Memorandum 2008-50

Nonsubstantive Reorganization of Deadly Weapon Statutes: Cumulative Draft of New Part 6 of the Penal Code

In its nonsubstantive study of the laws governing control of deadly weapons, the Commission is in the process of preparing a tentative recommendation. The plan is to reorganize most of the material in Title 2 of Part 4 of the Penal Code (Penal Code §§ 12000-12809) in a user-friendly manner in a new Part 6 of the Penal Code, without making any substantive changes. For an outline of new Part 6, see Memorandum 2008-48.

At previous meetings, the Commission has considered drafts of the following material for new Part 6:

• Title 1. Preliminary Provisions
• Title 2. Weapons Generally
• Title 3. Weapons and Devices Other Than Firearms
• Title 4. Firearms (Divisions 1-5 only)

Attached is a cumulative draft of that material.

A draft of Division 6 of Title 4, relating to sale, lease, or transfer of firearms, is attached to Memorandum 2008-49, for consideration at the October meeting. The remainder of Title 4 has not yet been drafted.

Commissioners and other interested persons should review the attached cumulative draft and determine whether any aspect of it needs to be changed before being incorporated into a tentative recommendation. A few matters relating to the draft are discussed below.

CONTENT OF THE CUMULATIVE DRAFT

The attached cumulative draft does not incorporate legislation enacted in 2008, except for a measure enacted on an urgency basis (2008 Cal. Stat. ch. 111, § 1). The staff will incorporate other 2008 legislation later in this study.
In the attached draft, the staff has:

- Made some corrections and revised numerous cross-references to conform to the numbering of new Part 6. Some cross-references have not yet been conformed, usually because the corresponding new provision has not yet been drafted. For drafting convenience in conforming cross-references, we have added two new provisions. See proposed Sections 16575, 16580. For discussion of the process of conforming cross-references, see Memorandum 2008-39, pp. 2-5.
- Made revisions relating to the definition of “infrequent,” which has been placed in proposed Section 16730. For an explanation of those revisions, see the Staff Note on proposed Section 16730 in the attachment to Memorandum 2008-49.
- Made revisions relating to the definitions of “dealer,” “licensee,” and “person licensed pursuant to [Section 12071].” See proposed Sections 16440, 16820, 16890. For an explanation of those revisions, see the Staff Note on proposed Section 16440 in the attachment to Memorandum 2008-49.

We have also (1) added an uncodified provision that would establish a delayed operative date for the proposed legislation, and (2) added several provisions that would be placed in “Division 1. General Provisions” of “Title 1. Preliminary Provisions.” Those two points are explained in the remainder of this memorandum.

Delayed Operative Date

At the end of the attached draft is an uncodified provision that states:

SEC. ____. This act becomes operative on ______.

The staff included this provision because it seems likely that a delayed operative date would be advisable.

Normally, legislation becomes operative on January 1 of the year following enactment of the legislation. Cal. Const. art. IV, § 8(c)(1); Gov’t Code § 9600(a). Sometimes, however, the operative date is delayed to facilitate the transition to the new legislation, or for some other reason.

For instance, a nonsubstantive reorganization of the Civil Discovery Act was enacted in 2004 on recommendation of the Commission. Instead of becoming operative on January 1, 2005, the legislation did not become operative until July 1, 2005. See 2004 Cal. Stat. ch. 182, § 64. The six-month delay gave courts and attorneys time to prepare for the reform, such as by revising forms to reflect the new numbering scheme.

The staff does not know what length of delay, if any, would be appropriate for the deadly weapons legislation being prepared by the Commission. Comments on this point would be helpful.

For the time being, however, it is not necessary to settle that matter. The Commission can simply leave the date in the uncodified provision blank and fill it in later.

General Provisions

Until now, Division 1 has been left empty, reserved for future use if needed. In preparing material for the October meeting, however, the staff realized that it would be helpful to place a number of provisions in that division.

Each of those provisions is discussed below.

