Memorandum 2019-31

California Public Records Act Clean-Up (Draft of Tentative Recommendation)

Attached for the Commission’s consideration is a complete draft of a tentative recommendation to recodify the California Public Records Act (“CPRA”)¹ in a more user-friendly manner without substantive change. Also attached is the following exhibit:

Exhibit p.

- Examples of Legislative Findings Under Section 3 of Article I of the California Constitution (From Pending Bills) ......................... 1

Some issues relating to the attached draft are discussed below. After resolving those issues, the Commission will need to decide whether to approve the attached draft as a tentative recommendation (with or without revisions), to be posted to the Commission’s website and broadly circulated for comment.

Unless otherwise indicated, all statutory references in this memorandum are to the Government Code.

PRELIMINARY PART

In addition to proposed legislation and accompanying Comments, the attached draft includes a narrative explanation of the proposal (otherwise known as the “preliminary part” of the tentative recommendation). This narrative explanation is new, so Commissioners and other interested persons should review it carefully. Any suggestions for improvement of the preliminary part would be much appreciated.

Any California Law Revision Commission document referred to in this memorandum can be obtained from the Commission. Recent materials can be downloaded from the Commission’s website (www.clrc.ca.gov). Other materials can be obtained by contacting the Commission’s staff, through the website or otherwise.

The Commission welcomes written comments at any time during its study process. Any comments received will be a part of the public record and may be considered at a public meeting. However, comments that are received less than five business days prior to a Commission meeting may be presented without staff analysis.
CROSS-REFERENCES IN THE COMMENTS

In October of last year, the Commission directed:

When the staff prepares a complete draft of a tentative recommendation for the Commission to consider, the staff should review all of the proposed Comments, insert additional references to related statutory material as appears appropriate, and bring those suggested revisions to the Commission’s attention.\(^2\)

As the Commission directed, the staff reviewed the Comments in the proposed recodification and added references to related statutory material. The revisions are too pervasive to individually describe.

Almost all of the Comments now consist of (1) some material that is unique (or almost unique) to the particular code section in question, and (2) a brief “road map” to the CPRA. The Comment to proposed Section 7921.300 is typical:

Comment. Section 7921.300 continues former Section 6257.5 without substantive change.

For other provisions that prohibit discrimination in disclosing information under the California Public Records Act (“CPRA”), see Sections 7921.305 and 7921.310. For rules relating to voluntary disclosure, see Sections 7921.500-7921.505. For rules that specifically address disclosure to a district attorney, see Sections 7921.700-7921.710.

For general rules governing exemptions from disclosure, see Sections 7922.000-7922.210. For procedural rules governing requests for public records and related matters, see Sections 7922.500-7922.725; see also Sections 7923.000-7923.510 (enforcement).

For special rules applicable to specific types of public records, see Sections 7923.600-7929.610; see also Sections 7930.000-7930.215 (alphabetical list of many CPRA exemptions).

For legislative findings and declarations underlying the CPRA, see Section 7921.000. For basic rules protecting access to public records under the CPRA, see Sections 7922.525 (inspection of public record) and 7922.530 (copy of public record); see also Sections 7921.005 and 7921.010 (restricting agency’s ability to transfer public record or otherwise relinquish control over its disclosure).

For the effect of the CPRA, see Section 7920.200; see also Sections 7920.100-7920.120 (effect of CPRA recodification). For references to some other bodies of law governing public records, see Section 7920.000 Comment.

See Section 7920.530 (“public records”).

The expanded Comments are intended to be helpful to persons using the CPRA. Commissioners and other interested persons should review them and consider whether to make any revisions. Are the “road maps” worth including? Would it be better to limit each Comment to material that is unique (or almost unique) to the particular code section in question? Should any other revisions be made?

DEFINITIONS

The second sentence of existing Section 6254.5 defines “agency” for purposes of that section:

6254.5. … For purposes of this section, “agency” includes a member, agent, officer, or employee of the agency acting within the scope of his or her membership, agency, office, or employment.

Early in this study, the staff recommended recodifying this definition in “Chapter 2. Definitions” of the proposed recodification. The staff explained that “[a]lthough this definition currently applies only to Section 6254.5, it seems reasonably likely that the Legislature might want to apply the definition to some other CPRA provisions in the future.” The Commission agreed with the staff’s recommendation on this point.

Since then, the Commission has decided that “[a]s a general rule, a definition that applies only to a single code section should remain in close proximity to that code section.” It has also become clear that “Chapter 2. Definitions” will consist almost entirely of definitions that apply to the whole CPRA. Given these circumstances, the staff now thinks that the definition of “agency” should be recodified with the substance of Section 6254.5, instead of in “Chapter 2. Definitions.” We followed that approach in preparing the attached draft (see proposed Section 7921.505(a)). We also renumbered as needed to reflect this relocation and standardize the numbering in “Chapter 2. Definitions.”

Are these revisions acceptable to the Commission?

SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBERS

Article 2 of Chapter 3 of Part 2 of the proposed recodification (proposed Sections 7922.200-7922.210) contains several provisions relating to social security numbers. In previous drafts, that article was entitled “Truncation of Social Security Numbers and Related Matters.”

On further reviewing the content of the article, however, the staff realized that one of the provisions in it (proposed Section 7922.200) calls for redaction of social security numbers, not truncation. We therefore changed the title of the article to “Redaction and Truncation of Social Security Numbers and Related Matters.”

Is this change acceptable to the Commission?

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH CARE SERVICES VS. DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC HEALTH

In a separate study, the Commission circulated a tentative recommendation proposing some technical corrections of Health and Safety Code Section 131052. Upon receiving comments on the tentative recommendation from the Health Officers Association of California and the California Department of Public Health (“CDPH”), the Commission decided not to go forward with most of the proposed revisions.

The commenters agreed, however, that a provision of the CPRA (Section 6254(s)) erroneously refers to the Department of Health Care Services, instead of CDPH. The reference in question is shown in italics below:

6254. Except as provided in Sections 6254.7 and 6254.13, this chapter does not require the disclosure of any of the following records:

(s) A final accreditation report of the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals that has been transmitted to the State Department of Health Care Services pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1282 of the Health and Safety Code.

Based on the input received, the Commission decided to consider correcting that problem in this study of the CPRA.

9. Id.
The commenters appear to be correct that Section 6254(s) should refer to CDPH, not the Department of Health Care Services. In fact, Health and Safety Code Section 131052(7) already says: “For purposes of subdivision (s) of Section 6254 of the Government Code, the term “State Department of Health Services” is hereby deemed to refer to the State Department of Public Health.”

In light of Section 131052(7), replacement of “State Department of Health Services” with “State Department of Public Health” in Section 6254(s) would be a technical correction, not a substantive change. Accordingly, the attached draft would (1) make such a correction in proposed Section 7926.000 (the provision that would continue Section 6254(s)) and (2) note the correction in the accompanying Comment:

§ 7926.000. Final accreditation report of Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals 7926.000. Except as provided in Sections 7924.510, 7924.700, and 7927.605, this division does not require the disclosure of a final accreditation report of the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals that has been transmitted to the State Department of Public Health pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1282 of the Health and Safety Code.

Comment. Section 7926.000 continues former Section 6254(s) without substantive change. An erroneous reference to the Department of Health Care Services has been replaced with a reference to the State Department of Public Health. See Health & Safety Code § 131052(7); 2005 Cal. Stat. ch. 670, § 1.5.

For other provisions of the California Public Records Act (“CPRA”) that relate specifically to health care, see ....

Is this treatment of the matter satisfactory?

COMPUTER SOFTWARE (SECTION 6254.9; PROPOSED SECTION 7922.585)

Existing Section 6254.9 concerns computer software developed by a state or local agency. It provides:

6254.9. (a) Computer software developed by a state or local agency is not itself a public record under this chapter. The agency may sell, lease, or license the software for commercial or noncommercial use.

(b) As used in this section, “computer software” includes computer mapping systems, computer programs, and computer graphics systems.

(c) This section shall not be construed to create an implied warranty on the part of the State of California or any local agency for errors, omissions, or other defects in any computer software as provided pursuant to this section.

(d) Nothing in this section is intended to affect the public record status of information merely because it is stored in a computer. Public records stored in a computer shall be disclosed as required by this chapter.

(e) Nothing in this section is intended to limit any copyright protections.

The Commission previously decided to recodify the substance of Section 6254.9 in “Chapter 9. Miscellaneous Public Records” of “Part 5. Specific Types of Public Records” of the proposed recodification. That placement now strikes the staff as problematic, because Section 6254.9(a) expressly states that “[c]omputer software developed by a state or local agency is not itself a public record under this chapter.”

In the attached draft, the staff moved the substance of Section 6254.9 to “Article 3. Information in Electronic Format” of “Chapter 1. Request for a Public Record” of “Part 3. Procedures” of the proposed recodification. See proposed Section 7922.585.

Is this revision acceptable to the Commission?

CPRA INDEX

In April, the Commission considered how to handle Article 2 of the CPRA (commonly known as the “CPRA index”) in the proposed recodification. The Commission decided to retain the current, alphabetical format of the CPRA index, but solicit comment on whether to switch to some other format.

The attached draft would implement that decision. See proposed Sections 7930.000-7930.215. Commissioners and other interested persons should review that part of the attached draft particularly carefully, because it is new material.

A few issues relating to that material are discussed below.

11. The staff also made some conforming revisions.
Problematic Entries in the CPRA Index

In preparing the proposed continuation of the CPRA index, the staff checked each of the numerous provisions listed in the CPRA index, to see if they still exist and still contain pertinent material.

Some of the entries in the CPRA index are problematic. Here is a list of the problems, which also explains how the staff addressed each problem in preparing the attached draft:

(1) Section 6276.02 includes an entry for: “Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome, confidentiality of test results of person convicted of prostitution, Section 1202.6, Penal Code.” However, Penal Code Section 1202.6 was recently repealed and added, and the new provision has nothing to do with confidentiality of AIDS test results.14 The staff is unsure whether there is a new provision that should be listed in the CPRA index instead of the repealed section. Because we could not readily find a clear replacement, and the CPRA index is just a user guide that does not purport to be exhaustive, we omitted the quoted entry in preparing proposed Section 7930.105. The accompanying Comment would explain the omission and a Note would solicit input on the matter.

(2) Section 6276.04 includes an entry for: “Auditor General, access to records for audit purposes, Sections 10527 and 10527.1.” Section 6276.04 also includes an entry for: “Auditor General, disclosure of audit records, Section 10525.” However, Sections 10525, 10527, and 10527.1 have been repealed.15 The staff is unsure whether there are any new provisions that should be listed in the CPRA index instead of the repealed sections. Because we could not readily find clear replacements, and the CPRA index is just a user guide that does not purport to be exhaustive, we omitted the two entries quoted above in preparing proposed Section 7930.110. The accompanying Comment would explain the omission and a Note would solicit input on the matter.

(3) Section 6276.06 includes an entry for: “Bank employees, confidentiality of criminal history information, Sections 777.5 and 4990, Financial Code.” However, Financial Code Section 777.5 has been repealed.16 Again, the staff could not readily find any clear replacement. Thus, we included the quoted entry in preparing proposed Section 7930.115, but it would only refer to Financial Code Section 4990. The accompanying Comment would explain the omission of Financial Code Section 777.5 and a Note would solicit input on the matter.

(4) Section 6276.06 includes the following entry: “Bank reports, confidentiality of, Section 289, Financial Code.” However, Financial Code Section 289 has been repealed17 and its substance has been relocated to Financial Code Section 459.18 Proposed Section 7930.115 would thus refer to Financial Code Section 459, instead of Financial Code Section 289. The accompanying Comment would explain this revision and a Note would solicit input on the matter.

(5) Section 6276.10 includes an entry for: “Community care facilities, confidentiality of client information, Section 1557.5, Health and Safety Code.” There are two, almost identical versions of Section 1557.5 in the Health and Safety Code. Without further research, the staff does not fully understand why. Because the two sections are almost identical, there is no need to pursue the point in this study. Like existing Section 6276.10, proposed Section 7930.125 would simply refer to “Section 1557.5, Health and Safety Code.” To help persons reviewing the proposal, a Note would explain the situation.

(6) Section 6276.12 includes the following entry: “Contractor, license applicants, evidence of financial solvency, confidentiality of, Section 7067.5, Business and Professions Code.” However, Business and Professions Code Section 7067.5 has been repealed.19 There does not appear to be any replacement; Section 7067.5’s requirement to submit evidence of financial solvency seems to have been eliminated in the bill that repealed the section and increased the amount of the required bond. The staff therefore omitted the quoted entry in preparing proposed Section 7930.130. The accompanying Comment would explain the omission and a Note would solicit input on the matter.

(7) Section 6276.14 includes an entry for: “Developmentally disabled person, confidentiality of patient records, state agencies, Section 4553, Welfare and Institutions Code.” However, Welfare and Institutions Code Section 4553 has been repealed and replaced by a new provision that has nothing to do with record disclosure.20 The substance of former Section 4553 has been moved to Welfare and Institutions Code Section 4552.5.21 Proposed Section 7930.135 would thus refer to Welfare and Institutions Code Section 4552.5, instead of Welfare and Institutions Code Section 4553. The accompanying Comment would explain this revision and a Note would solicit input on the matter.

