the estate.

Comment. Subdivision (a) of Section 8503 supersedes former Probate Code Sections 450 and 452. Subdivision (b)(1) restates former Probate Code Section 453 without substantive change. Subdivision (b)(2) is new; it is intended to cover the situation, for example, where administration is nearly complete and replacement of the administrator inappropriate. Article 8. Special Administrators

§ 8540. Grounds for appointment

8540. (a) If the circumstances of the estate require the immediate appointment of a personal representative, the court may appoint a special administrator to exercise such powers as may be appropriate under the circumstances for the preservation of the estate.

(b) The appointment may be for a specified term, to perform particular acts, or on such other terms as the court may direct.

Comment. Subdivision (a) of Section 8540 supersedes the first clause of former Probate Code Section 460 and generalizes provisions of former Probate Code Sections 465 and 520. Under subdivision (a), grounds for appointment of a special administrator would include situations where (1) no application is made for appointment of a personal representative, (2) there is delay in appointment of a personal representative, (3) a sufficient bond is not given as required by statute or letters are otherwise granted irregularly, (4) the personal representative dies, resigns, or is suspended or removed from office, (5) an appeal is taken from an order revoking probate of a will, or where (6) for any other cause the personal representative is unable to act. Appointment may be made upon the court's own motion or upon petition of an interested person.

Subdivision (b) is drawn from Section 3-617 of the Uniform Probate Code. See also Section 8544 (special powers, duties, and obligations).

§ 8544. Special powers, duties, and obligations

8544. (a) Except to the extent the order appointing a special administrator prescribes terms, the special administrator has the power to do all of the following:

(1) Take possession of all of the real and personal property of the decedent and preserve it from damage, waste, and injury.

(2) Collect all claims, rents, and other income belonging to the estate.

(3) Commence and maintain or defend suits and other legal proceedings.

(4) Sell perishable property.

(5) Borrow money, or lease, mortgage, or execute a deed of trust upon real property, in the same manner as an administrator. This power may be exercised only by court order.

(6) Pay the interest due or all or any part of an obligation secured by a mortgage, lien, or deed of trust on property in the estate, where there is danger that the holder of the security may enforce or foreclose on the obligation and the property exceeds in value the amount of the obligation. This power may be exercised only by court order, made upon petition of the special administrator or any interested person, with such notice as the court deems proper, and shall remain in effect until appointment of a successor personal representative. The order may also direct that interest not yet accrued be paid as it becomes due, and the order shall remain in effect and cover the future interest unless and until for good cause set aside or modified by the court in the same manner as for the original order.

(7) Exercise other powers that are conferred by order of the court.

(b) Except where the powers, duties, and obligations of a general personal representative are granted pursuant to Section 8545, the special administrator is not liable to an action by a creditor on a claim against the decedent.

Comment. Section 8544 restates former Probate Code Section 463 without substantive change and supersedes a portion of former Probate Code Section 460. Subdivision (a)(6) restates former Probate Code Section 464, with the addition of a provision that the order remains in effect until appointment of a successor. 8545. (a) Notwithstanding Section 8544, the court may grant a special administrator the same powers, duties, and obligations as a general personal representative where to do so appears proper.

(b) The court may require as a condition of the grant that the special administrator give such additional bond as the court deems proper. From the time of approving and filing any required additional bond, the special administrator shall have the powers, duties, and obligations of a general personal representative.

(c) If a grant is made pursuant to this section, the letters shall recite that the special administrator has the powers, duties, and obligations of a general personal representative.

Comment. Section 8545 supersedes former Probate Code Section 465. Instances where it might be proper to grant general powers, duties, and obligations include situations where:

(1) The special administrator is appointed pending determination of a will contest or pending an appeal from an order appointing or removing the personal representative.

(2) After appointment of the special administrator a will contest is instituted.

8546. (a) The powers of a special administrator cease upon issuance of letters to a general personal representative or as otherwise directed by the court.

(b) The special administrator shall forthwith deliver to the general personal representative:

(1) All property in the possession of the special administrator. The court may authorize the special administrator to complete a sale or other transaction affecting property in the possession of the special administrator.

(2) A listing of all creditors' claims of which the special administrator has knowledge. The listing shall show the name and address of each creditor, the amount of the claim, and what action has been taken with respect to the claim. A copy of the listing shall be filed in the court.

(c) The special administrator shall render a verified account of the proceedings in the same manner as a general personal representative is required to do. If the same person acts as both special administrator and general personal representative, the account of the special administrator may be combined with the first account of the general personal representative.

Comment. #### § 8547. Fees and commissions

8547. (a) Subject to the limitations of this section, the court shall fix the commissions and allowances of the special administrator and the fees of the attorney of the special administrator.

(b) The commissions and allowances of the special administrator shall not be allowed until the close of administration, unless the general personal representative joins in the petition for allowance of the special administrator's commissions and allowances or the court in its discretion so allows. The total commissions paid and extra allowances made to the special administrator and general personal representative shall not, together, exceed the sums provided in this division for commissions and extra allowances for the services of personal representatives. If the same person does not act as both special administrator and general personal representative, the commissions and allowances shall be divided in such proportions as the court deems just or as may be agreed to by the special administrator and general personal representative.

(c) The total fees paid to the attorneys both of the special administrator and the general personal representative shall not, together, exceed the sums provided in this division as compensation for the ordinary and extraordinary services of attorneys for personal representatives. When the same attorney does not act for both the special administrator and general personal representative, the fees shall be divided between the attorneys in such proportions as the court deems just or as agreed to by the attorneys.