Title of Act

First, there should be a section that would establish a convenient means of referring to the legislation recodifying the deadly weapon provisions. In the attached draft, proposed Section 16000 would state:

§ 16000. Deadly Weapons Recodification Act of 2012

16000. This act recodifies the provisions of former Title 2 (commencing with Section 12000) of Part 4, which was entitled “Control of Deadly Weapons.” The act shall be known and may be cited as the “Deadly Weapons Recodification Act of 2012.”

Comment. Section 16000 provides a convenient means of referring to the recodification of former Sections 12000-12809. For background, see Nonsubstantive Reorganization of Deadly Weapon Statutes, __ Cal. L. Revision Comm’n Reports __ (2009).

The staff selected the name “Deadly Weapons Recodification Act of 2012” on the assumption that the Commission’s proposal will not be introduced until 2011 and will not be enacted until 2012. Although the Commission’s report is due on July 1, 2009, it may be unwise to introduce the proposal in 2010, which is the second year of a two-year legislative session. The proposed legislation will be lengthy and the Legislature might not be able to adequately review it a single year. Delaying introduction of the bill until 2011 would give the Legislature two years to evaluate it, instead of only one.

Of course, there might be pressure to introduce the bill earlier, so that the recodification would take place earlier. If so, it would be a simple matter to adjust the date in proposed Section 16000 and other provisions referring to the Deadly Weapons Recodification Act.

Later in this study, the Commission should consider what would be the best time to introduce the proposed legislation. There is no need to make a decision on that point now. But comments on it would be welcome at any time.

Nonsubstantive Reform

Second, the staff recommends that “Division 1. General Provisions” include a provision emphasizing the nonsubstantive nature of the recodification. We previously recommended that this be done in an uncodified provision, and the Commission tentatively approved such a provision. See Memorandum 2008-39, pp. 2, 5; Minutes (Sept. 2008), p. 7. On reflection, however, the staff has concluded that a code section would be preferable to an uncodified provision, because it is less likely to be overlooked.

Thus, proposed Section 16005 in the attached draft would state:

§ 16005. Nonsubstantive reform

16005. Nothing in the Deadly Weapons Recodification Act of 2012 is intended to substantively change the law relating to deadly weapons. The act is intended to be entirely nonsubstantive in effect. Every provision of the act, including, without limitation, every cross-reference in every provision of the act, shall be interpreted consistent with the nonsubstantive intent of the act.

Comment. Section 16005 makes clear that the Deadly Weapons Recodification Act of 2012 has no substantive impact. The act is intended solely to make the provisions governing control of deadly weapons more user-friendly. For background, see Nonsubstantive Reorganization of Deadly Weapon Statutes, __ Cal. L. Revision Comm’n Reports __ (2009).

This is essentially the same as the provision that the Commission previously approved.
Continuation of Existing Law

Third, “Division 1. General Provisions” should include a provision with standard language on continuation of existing law. In the attached draft, proposed Section 16010 would state:

§ 16010. Continuation of existing law

16010. (a) A provision of this part, insofar as it is substantially the same as a previously existing provision relating to the same subject matter, shall be considered as a restatement and continuation thereof and not as a new enactment.

(b) A reference in a statute to a previously existing provision that is restated and continued in this part shall, unless a contrary intent appears, be deemed a reference to the restatement and continuation.

(c) A reference in a statute to a provision of this part that is substantially the same as a previously existing provision shall, unless a contrary intent appears, be deemed to include a reference to the previously existing provision.

Comment. Subdivision (a) of Section 16010 is similar to Section 5, which is a standard provision found in many codes. See, e.g., Bus. & Prof. Code § 2; Corp. Code § 2; Fam. Code § 2; Prob. Code § 2(a); Veh. Code § 2.

Subdivision (b) is drawn from Government Code Section 9604.

Subdivision (c) is drawn from Family Code Section 2. For a specific illustration of the general principle stated in this subdivision, see Section 16015 (determining existence of prior conviction).

Prior Convictions

Fourth, the staff recommends that “Division 1. General Provisions” include a provision relating to prior convictions. For some criminal offenses, the severity of punishment depends on whether there has been a prior conviction under a particular statute. If that statute is recodified without substantive change, the recodification should have no impact on the punishment. In other words, it should not matter whether a conviction was under the old version of the statute, or under the new version of the statute. Either way, the conviction should count as a prior conviction for purposes of determining punishment.

