Memorandum 2001-65

Municipal Bankruptcy (Draft of Tentative Recommendation)

Attached to this memorandum is a staff draft of the Tentative Recommendation on Municipal Bankruptcy (September 2001). If the Commission approves the draft, the staff will circulate it for comment following the September meeting, subject to any revisions to implement Commission revisions.

In light of our experience with this topic at meetings during the last two years, the staff expects that the Commission should be able to finish up this study and seek introduction of legislation in the 2002 legislative year.

Respectfully submitted,

Stan Ulrich
Assistant Executive Secretary
This tentative recommendation is being distributed so that interested persons will be advised of the Commission’s tentative conclusions and can make their views known to the Commission. Any comments sent to the Commission will be a part of the public record and will be considered at a public meeting when the Commission determines the provisions it will include in legislation the Commission plans to recommend to the Legislature. It is just as important to advise the Commission that you approve the tentative recommendation as it is to advise the Commission that you believe revisions should be made in the tentative recommendation.

COMMENTS ON THIS TENTATIVE RECOMMENDATION SHOULD BE RECEIVED BY THE COMMISSION NOT LATER THAN November 15, 2001.

The Commission often substantially revises tentative recommendations as a result of the comments it receives. Hence, this tentative recommendation is not necessarily the recommendation the Commission will submit to the Legislature.
SUMMARY OF TENTATIVE RECOMMENDATION

The Law Revision Commission recommends a number of revisions to update California statutes authorizing bankruptcy filings by local public entities under Chapter 9 of the federal Bankruptcy Code. Consistent with the approach historically taken in California, the general statute would authorize municipal bankruptcy filings to the full extent permissible under federal law, subject to any special statutory rules applicable to particular entities.

The Commission studied broader substantive reforms, including proposals to require pre-filing approval by the Governor or a governmental committee, and to provide for post-filing review by appropriate state authorities. However, there does not appear to be any general agreement on the best approach to reform, or even as to the need for additional protections or controls. Accordingly, the Commission is not recommending any broader substantive reforms at this time.

This recommendation was prepared pursuant to Resolution Chapter 78 of the Statutes of 2001.
MUNICIPAL BANKRUPTCY

BACKGROUND

Municipal bankruptcy law is covered by Chapter 9 of the federal Bankruptcy Code and related provisions.¹ The fundamental purpose is to give municipal debtors a breathing spell through the automatic stay of creditors’ collection efforts and to restructure municipal debt through formulation of a repayment plan. Forcing a repayment plan on nonconsenting creditors requires resort to the federal power to impair contractual obligations under the Contract Clause.² Unlike private bankruptcy law, however, municipal bankruptcy law must respect the sovereign power of the states over their subdivisions pursuant to the Tenth Amendment. Consequently, states have the power to control municipal access to bankruptcy and the bankruptcy courts have little power to intervene or direct the affairs of a municipal debtor that has filed for bankruptcy.³

California Law

The federal municipal bankruptcy procedure dates from May 1934.⁴ The California Legislature responded quickly by enacting an uncodified statute authorizing taxing districts, as defined in federal law, to file for bankruptcy protection, which became operative on September 20, 1934.⁵ This act also ¹ See 11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq., commonly referred to as the Bankruptcy Code. Chapter 9 (11 U.S.C. §§ 901-946) is entitled “Adjustment of Debts of a Municipality” and comprises the bulk of municipal bankruptcy statutes, but other definitions and other provisions in the Bankruptcy Code are also relevant. See, e.g., 11 U.S.C. § 901 (applicability of other sections of title).

² U.S. Const., art. I, § 10. See Tung, supra note 1, at 4.

³ See Tung, supra note 1, at 4-5. The full extent of judicial authority in these cases, and the appropriate policies, are matters of debate, but are beyond the scope of the Commission’s study, since they largely involve federal constitutional issues and the intricacies of the Bankruptcy Code. See, e.g., McConnell & Picker, When Cities Go Broke: A Conceptual Introduction to Municipal Bankruptcy, 60 U. Chi. L. Rev. 425 (1993); Kordana, Tax Increases in Municipal Bankruptcies, 83 Va. L. Rev. 1035 (1997).