(8) Section 6276.16 includes an entry for: “Educational psychologist-patient, privileged communication, Section 1010.5, Evidence Code.” In determining how to recodify that entry, the staff noticed that Evidence Code Section 1010.5 contains an incorrect cross-reference: It refers to “an educational psychologist licensed under Article 5 (commencing with Section 4986) of Chapter 13 of Division 2 of the Business and Professions Code.” Educational psychologists are no longer licensed under that article; they are now licensed under Chapter 13.5 (commencing with Section 4989.10) of Division 2 of the Business and Professions Code. Because this error is in Evidence Code Section 1010.5, not in the CPRA index, it may be best to check if the Office of Legislative Counsel could fix it in the annual maintenance of the codes bill. If that does not work out, the Commission could address it in a study on technical corrections.

(9) Section 6276.18 includes an entry for: “Firearms, centralized list of exempted federal firearms licensees, disclosure of information compiled from, Sections 24850 to 24890, inclusive, Penal Code.” The italicized cross-reference is incorrect; there are no such sections in the Penal Code. The numbers were inadvertently transposed in conforming the cross-reference when the Commission’s deadly weapons recodification was enacted. The correct cross-reference is to Penal Code Sections 28450 to 28490, inclusive.

However, this should perhaps be shortened to refer only to Penal Code Sections 28475 and 28480, because the other code sections in the specified range appear to have nothing to do with record disclosure. They were just included in the Section 6276.18 entry because historically they used to be in the same lengthy code section as the material that is now in Sections 28475 and 28480. To help persons using the CPRA index focus on pertinent material, proposed Section 7930.145 would refer only to Sections 28475 and 28480. The accompanying Comment would explain this revision and a Note would solicit input on the matter.

(10) Section 6276.18 includes an entry for: “Firearms, centralized list of dealers and licensees, disclosure of information compiled from, Sections 26700 to 26915, inclusive, Penal Code.” This entry should perhaps be shortened to refer only to Penal Code Section 26715, because the other code sections in the specified range appear to have nothing to do with record disclosure. They were just included in the Section 6276.18 entry because historically they used to be in the same lengthy code section as the material that is now in Penal Code Section 26715. To help persons using the exemption index focus on pertinent material, proposed Section 7930.145 would refer only to Penal Code Section 26715.

24. See former Penal Code § 12071 (2009 Cal. Stat. ch. 335, § 10), which was repealed in 2010 and recodified as Penal Code §§ 26700-26915) accompanying Comment would explain this revision and a Note would solicit input on the matter.

(11) Section 6276.18 includes an entry for: “Firearm sale or transfer, confidentiality of records, Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 28050) of Division 6 of Title 4 of Part 6, Penal Code.” This entry should perhaps be shortened to refer only to Penal Code Section 28060, because the other code sections in the specified range appear to have nothing to do with record disclosure. They were just included in the Section 6276.18 entry because historically they used to be in the same lengthy code section as the material that is now in Penal Code Section 28060.25 To help persons using the exemption index focus on pertinent material, proposed Section 7930.145 would refer only to Penal Code Section 28060. The accompanying Comment would explain this revision and a Note would solicit input on the matter.

(12) Section 6276.24 includes an entry for: “Hazardous waste control, business plans, public inspection, Section 25506, Health and Safety Code.” However, the version of Health and Safety Code Section 25506 relating to record disclosure was repealed in 2013.26 The current version of Health and Safety Code Section 25506 has nothing to do with record disclosure. The substance of former Health and Safety Code Section 25506 appears to have been moved (with revisions) to Health and Safety Code Section 25509.27 Proposed Section 7930.155 would thus refer to Health and Safety Code Section 25509, instead of Health and Safety Code Section 25506. The accompanying Comment would explain this revision and a Note would solicit input on the matter.

(13) Section 6276.24 includes an entry for: “Hazardous waste control, trade secrets, disclosure of information, Sections 25511 and 25538, Health and Safety Code.” However, the version of Health and Safety Code Section 25511 relating to record disclosure was repealed in 2013.28 The current version of Health and Safety Code Section 25511 has nothing to do with record disclosure. The substance of former Health and Safety Code Section 25511 appears to have been moved (with revisions) to Health and Safety Code Sections 25512 and 25512.1.29 Proposed Section 7930.155 would thus refer to Health and Safety Code Sections 25512 and 25512.1, instead of Health and Safety Code Section 25511. The accompanying Comment would explain this revision and a Note would solicit input on the matter.

25. See former Penal Code § 12082 (2008 Cal. Stat. ch. 699, § 20), which was repealed in 2010 and recodified as Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 28050) of Division 6 of Title 4 of Part 6 of the Penal Code).
(14) Section 6276.26 includes an entry for “Influenza vaccine, trade secret information and information relating to recipient of vaccine, Section 120155, Health and Safety Code.” However, the version of Health and Safety Code Section 120155 relating to trade secrets and record disclosure\(^{30}\) has been amended and renumbered as Health and Safety Code Section 120160.\(^{31}\) The current version of Health and Safety Code Section 120155 has nothing to do with record disclosure. Proposed Section 7930.160 would thus refer to Health and Safety Code Section 120160, instead of Health and Safety Code Section 120155. The accompanying Comment would explain this revision and a Note would solicit input on the matter.

(15) Section 6276.26 also includes an entry for: “In forma pauperis litigant, rules governing confidentiality of financial information, Section 68511.3.” However, Section 68511.3 has been repealed.\(^{32}\) Similar (but not identical) material relating to record disclosure is now located in Section 68633.\(^{33}\) Proposed Section 7930.160 would thus refer to Section 68633, instead of Section 68511.3. The accompanying Comment would explain this revision and a Note would solicit input on the matter. This drafting approach does not pose any risk of a substantive change, because the CPRA index is just an aid for CPRA users (not substantive law).\(^{34}\)

(16) Another entry in Section 6276.26 is for: “Insurance Commissioner, information from examination or investigation, confidentiality of, Sections 1215.7, 1433, and 1759.3, Insurance Code.” However, the current version of Insurance Code Section 1215.7 has nothing to do with record disclosure. The version of Insurance Code Section 1215.7 relating to record disclosure\(^{35}\) was amended and renumbered as Insurance Code Section 1215.8.\(^{36}\) Proposed Section 7930.160 would thus refer to Insurance Code Section 1215.8, instead of Insurance Code Section 1215.7. The accompanying Comment would explain this revision and a Note would solicit input on the matter.

(17) Section 6276.28 includes an entry for: “Labor dispute, investigation and mediation records, confidentiality of, Section 65, Labor Code.” However, Labor Code Section 65 has been repealed.\(^ {37}\) Its substance has been moved to Section 3601.\(^ {38}\) Proposed Section 6278.28 would thus refer to Section 3601, instead of Labor Code Section 65. The accompanying Comment would explain this revision and a Note would solicit input on the matter.

(18) Section 6276.30 includes an entry for: “Managed care health plans, confidentiality of proprietary information, Section 14091.3 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.” However, Welfare and Institutions Code Section 14091.3 was repealed by its own terms on January 1, 2014.39 The staff is unsure whether there is a new provision that should be listed in the CPRA index instead of the repealed section. Because we could not readily find a clear replacement, and the CPRA index is just a user guide that does not purport to be exhaustive, we omitted the quoted entry in preparing proposed Section 7930.170. The accompanying Comment would explain the omission and a Note would solicit input on the matter.

(19) Section 6276.30 also includes an entry for: “Mentally disordered or mentally ill person, weapons restrictions, confidentiality of information about, Section 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.” At present, there are two versions of Welfare and Institutions Code Section 8103: A version that will sunset by its own terms on January 1, 2020,40 and a version that will become operative on January 1, 2020.41 However, both versions contain the same language regarding record disclosure (see subdivision (e)(3)). Consequently, proposed Section 7930.170, like existing Section 6276.30, would simply refer to “Section 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.” To help persons reviewing the proposal, a Note would explain the situation.

(20) Similarly, Section 6276.34 includes an entry for: “Persons with mental health disorders, weapons restrictions, confidentiality of information about, Section 8103, Welfare and Institutions Code.” Here again, the new section that would continue Section 6276.34 (proposed Section 7930.180) would simply refer to “Section 8103, Welfare and Institutions Code,” instead of separately identifying both versions of Welfare and Institutions Code Section 8103. To help persons reviewing the proposal, a Note would explain the situation.

(21) Section 6276.32 includes an entry for: “Narcotic addict outpatient revocation proceeding, confidentiality of reports, Section 3152.5, Welfare and Institutions Code.” However, Welfare and Institutions Code Section 3152.542 was repealed by the terms of former Welfare and Institutions Code Section 3202.43 The staff is unsure whether there is a new provision that should be listed in the CPRA index instead of the repealed section. Because we could not readily find a clear replacement, and the CPRA index is just a user guide that does not purport to be exhaustive, we omitted the quoted entry in preparing proposed Section 7930.175. The accompanying Comment would explain the omission and a Note would solicit input on the matter.

(22) Section 6276.34 includes an entry for: “Payment instrument licensee records, inspection of, Section 33206, Financial Code.” However, Financial Code Section 33206 has been repealed.

(23) Another entry in existing Section 6276.34 is for: “Physician and surgeon, rehabilitation and diversion records, confidentiality of, Section 2355, Business and Professions Code.” However, Business and Professions Code Section 2355 has been repealed.

(24) Section 6276.36 includes an entry for: “Public Employees’ Retirement System, confidentiality of data filed by member or beneficiary with board of administration, Section 20134.” However, Section 20134 has been repealed and its substance has been moved to Section 20230. Proposed Section 7930.185 would thus refer to Section 20230, instead of Section 20134. The accompanying Comment would explain this revision and a Note would solicit input on the matter.

45. Financial Code Section 33206 (1996 Cal. Stat. ch. 1064, § 712) was part of the Payment Instruments Law (former Fin. Code § 33000 et seq.), which was repealed by a bill enacted in 2010. See 2010 Cal. Stat. ch. 612, § 4. That bill also repealed the Money Abroad Law (former Fin. Code § 1800 et seq.) and the Travelers Check Act (former Fin. Code § 1851 et seq.). Much of the substance of these three repealed bodies of law was consolidated into the Money Transmission Act (Fin. Code §§ 1800-1872). See, e.g., Senate Committee on Banking, Finance & Insurance Analysis of AB 2789 (June 30, 2010).
(25) Section 6276.36 also includes an entry for: “Pupil records, disclosure in hearing to dismiss or suspend school employee, Section 44944.1, Education Code.” However, Education Code Section 44944.1 was repealed and added, and the new provision does not address record disclosure. The substance of the repealed provision has been moved to Education Code Section 44944.3. Proposed Section 7930.135 would refer to Education Code Section 44944.3, instead of Education Code Section 44944.1. The accompanying Comment would explain this revision and a Note would solicit input on the matter.

(26) Section 6276.38 includes an entry for: “Residential care facilities for the elderly, confidentiality of client information, Section 1569.315, Health and Safety Code.” There are two versions of Section 1569.315 in the Health and Safety Code. Both versions require a residential care facility for the elderly to keep and protect “the privacy and confidentiality of” certain records. Most of the differences between the versions are stylistic, but only one version applies to “the ... address ... of the client’s physician ....” Like existing Section 6276.38, proposed Section 7930.190 would simply refer to “Section 1569.315, Health and Safety Code.” A Note would solicit input on whether this is the best way to handle the situation.

(27) Section 6276.40 includes an entry for: “Social security number, applicant for driver’s license or identification card, nondisclosure of, Section 1653.5, Vehicle Code ....” At present, there are two versions of Vehicle Code Section 1653.5, with different rules governing when they are operative. Both versions restrict disclosure of the social security number of an applicant for a driver’s license or identification card. For that reason, and because only one version will be operative at a time, proposed Section 7930.195, like existing Section 6276.40, would simply refer to “Section 1653.5, Vehicle Code ....” A Note would solicit input on the matter.

(28) Section 6276.42 includes an entry for: “State Teachers’ Retirement System, confidentiality of information filed with the system by a member, participant, or beneficiary, Sections 22306 and 26215, Education Code.” However, Education Code Section 26215 has been repealed, apparently because it was considered redundant with Education Code Section 22306. Thus, proposed Section 7930.200 would include the entry quoted above, but it would only refer to Education Code Section 22306. The accompanying Comment would explain the omission of Education Code Section 26215. A Note would solicit input on the matter.

(29) Section 6276.44 includes an entry for: “Trust companies, disclosure of private trust confidential information, Section 1582, Financial Code.” However, Financial Code Section 1582 was repealed and added in 2011, and the new provision has nothing to do with disclosure of private trust confidential information.56 The substance of the repealed provision was moved to Financial Code Section 1602.57 Accordingly, proposed Section 7930.205 would refer to Financial Code Section 1602, instead of Financial Code Section 1582. The accompanying Comment would explain this revision and a Note would solicit input on the matter.

Is the staff’s proposed treatment of these points acceptable to the Commission? Should any of them be handled differently?

Comments on these matters would be helpful. It would be particularly useful to hear about appropriate replacements, if any, for the repealed provisions that the staff found in Article 2’s list of exemptions. The staff does not plan to individually raise each of the above-described 29 points for discussion at the upcoming meeting, so please be prepared to speak up (or express your views in writing before the meeting) if you have a concern about any of them.

CPRA Exemptions That Are Not Included in the CPRA Index

In preparing the continuation of the CPRA index (proposed Sections 7930.000-7930.215), the staff did not search for provisions that belong in the CPRA index but are not currently included. That would be a big project, and Section 6275 expressly states that the CPRA index “may not be inclusive of all exemptions.”58

Although the staff did not do such research, we are already aware of some omissions. For example, the CPRA index does not include an entry for the mediation confidentiality provisions in the Evidence Code (Evid. Code §§ 1115-1129). Similarly, we noticed several other omissions:

• California’s constitutional right of privacy (art. I, § 1) is not included in the CPRA index.