In the attached draft, proposed Section 16015 would address this matter:

§ 16015. Determining existence of prior conviction

16015. If a previously existing provision is restated and continued in this part, a conviction under that previously existing provision shall, unless a contrary intent appears, be treated as a conviction under the restatement and continuation of that provision.

Comment. Section 16015 makes clear that in determining the existence of a prior conviction that affects the severity of punishment for an offense, a conviction under a former provision that has been restated and continued in this part counts as a prior conviction under the corresponding new provision.

For example, Section 20170 prohibits open display of an imitation firearm in a public place. A first violation of that provision is punishable by a $100 fine, and a second violation is punishable by a $300 fine. See Section 20180. In determining whether to impose a $100 fine or a $300 fine, a violation of the predecessor of Section 20170 (former Section 12256(a)) counts as a prior violation of Section 20170.

To alert persons to this provision, the staff has revised a number of Comments to refer to it. See the Comments to proposed Sections 18735, 20160, 20180, 22610, 23645, 23670, 25400, and 25850 in the attached draft. See also the Comments to proposed Sections 27245, 27350, and 27590 in the draft attached to Memorandum 2008-49. We encourage input on whether there are any other Comments where such a reference would be helpful.

Constitutionality and Judicial Decisions

Finally, the staff now believes that “Division 1. General Provisions” is the place to make clear that in recodifying the deadly weapon statutes, the Legislature has not passed judgment on the constitutionality of any provision affected by the recodification, or the correctness of any such provision. We previously recommended that the Commission address that point in an uncodified provision. The Commission approved the idea in concept, but crafting specific language was deferred. See Memorandum 2007-15, pp. 6-7; Minutes (April 2007), p. 11; Minutes (April 2008), pp. 5-6; Memorandum 2008-42, p. 3. To help ensure that such language is not overlooked, the staff now thinks it should be codified.

Further, we would address the point in two provisions rather than one, as shown below:

§ 16020. Judicial decision interpreting former law

16020. (a) A judicial decision interpreting a previously existing provision is relevant in interpreting a provision of this part that restates and continues that previously existing provision.
(b) However, in enacting the Deadly Weapons Recodification Act of 2012, the Legislature has not evaluated the correctness of any judicial decision interpreting a provision affected by the act.

(c) The Deadly Weapons Recodification Act of 2012 is not intended to, and does not, reflect any assessment of any judicial decision interpreting any provision affected by the act.

Comment. Subdivision (a) of Section 16020 makes clear that case law construing a predecessor provision is relevant in construing its successor in this part.

Subdivisions (b) and (c) make clear that in recodifying former Sections 12000-12809, the Legislature has not taken any position on any case interpreting any of those provisions.

§ 16025. Constitutionality

16025. (a) A judicial decision determining the constitutionality of a previously existing provision is relevant in determining the constitutionality of a provision of this part that restates and continues that previously existing provision.

(b) However, in enacting the Deadly Weapons Recodification Act of 2012, the Legislature has not evaluated the constitutionality of any provision affected by the act, or the correctness of any judicial decision determining the constitutionality of any provision affected by the act.

(c) The Deadly Weapons Recodification Act of 2012 is not intended to, and does not, reflect any determination of the constitutionality of any provision affected by the act.

Comment. Subdivision (a) of Section 16025 makes clear that case law determining the constitutionality of a predecessor provision is relevant in determining the constitutionality of its successor in this part.

Subdivisions (b) and (c) make clear that in recodifying former Sections 12000-12809, the Legislature has not taken any position on the constitutionality of any of those provisions.

We believe this would be more clear and straightforward than trying to cover everything in a single provision.

We encourage Commissioners and other interested persons to share their views on this matter, the attached draft, and any other aspect of this study.

Respectfully submitted,

Barbara Gaal
Chief Deputy Counsel

PROPOSED LEGISLATION

☞ Staff Note. This is a work in progress. The material shown below may be changed. For an outline of new Part 6 of the Penal Code, see Memorandum 2008-38.