⁴ Municipal bankruptcy law grew out of the financial crises of the 1930s. The original Chapter IX was created by an Act of May 24, 1934. After being held unconstitutional, Chapter IX was revised in 1938 and passed constitutional challenge. It was made a permanent part of the Bankruptcy Act in 1946. The revised law was little used until the mid-70s. In 1976, further revisions were made in response to New York City’s fiscal difficulties. Substantive revisions concerning state authorization of municipal bankruptcies were made in 1994.

⁵ See 1934 Cal. Stat. ch 4 (1st. Ex. Sess.). At least one municipal bankruptcy authorization for refunding bonded indebtedness was enacted before Chapter IX was added to the federal Bankruptcy Act of 1898 in 1934. See 1933 Cal. Stat. ch. 596, § 2 (authorization to “file a petition under any bankruptcy law of the United States now or hereafter enacted”). This provision is the antecedent of Government Code Section 43739, which is proposed to be repealed. See proposed repeal of Gov’t Code § 43739 Comment infra.
purported to validate any municipal bankruptcy filings that occurred before it became operative.6 The 1934 California act was replaced in 1939 with a more general authorization for any “taxing agency or instrumentality of this State” as defined in federal law to file a bankruptcy petition.7

The general state statutes authorizing bankruptcy filings by local government were codified in 1949 and have never been amended. Government Code Sections 53760 and 53761 provide as follows:

53760. Any taxing agency or instrumentality of this State, as defined in Section 81 of the act of Congress entitled “An act to establish a uniform system of bankruptcy throughout the United States,” approved July 1, 1898, as amended, may file the petition mentioned in Section 83 of the act and prosecute to completion all proceedings permitted by Sections 81, 82, 83, and 84 of the act.8

53761. The State consents to the adoption of Sections 81, 82, 83, and 84 by Congress and consents to their application to the taxing agencies and instrumentalities of this State.9

The statutory references have been obsolete since enactment of the federal Bankruptcy Code in 1978.10 Nor has the terminology been revised for compliance with 1994 amendments to federal law requiring that a “municipality” be “specifically authorized” to petition for debt adjustment under Chapter 9. Section 109(c) of the Bankruptcy Code provides, in relevant part:11

(c) An entity may be a debtor under chapter 9 of this title if and only if such entity —

(1) is a municipality; [and]

7. See 1939 Cal. Stat. ch. 72 (operative April 21, 1939).
8. References are to 11 U.S.C.A. § 401 (repealed); 11 U.S.C.A. § 403 (repealed; see now 11 U.S.C.A. § 903); 11 U.S.C.A. §§ 401-403 (repealed; see now 11 U.S.C.A. §§ 101 et seq., 901, 902 et seq., 903, 904, 921(b)). et seq., 903, 904, 921(b)).
11. The remaining subparagraphs of 11 U.S.C. Section 107(c) provide the following additional prerequisites to municipal bankruptcy:
   (3) is insolvent;
   (4) desires to effect a plan to adjust such debts; and (5)(A) has obtained the agreement of creditors holding at least a majority in amount of the claims of each class that such entity intends to impair under a plan in a case under such chapter;
   (B) has negotiated in good faith with creditors and has failed to obtain the agreement of creditors holding at least a majority in amount of the claims of each class that such entity intends to impair under a plan in a case under such chapter;
   (C) is unable to negotiate with creditors because such negotiation is impracticable; or
   (D) reasonably believes that a creditor may attempt to obtain a transfer that is avoidable under section 547 of this title.
[Emphasis added.]
(2) is specifically authorized, in its capacity as a municipality or by name, to be a debtor under such chapter by State law, or by a governmental officer or organization empowered by State law to authorize such entity to be a debtor under such chapter ....

Bankruptcy Code Section 101(40) defines “municipality” as a “political subdivision or public agency or instrumentality of a State.” The effect of this definition is that the federal courts will determine whether a local governmental entity is a “municipality.” This was one of the issues faced by the court in the Orange County Investment Pool case — perhaps the determinative issue. In In re County of Orange,12 the court decided that OCIP’s Chapter 9 petition could not be sustained because OCIP was not a “municipality” or an “instrumentality of a State,” nor was it otherwise “specifically authorized” by the language of Government Code Section 53760 and the incorporated parts of the repealed Bankruptcy Act.13

Recent Reform Attempts

Although the general authorization in Section 53760 has remained unaltered since 1949, there was a flurry of proposed revisions arising out of the Orange County financial collapse. Four bills during the 1995-96 session would have modernized Section 53760 in the course of enacting broader substantive reforms:

- Two bills granted the broadest authority permissible under federal law by adopting the federal definition of “municipality” in Section 101(40) — SB 1274 (Killea) and AB 2xx (Caldera). Neither bill made it out of committee.

