Memorandum 86-31

Subject: Study L-1045 - Estate and Trust Code (Definitions)

Attached to this memorandum is a draft of general definitions for the Estate and Trust Code. (See Exhibit 1.) Most of the definitions in this draft appear in the equivalent part of the Probate Code. Some technical questions arise in this draft and are noted in a "Note" following the relevant section. There are no policy issues in this area. Some further revisions may have to be made in this material in the future as we proceed through other divisions of the Probate Code.

Respectfully submitted,

Stan G. Ulrich

PART 2. WORDS AND PHRASES DEFINED

§ 20. Application of definitions

20. Unless the provision or context otherwise requires, the words and phrases defined in this part govern the construction of this code.

Comment. Section 20 supersedes former Probate Code Section 20.

§ 21. Account

21. "Account" means a contract of deposit of funds between a depositor and a financial institution, and includes a checking account, savings account, certificate of deposit, share account, and other like arrangement.

Comment. Section 21 continues former Probate Code Section 21 without change. Section 21 also continues former Probate Code Section 261 ("account" defined for purposes of disclaimer statute) without change. This section is the same in substance as Section 6-101(1) of the Uniform Probate Code (1977).

Note. This same definition appears in § 5101(a) (multiple party accounts).

§ 22. Account in an insured savings and loan association

22. (a) "Account in an insured savings and loan association" means any of the following:

(1) Shares issued by a federal savings and loan association.

(2) Investment certificates issued by a state-chartered building and loan association or savings and loan association doing business in this state which is an "insured institution" as defined in Title IV of the National Housing Act.

(3) Shares issued by a state-chartered building and loan association or savings and loan association doing business in this state which does not issue investment certificates and which is an "insured institution" as defined in Title IV of the National Housing Act.

(b) Any reference in the statutes of this state to the definition of the term "account in an insured savings and loan association" in former Section 1406 or 1510 of the Probate Code shall be deemed to be a reference to the definition of that term in this section.

Comment. Subdivision (a) of Section 22 continues former Section 1406. Subdivision (b) continues a provision formerly found in subdivision (c) of Section 1490.

Note. The term "account in an insured savings and loan association" is used in Sections [541.1], 2328, 2331, 2453, 2456, 2911, 3412, 3413, 3500, 3602, 3611, and 7570. See also Gov't Code § 21207.

§ 23. Annulment of marriage

23. "Annulment of marriage" includes adjudication of nullity of marriage.

Comment. Section 23 continues former Probate Code Section 22 without change.

§ 24. Beneficiary

24. "Beneficiary:

(a) In the case of a decedent's estate, means an heir or devisee.

(b) In the case of a trust, means a beneficiary of the trust, and includes a person who has any present or future interest, vested or contingent, and an owner of an interest by assignment or other transfer.

(c) In the case of a charitable trust, includes any person entitled to enforce the trust.

Comment. Subdivision (a) of Section 24 is new and is intended for drafting convenience. Subdivisions (b) and (c) restate former Probate Code Section 24 without substantive change. Subdivisions (b) and (c) are the same in substance as Section 1-201(2) of the Uniform Probate Code (1977).

CROSS-REFERENCES

Definitions

Devisee § 34

Heirs § 44

Note. "Beneficiary" is defined in a special sense in § 262 for purposes of disclaimers.

§ 26. Child

26. "Child" includes any individual entitled to take as a child under this code by intestate succession from the parent whose relationship is involved.

Comment. Section 26 continues former Probate Code Section 26 without change. This section is the same as the first part of Section 1-201(3) of the Uniform Probate Code (1977).

§ 27. Clerk

27. "Clerk" means the clerk of the court having jurisdiction of the estate in question.

Comment. Section 29 is new. It is intended for drafting convenience.

§ 28. Community property

28. "Community property" means:

(a) Community property heretofore or hereafter acquired during marriage by a married person while domiciled in this state.

(b) All personal property wherever situated, and all real property situated in this state, heretofore or hereafter acquired during the marriage by a married person while domiciled elsewhere, that is community property, or a substantially equivalent type of marital property, under the laws of the place where the acquiring spouse was domiciled at the time of its acquisition.

(c) All personal property wherever situated, and all real property situated in this state, heretofore or hereafter acquired during the marriage by a married person in exchange for real or personal property, wherever situated, that is community property, or a substantially equivalent type of marital property, under the laws of the place where the acquiring spouse was domiciled at the time the property so exchanged was acquired.

Comment. Section 28 continues former Probate Code Section 28 without change, except that the phrase "as used in this code" is omitted since it is unnecessary in light of Section 20 (application of definitions).

Subdivision (a) is consistent with Civil Code Section 687 and 5110.