Except as noted in the accompanying memorandum, the material in this draft has been previously presented and approved by the Commission for inclusion in a tentative recommendation. In some provisions, the staff has made typographical or other minor corrections, as authorized in the Commission’s handbook (Rule 2.7.4). In many places, a cross-reference to an existing provision has been replaced with a cross-reference to the corresponding new provision.

Some of the provisions in this draft contain a bracketed cross-reference to one or more existing code sections. As new Part 6 of the Penal Code is drafted, these cross-references will be conformed to the new numbering scheme.

Blanks are used to indicate references to sections that have not yet been drafted (e.g., “Section _____”).

All of the proposed provisions would be located in the Penal Code. All references are to the Penal Code unless otherwise noted.

Penal Code § 830.95 (added). Picketing in uniform of peace officer

830.95. (a) Any person who wears the uniform of a peace officer while engaged in picketing, or other informational activities in a public place relating to a concerted refusal to work, is guilty of a misdemeanor, whether or not the person is a peace officer.

(b) This section shall not be construed to authorize or ratify any picketing or other informational activities not otherwise authorized by law.

Comment. Subdivision (a) of Section 830.95 continues former Section 12590(a)(4) without substantive change.

With respect to picketing in the uniform of a peace officer, subdivision (b) continues former Section 12590(b) without substantive change. See also Section 17510(b), which continues former Section 12590(b) with respect to certain other acts.

Penal Code §§ 16000-_____ (added). Control of deadly weapons

SEC. ___. Part 6 (commencing with Section 16000) is added to the Penal Code, to read:

PART 6. CONTROL OF DEADLY WEAPONS

TITLE 1. PRELIMINARY PROVISIONS

DIVISION 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 16000. Deadly Weapons Recodification Act of 2012

16000. This act recodifies the provisions of former Title 2 (commencing with Section 12000) of Part 4, which was entitled “Control of Deadly Weapons.” The act shall be known and may be cited as the “Deadly Weapons Recodification Act of 2012.”

Comment. Section 16000 provides a convenient means of referring to the recodification of former Sections 12000-12809. For background, see Nonsubstantive Reorganization of Deadly Weapon Statutes, __ Cal. L. Revision Comm’n Reports __ (2009).

☞ Staff Note. The Commission’s report on nonsubstantive reorganization of the deadly weapons statutes is due on July 1, 2009. Because the proposed legislation will be lengthy, it may be unwise to introduce it in 2010, which is the second year of a two-year legislative session.

In drafting proposed Section 16000, the staff has assumed that the proposed legislation will not be introduced until 2011, and will not be enacted until 2012. If those assumptions are incorrect, the date in proposed Section 16000 and other provisions referring to the Deadly Weapons Recodification Act will require adjustment.

Later in this study, the Commission should consider what would be the best time to introduce its proposed legislation.

§ 16005. Nonsubstantive reform

16005. Nothing in the Deadly Weapons Recodification Act of 2012 is intended to substantively change the law relating to deadly weapons. The act is intended to be entirely nonsubstantive in effect. Every provision of the act, including, without limitation, every cross-reference in every provision of the act, shall be interpreted consistent with the nonsubstantive intent of the act.

Comment. Section 16005 makes clear that the Deadly Weapons Recodification Act of 2012 has no substantive impact. The act is intended solely to make the provisions governing control of deadly weapons more user-friendly. For background, see Nonsubstantive Reorganization of Deadly Weapon Statutes, __ Cal. L. Revision Comm’n Reports __ (2009).

§ 16010. Continuation of existing law

16010. (a) A provision of this part, insofar as it is substantially the same as a previously existing provision relating to the same subject matter, shall be considered as a restatement and continuation thereof and not as a new enactment.

(b) A reference in a statute to a previously existing provision that is restated and continued in this part shall, unless a contrary intent appears, be deemed a reference to the restatement and continuation.

(c) A reference in a statute to a provision of this part that is substantially the same as a previously existing provision shall, unless a contrary intent appears, be deemed to include a reference to the previously existing provision.