- A third bill — AB 29xx (Archie-Hudson) — provided authority for a municipality as defined by federal law to file “with specific statutory approval of the Legislature” and required the plan for adjustment of debts under Bankruptcy Code Section 941 to be “submitted to the appropriate policy committees of the Legislature prior to being submitted to the United States Bankruptcy Code.” This bill also died.

- A fourth bill — SB 349 (Kopp) — passed the Legislature, but was vetoed by Governor Wilson. Like the other bills, SB 349 modernized the obsolete references and adopted the “municipality” language of the federal statute. The bill would have established a “Local Agency Bankruptcy Committee,” consisting of the Controller, Treasurer, and Director of Finance, to determine whether to permit a municipality to file a Chapter 9 petition. It also contained provisions concerning appointment of a trustee by the Governor and time periods for various actions. The Governor’s veto message (Sept. 30, 1996)

13. See id. at 600-06. The court did not discuss the issue of whether Government Code Section 53760 was obsolete or imposed additional restrictions that might prevent OCIP’s filing, but instead concluded that OCIP did not meet the requisite standards of old or new law. It is unknown whether the incongruity between the obsolete state authorization language and the new terms of the Bankruptcy Code might have any effect on the ability to file under Chapter 9. The OCIP court assumed that the municipality and state instrumentality language of the Bankruptcy Code could be applied, but found that OCIP did not qualify.
stated that the bill “would inappropriately vest responsibility for local fiscal affairs at the state level, creating an instrument of state government to usurp the authority of local officials to decide the wisdom of a bankruptcy filing” and “could raise questions of the liability of the state to creditors of the public agency if eligibility for bankruptcy is denied.”

No bills have been introduced to amend Section 53760 since the 1995-96 legislative session. 14

Revision of General Authorization

With the proliferation of local government agencies — as many of 7,000 of them who could claim municipality or instrumentality status15 — it may be important to

14. A number of special statutes addressing the problems raised by the Orange County Investment Pool failure were enacted, even though the general bankruptcy authorization rules remained unamended. For provisions specific to Orange County, see, e.g., Educ. Code §§ 42238.21, 84753; Gov’t Code §§ 20487, 29141.1, 29530.5, 30400-30406, 53584.1, 53585.1; Health & Safety Code § 33670.9; Rev. & Tax. Code §
96.16; Sts. & Hy. Code § 2128. The Commission has not reviewed these provisions.

15. See Cal. Const. Rev. Comm’n, Final Report and Recommendations to the Governor and the Legislature 71-72 (1996). The Constitution Revision Commission reports that there are 470 cities, 1,062 school districts and county offices of education, and 5,000 special districts. “There are about 55 types of activities performed by special districts ranging from operating airports to managing zoos. Approximately 2,200 are ‘independent’ districts. That is, they have elected or appointed boards and are independent of the cities or counties in which they provide services.” Id. at 72.

The scope of activities carried on by special districts can be estimated by the following list of entities

Air pollution control districts of any kind, air quality management districts, airport districts, assessment districts, benefit assessment districts, and special assessment districts of any public body, bridge and highway districts, California water districts, citrus pest control districts, city maintenance districts, community college districts, community development commissions, community facilities districts, community redevelopment agencies, community rehabilitation districts, community services districts, conservancy districts, cotton pest abatement districts, county boards of education, county drainage districts, county flood control and water districts, county free library systems, county maintenance districts, county sanitation districts, county service areas, county transportation commissions, county water agencies, county water authorities, county water districts, county waterworks districts, ..., agencies acting pursuant to Part 3 (commencing with Section 11100) of Division 6 of the Water Code, distribution districts of any public body, drainage districts, fire protection districts, flood control and water conservation districts, flood control districts, garbage and refuse disposal districts, garbage disposal districts, geologic hazard abatement districts, harbor districts, harbor improvement districts, harbor, recreation, and conservation districts, health care authorities, highway districts, highway interchange districts, highway lighting districts, housing authorities, improvement districts or improvement areas of any public body, industrial development authorities, infrastructure financing districts, integrated financing districts, irrigation districts, joint highway districts, levee districts, library districts, library districts in unincorporated towns and villages, local agency formation commissions, local health care districts, local health districts, local hospital districts, local transportation authorities or commissions, maintenance districts, memorial districts, metropolitan transportation commissions, metropolitan water districts, mosquito abatement or vector control districts, municipal improvement districts, municipal utility districts, municipal water districts, nonprofit corporations, nonprofit public benefit corporations, open-space maintenance districts, parking authorities, parking districts, permanent road divisions, pest abatement districts, police protection districts, port districts, project areas of community redevelopment agencies, protection districts, public cemetery districts, public utility districts, rapid transit districts, reclamation districts, recreation and park districts, regional justice facility financing agencies, regional park and open-space districts, regional planning districts, regional transportation commissions, resort improvement districts, resource conservation districts, river port districts, road consider limitations on the authority to file for debt adjustment. One commentator asks: “Should a ‘citrus pest control district’ or a ‘storm drainage district’ be permitted to seek Chapter 9 relief?”