58. See also Section 6276, which states: “Records or information not required to be disclosed pursuant to subdivision (k) of Section 6254 may include, but shall not be limited to, records or information identified in statutes listed in this article.” (Emphasis added.)
• Section 6254(p) is included in the CPRA index, but the alphabetized description of it only encompasses the content of subdivision (p)(1) (proposed Section 7928.405), not the content of subdivision (p)(2) (proposed Section 7928.410).

• Section 6254.1(c) is included in the CPRA index, but the alphabetized description of it does not encompass the part of Section 6254.1(c) that would continued in proposed Section 7929.600.

• Penal Code Section 11105.03(f) is not included in the CPRA index.59

There probably are more such omissions.

Dealing with this matter in the current study would complicate and slow down the progress of the study. Instead, the Commission might want to address it in a separate study pursuant to its authority to “study and recommend revisions to correct technical or minor substantive defects in the statutes of the state ....”60

Does the Commission have any interest in that possibility? Would it like to solicit comments on that possibility in its tentative recommendation?

LEGISLATIVE FINDINGS

Section 3 of Article I of the California Constitution provides:

SEC. 3. (a) The people have the right to instruct their representatives, petition government for redress of grievances, and assemble freely to consult for the common good.

(b)(1) The people have the right of access to information concerning the conduct of the people’s business, and, therefore, the meetings of public bodies and the writings of public officials and agencies shall be open to public scrutiny.

(2) A statute, court rule, or other authority, including those in effect on the effective date of this subdivision, shall be broadly construed if it furthers the people’s right of access, and narrowly construed if it limits the right of access. A statute, court rule, or other authority adopted after the effective date of this subdivision that limits the right of access shall be adopted with findings demonstrating the interest protected by the limitation and the need for protecting that interest.

(3) Nothing in this subdivision supersedes or modifies the right of privacy guaranteed by Section 1 or affects the construction of any statute, court rule, or other authority to the extent that it protects that right to privacy, including any statutory procedures

59. Penal Code Section 11105.03(f) is not the same as Penal Code Section 11105.3, which is included in the CPRA index.
60. Section 8298.
governing discovery or disclosure of information concerning the official performance or professional qualifications of a peace officer.

(4) Nothing in this subdivision supersedes or modifies any provision of this Constitution, including the guarantees that a person may not be deprived of life, liberty, or property without due process of law, or denied equal protection of the laws, as provided in Section 7.

(5) This subdivision does not repeal or nullify, expressly or by implication, any constitutional or statutory exception to the right of access to public records or meetings of public bodies that is in effect on the effective date of this subdivision, including, but not limited to, any statute protecting the confidentiality of law enforcement and prosecution records.

(6) Nothing in this subdivision repeals, nullifies, supersedes, or modifies protections for the confidentiality of proceedings and records of the Legislature, the Members of the Legislature, and its employees, committees, and caucuses provided by Section 7 of Article IV, state law, or legislative rules adopted in furtherance of those provisions; nor does it affect the scope of permitted discovery in judicial or administrative proceedings regarding deliberations of the Legislature, the Members of the Legislature, and its employees, committees, and caucuses.

(7) In order to ensure public access to the meetings of public bodies and the writings of public officials and agencies, as specified in paragraph (1), each local agency is hereby required to comply with the California Public Records Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code) and the Ralph M. Brown Act (Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 54950) of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code), and with any subsequent statutory enactment amending either act, enacting a successor act, or amending any successor act that contains findings demonstrating that the statutory enactment furthers the purposes of this section.61

Legislative findings pursuant to this constitutional provision might not be necessary in the current study, because the proposed recodification would only continue existing law, not add any new provision limiting access to public records. Nonetheless, it seems prudent to include some legislative findings in the Commission’s proposal.

At the end of the proposed legislation, the attached draft includes the following legislative findings:

61. Emphasis added.
Legislative findings

SEC. ____. This act would recodify the California Public Records Act (Sections 6250 to 6276.48, inclusive, of the Government Code) in a more user-friendly manner without changing its substance, and make conforming revisions. Consistent with subdivision (b) of Section 3 of Article I of the California Constitution, the Legislature finds and declares:

1) This act continues the existing substantive balance between the public’s right of access to information concerning the conduct of public business and competing interests. This act does not impose any new limitation on the public’s right of access, which would require findings demonstrating the interest protected by the new limitation and the need for protecting that interest.

2) By making the California Public Records Act more user-friendly, this act furthers the public’s right of access to information concerning the conduct of public business.

Are these legislative findings satisfactory as drafted? Does anyone have suggestions for improvement?

To assist the Commission in evaluating the legislative findings shown above, the staff searched for similar findings in bills pending in the Legislature. Examples of such findings are presented in Exhibit pages 1-4.

Delayed Operative Date

In general, a bill passed by the Legislature and signed by the Governor becomes operative on January 1 of the year after its enactment. In some instances, a bill may specify a different operative date.

Often, for example, a major piece of legislation will have a six-month or one-year delayed operative date, to afford time for a smooth transition. The Commission recently took that approach in its nonsubstantive recodification of the deadly weapon statutes (one-year delayed operative date), its recommendation on the Uniform Adult Guardianship and Protective Jurisdiction Act (same), and in other studies.

A delayed operative date may also be appropriate in the current proposal, to give persons who would be affected by the CPRA recodification an opportunity to update resources (manuals, regulations, etc.) and otherwise prepare for the transition to the new statutory scheme.

At the end of the proposed legislation, the attached draft thus includes the following uncodified provision:

Operative date
SEC. ____. This act becomes operative on _____.

Does the Commission wish to include such a provision in its proposed recodification? If so, what operative date would the Commission like to use?

CONFORMING REVISIONS

As previously reported, approximately 600 statutory cross-references to the CPRA, located throughout the codes, will have to be updated if the Commission’s proposed recodification is enacted. The staff is still working on those conforming revisions. We will present them to the Commission for review when we have a complete draft ready.

Because the conforming revisions will be bulky and they are not yet complete, the staff recommends putting them in a separate tentative recommendation, not in the tentative recommendation presenting the proposed CPRA recodification itself. Is that approach acceptable to the Commission?

APPROVAL OF A TENTATIVE RECOMMENDATION

After resolving the issues discussed above, and any other issues that are raised at or before the upcoming meeting, the Commission will need to decide whether to approve the attached draft as a tentative recommendation (with or without revisions), to be posted to the Commission’s website and circulated broadly for comment.

If the Commission approves a tentative recommendation at the upcoming meeting, it probably will be possible to circulate the tentative recommendation, consider the comments on it, and approve a final recommendation in time to introduce a bill in 2020. If the Commission waits until later to approve a tentative recommendation, it might still be possible to introduce a bill in 2020, but that will be less likely.

Respectfully submitted,

Barbara Gaal

ARTICLE I OF THE CALIFORNIA CONSTITUTION

(From Pending Bills)

From AB 450 (Irwin & Mathis), as amended 4/3/19:

SEC. 8. The Legislature finds and declares that Section 1 of this act, which amends Section 29041 of the Food and Agricultural Code, imposes a limitation on the public’s right of access to the meetings of public bodies or the writings of public officials and agencies within the meaning of Section 3 of Article I of the California Constitution. Pursuant to that constitutional provision, the Legislature makes the following findings to demonstrate the interest protected by this limitation and the need for protecting that interest:

Because disclosing the location of apiaries within the state could put those apiaries at risk, it is necessary to limit the public’s right of access to that information.

From AB 654 (Blanca Rubio), as introduced:

SEC. 3. The Legislature finds and declares that Section 1 of this act, which amends Section 6254.16 of the Government Code, furthers, within the meaning of paragraph (7) of subdivision (b) of Section 3 of Article I of the California Constitution, the purposes of that constitutional section as it relates to the right of public access to the meetings of local public bodies or the writings of local public officials and local agencies. Pursuant to paragraph (7) of subdivision (b) of Section 3 of Article I of the California Constitution, the Legislature makes the following findings:

This act balances the right of the public in general, and governmental agencies in particular, to access relevant information about utility operations and customers, to ensure that appropriate respect is shown for individual privacy.

From AB 700 (Friedman), as amended 4/4/19:

SEC. 4. The Legislature finds and declares that Section 2 of this act, which amends Section 6254 of the Government Code, furthers, within the meaning of paragraph (7) of subdivision (b) of Section 3 of Article I of the California Constitution, the purposes of that constitutional section as it relates to the right of public access to the meetings of local public bodies or the writings of local public officials and local agencies. Pursuant to paragraph (7) of subdivision (b) of Section 3 of Article I of the California Constitution, the Legislature makes the following findings:

The act balances the right of the public to access information of public postsecondary educational institutions and the interest of public postsecondary educational institutions and their faculty to conduct research on, and communicate about, significant and publicly relevant topics, thereby furthering the purposes of paragraph (7) of subdivision (b) of Section 3 of Article I of the California Constitution.

The Legislature finds and declares that Section 1 of this act, which adds Section 186.37 to the Penal Code, imposes a limitation on the public’s right of access to the meetings of public bodies or the writings of public officials and agencies within the meaning of Section 3 of Article I of the California Constitution. Pursuant to that constitutional provision, the Legislature makes the following findings to demonstrate the interest protected by this limitation and the need for protecting that interest:

In order to protect the safety of certain victims of, and witnesses to, crimes, including specified gang-related offenses, it is necessary to permit those victims and witnesses to provide evidence that an articulable threat exists that supports a conclusion that the disclosure of their name would endanger their safety.

From AB 980 (Kalra), as amended 3/18/19:

SEC. 2. The Legislature finds and declares that Section 1 of this act, which amends Section 1808.4 of the Vehicle Code, imposes a limitation on the public’s right of access to the meetings of public bodies or the writings of public officials and agencies within the meaning of Section 3 of Article I of the California Constitution. Pursuant to that constitutional provision, the Legislature makes the following findings to demonstrate the interest protected by this limitation and the need for protecting that interest:

The purpose of this tentative recommendation is to solicit public comment on the Commission’s tentative conclusions. A comment submitted to the Commission will be part of the public record. The Commission will consider the comment at a public meeting when the Commission determines what, if any, recommendation it will make to the Legislature. It is just as important to advise the Commission that you approve the tentative recommendation as it is to advise the Commission that you believe revisions should be made to it.

COMMENTS ON THIS TENTATIVE RECOMMENDATION SHOULD BE RECEIVED BY THE COMMISSION NOT LATER THAN xxxx. The Commission will often substantially revise a proposal in response to comment it receives. Thus, this tentative recommendation is not necessarily the recommendation the Commission will submit to the Legislature.

SUMMARY OF TENTATIVE RECOMMENDATION

The California Public Records Act ("CPRA") was enacted in 1968 to promote public access to public records, while also recognizing competing interests. In enacting the CPRA, the Legislature, “mindful of the right of individuals to privacy,” found and declared that “access to information concerning the conduct of the people’s business is a fundamental and necessary right of every person in this state.”

Since its enactment, the CPRA has been revised over and over again, in piecemeal fashion. This has resulted in a statute that is poorly organized and cumbersome for members of the public to use and understand, impeding fulfillment of the goals underlying the CPRA.

To address that problem, the Legislature asked the Law Revision Commission to study the CPRA on a priority basis and prepare a report containing recommended legislation that would make the CPRA more user-friendly, without changing its substance. More specifically, the Legislature asked the Commission to develop legislation that would:

1. Reduce the length and complexity of current sections.
2. Avoid unnecessary cross-references.
3. Neither expand nor contract the scope of existing exemptions to the general rule that records are open to the public pursuant to the current provisions of the CPRA.
4. To the extent compatible with (3), use terms with common definitions.
5. Organize the existing provisions in such a way that similar provisions are located in close proximity to one another.
7. Clearly express legislative intent without any change in the substantive provisions.

The Commission has been studying the CPRA as directed. This tentative recommendation is its current draft of the requested report. In preparing this draft, the Commission has taken great care to ensure that the proposed recodification of the CPRA would not make any substantive change in the law.

The Commission seeks comments on this tentative recommendation. Comments from knowledgeable persons (whether positive, negative, or more nuanced) are crucial in the Commission’s study process.

This tentative recommendation was prepared pursuant to Resolution Chapter 158 of the Statutes of 2018.
CALIFORNIA PUBLIC RECORDS ACT
CLEAN-UP

In 2016, the Legislature directed the Law Revision Commission to conduct a strictly nonsubstantive clean-up of the California Public Records Act (“CPRA”)1 and related provisions. The Legislature requested that the Commission complete this work “as soon as possible, considering the Commission’s preexisting duties and workload demands ….”2
This tentative recommendation presents a complete draft of a proposed recodification of the CPRA to make it more user-friendly, without changing its substance. The Commission seeks comments on the proposed recodification.
The history and purposes of the CPRA are discussed briefly below, followed by a discussion of the history and purposes of this study. The Commission then describes the general character and noteworthy features of the proposed recodification, as well as the methodology used in preparing it.
Unless otherwise indicated, all further statutory references are to the Government Code.