Comment. Subdivision (a) of Section 16010 is similar to Section 5, which is a standard provision found in many codes. See, e.g., Bus. & Prof. Code § 2; Corp. Code § 2; Fam. Code § 2; Prob. Code § 2(a); Veh. Code § 2.

Subdivision (b) is drawn from Government Code Section 9604.

Subdivision (c) is drawn from Family Code Section 2. For a specific illustration of the general principle stated in this subdivision, see Section 16015 (determining existence of prior conviction).

§ 16015. Determining existence of prior conviction

16015. If a previously existing provision is restated and continued in this part, a conviction under that previously existing provision shall, unless a contrary intent appears, be treated as a prior conviction under the restatement and continuation of that provision.

Comment. Section 16015 makes clear that in determining the existence of a prior conviction that affects the severity of punishment for an offense, a conviction under a former provision that has been restated and continued in this part counts as a prior conviction under the corresponding new provision.

For example, Section 20170 prohibits open display of an imitation firearm in a public place. A first violation of that provision is punishable by a $100 fine, and a second violation is punishable by a $300 fine. See Section 20180. In determining whether to impose a $100 fine or a $300 fine, a violation of the predecessor of Section 20170 (former Section 12256(a)) counts as a prior violation of Section 20170.

§ 16020. Judicial decision interpreting former law

16020. (a) A judicial decision interpreting a previously existing provision is relevant in interpreting a provision of this part that restates and continues that previously existing provision.

(b) However, in enacting the Deadly Weapons Recodification Act of 2012, the Legislature has not evaluated the correctness of any judicial decision interpreting a provision affected by the act.

(c) The Deadly Weapons Recodification Act of 2012 is not intended to, and does not, reflect any assessment of any judicial decision interpreting any provision affected by the act.

Comment. Subdivision (a) of Section 16020 makes clear that case law construing a predecessor provision is relevant in construing its successor in this part.

Subdivisions (b) and (c) make clear that in recodifying former Sections 12000-12809, the Legislature has not taken any position on any case interpreting any of those provisions.

§ 16025. Constitutionality

16025. (a) A judicial decision determining the constitutionality of a previously existing provision is relevant in determining the constitutionality of a provision of this part that restates and continues that previously existing provision.

(b) However, in enacting the Deadly Weapons Recodification Act of 2012, the Legislature has not evaluated the constitutionality of any provision affected by the act, or the correctness of any judicial decision determining the constitutionality of any provision affected by the act.

(c) The Deadly Weapons Recodification Act of 2012 is not intended to, and does not, reflect any determination of the constitutionality of any provision affected by the act.

Comment. Subdivision (a) of Section 16025 makes clear that case law determining the constitutionality of a predecessor provision is relevant in determining the constitutionality of its successor in this part.

Subdivisions (b) and (c) make clear that in recodifying former Sections 12000-12809, the Legislature has not taken any position on the constitutionality of any of those provisions.

Comment. Section 23500 continues former Section 12000 without substantive change.

§ 23505. Severability
23505. If any section, subsection, sentence, clause, or phrase of any provision listed in Section 16580 is for any reason held unconstitutional, that decision does not affect the validity of any other provision listed in Section 16580. The Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed the provisions listed in Section 16580 and each section, subsection, sentence, clause, and phrase of it, irrespective of the fact that any one or more other sections, subsections, sentences, clauses, or phrases be declared unconstitutional.

Comment. Section 23505 continues former Section 12003 without substantive change. See also Section 12003, to the same effect as this provision.

§ 23510. Distinct and separate offense despite reference to “any firearm”

23510. For purposes of [Sections 12021, 12021.1, 12078, 12101, 12801], 25400, 26500, 27500 to 27590, inclusive, and 28100 of this code, and Sections 8100, 8101, and 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, notwithstanding the fact that the term “any firearm” may be used in those sections, each firearm or the frame or receiver of each firearm constitutes a distinct and separate offense under those sections.

Comment. Section 23510 continues former Section 12001(k) without substantive change. See Section 16520 (“firearm”).

§ 23515. Violent use of firearm

23515. As used in the provisions listed in Section 16580, an offense that involves the violent use of a firearm includes any of the following:

(a) A violation of paragraph (2) or (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 245 or a violation of subdivision (d) of Section 245.