Under subdivisions (b) and (c), community property acquired while domiciled in another community property jurisdiction is treated as community property in California even though it might not have been community property if acquired while domiciled in California. For example, property is community property under subdivision (b) if it is the income of separate property and the income of separate property is community property under the laws of the place where the spouse owning the separate property is domiciled at the time the income is earned. Thus, subdivisions (b) and (c) ensure generally comparable treatment of the property in California to that given it in the other community property jurisdiction and fills a gap in the quasi-community property law. Subdivisions (b) and (c) apply whether the property is acquired before or after the operative date of the section. The reference in subdivisions (b) and (c) to substantially equivalent types of marital property is intended to cover possible adoption in other jurisdictions of the Uniform Marital Property Act (198) or other laws establishing a community property regime.

§ 29. Court

29. "Court" means the court having jurisdiction of the estate in question.

Comment. Section 29 restates former Probate Code Section 1418 ("court" for purposes of guardianship-conservatorship law) and is similar to part of Section 1-201(5) of the Uniform Probate Code (1977). Related provisions pertaining to jurisdiction and venue appear in statutes governing particular types of estates. See, e.g., Sections 2200-2216 (guardianship and conservatorship estates), 7050-7072 (decedents' estates), 17000-17105 (trusts), 17304 (transfer of trusts subject to continuing jurisdiction).

§ 32. Devise

32. "Devise," when used as a noun, means a disposition of real or personal property by will, and, when used as a verb, means to dispose of real or personal property by will.

Comment. Section 32 continues former Probate Code Section 32 without change. This section is the same in substance as Section 1-201(7) of the Uniform Probate Code (1977).

Note. The reference in subdivision (b) to "a trustee on trust described by will" is an oddity. Why not just say "in the case of a devise to a trust"?

§ 36. Dissolution of marriage

36. "Dissolution of marriage" includes divorce.

Comment. Section 36 continues former Probate Code Section 36 without change.

§ 38. Family allowance

38. "Family allowance" means an allowance provided for in Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 6540) of Part 3 of Division 6.

Comment. Section 38 continues former Probate Code Section 38 without change.

§ 40. Financial institution

40. "Financial institution" means a state or national bank, state or federal savings and loan association or credit union, or like organization.

Comment. Section 40 continues former Probate Code Section 40 without change. This section is the same as part of Code of Civil Procedure Section 680.200.

Note. This term is defined in a more limited form in § 5101(c) (multiple party accounts).

§ 44. Heirs

44. "Heirs" means the persons, including the surviving spouse, who are entitled under the statutes of intestate succession to the property of a decedent.

(2) Any person having priority for appointment as personal representative.

(3) A fiduciary representing an interested person.

(b) The meaning of "interested person," as it relates to particular persons, may vary from time to time and shall be determined according to the particular purposes of, and matter involved in, any proceeding.

Comment. Section 48 continues former Probate Code Section 48 without change. This section is the same in substance as Section 1-201(20) of the Uniform Probate Code (1977).

Note. Subdivision (a)(3) uses "fiduciary" as does the UPC; however, "fiduciary" is defined in the UPC to mean a personal representative, guardian, conservator, and trustee. "Guardian" is defined so as to exclude a guardian ad litem.

§ 50. Issue

50. "Issue" of a person means all his or her lineal descendants of all generations, with the relationship of parent and child at each generation being determined by the definitions of child and parent.

Comment. Section 50 continues former Probate Code Section 50 without change. This section is the same in substance as Section 1-201(21) of the Uniform Probate Code (1977).

§ 52. Letters

52. "Letters" includes letters testamentary, letters of administration, letters of administration with the will annexed, and letters of special administration.

Comment. Section 52 is new and intended to simplify drafting. This section is drawn in part from Section 1-201(23) of the Uniform Probate Code (1977).

Note. Should this section refer to "letters of guardianship" and "letters of conservatorship" as does the UPC? See Section 2310 (letters of guardianship and conservatorship). Are there any general provisions relating to "letters", or is the only point of this definition to enable the relevant statute to use simply the term "letters" without further clarification?

§ 53. "Order" defined

53. "Order" includes decree and any amendments of an order or decree.

Comment. Section 53 is new. Cf. Former Section 1224 ("decree of distribution or any order amending the same").

§ 54. Parent

54. "Parent" includes any individual entitled to take as a parent under this code by intestate succession from the child whose relationship is involved.

Comment. Section 54 continues former Probate Code Section 54 without change. Under this section, a stepparent or foster parent may be included within the definition of "parent" when the requirements of Section 6408 (relationship of parent and child) are met. See also Sections 6152 (parent-child relationship for purpose of construing will), 6408.5 (inheritance from or through child).

§ 57. Personal property

57. "Personal property" does not include a leasehold interest in real property.

Comment. Section 57 continues former Probate Code Section 58 without change. This section is consistent with the last sentence of Civil Code Section 5110. See also Section 68 ("real property" defined).