History and Purposes of the CPRA
The CPRA was enacted in 1968 to promote public access to public records, while also recognizing competing interests.3 In enacting the CPRA, the Legislature, “mindful of the right of individuals to privacy, “found and declared that “access to information concerning the conduct of the people’s business is a fundamental and necessary right of every person in this state.”4 “[P]eople in an open society do not demand infallibility from their institutions, but it is difficult for them to accept what they are prohibited from observing.”5 The CPRA thus serves “a crucial function.”6 As the California Supreme Court has explained:

Implicit in the democratic process is the notion that government should be accountable for its actions. In order to verify accountability, individuals must have access to government files. Such access permits checks against the arbitrary exercise of official power and secrecy in the political process.\(^7\)

Although public access to public records is of great importance, it must sometimes yield to a competing interest.\(^8\) Thus, the CPRA “contains numerous exemptions to the requirement of public disclosure, many of which are designed to protect individual privacy.”\(^9\) Under the CPRA, the public “is entitled to inspect public records unless one of the exemptions … applies.”\(^10\)
The CPRA thus strikes “a careful balance” between the right of public access and competing considerations.\(^11\) Since its enactment, the Legislature has continually refined that balance, adjusting the statutory scheme over and over again in an incremental manner as new issues surfaced.\(^12\)

Due to the piecemeal nature of these repeated reforms, the CPRA has developed into a complicated tangle of statutory provisions. In its present form, it is hard for users (especially non-lawyers) to comprehend and follow, and hard for the Legislature to place new material where it logically belongs.

Here are a few illustrations:

- Instead of being grouped together, provisions with the same subject matter are sometimes separated in ways that can make key material hard to find.
  For example, Section 6254(f) is a long and complicated exemption pertaining to law enforcement records, with multiple caveats, qualifications, exceptions, and exceptions to the exceptions. Sections 6254.30 and 6262

the public right to access to information, the government’s need, or lack of need, to preserve confidentiality, and the individual’s right to privacy.”).

The statutory balancing of competing interests in the CPRA is similar to the interplay between two sometimes conflicting provisions of the California Constitution: the people’s right of access to information concerning the conduct of the people’s business (Cal. Const. art. I, § 3) and the right of privacy (Cal.
Const. art. I, § 1). See, e.g., City of San Jose, 2 Cal. 5th at 616 (“Similarly, while the Constitution provides for public access, it does not supersede or modify existing privacy rights.”); Commission on Peace Officer in CPRA).

enactment of the CPRA, it has been amended multiple times to exempt certain records.”); Senate amendments to the CPRA”).

clarify aspects of Section 6254(f), but they are not referenced in, or located in proximity to, Section 6254(f).

• Other CPRA provisions are buried amongst unrelated material. Section 6254.7(c), governing records of a housing or building violation, is a good example. It could easily be overlooked, because it is located in the middle of Section 6254.7, surrounded by pollution-related material.

• To place new material where it seemed to belong, the Legislature has at times resorted to unsystematic decimal numbering (e.g., Sections 6254.1, 6254.10, 6254.4.5). This is potentially confusing, because it is difficult to determine the proper sequence of those code sections and thus can be difficult to find them.

• At other times, the Legislature has added new material on a subject to an already overlong statute that addresses the same subject and other topics. This necessitates cumbersome labeling, such as Section 6254(f)(4)(B)(ii)(I). Such labeling makes it hard for CPRA users to readily refer to the material in question.

Problems like these impede fulfillment of the purposes underlying the CPRA.

History and Purposes of the Commission’s Study

In 2016, the Legislature recognized and decided to address the problems described above. That year, Assembly Member Chau authored the biennial legislative resolution regarding topics assigned to the Commission for study. At the request of the Assembly Committee on Judiciary, he included the following new study in the resolution:

Resolved, That the Legislature authorizes and requests that the California Law Revision Commission study, report on, and prepare recommended legislation as soon as possible, considering the commission’s preexisting duties and workload demands, concerning the revision of the portions of the California Public Records Act and related provisions, and that this legislation shall accomplish all of the following objectives:

1. Reduce the length and complexity of current sections.
2. Avoid unnecessary cross-references.
3. Neither expand nor contract the scope of existing exemptions to the general rule that records are open to the public pursuant to the current provisions of the Public Records Act.
4. To the extent compatible with (3), use terms with common definitions.
5. Organize the existing provisions in such a way that similar provisions are located in close proximity to one another.
7. Clearly express legislative intent without any change in the substantive provisions …”

13. Similarly, Section 6254(l) is a CPRA exemption for “[c]orrespondence of and to the Governor or employees of the Governor’s office or in the custody of or maintained by the Governor’s Legal Affairs Secretary.” Sections 6268 and 6268.5 also concern access to the Governor’s records, but they are not referenced in, or located in proximity to, Section 6254(l).
An analysis for the Assembly Committee on Judiciary explained the need for such a study:

The CPRA, signed into law in 1968 as a general record Keeping law, allows the public to monitor government activity. Since the enactment of the CPRA, it has been amended multiple times to exempt certain records. … Due to the multiple changes to the statute, the CPRA has become difficult for the public to understand.15

Similarly, an analysis for the Senate Committee on Judiciary explained:

Because of nearly 50 years of amendments to the CPRA, the CPRA has become more difficult to understand. Making it easier for the public to understand their rights to access government information will arguably lead to more access to public records and more government accountability.16

The Legislature passed the resolution near the end of the legislative session without anyone voting against it.

Soon afterwards, the Commission began examining the CPRA as requested. It has been steadily building this tentative recommendation since then.

Scope of Study

As originally introduced, the legislative resolution instructed the Commission to “study, report on, and prepare recommended legislation … concerning the revision of the portions of the Government Code relating to public records ….”17 It was not clear whether the study was to encompass all Government Code provisions relating to public records, or only those relating to inspection of public records. It was also uncertain at best whether the Commission could examine any related provisions located outside the Government Code, such as statutes that cross-refer to the CPRA.

Later, however, the resolution was amended to instruct the Commission to “study, report on, and prepare recommended legislation … concerning the revision of … the California Public Records Act and related provisions ….”18 Given this amendment, the Commission’s authority appears to be limited to public records inspection law, not other aspects of public records law (e.g., laws governing retention of public records\(^\text{19}\) or criminalizing conduct relating to public records\(^\text{20}\)).

Stat. res. ch. 150 (ACR 148 (Chau)). The italicized language was deleted when the Commission’s authority to study the CPRA was reaffirmed in 2018. See 2018 Cal. Stat. res. ch. 158 (SCR 91 (Roth)).

Importantly, however, the Commission’s authority does not appear to be restricted to the Government Code. Rather, the Commission may examine provisions located elsewhere, so long as they relate to the CPRA. The Commission is thus authorized not only to prepare a recodification of the CPRA, but also to recommend conforming revisions of the many statutes throughout the codes that cross-reference the CPRA.

Whether the Commission is authorized to go beyond conforming revisions and suggest additional clean-up of record inspection laws other than the CPRA (e.g., the Richard McKee Transparency Act of 2011\(^\text{21}\)) is not obvious from the language of the resolution requesting this study. To move the study forward promptly, and keep any resulting legislation manageable in size, the Commission has not done so.

Nonsubstantive Reform

In directing the Commission to study the CPRA, the Legislature said that the Commission’s recommended legislation should “[c]learly express legislative intent without any change in the substantive provisions” and “[n]either expand nor contract the scope of existing exemptions to the general rule that records are open to the public pursuant to the current provisions of the Public Records Act.”\(^\text{22}\) The Legislature thus made clear that the Commission’s work was to be entirely nonsubstantive in nature.

The Commission took extreme care to abide by that limitation in preparing this tentative recommendation. The specific measures it took to prevent any substantive change are described below.

Objective and Participatory Study Process

The Commission’s study process is well-suited to the development of a nonsubstantive reform of the CPRA, for the following reasons:

- The Commission is neutral and objective, with a long history of nonpartisan statutory reforms.\(^\text{23}\)
- The Commission is experienced in drafting legislation to recodify a complex body of law without substantive change.\(^\text{24}\)

• The Commission actively solicits input from affected individuals and interest groups. It carefully considers each comment and often makes revisions in response to concerns raised.

• In proposing a statutory reform, the Commission prepares a thorough report that explains the purpose and effect of the reform. The report also includes a complete draft of the proposed legislation and accompanying commentary, a detailed table of contents, and a table showing the disposition of every affected section. This report facilitates public review of the proposed reform.

• The Commission’s work is transparent. All materials are publicly distributed. All deliberations are conducted at open public meetings.25

Commission Comments

In preparing a recommendation, the Commission drafts an explanatory “Comment” for every section that is added, amended, or repealed.26 A Comment indicates the derivation of the section and often explains its relation to other law.

Virtually every Comment in this tentative recommendation expressly states that a proposed new code section continues an existing code section “without substantive change.”27 That is important because upon enactment of the Commission’s recommendation, the Comment would become a key aid in determining legislative intent.

On completion of a final recommendation in this study, the Commission will present the full recommendation, including the Comments, to the Legislature and the Governor. If a bill is introduced to implement the recommendation, the Commission will provide the full recommendation to each member of every policy committee that reviews the bill.

Commission materials that have been placed before and considered by the Legislature are considered evidence of legislative intent,28 and are entitled to great

26. In the proposed legislation presented in this tentative recommendation, the Comment for each proposed code section appears immediately after the code section.

27. For example, the Comment to proposed Section 7921.705 states that it “continues former Section 6264 without substantive change.” The Comment refers to the existing provision as “former Section 6264” (rather than “Section 6264”) because the Comment would be used after enactment of the proposed law and repeal of the existing version of the CPRA.

weight in construing statutes. The materials are a key interpretive aid for practitioners as well as courts, and courts may judicially notice and rely on them. Courts at all levels of the state and federal judicial systems use Commission materials to construe statutes enacted on Commission recommendation.

The Commission’s Comments to the proposed legislation in this study would thus help to demonstrate that the legislation constitutes a purely nonsubstantive recodification of the CPRA.

Statements of Legislative Intent

The proposed law would be known as the “CPRA Recodification Act of 2020.” It includes several codified provisions that would expressly state the purpose and effect of the recodification.

Proposed Section 7920.100 is a general statement regarding the nonsubstantive effect of the recodification:

Law Revision Commission on the various sections of the Evidence Code are declarative of the intent not only of the drafters of the code but also of the legislators who subsequently enacted it.”

Rptr. 3d 685 (2005) (Commission report entitled to substantial weight in construing statute); Collection Bureau of San Jose v. Ramsey, 24 Cal. 4th 301, 308 & n.6, 6 P.3d 713, 99 Cal. Rptr. 2d 792 (2000) (Comments to reenacted statute reiterate the clear understanding and intent of original enactment); Brian W. v. Superior Court, 20 Cal. 3d 618, 623, 574 P.2d 788, 143 Cal. Rptr. 717 (1978) (Comments persuasive evidence of Legislature’s intent); Volkswagen Pac., Inc. v. City of Los Angeles, 7 Cal. 3d 48, 61-63, 496 P.2d 1237, 101 Cal. Rptr. 869 (1972) (Comments evidence clear legislative intent of law).

35. See proposed Section 7920.005 infra.

Proposed Section 7920.105 would make clear that a provision of the proposed law is intended as a restatement and continuation of the provision that it restates, rather than a new enactment, and that any reference to a restated provision is deemed to include a reference to the section that restates it (and vice versa):

7920.105. (a) A provision of this division, or any other provision of the CPRA Recodification Act of 2020, insofar as it is substantially the same as a previously existing provision relating to the same subject matter, shall be considered as a restatement and continuation thereof and not as a new enactment. (b) A reference in a statute to a previously existing provision that is restated and continued in this division, or in any other provision of the CPRA Recodification Act of 2020, shall, unless a contrary intent appears, be deemed a reference to the restatement and continuation.

(c) A reference in a statute to a provision of this division, or any other provision of the CPRA Recodification Act of 2020, which is substantially the same as a previously existing provision, shall, unless a contrary intent appears, be deemed to include a reference to the previously existing provision.

Another provision, proposed Section 7920.110 would make clear that restatement of an existing CPRA provision is not intended to have any effect, positive or negative, on a judicial interpretation of the restated provision:

7920.110. (a) A judicial decision interpreting a previously existing provision is relevant in interpreting any provision of this division, or any other provision of the CPRA Recodification Act of 2020, which restates and continues that previously existing provision. (b) However, in enacting the CPRA Recodification Act of 2020, the Legislature has not evaluated the correctness of any judicial decision interpreting a provision affected by the act.

(c) The CPRA Recodification Act of 2020 is not intended to, and does not, reflect any assessment of any judicial decision interpreting any provision affected by the act.

Proposed Section 7920.115 sets forth similar rules with respect to an interpretation advanced in an Attorney General opinion, because such opinions are particularly common and influential in this area of the law.

Lastly, proposed Section 7920.120 would make clear that restatement of a CPRA provision is not intended to have any effect, positive or negative, on a judicial decision or Attorney General opinion on the constitutionality of the restated provision:

7920.120. (a) A judicial decision or Attorney General opinion on the constitutionality of a previously existing provision is relevant in determining the... constitutionality of any provision of this division, or any other provision of the CPRA Recodification Act of 2020, which restates and continues that previously existing provision.

(b) However, in enacting the CPRA Recodification Act of 2020, the Legislature has not evaluated the constitutionality of any provision affected by the act, or the correctness of any judicial decision or Attorney General opinion on the constitutionality of any provision affected by the act.

(c) The CPRA Recodification Act of 2020 is not intended to, and does not, reflect any determination of the constitutionality of any provision affected by the act.

The provisions discussed above would establish that enactment of the proposed recodification should not be viewed as acquiescence in any court case or Attorney General opinion construing the CPRA, or as an indication that the Legislature assessed the constitutionality of each recodified section in enacting the recodification. The proposed law would take no stand and have no effect on such matters.