DIVISION 2. FIREARM SAFETY DEVICES, GUN SAFES, AND RELATED WARNINGS

23620. This division and Sections 16540, 16610, and 16870 shall be known and may be cited as the “Aroner-Scott-Hayden Firearms Safety Act of 1999.”

Comment. Section 23620 continues former Section 12087 without substantive change.

§ 23625. Legislative findings

23625. The Legislature makes the following findings:

(a) In the years 1987 to 1996, nearly 2,200 children in the United States under the age of 15 years died in unintentional shootings. In 1996 alone, 138 children were shot and killed unintentionally. Thus, more than 11 children every month, or one child every three days, were shot or killed unintentionally in firearms-related incidents.

(b) The United States leads the industrialized world in the rates of children and youth lost to unintentional, firearms-related deaths. A 1997 study from the federal Centers for Disease Control and Prevention reveals that for unintentional firearm-related deaths for children under the age of 15, the rate in the United States was nine times higher than in 25 other industrialized countries combined.

c) While the number of unintentional deaths from firearms is an unacceptable toll on America’s children, nearly eight times that number are treated in U.S. hospital emergency rooms each year for nonfatal unintentional gunshot wounds.

d) A study of unintentional firearm deaths among children in California found that unintentional gunshot wounds most often involve handguns.

e) A study in the December 1995 issue of the Archives of Pediatric and Adolescent Medicine found that children as young as three years old are strong enough to fire most commercially available handguns. The study revealed that 25 percent of three to four year olds and 70 percent of five to six year olds had sufficient finger strength to fire 59 (92 percent) of the 64 commonly available handguns referenced in the study.

(f) The Government Accounting Office (GAO), in its March 1991 study, “Accidental Shootings: Many Deaths and Injuries Caused by Firearms Could be Prevented,” estimates that 31 percent of accidental deaths caused by firearms might be prevented by the addition of two safety devices: a child-resistant safety device that automatically engages and a device that indicates whether the gun is loaded. According to the study results, of the 107 unintentional firearms-related fatalities the GAO examined for the calendar years 1988 and 1989, 8 percent could have been prevented had the firearm been equipped with a child-resistant safety device. This 8 percent represents instances in which children under the age of six unintentionally shot and killed themselves or other persons.

g) Currently, firearms are the only products manufactured in the United States that are not subject to minimum safety standards.

h) A 1997 public opinion poll conducted by the National Opinion Research Center at the University of Chicago in conjunction with the Johns Hopkins Center for Gun Policy and Research found that 74 percent of Americans support safety regulation of the firearms industry.

(i) Some currently available trigger locks and other similar devices are inadequate to prevent the accidental discharge of the firearms to which they are attached, or to prevent children from gaining access to the firearm.

Comment. Section 23625 continues former Section 12087.5 without substantive change. See Sections 16520 (“firearm”), 16640 (“handgun”).

§ 23630. Limitations on application

23630. (a) This division does not apply to the commerce of any antique firearm.

(b)(1) This division does not apply to the commerce of any firearm intended to be used by a salaried, full-time peace officer, as defined in Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 830) of Title 3 of Part 2, for purposes of law enforcement.
(2) Nothing in this division precludes a local government, local agency, or state law enforcement agency from requiring its peace officers to store their firearms in gun safes or attach firearm safety devices to those firearms.

Comment. In combination with Section 16170(b) (“antique firearm”), Section 23630 continues former Section 12088.8 without substantive change.

See Sections 16520 (“firearm”), 16540 (“firearm safety device”), 16610 (“gun safe”).

§ 23635. Firearm safety device requirement, warning requirement for noncomplying long-gun safe, and warning described in Section 23640

23635. (a) Any firearm sold or transferred in this state by a licensed firearms dealer, including a private transfer through a dealer, and any firearm manufactured in this state, shall include or be accompanied by a firearm safety device that is listed on the Department of Justice’s roster of approved firearm safety devices and that is identified as appropriate for that firearm by reference to either the manufacturer and model of the firearm, or to the physical characteristics of the firearm that match those listed on the roster for use with the device.