Conditions have changed dramatically since 1934 — there are significantly more special districts now than existed 65 years ago, although the number of counties remains the same and the number of cities presumably has not grown significantly. Historically, special districts have comprised the bulk of the Chapter 9 filers. If the goal is to preserve California’s historically broad grant of municipal bankruptcy authority, the simplest approach is to use the word “municipality” as used in federal law and thereby incorporate the broadest possible class of permissible filers. Any exceptions can be made by statute as the Legislature and Governor agree is appropriate under the circumstances, as was done in the Orange County situation.

Another option would be for the state to take control of the definitional issue by defining which public entities can file under Chapter 9, rather than leaving the issue potentially to the case-by-case determination by bankruptcy courts. State law cannot expand the scope of federal bankruptcy law, but even if the purpose of listing types of entities is not to restrict access, a state catalog could be “a persuasive starting point for defining the scope of [“municipality”] in California. Moreover, the use of a state law definition would reduce the risk that certain entities might be permitted or precluded from filing based on shifting federal interpretations of the term ‘municipality.’”

17. See Tung, supra note 1, at 22.

19. See Kevane Memorandum, supra note 16, at 3-5.

20. Id. at 5.
Professor Tung notes that this approach “has some promise but also some limitations,” and he reminds that “only the federal definition matters. That definition cannot be expanded by state legislation, any more than any federal statute is subject to modification by a state legislature.” He suggests:

A list approach may be more effective. It would not redefine terms contained in the federal statute, but would merely provide a reference for the bankruptcy judge in her attempts to construe the terms “political subdivision” and “public agency or instrumentality” from federal law and decide whether a particular state-created entity qualifies. For example, some manifestation by the state that it considers a county-created investment pool to be a state agency or instrumentality might be persuasive.

The Commission has decided to favor simplicity in amendments to preserve the broad grant of authority, and to avoid additional detail or complications in implementing this goal. Municipal bankruptcies are relatively rare in modern times and most candidates for bankruptcy fall within well-understood categories. An attempt to list local public entities in a statute might just state the obvious without helping resolve the issues such as that faced by the court in the Orange County Investment Pool case.

Substantive Reform Options

A variety of approaches are illustrated in the laws of other states. The largest group, over 20 states, have no enabling statutes at all. Twelve or more states have granted generally unfettered authority to some or all local entities. Georgia forbids resort to Chapter 9. A number of other states provide restrictions on bankruptcy filings by way of preliminary review or other conditions, including state prebankruptcy insolvency procedures.

Professor Tung gives a strong argument in favor of discretionary access to bankruptcy protection through use of a gatekeeper. Fundamental to his analysis is the potential effect that one municipality’s bankruptcy may have on the borrowing power of other municipalities, supporting the conclusion that a city or county should not have sole authority to take advantage of Chapter 9 in disregard of the fallout for other public entities. Professor Tung concludes that discretion to authorize municipal bankruptcy filings should be vested in the Governor, as the authority best situated to decide whether and under what conditions a municipality

21. See Tung Study, supra note 1, at 31-32.
22. Id. at 32.
23. The Commission takes no position on whether that case was correctly decided or whether the OCIP would be covered by the proposed incorporation of the “municipality” definition in federal law.
24. Freyberg, supra note 18, at 1009, 1016.
25. Tung, supra note 1, at 21-23; Freyberg, supra note 18, at 1009-10.
26. Tung, supra note 1, at 23.
27. See Tung, supra note 1, at 23-25; Freyberg, supra note 18, at 1010-14.
may file for bankruptcy.\textsuperscript{28} Other possibilities exist, such as a committee of officials, such as was passed by the Legislature but vetoed in 1996.\textsuperscript{29}