In addition to these codified statements of legislative intent, the proposed legislation includes an uncodified provision that sets forth the following legislative findings:

This act would recodify the California Public Records Act (Sections 6250 to 6276.48, inclusive, of the Government Code) in a more user-friendly manner without changing its substance, and make conforming revisions. Pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 3 of Article I of the California Constitution, the Legislature finds and declares:

(1) This act continues the existing substantive balance between the public’s right of access to information concerning the conduct of public business and competing interests. This act does not impose any new limitation on the public’s right of access, which would require findings demonstrating the interest protected by the new limitation and the need for protecting that interest.

(2) By making the California Public Records Act more user-friendly, this act furthers the public’s right of access to information concerning the conduct of public business.

These legislative findings would further reinforce the nonsubstantive nature of the reform.

Conservative Drafting

In preparing this tentative recommendation, the Commission used a conservative drafting approach. It stuck closely to the existing statutory text, to further minimize the risk of a substantive change.

The Commission was especially cautious with Section 6254(f), the exemption pertaining to law enforcement records. Although that provision is particularly complex and difficult to understand, the Commission refrained from attempting to rephrase it more clearly. Instead, to avoid generating concerns about a substantive change, the proposed legislation would relocate the substance of Section 6254(f) in a new article almost verbatim. An adjacent article would contain the substance of the related provisions previously mentioned (Sections 6254.30 and 6262).

Legislative Process

After the Commission completes its study process and issues a final recommendation, the proposed law would be scrutinized carefully in the legislative process, just like any other bill. This would serve as a final safeguard against any substantive change in the law.

Drafting Approach

As discussed above, the Commission used a conservative drafting approach in preparing this tentative recommendation. Other significant drafting techniques and decisions are described below.

Location of the Proposed Law

The CPRA is currently codified as “Chapter 3.5, Inspection of Public Records” in “Division 7. Miscellaneous” in “Title 1. General” in the Government Code. It is divided into two articles:

- “Article 1. General Provisions,” which contains the heart of the CPRA.
- “Article 2. Other Exemptions from Disclosure,” which contains a list of CPRA exemptions (“the CPRA index”), most of which are located outside the CPRA.

To effectively reorganize the CPRA, it would be helpful to be able to divide the material now in “Article 1. General Provisions” into various subcategories, placing similar provisions together. That would further the legislative objective to “organize the existing provisions in such a way that similar provisions are located in close proximity to one another.”

36. Similarly, the Commission refrained from addressing the apparently minor substantive issues that are listed at the end of its report in “Appendix B. Minor Clean-Up Issues for Possible Future Legislative Attention.”

37. See proposed Sections 7923.600-7923.625 infra.

38. See proposed Sections 7923.650-7923.655 infra.

In the hierarchy of the Government Code, an article is the lowest level heading used to organize code sections. Because an article cannot be further subdivided, it would be difficult to effectively reorganize the CPRA in its current code location. Instead, the proposed law would repeal the existing CPRA and recodify its substance in a new division (Division 10) of Title 1 of the Government Code. This would make it possible to divide that material into parts, chapters, and articles — enough subcategories to create a user-friendly organizational scheme.

Structure of the Proposed Law

New Division 10 would be divided into six parts, as follows:

- Part 4. Enforcement.
- Part 5. Specific Types of Public Records.
- Part 6. Other Exemptions From Disclosure.

The content of each part is described briefly below.

Proposed “Part 1. General Provisions” consists of two chapters. “Chapter 1. Preliminary Provisions” includes the short title of the law, the statements of legislative intent described above, and a few other preliminary provisions. “Chapter 2. Definitions” consists of some definitions that apply to the entire CPRA. That chapter also includes (1) a signpost provision alerting readers to two differing definitions of “trade secret” used in the CPRA, (2) the definition of “elected or appointed official,” which is used in a CPRA-wide definition, and (3) a definition of “former Section 6254 provisions,” which will provide a convenient means of collectively referring to the material that is currently located in Section 42. There is precedent for using “part” as a subheading within the Government Code. See “Division 3.6. Claims and Actions Against Public Entities and Public Employees” (Sections 810-998.3).

43. In deciding to relocate the CPRA, the Commission noted that the CPRA is currently located near several other chapters that pertain to public records (see Chapters 3, 3.01, 3.1, 3.2, and 3.3 of Division 7 of Title 1). To alert CPRA users to that material, the Commission’s Comment to the introductory provision in new Division 10 would refer each of those chapters. See proposed Section 7920.000 Comment infra.

6254 (an unmanageably long section) but would be split up in the recodification.\(^\text{51}\)
The definitions in “Chapter 2. Definitions” would be in alphabetical order. The other definitions used in the CPRA have limited application and would remain in close proximity to the substantive material to which they pertain.\(^\text{52}\)

Proposed “Part 2. Disclosure and Exemptions Generally”\(^\text{53}\) consists of three chapters. “Chapter 1. Right of Access to Public Records” contains the legislative findings and declarations for the CPRA.\(^\text{54}\) The chapter also contains some restrictions on an agency’s ability to transfer a public record or otherwise relinquish control over its disclosure.\(^\text{55}\) “Chapter 2. General Rules Governing Disclosure”\(^\text{56}\) and “Chapter 3. General Rules Governing Exemptions from Disclosure”\(^\text{57}\) contain material corresponding to their respective titles. Among other things, the CPRA catch-all exemption (existing Section 6255(a)) would be in “Chapter 3. General Rules Governing Exemptions from Disclosure.”\(^\text{58}\)

Proposed “Part 3. Procedures”\(^\text{59}\) contains a chapter on how to request a public record, which is divided into several articles.\(^\text{60}\) The chapter includes the basic rule on inspection of a public record\(^\text{61}\) and the basic rule on copying of a public record.\(^\text{62}\) Proposed “Part 3. Procedures” also contains a second chapter, which consists of the CPRA’s procedural rules governing agency regulations, guidelines, systems, and similar matters.\(^\text{63}\)

Proposed “Part 4. Enforcement”\(^\text{64}\) contains provisions relating to enforcement of a CPRA request. It is divided into two chapters: (1) a chapter of general principles relating to enforcement\(^\text{65}\) and (2) a chapter of procedural provisions, which is further subdivided into an article on superior court procedures\textsuperscript{66} and an article on appellate review.\textsuperscript{67}

Proposed “Part 5. Specific Types of Public Records”\textsuperscript{68} consists of provisions (mostly exemptions) that relate to a specific type of public record. It is divided into nineteen different chapters, each addressing a particular subject matter, such as “Crimes, Weapons, and Law Enforcement”\textsuperscript{69} or “Health Care.”\textsuperscript{70} The chapters are arranged in alphabetical order.

Lastly, proposed “Part 6. Other Exemptions From Disclosure”\textsuperscript{71} contains the CPRA’s alphabetical index of exemptions,\textsuperscript{72} which is not substantive law but rather a tool designed by the Legislature to assist CPRA users locate exemptions scattered throughout the codes.\textsuperscript{73} Part 6 would continue that index in essentially its current, alphabetical format. The Commission considered, but tentatively rejected, other possibilities,\textsuperscript{74} such as reorganizing the index by subject matter\textsuperscript{75} or relocating all of the exemptions into the CPRA (thus separating them from other substantive provisions on the same subject matter).\textsuperscript{76} \textbf{Comments on the optimal format for the CPRA index would be especially helpful.}

\textbf{Numbering System}

Throughout the proposed legislation, the Commission used a 3-digit decimal system for numbering code sections (e.g., Section 7920.000). The Commission also left gaps in the numbering, to allow ready insertion of new statutory material in an appropriate location if needed in the future.

This numbering approach will prevent confusion regarding the proper sequencing of code sections. It will also promote logical, user-friendly organization as the CPRA continues to evolve.

Short, Simple Sections

The legislative resolution on this study instructs the Commission to “[r]educe the length and complexity of current sections.” 77 The CPRA currently contains a number of long and complicated sections, most notably Section 6254, which spans eight single-spaced pages if printed from the Legislative Counsel’s website (5,583 words), with subdivisions labeled from (a) to (z) followed by (aa) to (ad), most of which are split into numerous paragraphs, subparagraphs, and even some unnumbered provisions. 78

Excessively long sections can obscure relevant details of law, especially if a single section addresses several different subjects. A better approach is to divide the law into a larger number of smaller sections, with each section limited to a single subject.

Short sections have numerous advantages. They enhance readability and understanding of the law, and make it easier to locate and refer to pertinent material. In contrast to a long section, a short section can be amended without undue technical difficulties 79 and new material can be inserted where logically appropriate, facilitating sound development of the law. 80 The use of short sections is the preferred drafting technique of the California Code Commission, 81 the Legislature, 82 the Legislative Counsel, 83 and the Law Revision Commission. 84

For all of the reasons discussed above, the proposed law would divide lengthy sections into shorter and simpler provisions. The number of sections would approximately double, but the word count would not change that much.

78. Other, less egregious examples in the CPRA include Sections 6253, 6254.2, 6254.18, and 6254.21.

79. The full text of a section must be set forth in any bill amending the section. Joint Rule 10. A lengthy bill entails higher printing costs than a short one. It also takes longer to review. Much of the material may be unrelated to a proposed reform, wasting reviewers’ time and potentially injecting additional issues into a simple proposal.

Further, the likelihood that two bills will be introduced to amend the same section is greater if a section is long and covers multiple topics than if a section is short and limited to a single topic. If two bills affect the same section and both are enacted, the bill that is signed last generally prevails over the other bill, rendering it a nullity. Section 9605. This can be avoided by double-jointing the bills or including other language to address the conflict. Taking such steps entails expense and effort, however, and introduces new possibilities for errors.

80. In amending a short section, the Legislature is unhindered by constraints such as overlong paragraphs and lack of available subparts. This promotes clear and straightforward drafting, as opposed to confusing and convoluted provisions.

Signposting in Comments

In the proposed legislation, the Comment accompanying each code section would refer to other provisions (particularly within the CPRA) that may be of interest to users. This would help CPRA users locate material relevant to their situations.

Cross-References

The CPRA contains numerous internal cross-references. In the proposed legislation, the Commission updated each such cross-reference to reflect the new numbering scheme in the recodification.

To facilitate review of the updated cross-references, this tentative recommendation includes two tables, located immediately after the proposed legislation. One table shows the disposition of each existing code section; the other table shows the derivation of each proposed code section.

The CPRA also contains numerous cross-references to statutes located outside the CPRA. The Commission checked each of those cross-references, as well as each of the internal cross-references, in preparing this tentative recommendation.

A few of the cross-references in the current version of the CPRA are plainly erroneous. Where the proper cross-reference is obvious, the Commission corrected the cross-reference in the proposed legislation, rather than perpetuating the error. The cross-reference corrections are explained in the accompanying Comments; they are also listed and explained in Appendix A. Where the proper cross-reference is not altogether obvious, the Commission left the cross-reference alone, so as not to create a risk of a substantive change. Notes in the tentative recommendation seek input on the problematic cross-references.

There are also many code sections located outside the CPRA that cross-refer to one or more provisions within the CPRA. Those cross-references will also need to be conformed to the new numbering scheme in the recodification. The Commission will prepare and circulate a separate tentative recommendation with those conforming revisions.

Pending and Future Legislation

There are pending bills to revise the CPRA in one way or another. If one or more of those bills is enacted, the Commission will incorporate the substance of the enacted bill(s) into the proposed recodification, without substantive change.

There are also pending bills that would affect provisions that are listed, or should be listed, in the CPRA index. If any of those bills is enacted, the Commission will make an appropriate adjustment in the proposed continuation of the CPRA index.

When the Commission eventually approves a final recommendation and a legislator introduces a bill to implement that recommendation, there might be conflicts between that bill and other pending bills (i.e., they might try to revise the same code provision in different ways). If so, the Commission will recommend double-jointing amendments or other steps to eliminate the conflicts and coordinate the bills. The Commission will take similar steps with regard to any bill that might bear on the content of the CPRA index. Any such adjustments will be consistent with the nonsubstantive nature of this study.

Delayed Operative Date

Because of the breadth of the organizational changes that would be made by the proposed legislation, the Commission recommends that it be given a delayed operative date. The proposed legislation includes an uncodified provision to that effect delaying the operation of the proposed law by [insert time period].

This delayed operation would provide time for those who work closely with the affected statutes, including legal publishers, to adjust to the new organizational scheme before it takes effect. The Commission’s comments and the disposition and derivation tables in the Commission’s report would also help ease the transition.

Although the proposed recodification would entail some transitional costs (such as updating manuals and regulations), the Commission believes that the long-term benefits of having a better organized, more user-friendly statutory scheme would soon outweigh those transitional costs. The CPRA would become more readily accessible and understandable to laypersons and other persons using it, thus furthering its underlying purposes. Importantly, the new statutory scheme would also afford ample room for future refinement of the CPRA, promoting sound development of the law.

Request for Public Comment

The Commission seeks public comment on its tentative recommendation. It encourages comments on any aspect of the proposal, but it would especially appreciate comments on the issues identified in the Notes that accompany some of the proposed legislation.

Comments can be in any format and can be emailed to bgaal@clrc.ca.gov. Comments supporting the proposed approach are just as important as comments suggesting changes to that approach or expressing other views.

Comments from knowledgeable persons are invaluable in the Commission’s study process.