(b) The sale or transfer of a firearm shall be exempt from subdivision (a) if both of the following apply:

(1) The purchaser or transferee owns a gun safe that meets the standards set forth in Section 23650. Gun safes shall not be required to be tested, and therefore may meet the standards without appearing on the Department of Justice roster.

(2) The purchaser or transferee presents an original receipt for purchase of the gun safe, or other proof of purchase or ownership of the gun safe as authorized by the Attorney General, to the firearms dealer. The dealer shall maintain a copy of this receipt or proof of purchase with the dealer’s record of sales of firearms.

(c) The sale or transfer of a firearm shall be exempt from subdivision (a) if all of the following apply:

(2) The purchaser or transferee presents the approved safety device to the firearms dealer when picking up the firearm.

(3) The purchaser or transferee presents an original receipt to the firearms dealer, which shows the date of purchase, the name, and the model number of the safety device.

(4) The firearms dealer verifies that the requirements in paragraphs (1) to (3), inclusive, have been satisfied.

(5) The firearms dealer maintains a copy of the receipt along with the dealer’s record of sales of firearms.

(d)(1) Any long-gun safe commercially sold or transferred in this state, or manufactured in this state for sale in this state, that does not meet the standards for gun safes adopted pursuant to Section 23650 shall be accompanied by the following warning:
“WARNING: This gun safe does not meet the safety standards for gun safes specified in California Penal Code Section 23650. It does not satisfy the requirements of Penal Code Section 23635, which mandates that all firearms sold in California be accompanied by a firearm safety device or proof of ownership, as required by law, of a gun safe that meets the Section 23650 minimum safety standards developed by the California Attorney General.”

(2) This warning shall be conspicuously displayed in its entirety on the principal display panel of the gun safe’s package, on any descriptive materials that accompany the gun safe, and on a label affixed to the front of the gun safe.

(3) This warning shall be displayed in both English and Spanish, in conspicuous and legible type in contrast by typography, layout, or color with other printed matter on the package or descriptive materials, in a manner consistent with Part 1500.121 of Title 16 of the Code of Federal Regulations, or successor regulations thereto.

(e) Any firearm sold or transferred in this state by a licensed firearms dealer, including a private transfer through a dealer, and any firearm manufactured in this state, shall be accompanied by warning language or a label as described in Section 23640.

Comment. Subdivision (a) of Section 23635 continues former Section 12088.1(a) without substantive change.

Subdivision (e) continues former Section 12088.1(b) without substantive change.
See Sections 16520 (“firearm”), 16540 (“firearm safety device”), 16610 (“gun safe”), 16870 (“long-gun safe”), 26700 (“dealer,” “licensee,” or “person licensed pursuant to Sections 26700 to 26915, inclusive”).

§ 23640. Warning label
23640. (a) The packaging of any firearm and any descriptive materials that accompany any firearm sold or transferred in this state, or delivered for sale in this state, by any licensed manufacturer, or licensed dealer, shall bear a label containing the following warning statement:

WARNING

Children are attracted to and can operate firearms that can cause severe injuries or death.

Prevent child access by always keeping guns locked away and unloaded when not in use. If you keep a loaded firearm where a child obtains and improperly uses it, you may be fined or sent to prison.

A yellow triangle containing an exclamation mark shall appear immediately before the word “Warning” on the label.
(b) If the firearm is sold or transferred without accompanying packaging, the warning label or notice shall be affixed to the firearm itself by a method to be prescribed by regulation of the Attorney General.

(c) The warning statement required under subdivisions (a) and (b) shall satisfy both of the following requirements:

1. It shall be displayed in its entirety on the principal display panel of the firearm’s package, and on any descriptive materials that accompany the firearm.
2. It shall be displayed in both English and Spanish, in conspicuous and legible type in contrast by typography, layout, or color with other printed matter on that package or descriptive materials, in a manner consistent with Part 1500.121 of Title 16, of the Code of Federal Regulations, or successor regulations thereto.

Comment. Section 23640 continues former Section 12088.3 without substantive change. See Section 16520 (“firearm”).