Another well-argued proposal for reform has been presented to the Commission by Henry C. Kevane,\textsuperscript{30} who agrees with Prof. Tung’s reasons for early state involvement in the municipal bankruptcy process, but believes quick access to bankruptcy protection from creditors is essential to local public entities. A trustee could be appointed by the Governor when a public entity had filed a Chapter 9 case and would have all the powers of the entity, including powers under Chapter 9. He would limit the state government’s function to helping formulate the adjustment plan and other post-filing issues, and argues that the correct focus is on shaping the adjustment plan and other fiscal matters (or dismissing the petition) once the factors can be better known.

CONCLUSION

The Commission has not found any consensus in favor of substantive reforms, whether providing for a gatekeeper or post-filing management. The Commission did learn informally that the Governor’s Office is not particularly interested in having the gatekeeper function.\textsuperscript{31} The Commission’s study has engendered little interest from representatives of local public entities. The only written comment was received from the California County Counsels’ Association, which expressed the view that substantive reform was not needed, particularly if it imposed a prefiling gatekeeper.\textsuperscript{32}

Although it has been nearly five years since Senator Kopp’s SB 349 establishing the Local Agency Bankruptcy Committee was vetoed by Governor Wilson, the Commission has concluded that a gatekeeper or other substantive restrictions on local agency filings are not acceptable to the state and local officials. Weighing the factors discussed by Prof. Tung and Mr. Kevane is largely a political exercise: what is the state’s interest in controlling access as a gatekeeper, what is the risk to the fiscal soundness of the state and its subdivisions by unrestricted access to Chapter 9, who can and should step in to remedy insolvency and when should they do it.

As we have seen in the Orange County crisis, the state can respond legislatively in serious cases. In other situations, such as school district insolvency, there are mechanisms in place for the state to use a trustee mechanism. Generally speaking, \textsuperscript{28} See Tung, \textit{supra} note 1, at 24-31.

\textsuperscript{29} See discussion of SB 349 under “Recent Reform Attempts” \textit{supra}.
\textsuperscript{31} See Commission Staff Memorandum 2000-66 (Sept. 29, 2000), at 1-2.
\textsuperscript{32} See Letter from Robert A. Ryan, Jr., to California Law Revision Commission (March 26, 2001) (attached to First Supplement to Commission Staff Memorandum 2001-32 (March 28, 2001)).
bankruptcy is not the only remedy, since there are a host of statutes governing municipal finance that also serve to avoid insolvency and promote sound credit.

In light of the political factors and the lack of a consensus, the Commission recommends only a technical statutory cleanup at this time. Conditions may change in the future, at which time the background study and other materials should be of significant assistance in fashioning an appropriate recommendation.

RECOMMEND REVISIONS

The Commission recommends revision of Government Code Section 53760 to conform the general authority of local public entities to file for Chapter 9 bankruptcy protection with the language and scope of the federal Bankruptcy Code. The proposed statute authorizes local public entities to petition and exercise powers to the extent permitted municipalities under federal bankruptcy law. As revised, this section is intended to provide the specific state law authorization for municipal bankruptcy filing required under federal law.\(^3^3\)

The proposed revision will update the intent of the statute to meet the specific authorization requirement of current federal law and will reaffirm the likely original intent of the statute to provide the broadest possible access to municipal debt relief.

In addition, the Commission recommends a number of conforming amendments and repeals to modernize language and eliminate duplicative authority.\(^3^4\) These revisions would be technical, nonsubstantive changes in the statutes. Overlapping provisions, such as Government Code Section 53761, should be repealed as unnecessary and redundant.\(^3^5\)

---

33. 11 U.S.C. § 109(c)(2) (Westlaw 2001). In discussing the specificity requirement, the court in the Orange County Investment Pool case opined: “For example that statute could authorize all ‘municipalities’ as defined in the Code to file bankruptcy.” In re County of Orange, 183 B.R. 594, 605 (1995). This conclusion follows from the language in Section 109(c)(2) requiring authorization “in its capacity as a municipality or by name.” Granting state authorization for “municipalities” as a class satisfies the Bankruptcy Code standard.