§ 58. Personal representative

58. "Personal representative" means executor, administrator, administrator with will annexed, special administrator, or successor personal representative [and persons who perform substantially the same function under the law governing their status.]

Comment. Section 58 is the same in substance as the first sentence of Section 1-201(30) of the Uniform Probate Code (1977).

Note. Should the language in brackets be included? What is its purpose?

§ 59. Predeceased spouse

59. "Predeceased spouse" means a person who died before the decedent while married to the decedent, except that the term does not include any of the following:

(a) A person who obtains or consents to a final decree or judgment of dissolution of marriage from the decedent or a final decree or judgment of annulment of their marriage, which decree or judgment is not recognized as valid in this state, unless they (1) subsequently participate in a marriage ceremony purporting to marry each to the other or (2) subsequently live together as husband and wife.

(b) A person who, following a decree or judgment of dissolution or annulment of marriage obtained by the decedent, participates in a marriage ceremony to a third person.

(c) A person who was a party to a valid proceeding concluded by an order purporting to terminate all marital property rights.

Comment. Section 59 continues former Probate Code Section 59 without change. This section is drawn from Section 78 ("surviving spouse" defined). See the Comment to Section 78. Under Section 59, it is possible that the decedent may have more than one predeceased spouse.

§ 60. Probate homestead

60. "Probate homestead" means a homestead provided for in Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 6520) of Part 3 of Division 6.

Comment. Section 60 continues former Probate Code Section 60 without change.

§ 62. Property

62. "Property" includes both real and personal property or any interest therein and means anything that may be the subject of ownership.

Comment. Section 62 continues former Probate Code Section 62 without change. This section is the same as Section 1-201(33) of the Uniform Probate Code (1977).

§ 66. Quasi-community property

66. "Quasi-community property" means the following property, other than community property as defined in Section 28:

(a) All personal property wherever situated, and all real property situated in this state, heretofore or hereafter acquired by a decedent while domiciled elsewhere that would have been the community property of the decedent and the surviving spouse if the decedent had been domiciled in this state at the time of its acquisition.

(b) All personal property wherever situated, and all real property situated in this state, heretofore or hereafter acquired in exchange for real or personal property, wherever situated, that would have been the community property of the decedent and the surviving spouse if the decedent had been domiciled in this state at the time the property so exchanged was acquired.

Comment. Section 66 continues former Probate Code Section 66 without change, except that the phrase "as used in this code" is omitted since it is unnecessary in light of Section 20 (application of definitions). This section continues the substance of former Probate Code Section 201.5, except that community property under the laws of another jurisdiction is classified as community rather than quasi-community property.

§ 70. Security

70. "Security" includes any note, stock, treasury stock, bond, debenture, evidence of indebtedness, certificate of interest or participation in an oil, gas, or mining title or lease or in payments out of production under such a title or lease, collateral trust certificate, transferable share, voting trust certificate or, in general, any interest or instrument commonly known as a security, or any certificate of interest or participation, any temporary or interim certificate, receipt, or certificate of deposit for, or any warrant or right to subscribe to or purchase, any of the foregoing.

Comment. Section 70 continues former Probate Code Section 70 without change. This section is the same as Section 1-201(37) of the Uniform Probate Code (1977).

§ 72. Shares of an insured credit union

72. (a) "Shares of an insured credit union" means shares issued by a credit union, either federally chartered or state licensed, which are insured under Title II of the Federal Credit Union Act.

(b) Any reference in the statutes of this state to the definition of the term "shares of an insured credit union" in former Section 1443 or 1510 of the Probate Code shall be deemed to be a reference to the definition of that term in this section.

Comment. Subdivision (a) of Section 72 continues the first part of former Probate Code Section 1443 without change. Subdivision (b) continues a provision formerly found in subdivision (c) of Section 1490.

Note. The term "shares of an insured credit union" is used in Sections _____, 2453, 2456, 3412, 3413, 3500, 3602, 3611, and 7570. Shouldn't "II" be "2"?

§ 74. State

74. "State" includes any state of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and any territory or possession subject to the legislative authority of the United States.

Comment. Section 74 continues former Probate Code Section 74 without change. This section is the same as Section 1-201(40) of the Uniform Probate Code (1977).

§ 78. Surviving spouse

78. "Surviving spouse" does not include any of the following:

(a) A person whose marriage to the decedent has been dissolved or annulled, unless, by virtue of a subsequent marriage, the person is married to the decedent at the time of death.

(b) A person who obtains or consents to a final decree or judgment of dissolution of marriage from the decedent or a final decree or judgment of annulment of their marriage, which decree or judgment is not recognized as valid in this state, unless they (1) subsequently participate in a marriage ceremony purporting to marry each to the other or (2) subsequently live together as husband and wife.

(c) A person who, following a decree or judgment of dissolution or annulment of marriage obtained by the decedent, participates in a marriage ceremony with a third person.

