

Memorandum 2008-16

Nonsubstantive Reorganization of Deadly Weapon Statutes: Third Revised Tentative Outline

At the direction of the Legislature (2006 Cal. Stat. res. ch. 128), the Commission is conducting a nonsubstantive study of the statutes relating to deadly weapons. The goal of the study is to reorganize those statutes in a user-friendly manner, without changing their substantive effect.

To that end, the Commission prepared a tentative outline for reorganization of the material currently in Title 2 of Part 4 of the Penal Code, which relates to deadly weapons. The outline calls for creation of a new Part 6 of the Penal Code. The Commission has already revised the outline of new Part 6 twice; the outline needs to be revised again to incorporate legislation enacted in 2007.

Attached for the Commission's review is a new version of the outline. The following changes have been made to incorporate 2007 legislation:

- Penal Code Section 12001(s) is a newly-enacted provision that defines "consultant-evaluator." In the attached outline, it is included under "Division 2. Definitions" of "Title 1. Preliminary Provisions."
- Penal Code Section 12126(b)(7) is a provision that was recently added to the statutory definition of "unsafe handgun." The new provision is definitional, but also gives the Attorney General authority to follow certain procedures.

In the attached outline, the new provision is included in two places: (1) under "Division 2. Definitions" of "Title 1. Preliminary Provisions," and (2) under "Division 12. Miscellaneous Duties of the Department of Justice" of "Title 4. Firearms and Similar Weapons."

For more detail on the manner in which this provision would be divided between these locations, see Memorandum 2008-17.

Also, in preparing previous versions of the outline, we overlooked the following points:

Any California Law Revision Commission document referred to in this memorandum can be obtained from the Commission. Recent materials can be downloaded from the Commission's website (www.clrc.ca.gov). Other materials can be obtained by contacting the Commission's staff, through the website or otherwise.

- The first paragraph of Penal Code Section 12020(c)(22)(C) contains definitions of “firearm,” “major component,” and “Security Exemplar,” for use in interpreting Section 12020(c)(22)(A)-(B).
- The second paragraph of Section 12020(c)(22)(C) is substantive, not definitional.

To account for these points, we have:

- (1) Included Section 12020(c)(22)(C) with the other “firearm” definitions in “Division 2. Definitions” of “Title 1. Preliminary Provisions.”
- (2) Inserted Section 12020(c)(22)(C)’s definitions of “major component” and “Security Exemplar” alphabetically in “Division 2. Definitions.”
- (3) Included the second paragraph of Section 12020(c)(22)(C) in “Chapter 7. Undetectable Firearm” of “Division 3. Disguised or Misleading Appearance” of “Title 4. Firearms and Similar Weapons.”

Finally, we have revised a few of the items in “Division 2. Definitions” of “Title 1. Preliminary Provisions” to reflect more precisely what material would be included in that division. See the following entries in the outline:

- “Firearm.” We changed “12030(d)” to “12030(d), 4th sent.”
- “Firearms transaction record.” We changed “12071(c)(4)” to “12071(c)(4)(A).”
- “Firing requirement for handguns.” We changed “12127(a)” to “12127(a)-(b).”
- “Immediate.” We changed “12031(j)(1)” to “12031(j)(1), 2d sent.”
- “Loaded” and “loaded firearm.” We added Section 12031(g).
- “Locked container.” We added the last clause of Section 12026.1(a)(1).
- “Transaction.” We changed “12077(d)(4)” to “12077(d)(4), 2d sent.”

The Commission needs to determine whether the revisions described above are acceptable and whether any additional revisions of the outline need to be made. We invite comment on these points.

Respectfully submitted,

Barbara Gaal
Chief Deputy Counsel

NONSUBSTANTIVE REORGANIZATION OF THE DEADLY WEAPONS STATUTES:
TENTATIVE OUTLINE FOR A NEW PART 6 OF THE PENAL CODE (4/3/08)

The following is a tentative outline for a new Part 6 of the Penal Code, which would contain most of the material now in Title 2 of Part 4 of the Penal Code (Control of Deadly Weapons).

The outline does not include Penal Code Sections 12021.5-12022.95, which are sentencing enhancement provisions. Those provisions would be left where they are in Title 2, and Title 2 would be relabeled "Sentence Enhancements."

The outline also omits Penal Code Section 12078, a lengthy provision consisting of numerous exceptions to other provisions. The Commission plans to divide up the material in that statute such that each exception is stated close to each general rule it modifies. Minutes (April 2007), p. 9. It would be overly complicated to try to reflect that decision in the outline.

Under some of the proposed new headings in the outline, there is a list of "Material to be included." Except as otherwise indicated, the statutes in each list of "Material to be included" appear in numerical order, not necessarily the order in which the material would be placed under the new heading.

Additional subheadings might be added as work on this study progresses. For example, the outline places much substantive material in "Division 6. Sale, Lease, or Transfer of Firearms" of "Title 4. Firearms and Similar Weapons." The Commission intends to divide up that material into a number of chapters and articles, but it has yet decided the best means of doing that.

Many of the existing statutes are long and may be divided into a number of different sections. In this tentative outline, especially long sections (ones that are more than two pages long in the attachment to Memorandum 2007-17) are indicated by the symbol "Ⓜ".

Penal Code Section 12001 consists of numerous definitions; most of its substance would be placed in "Division 2. Definitions" of "Title 1. Preliminary Provisions." Many other provisions in Title 2 of Part 4 of the Penal Code contain or constitute definitions. These definitions will also be placed in "Division 2. Definitions" of "Title 1. Preliminary Provisions."

Within "Division 2. Definitions" of "Title 1. Preliminary Provisions," the definitions will be listed in alphabetical order. Whenever a defined term is used in a substantive provision to which the definition applies, the definition will be referenced in the Law Revision Commission's Comment to that provision.
