

Memorandum 2008-51

Nonsubstantive Reorganization of Deadly Weapon Statutes: Disposition Table

In its nonsubstantive study of the deadly weapon statutes, the Commission is drafting a tentative recommendation, which would reorganize the material currently in Title 2 of Part 4 of the Penal Code (Penal Code §§ 12000-12809). Most of that material would be moved to a new Part 6 of the Penal Code, as would the substance of Penal Code Section 653k, relating to switchblade knives. The sentencing enhancement provisions (Penal Code §§ 12021.5-12022.95) would be left in place.

The tentative recommendation is not yet complete, but the Commission has made substantial progress. An important component of the tentative recommendation will be a disposition table, showing where each provision in existing law would be placed.

Attached is a draft of the disposition table. It is obviously a work in progress, as the gaps in the table reflect. We are presenting the draft now for two reasons:

- (1) To assist persons in reviewing the drafts of new Part 6 of the Penal Code.
- (2) To provide an opportunity for persons to check the disposition table and notify the staff of any errors they find. There will be further opportunities to check the disposition table later in this study, but the more time for such review, the better.

The staff realizes that the disposition table is not interesting reading. We are grateful for any assistance that stakeholders and other persons are able to provide in reviewing it. Ensuring that the disposition table is correct will be crucial to prevent future confusion over the fate of existing provisions.

Respectfully submitted,

Barbara Gaal
Chief Deputy Counsel

DISPOSITION OF EXISTING LAW

Note. This table shows the proposed disposition of Penal Code Section 653k and Title 2 of Part 4 of the Penal Code (Penal Code Sections 12000-12809), as the law existed on January 1, 200_. Unless otherwise indicated, all proposed dispositions are to the Penal Code.