34. See proposed amendments and repeals concerning Educ. Code § 41325 (school districts); Gov’t Code §§ 43739 (cities), 53761 (general consent to bankruptcy), 59125 (Special Assessment and Bond Refunding Law of 1939); Water Code §§ 24767 (irrigation districts), 25115 (irrigation districts), infra. There are a number of other provisions relating to bankruptcy that are not in need of revision. See, e.g., Gov’t Code §§ 59472, 59110, 59125, 59598; Ins. Code § 10089.21; Sts. & Hy. Code §§ 9011, 9075.

35. See proposed repeal of Gov’t Code § 53761 infra. See also Kevane Memorandum, supra note 18, at 2 n.2.
PROPOSED LEGISLATION

Educ. Code § 41325 (technical amendment). Legislative intent concerning school district insolvency

SEC. 1. Section 41325 of the Education Code is amended to read:

41325. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that when a school district becomes insolvent and requires an emergency apportionment from the state in the amount designated in this article, it is necessary that the Superintendent of Public Instruction assume control of the district in order to ensure the district’s return to fiscal solvency.

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature that the Superintendent of Public Instruction, operating through an appointed administrator, do all of the following:

(1) Implement substantial changes in the district’s fiscal policies and practices, including, if necessary, the filing of a petition under Chapter 9 of the federal Bankruptcy Act for the adjustment of indebtedness.

(2) Revise the district’s educational program to reflect realistic income projections, in response to the dramatic effect of the changes in fiscal policies and practices upon educational program quality and the potential for the success of all pupils.

(3) Encourage all members of the school community to accept a fair share of the burden of the district’s fiscal recovery.

(4) Consult, for the purposes described in this subdivision, with the school district governing board, the exclusive representatives of the employees of the district, parents, and the community.

(5) Consult with and seek recommendations from the county superintendent of schools for the purposes described in this subdivision.

Comment. Subdivision (b)(1) of Section 41325 is amended to reflect the repeal of the former Bankruptcy Act and enactment of the Bankruptcy Code in 1978.

Staff Note. This amendment is not strictly necessary; it is in the nature of a maintenance of the codes amendment.

Gov’t Code § 43739 (repealed). Authorization for municipal bankruptcy

SEC. 2. Section 43739 of the Government Code is repealed.

43739. Any city authorized to refund its indebtedness pursuant to this article may file a petition under any bankruptcy law of the United States. If the refunding of the city indebtedness is authorized in the bankruptcy proceeding, the city may refund its indebtedness pursuant to this article.

Comment. Former Section 43739 is superseded by Section 53670. The substance of the grant of authority to file for municipal bankruptcy provided in the first sentence of this section is continued in new Section 53670. The reference to the ability of a city to refund indebtedness is not continued because it is unnecessary. Section 53670 provides the broadest possible state authorization for municipal bankruptcy filings. See Section 53670 Comment.
The second sentence is not continued because it is unnecessary. Section 43720 provides the scope of this article and does not exclude its application in bankruptcy proceedings. Whether or not debt is refunded pursuant to this article should be determined in the bankruptcy proceedings.

Gov’t Code § 53760 (repealed). Authorization for municipal bankruptcy

SEC. 3. Section 53760 of the Government Code is repealed.

53760. Any taxing agency or instrumentality of this State, as defined in Section 81 of the act of Congress entitled “An act to establish a uniform system of bankruptcy throughout the United States,” approved July 1, 1898, as amended, may file the petition mentioned in Section 83 of the act and prosecute to completion all proceedings permitted by Sections 81, 82, 83, and 84 of the act.

Comment. Former Section 53670 is superseded by a new Section 53670. The substance of the grant of authority to file for municipal bankruptcy provided in this section is continued in new Section 53670, which modernizes references to federal bankruptcy law. The Bankruptcy Act sections listed in former Section 53670 were repealed in 1978. See Bankruptcy Reform Act of 1978, Pub. L. No. 95-598. The “taxing agency or instrumentality” phrase was drawn from the predecessor Bankruptcy Act of 1898, as amended in 1937. This language has been replaced by the more general term “municipality” in the Bankruptcy Code. See 11 U.S.C. § 101(40) (Westlaw 2001), as amended by the Bankruptcy Reform Act of 1994. To the extent that former Section 53670 could be interpreted in a more limited fashion (cf. In re County of Orange, 183 B.R. 594, 605 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 1995)), that limitation is not continued in new Section 53760.

Gov’t Code § 53760 (added). Authorization for municipal bankruptcy

SEC. 4. Section 53760 is added to the Government Code, to read:

53760. (a) Except as otherwise provided by statute, a local public entity in this state may file a petition and exercise powers pursuant applicable federal bankruptcy law.