PROPOSED LEGISLATION

A draft of an official Commission “Comment” follows each proposed code section in the proposed recodification. Such Comments will be included in any final recommendation. The Comments indicate the source of each recodified code section (or provision within the code section) and describe how the recodified code section (or provision) compares with prior law. Courts have routinely held that the Commission’s Comments are evidence of legislative intent with regard to any legislation that implements a Commission recommendation.

There is a “disposition table” at the end of the proposed recodification. It summarizes, in tabular form, the disposition of every provision of the existing code that has been included in this proposed recodification.

There is also a “derivation table” at the end of the proposed recodification. It summarizes, in tabular form, the statutory derivation of every new code provision in this proposed recodification.

Some provisions in this draft are followed by a “Note.” Most of the Notes are intended to be temporary and will not be part of the Commission’s final recommendation. In general, the Notes serve to flag issues requiring special attention or treatment.

Almost all of the proposed provisions would be located in the Government Code. All references are to the Government Code unless otherwise indicated.

The Commission welcomes public comment on any issue relating to the content of this draft or any other aspect of its ongoing CPRA Clean-Up study. Comments should be directed to Barbara Gaal (bgaal@clrc.ca.gov).

Gov’t Code §§ 6250-6276.48 (repealed). California Public Records Act SEC. ___. Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code is repealed.

Gov’t Code §§ 7920.000-7930.215 (added). California Public Records Act SEC. ___. Division 10 (commencing with Section 7920.000) is added to Title 1 of the Government Code, to read:

DIVISION 10. ACCESS TO PUBLIC RECORDS

PART 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

CHAPTER 1. PRELIMINARY PROVISIONS

Article 1. Short Titles

§ 7920.000. California Public Records Act

7920.000. This division shall be known and may be cited as the California Public Records Act.

Comment. Section 7920.000 continues former Section 6251 without substantive change. The California Public Records Act or “CPRA” was formerly codified as Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Division 7 of this title.

Act” or “FOIA”).
For a key constitutional provision on “access to information concerning the conduct of the people’s business,” see Cal. Const. art. I, § 3(b). For legislative findings and declarations underlying the CPRA, see Section 7921.000. For an alphabetical list of many CPRA exemptions (most of which are located outside the CPRA), see Sections 7930.000-7930.215.

For guidance on access to legislative records, see Gov’t Code §§ 9070-9080 (“Legislative Open Records Act”). For discussion of provisions and doctrines governing access to judicial records, see, e.g., NBC Subsidiary (KNBC-TV), Inc. v. Superior Court, 20 Cal. 4th 1178, 980 P.2d 330, 86 Cal. Rptr. 2d 778 (1999). For a law on access to the records of certain quasi-public entities, see Educ. Code §§ 72690-72701, 89913-89919, 92950-92961 (Richard McKee Transparency Act).

For guidance on record retention, see, e.g., Gov’t Code §§ 9080 (legislative records), 12220-12237 (State Archives), 14740-14746 (State Records Storage Act), 26201-26202.6 (county records), 34090-34090.8 (city records), 68150-68152 (trial court records). See also Gov’t Code §§ 12270-12279 (State Records Management Act).

Many other statutes and sources of law govern public records. For instance, the following statutes are located in Division 7 of this title, where the CPRA was formerly codified: Gov’t Code §§ 6200-6203 (crimes relating to public records, documents and certificates), 6204-6204.4 (public records protection and recovery), 6205-6210 (address confidentiality for victims of domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking), 6215-6216 (address confidentiality for reproductive health care service providers, employees, volunteers, and patients), 6219 (governmental linguistics).

§ 7920.005. CPRA Recodification Act of 2020

Comment. Section 7920.005 is new. It provides a convenient means of referring to the recodification of former Sections 6250-6276.48. For background, see California Public Records Act Clean-Up, __ Cal. L. Revision Comm’n Reports __ (2019).

Note. In drafting proposed Section 7920.005, the Commission assumed that it will approve a final recommendation in this study in 2019 and seek introduction of implementing legislation in 2020. The dates in Section 7920.005 and the accompanying Comment will require adjustment if those assumptions prove incorrect.

Article 2. Effect of Recodification

§ 7920.100. Nonsubstantive reform

Comment. Section 7920.100 is new. It is modeled on Penal Code Section 16005. It makes clear that the CPRA Recodification Act of 2020 has no substantive impact. The act is intended solely to make the California Public Records Act more user-friendly. For background, see California Public Records Act Clean-Up, __ Cal. L. Revision Comm’n Reports __ (2019).

For specific guidance on the impact of a judicial decision interpreting a predecessor of a provision in this division, see Section 7920.110. For specific guidance on the impact of an Attorney General opinion interpreting a predecessor of a provision in this division, see Section 7920.115. For specific guidance on the impact of a judicial decision or Attorney General opinion assessing the constitutionality of a predecessor of a provision in this division, see Section 7920.120. See Sections 7920.005 (“CPRA Recodification Act of 2020”), 7920.530 (“public records”).

§ 7920.105. Continuation of existing law

7920.105. (a) A provision of this division, or any other provision of the CPRA Recodification Act of 2020, insofar as it is substantially the same as a previously existing provision relating to the same subject matter, shall be considered as a restatement and continuation thereof and not as a new enactment.

(b) A reference in a statute to a previously existing provision that is restated and continued in this division, or in any other provision of the CPRA Recodification Act of 2020, shall, unless a contrary intent appears, be deemed a reference to the restatement and continuation.

(c) A reference in a statute to a provision of this division, or any other provision of the CPRA Recodification Act of 2020, which is substantially the same as a previously existing provision, shall, unless a contrary intent appears, be deemed to include a reference to the previously existing provision.

Comment. Subdivision (a) of Section 7920.105 is new. It is similar to Section 2, which is a standard provision found in many codes. See, e.g., Bus. & Prof. Code § 2; Corp. Code § 2; Fam. Code § 2; Penal Code §§ 5, 16010(a); Prob. Code § 2(a); Veh. Code § 2.

Subdivision (b) is drawn from Section 9604 and Penal Code Section 16010(b).

Subdivision (c) is drawn from Family Code Section 2 and Penal Code Section 16010(c).

See Section 7920.005 (“CPRA Recodification Act of 2020”).

§ 7920.110. Judicial decision interpreting former law

7920.110. (a) A judicial decision interpreting a previously existing provision is relevant in interpreting any provision of this division, or any other provision of the CPRA Recodification Act of 2020, which restates and continues that previously existing provision.

(b) However, in enacting the CPRA Recodification Act of 2020, the Legislature has not evaluated the correctness of any judicial decision interpreting a provision affected by the act.

(c) The CPRA Recodification Act of 2020 is not intended to, and does not, reflect any assessment of any judicial decision interpreting any provision affected by the act.

Comment. Section 7920.110 is new. It is modeled on Penal Code Section 16020.

Subdivision (a) makes clear that case law construing a predecessor provision is relevant in construing its successor in the CPRA Recodification Act of 2020.

Subdivisions (b) and (c) make clear that in recodifying former Sections 6250-6276.48, the Legislature has not taken any position on any case interpreting any of those provisions.

For specific guidance on the impact of an Attorney General opinion interpreting a predecessor of a provision in this division, see Section 7920.115. For specific guidance on the impact of a judicial decision or Attorney General opinion assessing the constitutionality of a predecessor of a provision in this division, see Section 7920.120. For general guidance on the nonsubstantive impact of the CPRA Recodification Act of 2020, see Section 7920.100.

See Section 7920.005 (“CPRA Recodification Act of 2020”).
§ 7920.115. Attorney General opinion interpreting former law

7920.115. (a) An opinion of the Attorney General interpreting a previously existing provision is relevant in interpreting any provision of this division, or any other provision of the CPRA Recodification Act of 2020, which restates and continues that previously existing provision.

(b) However, in enacting the CPRA Recodification Act of 2020, the Legislature has not evaluated the correctness of any Attorney General opinion interpreting a provision affected by the act.

(c) The CPRA Recodification Act of 2020 is not intended to, and does not, reflect any assessment of any Attorney General opinion interpreting any provision affected by the act.

Comment. Section 7920.115 is new. It is comparable to Section 7920.110, but it pertains to Attorney General opinions rather than judicial decisions.

Subdivision (a) makes clear that Attorney General opinions construing a predecessor provision are relevant in construing its successor in the CPRA Recodification Act of 2020.

Subdivisions (b) and (c) make clear that in recodifying former Sections 6250-6276.48, the Legislature has not taken any position on any Attorney General opinion interpreting any of those provisions.

For specific guidance on the impact of a judicial decision interpreting a predecessor of a provision in this division, see Section 7920.110. For specific guidance on the impact of a judicial decision or Attorney General opinion assessing the constitutionality of a predecessor of a provision in this division, see Section 7920.120. For general guidance on the nonsubstantive impact of the CPRA Recodification Act of 2020, see Section 7920.100.

See Section 7920.005 (“CPRA Recodification Act of 2020”).

§ 7920.120. Constitutionality

7920.120. (a) A judicial decision or Attorney General opinion on the constitutionality of a previously existing provision is relevant in determining the constitutionality of any provision of this division, or any other provision of the CPRA Recodification Act of 2020, which restates and continues that previously existing provision.

(b) However, in enacting the CPRA Recodification Act of 2020, the Legislature has not evaluated the constitutionality of any provision affected by the act, or the correctness of any judicial decision or Attorney General opinion on the constitutionality of any provision affected by the act.

(c) The CPRA Recodification Act of 2020 is not intended to, and does not, reflect any determination of the constitutionality of any provision affected by the act.

Comment. Section 7920.120 is new. It is modeled on Penal Code Section 16025. Due to the prevalence and significant impact of Attorney General opinions on CPRA issues, the section expressly refers to Attorney General opinions as well as judicial decisions.

Subdivision (a) makes clear that case law and Attorney General opinions on the constitutionality of a predecessor provision are relevant in determining the constitutionality of its successor in the CPRA Recodification Act of 2020.

Subdivisions (b) and (c) make clear that in recodifying former Sections 6250-6276.48, the Legislature has not taken any position on the constitutionality of any of those provisions.

For specific guidance on the impact of a judicial decision interpreting a predecessor of a provision in this division, see Section 7920.110. For specific guidance on the impact of an Attorney General opinion interpreting a predecessor of a provision in this division, see Section 7920.115.

For general guidance on the nonsubstantive impact of the CPRA Recodification Act of 2020, see Section 7920.100.

See Section 7920.005 (“CPRA Recodification Act of 2020”).

Article 3. Effect of Division

§ 7920.200. Effect of division

7920.200. The provisions of this division shall not be deemed in any manner to affect the status of judicial records as it existed immediately prior to the effective date of the provision that is continued in this section, nor to affect the rights of litigants, including parties to administrative proceedings, under the laws of discovery of this state, nor to limit or impair any rights of discovery in a criminal case.

Comment. Section 7920.200 continues former Section 6260 without substantive change. Former Section 6260 was enacted in 1968 (see 1968 Cal. Stat. ch. 1473, § 39) and amended in 1976 to insert the phrase “nor to limit or impair any rights of discovery in a criminal case” (see 1976 Cal. Stat. ch. 314, § 2). The effective date of the original enactment was January 1, 1969. See Cal. Const. art. IV, § 8(c)(1); Gov’t Code § 9600(a).

CHAPTER 2. DEFINITIONS

§ 7920.500. “Elected or appointed official”

7920.500. For purposes of Article 3 (commencing with Section 7928.200) of Chapter 5, “elected or appointed official” includes, but is not limited to, all of the following:

(a) A state constitutional officer.
(b) A member of the Legislature.
(c) A judge or court commissioner.
(d) A district attorney.
(e) A public defender.
(f) A member of a city council.
(g) A member of a board of supervisors.
(h) An appointee of the Governor.
(i) An appointee of the Legislature.
(j) A mayor.
(k) A city attorney.
(l) A police chief or sheriff.
(m) A public safety official.
(n) A state administrative law judge.
(o) A federal judge or federal defender.
(p) A member of the United States Congress or appointee of the President.

Comment. Section 7920.500 continues former Section 6254.21(f) without substantive change. See Section 13 (singular includes plural and vice versa).

See Section 7920.535 (“public safety official”).
§ 7920.505. “Former Section 6254 provisions”

1. Section 7921.500.
2. Article 1 (commencing with Section 7923.600) of Chapter 1 of Part 5.
3. Section 7923.700.
4. Sections 7923.800 and 7923.805.
5. Section 7924.505.
6. Section 7925.000.
7. Section 7925.005.
8. Section 7925.010.
9. Section 7926.000.
10. Section 7926.100.
11. Section 7926.200.
13. Section 7926.220, except the continuation of former Section 6254.14(b).
14. Section 7926.225, except the continuation of former Section 6254.14(b).
15. Section 7926.230, except the continuation of former Section 6254.14(b).
16. Section 7926.235.
17. Section 7927.000.
18. Section 7927.100.
19. Section 7927.200.
20. Section 7927.300.
21. Section 7927.500.
22. Section 7927.700.
23. Section 7927.705.
24. Section 7928.000.
25. Section 7928.100.
26. Sections 7928.405 and 7928.410.
27. Section 7928.705.
28. Section 7929.000.
29. Section 7929.200.
30. Section 7929.205.
31. Chapter 18 (commencing with Section 7929.400) of Part 5.
32. Section 7929.605.

(b) The provisions listed in subdivision (a) may be referred to as “former Section 6254 provisions.”

(c) Subdivision (a) does not include any provision that was first codified in one of the specified numerical ranges after the effective date of the CPRA Recodification Act of 2020.