(d) A person who was a party to a valid proceeding concluded by an order purporting to terminate all marital property rights.

Comment. Section 78 continues former Probate Code Section 78 without change. This section is drawn from Section 2-802 of the Uniform Probate Code (1977). Subdivisions (b) and (c) deal with the problem of a divorce or annulment which is not recognized in California, and apply an estoppel principle against the surviving spouse. These provisions are consistent with prior California law. See, e.g., Spellens v. Spellens, 49 Cal. 2d 210, 317 P.2d 613 (1957) (estoppel to deny validity of marriage); Estate of Atherley, 44 Cal. App. 3d 758, 764, 119 Cal. Rptr. 41 (1975) (recognizing principle but declining to apply it).

§ 80. Totten trust account

80. "Totten trust account" means an account in the name of one or more parties as trustee for one or more beneficiaries where the relationship is established by the form of the account and the deposit agreement with the financial institution and there is no subject of the trust other than the sums on deposit in the account. In a Totten trust account, it is not essential that payment to the beneficiary be mentioned in the deposit agreement. A Totten trust account does not include (1) a regular trust account under a testamentary trust or a trust agreement which has significance apart from the account or (2) a fiduciary account arising from a fiduciary relation such as attorney-client.

Comment. Section 80 continues former Probate Code Section 80 without change. Section 80 also continues former Probate Code Section 270 ("Totten trust account" defined for purposes of disclaimer statute) without change. This section is the same in substance as Section 6-101(14) of the Uniform Probate Code (1977).

Definitions

Account § 21

Note. The term "trust account" is defined in these same words in § 5101(o) (multiple party accounts).

§ 82. Trust

82. (a) "Trust" includes any express trust, private or charitable, with additions thereto, wherever and however created, but does not include a charitable trust that is not subject to the jurisdiction of the Attorney General.

(b) "Trust" includes a trust created or determined by judgment or decree under which the trust is to be administered in the manner of an express trust.

(c) "Trust" excludes other constructive trusts, and it excludes resulting trusts, guardianships, conservatorships, personal representatives, Totten trust accounts, custodial arrangements pursuant to the Uniform Gifts to Minors Act or the Uniform Transfers to Minors Act of any state, business trusts that are taxed as partnerships or corporations, investment trusts subject to regulation under the laws of this state or any other jurisdiction, common trust funds, voting trusts, security arrangements, transfers in trust for purpose of suit or enforcement of a claim or right, liquidation trusts, and trusts for the primary purpose of paying debts, dividends, interest, salaries, wages, profits, pensions, or employee benefits of any kind, and any arrangement under which a person is nominee or escrowee for another.

Comment. Section 82 continues former Probate Code Section 82 without change. This section is drawn in part from Section 1-201(45) of the Uniform Probate Code (1977). Section 82 is drafted to eliminate charitable trusts that are not under the jurisdiction of the Attorney General from the general definition of trusts. See Section 15004 (application of Trust Law to charitable trusts). The definition of trust in Section 82 also includes various arrangements that were listed in former Probate Code Section 1138.

Note. This section is drafted to reflect the revision of Section 82 proposed in AB 2652 (trusts).

§ 83. Trust company

83. "Trust company" means an entity that is authorized to engage in and conduct a trust business in this state.

Comment. Section 83 continues former Probate Code Section 83. This provision is drawn from parts of former Probate Code Sections 480 and 1120.1a. See also Section 300 (appointment of trust company as executor or administrator), 15643 (vacancy in office of trustee), 17351-17353 (removal of trust from continuing court jurisdiction). Entities that are authorized to conduct a trust business in this state include state chartered commercial banks (see Fin. Code §§ 107, 1500.1) and national banking associations (see Fin. Code §§ 1502, 1503), corporations authorized to conduct a trust business (see Fin. Code § 107), trust departments of title insurance companies (see Fin. Code §§ 107, 1501; Ins. Code §§ 12392, 12395), and state and federal savings and loan associations (see Fin. Code §§ 5102, 6515). See also Fin. Code § 106 ("trust business" defined). In order to fall within the definition of "trust company" in Section 83, a corporation, association, or other entity must satisfy the requirements of state or federal law that apply to the particular type of entity.

Note. This section is drafted to reflect proposed Section 82 in AB 2652 (trusts).

§ 84. Trustee

84. "Trustee" includes an original, additional, or successor trustee, whether or not appointed or confirmed by a court.

Comment. Section 84 continues former Probate Code Section 84 without change. This section is the same as Section 1-201(46) of the Uniform Probate Code (1977).

§ 88. Will

88. "Will" includes codicil and any testamentary instrument which merely appoints an executor or revokes or revises another will.

Comment. Section 88 continues former Probate Code Section 88 without change. This section is the same as Section 1-201(48) of the Uniform Probate Code (1977).