(b) As used in this section, “local public entity” means any entity, without limitation, that is a “municipality,” as defined in paragraph (40) of Section 101 of Title 11 of the United States Code (Bankruptcy), or that qualifies under any other federal bankruptcy law applicable to political subdivisions of the state.

Comment. Section 53760 supersedes former Sections 43739 (city bankruptcy), 53760 (taxing agency or instrumentality bankruptcy), and 53761 (state consent). The former sections contained obsolete references to repealed federal bankruptcy law. This section is intended to provide the broadest possible state authorization for municipal bankruptcy proceedings, and thus provides the specific state law authorization for municipal bankruptcy filing required under federal law. See 11 U.S.C. § 109(c)(2) (Westlaw 2001).

As recognized in the introductory clause of subdivision (a), this broad grant of authority is subject to specific limitations provided by statute. See, e.g., Ins. Code § 10089.21 (California Earthquake Authority precluded from resort to bankruptcy); Sts. & Hy. Code § 9011 (prerequisites to bankruptcy filing under Improvement Bond Act of 1915). See also Educ. Code § 41325 (control of insolvent school district by Superintendent of Public Instruction); Health & Safety Code § 129173 (health care district trusteeship).

Gov’t Code § 53761 (repealed). Consent to bankruptcy

SEC. 5. Section 53761 of the Government Code is repealed.
53761. The State consents to the adoption of Sections 81, 82, 83, and 84 by Congress and consents to their application to the taxing agencies and instrumentalities of this State.

Comment. Former Section 53671 is superseded by Section 53670. The substance of the consent to file for municipal bankruptcy provided in this section is continued in new Section 53670, which modernizes references to the federal bankruptcy laws. The Bankruptcy Act sections listed in former Section 53670 were repealed in 1978. See Bankruptcy Reform Act of 1978, Pub. L. No. 95-598. To the extent that former Section 53671 could be interpreted to provide a more limited scope than federal law, that limitation is not continued.

Gov’t Code § 59125(amended). Special Assessment and Bond Refunding Law of 1939
SEC. 6. Section 59125 of the Government Code is amended to read:

59125. A legislative body authorized to conduct a proceeding pursuant to this chapter may file a petition and take all actions required by any and exercise powers under applicable federal bankruptcy law for a district formed under any improvement or acquisition law which provides for the payment of the improvement or acquisition by special assessment upon the property benefited as provided by Section 53760.

Comment. Section 59125 is amended for consistency with the general authorization for municipal bankruptcy provided in Section 53760. See Section 53760 Comment. This is a technical, nonsubstantive revision.

Water Code § 24767 (amended). Irrigation districts, condition of modification plan
SEC. 7. Section 24767 of the Water Code is amended to read:

24767. An agreement or plan may not be carried out pursuant to this article until a proposal therefor is approved by the voters, and a plan may not be carried out until it is either:

(a) Agreed to in writing by all of the holders of bonds and warrants affected.

(b) Confirmed by a decree of any United States District Court in accordance with the provision of the National Bankruptcy Act, as amended federal bankruptcy law.

Comment. Subdivision (b) of Section 24767 is amended to generalize the reference to federal bankruptcy law, in recognition of the repeal of the former Bankruptcy Act and enactment of the Bankruptcy Code. The limitation on the effectiveness of a bankruptcy court decree — requiring that it be made by a district court — is deleted.

Water Code § 25115 (amended). Irrigation districts, approval of bondholders
SEC. 8. Section 25115 of the Water Code is amended to read:

25115. The approval of the holders of outstanding refunding bonds affected by the modification shall be evidenced by either of the following:

(a) The written consent of all of the owners and holders of the bonds.

(b) A decree of any United States District Court in accordance with the provisions of the National Bankruptcy Act, as amended under federal bankruptcy law, which decree provides that the modification is binding upon the holders and owners of all of the outstanding refunding bonds affected.
Comment. Subdivision (b) of Section 25115 is amended to generalize the reference to federal bankruptcy law, in recognition of the repeal of the former Bankruptcy Act and enactment of the Bankruptcy Code. The limitations on the effectiveness of a bankruptcy court decree — requiring that it be made by a district court and that it provide that it is binding on affected persons — are deleted. The content and effect of a decree in bankruptcy is determined by federal law.