Comment. Section 7920.505 is new. It provides a convenient means of referring to the provisions that comprised former Section 6254.
For a disposition table showing where each provision in former Section 6254 was recodified, as well as a derivation table showing the source of each provision in the CPRA Recodification of 2020, see California Public Records Act Clean-Up, __ Cal. L. Revision Comm’n Reports __ (2019).

See Section 7920.005 (“CPRA Recodification Act of 2020”).

Note. Proposed Section 7920.505 is modeled on several provisions in the Deadly Weapons Recodification Act of 2010. See Penal Code §§ 16575 (“Former Article 4 of Chapter 1 provisions”), 16580 (“Former Chapter 1 provisions”), 16585 (“Former Section 12078 provisions”). It is included for drafting convenience.

§ 7920.510. “Local agency”

7920.510. As used in this division, “local agency” includes any of the following:

(a) A county.
(b) A city, whether general law or chartered.
(c) A city and county.
(d) A school district.
(e) A municipal corporation.
(f) A district.
(g) A political subdivision.
(h) Any board, commission, or agency of the foregoing.
(i) Another local public agency.
(j) An entity that is a legislative body of a local agency pursuant to subdivision (c) or (d) of Section 54952.

Comment. Section 7920.510 continues former Section 6252(a) without substantive change.

In subdivision (j), the erroneous reference to “subdivisions (c) and (d) of Section 54952 that appeared in former Section 6252(a) has been replaced with a reference to “subdivision (c) or (d) of Section 54952.” (Emphasis added.) This is a technical correction.

See Section 7920.525 (“public agency”).

Note. Existing Section 6252(a) includes as a local agency an entity that is a legislative body of a local agency pursuant to “subdivisions (c) and (d) of Section 54952.” (Emphasis added).

Those subdivisions provide:

54952. As used in this chapter, “legislative body” means:

(c)(1) A board, commission, committee, or other multimember body that governs a private corporation, limited liability company, or other entity that either:

(A) Is created by the elected legislative body in order to exercise authority that may lawfully be delegated by the elected governing body to a private corporation, limited liability company, or other entity.

(B) Receives funds from a local agency and the membership of whose governing body includes a member of the legislative body of the local agency appointed to that governing body as a full voting member by the legislative body of the local agency.

(2) Notwithstanding subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1), no board, commission, committee, or other multimember body that governs a private corporation, limited liability company, or other entity that receives funds from a local agency and, as of February 9, 1996, has a member of the legislative body of the local agency as a full voting member of the governing body of that private corporation, limited liability company, or other entity shall be relieved from the public meeting requirements of this chapter by virtue of a change in status.
of the full voting member to a nonvoting member.

(d) The lessee of any hospital the whole or part of which is first leased pursuant to subdivision (p) of Section 32121 of the Health and Safety Code after January 1, 1994, where the lessee exercises any material authority of a legislative body of a local agency delegated to it by that legislative body whether the lessee is organized and operated by the local agency or by a delegated authority.

Given the content of these provisions, it seems improbable that the Legislature intended to require an entity to satisfy the requirements of both subdivisions to qualify as a “local agency” under Section 6252(a). Proposed Section 7920.510(j) would continue this cross-reference as “subdivisions (c) or (d) of Section 54952.” (Emphasis added.)

The Commission welcomes input on any aspect of its proposed recodification, but it would especially appreciate public comment on this revision.

§ 7920.515. “Member of the public”

7920.515. As used in this division, “member of the public” means any person other than a member, agent, officer, or employee of a federal, state, or local agency who is acting within the scope of that membership, agency, office, or employment.

Comment. Section 7920.515 continues former Section 6252(b) without substantive change.

See Sections 7920.510 (“local agency”), 7920.520 (“person”).

§ 7920.520. “Person”

7920.520. As used in this division, “person” includes any natural person, corporation, partnership, limited liability company, firm, or association.

Comment. Section 7920.520 continues former Section 6252(c) without substantive change.

§ 7920.525. “Public agency”

7920.525. (a) As used in this division, “public agency” means any state or local agency.

(b) As used in Article 5 (commencing with Section 7926.400) of Chapter 5 of Part 5, “public agency” means an entity specified in subdivision (c) of Section 7926.400.

Comment. Subdivision (a) of Section 7920.525 continues former Section 6252(d) without substantive change.

Subdivision (b) is new. It is intended to help persons locate the special definition of “public agency” that applies to the article on reproductive health services facilities (Sections 7926.400-7926.430).

See Sections 7920.510 (“local agency”), 7920.535 (“state agency”).

§ 7920.530. “Public records”

7920.530. (a) As used in this division, “public records” includes any writing containing information relating to the conduct of the public’s business prepared, owned, used, or retained by any state or local agency regardless of physical form or characteristics.

(b) “Public records” in the custody of, or maintained by, the Governor’s office means any writing prepared on or after January 6, 1975.

Comment. Section 7920.530 continues former Section 6252(e) without substantive change.

See Sections 7920.510 (“local agency”), 7920.540 (“state agency”), 7920.550 (“writing”).
§ 7920.535. “Public safety official”

7920.535. As used in this division, “public safety official” means the following parties, whether active or retired:

(a) A peace officer as defined in Sections 830 to 830.65, inclusive, of the Penal Code, or a person who is not a peace officer, but may exercise the powers of arrest during the course and within the scope of the person’s employment pursuant to Section 830.7 of the Penal Code.

(b) A public officer or other person listed in Section 1808.2 or 1808.6 of the Vehicle Code.

(c) An “elected or appointed official” as defined in Section 7920.500.

(d) An attorney employed by the Department of Justice, the State Public Defender, or a county office of the district attorney or public defender, the United States Attorney, or the Federal Public Defender.

(e) A city attorney and an attorney who represent cities in criminal matters.

(f) An employee of the Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation who supervises inmates or is required to have care or custody of a prisoner.

(g) A sworn or nonsworn employee who supervises inmates in a city police department, a county sheriff’s office, the Department of the California Highway Patrol, federal, state, or a local detention facility, or a local juvenile hall, camp, ranch, or home, and a probation officer as defined in Section 830.5 of the Penal Code.

(h) A federal prosecutor, a federal criminal investigator, and a National Park Service Ranger working in California.

(i) The surviving spouse or child of a peace officer defined in Section 830 of the Penal Code, if the peace officer died in the line of duty.

(j) State and federal judges and court commissioners.

(k) An employee of the Attorney General, a district attorney, or a public defender who submits verification from the Attorney General, district attorney, or public defender that the employee represents the Attorney General, district attorney, or public defender in matters that routinely place that employee in personal contact with persons under investigation for, charged with, or convicted of, committing criminal acts.

(l) A nonsworn employee of the Department of Justice or a police department or sheriff’s office that, in the course of employment, is responsible for collecting, documenting, and preserving physical evidence at crime scenes, testifying in court as an expert witness, and other technical duties, and a nonsworn employee that, in the course of employment, performs a variety of standardized and advanced laboratory procedures in the examination of physical crime evidence, determines their results, and provides expert testimony in court.

Comment. Section 7920.535 continues former Section 6254.24 without substantive change. In subdivision (b), the erroneous reference to “Sections 1808.2 and 1808.6 of the Vehicle Code” that appeared in former Section 6254.24(b) has been replaced with a reference to “Section 1808.2 or 1808.6 of the Vehicle Code.” (Emphasis added.) This is a technical correction.
In subdivision (g), the erroneous phrase “and a local juvenile hall, camp, ranch, or home” that appeared in former Section 6254.24(g) has been replaced with the phrase “or a local juvenile hall, camp, ranch, or home.” (Emphasis added.) This is a technical correction.

See Section 7920.520 (“person”).

Notes.

(1) Existing Section 6254.24(b) includes as a public safety official a public officer or other person listed in “Sections 1808.2 and 1808.6 of the Vehicle Code.” (Emphasis added).

The cross-referenced Vehicle Code sections provide:

1808.2. In addition to those specified in Section 1808.4, the home address of any inspector or investigator regularly employed and paid as such in the office of a district attorney or any peace officer employee of the Board of Prison Terms appearing in any record of the department is confidential.

1808.6. (a) In addition to those specified in Section 1808.4, the home address of any of the following persons, that appears in any record of the department, is confidential, if the person requests the confidentiality of that information:

   (1) The chairperson, executive officer, commissioners, and deputy commissioners of the Board of Prison Terms.

   (2) The chairperson, members, executive director, and hearing representatives of the Youthful Offender Parole Board.

   (3) The spouse or children of persons listed in this section, regardless of the spouse’s or child’s place of residence.

   (b) The confidential home address of any of the persons listed in subdivision (a) shall not be disclosed to any person, except a court, a law enforcement agency, the State Board of Equalization, or any governmental agency to which, under any provision of law, information is required to be furnished from records maintained by the department.

   (c) Any record of the department containing a confidential home address shall be open to public inspection, as provided in Section 1808, if the address is completely obliterated or otherwise removed from the record. The home address shall be withheld from public inspection for three years following termination of office or employment, except with respect to retired peace officers, whose home addresses shall be withheld from public inspection permanently upon request of confidentiality at the time the information would otherwise be opened. The department shall inform any person who requests a confidential home address of the name of the agency that employs the individual whose address was requested.

Given the content of these provisions, it seems improbable that the Legislature intended to require a person to be listed in both of the Vehicle Code provisions to qualify as a “public safety official” within the meaning of Section 6254.24. In all likelihood, the cross-reference to “Sections 1808.2 and 1808.6 of the Vehicle Code” should be replaced by a reference to “Section 1808.2 or 1808.6 of the Vehicle Code.” Proposed Section 7920.535(b) would take that approach.

The Commission welcomes input on any aspect of its proposed recodification, but it would especially appreciate public comment on this revision.

(2) Existing Section 6254.24(g) includes as a public safety official an employee who supervises inmates in a city police department, a county sheriff’s office, the Department of the California Highway Patrol, federal, state, or a local detention facility, and a local juvenile hall, camp, ranch, or home....” (Emphasis added).

It seems improbable that the Legislature intended this provision to include as a “public safety official” only an employee who supervises inmates in one of the enumerated facilities for adults and in one of the enumerated facilities for juveniles. Proposed Section 7920.535(g) would refer instead to an employee “who supervises inmates in a city police department, a county sheriff’s office, the Department of the California Highway Patrol, federal, state, or a local detention facility, or a local juvenile hall, camp, ranch, or home....” (Emphasis added).
The Commission welcomes input on any aspect of its proposed recodification, but it would especially appreciate public comment on this revision.

(3) Existing Section 6254.24(g) also includes as a public safety official “a probation officer as defined in Section 830.5 of the Penal Code.” Although Penal Code Section 830.5 refers generically to a “probation officer,” the section does not define nor in any way clarify the meaning of the term. The term is also used in many other code sections without any definition. For further discussion of this point, see CLRC Staff Memorandum 2017-50, pp. 8-10.

§ 7920.540. “State agency”

7920.540. (a) As used in this division, “state agency” means every state office, officer, department, division, bureau, board, and commission or other state body or agency, except those agencies provided for in Article IV (except Section 20 thereof) or Article VI of the California Constitution.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a) or any other law, “state agency” also means the State Bar of California, as described in Section 6001 of the Business and Professions Code.

Comment. Section 7920.540 continues former Section 6252(f) without substantive change.

Note. Existing Section 6252(f) refers to “the State Bar of California, as described in Section 6001 of the Business and Professions Code.” Proposed Section 7920.540(b) would include the same phrase, but legislation to restructure the State Bar was recently enacted. See 2017 Cal. Stat. ch. 422 (SB 36 (Jackson)). Because this is a strictly nonsubstantive study on an unrelated topic, the Commission has not assessed whether the substance of Section 6252(f) requires revisions to reflect the restructuring of the State Bar. If legislation to make such revisions is introduced, it could be coordinated with the Commission’s proposal as needed to make sure that nothing is chaptered out. See Section 9605.

§ 7920.545. “Trade secret”

7920.545. (a) “Trade secret” is defined in subdivision (f) of Section 7924.305.

(b) Subdivision (f) of Section 7924.510 defines “trade secret” for purposes of that section.

Comment. Section 7920.545 is new. It is intended to help persons locate the definitions of “trade secret” used in the California Public Records Act.

§ 7920.550. “Writing”

7920.550. As used in this division, “writing” means any handwriting, typewriting, printing, photostating, photographing, photocopying, transmitting by electronic mail or facsimile, and every other means of recording upon any tangible thing any form of communication or representation, including letters, words, pictures, sounds, or symbols, or combinations thereof, and any record thereby created, regardless of the manner in which the record has been stored.

Comment. Section 7920.550 continues former Section 6252(g) without substantive change.
PART 2. DISCLOSURE AND EXEMPTIONS

GENERALLY

CHAPTER 1. RIGHT OF ACCESS TO PUBLIC RECORDS

§ 7921.000. Legislative findings and declarations

7921.000. In enacting this division, the Legislature, mindful of the right of individuals to privacy, finds and declares that access to information concerning the conduct of the people’s business is a fundamental and necessary right of every person in this state.

§ 7921.005. Control of disclosure of information by another party 7921.005. A state or local agency may not allow another party to control the disclosure of information that is otherwise subject to disclosure pursuant to this division.

Comment. Section 7921.005 continues former Section 6253.3 without substantive change.

§ 7921.010. Providing public record to private entity

7921.010. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no state or local agency shall sell, exchange, furnish, or otherwise provide a public record subject to disclosure pursuant to this division to a private entity in a manner that prevents a state or local agency from providing the record directly pursuant to this division.

