

Study J-1307

October 3, 2000

First Supplement to Memorandum 2000-70Law Library Board of Trustees
(Comments of Sonoma County Law Library)

The Sonoma County Law Library opposes the revised tentative recommendation because “it is not perceived to address any existing problem in our County.” (Exhibit p. 1.) Furthermore, “as the interests and needs of the public and our Law Library are adequately protected by the present system, the members of the Board are concerned that the proposed changes would inject an element of uncertainty into a system that presently works well.” (Id.)

Respectfully submitted,

Re: Law Library Board of Trustees

The Board of the Sonoma County Law Library is opposed to the proposed legislation because: (1) it is not perceived to address any existing problem in our County, and (2) as the interests and needs of the public and our Law Library are adequately protected by the present system, the members of the Board are concerned that the proposed changes would inject an element of uncertainty into a system that presently works well.

Sincerely,

Mark D. Peters
Trustee, Sonoma County Law Library