(d) Fees of an attorney for extraordinary services to a special administrator may be awarded in the same manner and subject to the same standards as for extraordinary services to a general personal representative, except that the award of fees to the attorney may be made upon settlement of the final account of the special administrator.

Comment. Subdivisions (a)-(c) of Section 8547 restate former Probate Code Sections 467-468, with the addition of provisions limiting payment of the special administrator until close of administration and recognizing agreements of the special administrator, personal representative, and attorneys as to division of fees and commissions. #### Probate Code § 321 (repealed)

Comment. Former Section 321 is restated in Estate and Trust Code Sections 8201 (order for production of will), 7060 (authority of court or judge), and ____ (notice and hearing procedures)[not yet drafted].

Probate Code § 322 (repealed)

Comment. Former Section 322 is [to be disposed of].

Probate Code § 323 (repealed)

Comment. Former Section 323 is restated in Estate and Trust Code Section 8000 (petition) without substantive change.

Probate Code § 324 (repealed)

Comment. Former Section 324 is restated in Estate and Trust Code Section 8001 (failure of person named executor to petition) without substantive change.

Probate Code § 326 (repealed)

Comment. The first portion of former Section 326 is restated in Estate and Trust Code Section 8002 (contents of petition), which substitutes the address for the residence of heirs and devisees and adds an express requirement that a copy of the will be attached. The last portion is restated in Estate and Trust Code Section 8006(b) (court order) without substantive change.

Probate Code § 327 (repealed)

Comment. Former Section 327 is restated in Estate and Trust Code Section 8003 (setting and notice of hearing), except that the 10 day minimum hearing period is increased to 15 days and the petitioner rather than the clerk has the duty of giving notice.

Probate Code § 328 (repealed)

Comment. The first sentence of the first paragraph of former Section 328 is restated in Estate and Trust Code Sections 8110 (persons on whom notice served), 7300 (service), and 7302 (mailing), with the addition of a provision limiting service to known heirs. The second sentence is restated in Estate and Trust Code Section 8100 (form of notice).

The second paragraph is restated in Estate and Trust Code Sections 8111 (service on Attorney General) and 7302 (mailing) without substantive change. The third paragraph is generalized in Estate and Trust Code Section 7302 (mailing).

Probate Code § 328.3 (repealed)

Comment. Former Section 328.3 is restated in Estate and Trust Code Section 6103 (will or revocation procured by duress, menace, fraud, or undue influence) without substantive change.

Probate Code § 328.7 (repealed)

Comment. Former Section 328.7 is continued as Estate and Trust Code Section 6132 (conditional will).

Probate Code § 329 (repealed)

Comment. The first two sentences of former Section 329 are restated in Estate and Trust Code Section 8220 (evidence of subscribing witness) without substantive change. The third sentence is not continued because it is unnecessary. See Comment to Estate and Trust Code Section 8221 (proof where no subscribing witness available). See also Evidence Code § 240 ("unavailable as witness"). The fourth sentence is restated in Estate and Trust Code Section 8221 (proof where no subscribing witness available), with the exception of the language relating to a writing "at the end" of the will. The signatures of subscribing witnesses no longer must appear at the end. Estate and Trust Code Section 6110 (execution).

Probate Code § 330 (repealed)

Comment. The first two sentences of former Section 330 are restated in Estate and Trust Code Section 8202 (will detained outside jurisdiction) without substantive change. The last sentence is superseded by Estate and Trust Code Section 8220 and provisions following governing proof of will.

Probate Code § 331 (repealed)

Comment. Former Section 331 is continued in Estate and Trust Code Section 8222 (proof of holographic will) without substantive change.

Probate Code § 332 (repealed)

Comment. Former Section 332 is superseded by Estate and Trust Code Section 8225 (admission of will to probate).

Probate Code § 333 (repealed)

Comment. Subdivision (a) of former Section 333 is continued in Estate and Trust Code Section 8121 (publication of notice) without substantive change, with the exception of the fifth sentence, which is continued in Estate and Trust Code Section 8123 (posting of notice).

The introductory portion of subdivision (b) is superseded by Estate and Trust Code Section 8124 (type size). The remainder of subdivision (b) is continued in Estate and Trust Code Section 8100 (form of notice), except that reference to notice of the decedent's death is eliminated from the caption and a reference to the decedent's will is added to the notice.

Subdivision (c) is continued in Estate and Trust Code Section 8125 (affidavit of publication or posting) without substantive change.

Subdivision (d) is not continued because it is no longer necessary.

Probate Code § 334 (repealed)

Comment. Former Section 334 is continued in Estate and Trust Code Section 8122 (good faith compliance with publication requirement) without substantive change.

ARTICLE 3. LOST OR DESTROYED WILLS

Probate Code § 351 (repealed)

Comment. The first two sentences of former Section 351 are restated in Estate and Trust Code Section 8223 (proof of lost or destroyed will), except that the requirement that the order admitting the will to probate be "set forth at length in the minutes" is omitted. The last sentence is continued and broadened in Estate and Trust Code Section 8224 (perpetuation of testimony).

Probate Code § 352 (repealed)

Comment. Former Section 352 is continued and broadened in Estate and Trust Code Section 8406 (suspension of powers of personal representative).