(b) On a second violation of any of those sections, a licensed firearm manufacturer shall be ineligible to manufacture, or a licensed firearm dealer shall be ineligible to sell, firearms in this state for 30 days, and shall be punished by a fine of one thousand dollars ($1,000).

(c)(1) On a third violation of any of those sections, a firearm manufacturer shall be permanently ineligible to manufacture firearms in this state.

(2) On a third violation of any of those sections, a licensed firearm dealer shall be permanently ineligible to sell firearms in this state.

Comment. Section 23645 continues former Section 12088.6 without substantive change. A violation of the predecessor of Section 23635 (former Section 12088.1) or the predecessor of Section 23640 (former Section 12088.3) counts as a prior violation in determining the appropriate punishment under this section. See Section 16015 (determining existence of prior conviction).

See Sections 16520 (“firearm”), 26700 (“dealer,” “licensee,” or “person licensed pursuant to Sections 26700 to 26915, inclusive”).

23650. (a) The Attorney General shall develop regulations to implement a minimum safety standard for firearm safety devices and gun safes to significantly reduce the risk of firearm-related injuries to children 17 years of age and younger. The final standard shall do all of the following:

1. Address the risk of injury from unintentional gunshot wounds.
2. Address the risk of injury from self-inflicted gunshot wounds by unauthorized users.
3. Include provisions to ensure that all firearm safety devices and gun safes are reusable and of adequate quality and construction to prevent children and unauthorized users from firing the firearm and to ensure that these devices cannot be readily removed from the firearm or that the firearm cannot be readily removed from the gun safe except by an authorized user utilizing the key, combination, or other method of access intended by the manufacturer of the device.

(4) Include additional provisions as appropriate.

(b) The Attorney General may consult, for the purposes of guidance in development of the standards, test protocols such as those described in Title 16 (commencing with Part 1700) of the Code of Federal Regulations, relating to poison prevention packaging standards. These protocols may be consulted to provide suggestions for potential methods to utilize in developing standards and shall serve as guidance only. The Attorney General shall also give appropriate consideration to the use of devices that are not detachable, but are permanently installed and incorporated into the design of a firearm.

Comment. Section 23650 continues former Section 12088.2 without substantive change.

See Sections 16520 (“firearm”), 16540 (“firearm safety device”), 16610 (“gun safe”).

§ 23655. Testing of firearm safety devices

If a person who allegedly violated Section 25100 is the parent or guardian of a child who is injured or who dies as the result of an accidental shooting, the district attorney shall consider, among other factors, the impact of the injury or death on the person alleged to have violated Section 25100 when deciding whether to prosecute the alleged violation. It is the Legislature’s intent that a parent or guardian of a child who is injured or who dies as the result of an accidental shooting shall be prosecuted only in those instances in which the parent or guardian behaved in a grossly negligent manner or where similarly egregious circumstances exist. This section shall not otherwise restrict, in any manner, the factors that a district attorney may consider when deciding whether to prosecute an alleged violation of Section 25100.

The intent of this section is to encourage law enforcement officials to delay the arrest of a parent or guardian of a seriously injured child while the child remains on life-support equipment or is in a similarly critical medical condition.

Comment. Section 25120 continues former Section 12035(f) without substantive change.
See Sections 16600 (“great bodily injury”), 25000 (“child”).

§ 25210. Prosecution of parent or guardian

25210. If a person who allegedly violated Section 25200 is the parent or guardian of a child who is injured or who dies as the result of an accidental shooting, the district attorney shall consider, among other factors, the impact of the injury or death on the person alleged to have violated Section 25200 when deciding whether to prosecute the alleged violation. It is the Legislature’s intent that a parent or guardian of a child who is injured or who dies as the result of an accidental shooting shall be prosecuted only in those instances in which the parent or guardian behaved in a grossly negligent manner or where similarly egregious circumstances exist. This section shall not otherwise restrict, in any manner, the factors that a district attorney may consider when deciding whether to prosecute alleged violations of Section 25200.

The intent of this section is to encourage law enforcement officials to delay the arrest of a parent or guardian of a seriously injured child while the child remains on life-support equipment or is in a similarly critical medical condition.