(b) Nothing in this section requires a state or local agency to use the State Printer to print public records.

(c) Nothing in this section prevents the destruction of a public record pursuant to law.

(d) This section shall not apply to contracts entered into prior to January 1, 1996, between the County of Santa Clara and a private entity, for the provision of public records subject to disclosure under this division.

Comment. Section 7921.010 continues former Section 6270 without substantive change.

CHAPTER 2. GENERAL RULES GOVERNING DISCLOSURE

Article 1. Nondiscrimination

§ 7921.300. Prohibition on limitation of access based on purpose of request 7921.300. This division does not allow limitations on access to a public record based upon the purpose for which the record is being requested, if the record is otherwise subject to disclosure.

Comment. Section 7921.300 continues former Section 6257.5 without substantive change.

For other provisions that prohibit discrimination in disclosing information under the California Public Records Act ("CPRA"), see Sections 7921.305 and 7921.310. § 7921.305. Access by elected member or officer of agency 7921.305. (a) Notwithstanding the definition of “member of the public” in Section 7920.515, an elected member or officer of any state or local agency is entitled to access to public records of that agency on the same basis as any other person. Nothing in this section shall limit the ability of elected members or officers to access public records permitted by law in the administration of their duties.

(b) This section does not constitute a change in, but is declaratory of, existing law.

Comment. Section 7921.305 continues former Section 6252.5 without substantive change.

§ 7921.310. Nondiscrimination by local agency in disclosure to members of local legislative body 7921.310. Notwithstanding Section 7921.305 or any other provision of law, when the members of a legislative body of a local agency are authorized to access a writing of the body or of the agency as permitted by law in the administration of their duties, the local agency, as defined in Section 54951, shall not discriminate between or among any of those members as to which writing or portion thereof is made available or when it is made available.

Comment. Section 7921.310 continues former Section 6252.7 without substantive change.

Note. The Commission identified what appears to be a minor clean-up issue relating to existing Section 6252.7. See the attached list of “Minor Clean-Up Issues for Possible Future Legislative Attention.” Because this is a strictly nonsubstantive study, the Commission did not attempt to address that issue in drafting proposed Section 7921.310.

Article 2. Voluntary Disclosure

§ 7921.500. Voluntary disclosure by agency

7921.500. Unless disclosure is otherwise prohibited by law, the provisions listed in Section 7920.505 do not prevent any agency from opening its records concerning the administration of the agency to public inspection.

Comment. Section 7921.500 continues the next-to-last paragraph of former Section 6254 without substantive change.

For circumstances in which disclosure of a public record constitutes a waiver of exemptions to the California Public Records Act (“CPRA”), see Section 7921.505. For provisions that prohibit discrimination in disclosing information under the CPRA, see Sections 7921.300-7921.310. See Section 7920.505 (“former Section 6254 provisions”).
§ 7921.505. Waiver of exemption based on disclosure 7921.505. (a) As used in this section, “agency” includes a member, agent, officer, or employee of the agency acting within the scope of that membership, agency, office, or employment.

(b) Notwithstanding any other law, if a state or local agency discloses to a member of the public a public record that is otherwise exempt from this division, this disclosure constitutes a waiver of the exemptions specified in:

(1) The provisions listed in Section 7920.505.
(2) Sections 7924.510 and 7924.700.
(3) Other similar provisions of law.

(c) This section, however, does not apply to any of the following disclosures:

(1) A disclosure made pursuant to the Information Practices Act (Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 1798) of Title 1.8 of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code) or a discovery proceeding.

(2) A disclosure made through other legal proceedings or as otherwise required by law.

(3) A disclosure within the scope of disclosure of a statute that limits disclosure of specified writings to certain purposes.

(4) A disclosure not required by law, and prohibited by formal action of an elected legislative body of the local agency that retains the writing.

(5) A disclosure made to a governmental agency that agrees to treat the disclosed material as confidential. Only persons authorized in writing by the person in charge of the agency shall be permitted to obtain the information. Any information obtained by the agency shall only be used for purposes that are consistent with existing law.

(6) A disclosure of records relating to a financial institution or an affiliate thereof, if the disclosure is made to the financial institution or affiliate by a state agency responsible for regulation or supervision of the financial institution or affiliate.

(7) A disclosure of records relating to a person who is subject to the jurisdiction of the Department of Business Oversight, if the disclosure is made to the person who is the subject of the records for the purpose of corrective action by that person, or, if a corporation, to an officer, director, or other key personnel of the corporation for the purpose of corrective action, or to any other person to the extent necessary to obtain information from that person for the purpose of an investigation by the Department of Business Oversight.

(8) A disclosure made by the Commissioner of Business Oversight under Section 450, 452, 8009, or 18396 of the Financial Code.

(9) A disclosure of records relating to a person who is subject to the jurisdiction of the Department of Managed Health Care, if the disclosure is made to the person who is the subject of the records for the purpose of corrective action by that person, or, if a corporation, to an officer, director, or other key personnel of the corporation for the purpose of corrective action, or to any other person to the extent necessary to obtain information from that person for the purpose of an investigation by the Department of Managed Health Care.
Comment. Subdivision (a) of Section 7921.505 continues the second sentence of former Section 6254.5 without substantive change.
Subdivision (b) continues the first sentence of former Section 6254.5 without substantive change.
Subdivision (c) continues former Section 6254.5(a)-(i) without substantive change.

Note. The Commission identified what appear to be some minor clean-up issues relating to existing Section 6254.5. See the attached list of “Minor Clean-Up Issues for Possible Future Legislative Attention.” Because this is a strictly nonsubstantive study, the Commission did not attempt to address those issues in drafting proposed Section 7921.505.

Article 3. Disclosure to District Attorney and Related Matters

§ 7921.700. Inspection or copying of public record by district attorney 7921.700. A state or local agency shall allow an inspection or copying of any public record or class of public records not exempted by this division when requested by a district attorney.

Comment. Section 7921.700 continues former Section 6263 without substantive change.

For guidance on enforcement of a district attorney’s right to inspect or copy public records, see Section 7921.705. For the effect of disclosure to a district attorney, see Section 7921.710. public record) and 7922.530 (copy of public record); see also Sections 7921.005 and 7921.010 (restricting agency’s ability to transfer public record or otherwise relinquish control over its disclosure).
For the effect of the CPRA, see Section 7920.200; see also Sections 7920.100-7920.120 (effect of CPRA recodification). For references to other bodies of law governing public records, see Section 7920.000 Comment.
See Sections 7920.510 (“local agency”), 7920.530 (“public records”), 7920.540 (“state agency”).

Note. Subject to various limitations, Section 6254(f) creates a CPRA exemption for:

Records of complaints to, or investigations conducted by, or records of intelligence information or security procedures of, the office of the Attorney General and the Department of Justice, the Office of Emergency Services and any state or local police agency, or any investigatory or security files compiled by any other state or local police agency, or any investigatory or security files compiled by any other state or local agency for correctional, law enforcement, or licensing purposes.

That exemption (commonly known as the “law enforcement exemption”) is subject to an exception pertaining to a request by a district attorney. Section 6262 provides:

6262. The exemption of records of complaints to, or investigations conducted by, any state or local agency for licensing purposes under subdivision (f) of Section 6254 shall not apply when a request for inspection of such records is made by a district attorney.

The Commission considered the possibility of recodifying that exception in “Article 3.
Disclosure to District Attorney and Related Matters.” It seemed more helpful, however, to place the exception in close proximity to the CPRA exemption to which it pertains — i.e., in close proximity to the provision(s) that would continue the substance of Section 6254(f). That is the approach taken in this draft. See proposed Section 7923.650.

Because the exception specifically applies to a district attorney, however, the Comment to proposed Section 7921.700 would refer to it. That should help alert readers to the existence of the exception.

Comments on this approach would be helpful.

§ 7921.705. Enforcement of district attorney’s right to inspect or copy 7921.705. (a) If a district attorney makes a request to a state or local agency to inspect or receive a copy of a public record or class of public records not exempted by this division, and the state or local agency fails or refuses to allow inspection or copying within 10 working days of that request, the district attorney may petition a court of competent jurisdiction to require the state or local agency to allow the requested inspection or copying.

(b) Unless the public interest or good cause in withholding the requested records clearly outweighs the public interest in disclosure, the court may require the public agency to allow the district attorney to inspect or copy those records.

Comment. Section 7921.705 continues former Section 6264 without substantive change.

effect of disclosure to a district attorney, see Section 7921.710. For a special rule governing a 7921.710. Disclosure of records to a district attorney under the provisions of this division shall effect no change in the status of the records under any other provision of law.

CHAPTER 3. GENERAL RULES GOVERNING EXEMPTIONS FROM DISCLOSURE

Article 1. Justification for Withholding of Record

§ 7922.000. Justification for withholding of record (CPRA catch-all exemption) 7922.000. An agency shall justify withholding any record by demonstrating that the record in question is exempt under express provisions of this division, or that on the facts of the particular case the public interest served by not disclosing the record clearly outweighs the public interest served by disclosure of the record.

Comment. Section 7922.000 continues former Section 6255(a) without substantive change. This provision is sometimes known as the “catch-all exemption” to the California Public Records Act (“CPRA”).

For some provisions governing redaction of social security numbers, see Sections 7922.200-7922.210. For additional CPRA exemptions and special rules applicable to specific types of public records (including some rules relating to social security numbers), see Sections 7923.600-7929.610; see also Sections 7930.000-7930.215 (alphabetical list of many CPRA exemptions).

For legislative findings and declarations underlying the CPRA, see Section 7921.000. For basic rules protecting access to public records under the CPRA, see Sections 7922.525 (inspection of public record) and 7922.530 (copy of public record); see also Sections 7921.005 and 7921.010 (restricting agency’s ability to transfer public record or otherwise relinquish control over its disclosure).

For general rules governing disclosure of public records, see Sections 7921.300-7921.710. For procedural rules governing requests for public records and related matters, see Sections 7922.500-7922.725; see also Sections 7923.000-7923.510 (enforcement).

of CPRA recodification). For references to some other bodies of law governing public records, see Section 7920.000 Comment.

Article 2. Redaction and Truncation of Social Security Numbers and Related Matters

§ 7922.200. Redaction of SSN by local agency 7922.200. (a) It is the intent of the Legislature that, in order to protect against the risk of identity theft, a local agency shall redact social security numbers from a record before disclosing the record to the public pursuant to this division.
(b) Nothing in this division shall be construed to require a local agency to disclose a social security number.
(c) This section does not apply to a record maintained by a county recorder.

Comment. Section 7922.200 continues former Section 6254.29 without substantive change.
For truncation of a social security number by a county recorder, see Section 7922.205. For truncation of a social security number with regard to a secured transaction, see Section 7922.210.
For additional exemptions to the California Public Records Act (“CPRA”) and special rules applicable to specific types of public records (including some rules relating to social security numbers), see Sections 7922.000, 7923.600-7929.610; see also Sections 7930.000-7930.215 (alphabetical list of many CPRA exemptions).
For legislative findings and declarations underlying the CPRA, see Section 7921.000. For basic rules protecting access to public records under the CPRA, see Sections 7922.525 (inspection of public record) and 7922.530 (copy of public record); see also Sections 7921.005 and 7921.010 (restricting agency’s ability to transfer public record or otherwise relinquish control over its disclosure).

For general rules governing disclosure of public records, see Sections 7921.300-7921.710. For procedural rules governing requests for public records and related matters, see Sections 7922.500-7922.725; see also Sections 7923.000-7923.510 (enforcement).

For the effect of the CPRA, see Section 7920.200; see also Sections 7920.100-7920.120 (effect of CPRA recodification). For references to some other bodies of law governing public records, see Section 7920.000 Comment.

See Section 7920.510 (“local agency”).

§ 7922.205. Truncation of SSN by county recorder

7922.205. Nothing in this division shall be construed to require the disclosure by a county recorder of any “official record,” if a “public record” version of that record is available pursuant to Article 3.5 (commencing with Section 27300) of Chapter 6 of Part 3 of Division 2 of Title 3.

Comment. Section 7922.205 continues former Section 6254.27 without substantive change.

For redaction of a social security number by a local agency, see Section 7922.200. For truncation of a social security number with regard to a secured transaction, see Section 7922.210. For additional exemptions to the California Public Records Act (“CPRA”) and special rules applicable to specific types of public records (including some rules relating to social security numbers), see Sections 7922.000, 7923.600-7929.610; see also Sections 7930.000-7930.215 (alphabetical list of many CPRA exemptions).

For legislative findings and declarations underlying the CPRA, see Section 7921.000. For basic rules protecting access to public records under the CPRA, see Sections 7922.525 (inspection of public record) and 7922.530 (copy of public record); see also Sections 7921.005 and 7921.010 (restricting agency’s ability to transfer public record or otherwise relinquish control over its disclosure).

For general rules governing disclosure of public records, see Sections 7921.300-7921.710. For procedural rules governing requests for public records and related matters, see Sections 7922.500-7922.725; see also Sections 7923.000-7923.510 (enforcement).

§ 7922.210. Truncation of SSN with regard to secured transaction

7922.210. Nothing in this division shall be construed to require the disclosure by a filing office of any “official filing,” if a “public filing” version of that record is available pursuant to Section 9526.5 of the Commercial Code.

Comment. Section 7922.210 continues former Section 6254.28 without substantive change. The erroneous references to an “official record” and a “public record” in former Section 6254.28 have been replaced with references to an “official filing” and a “public filing,” respectively, to conform to the terminology used in Commercial Code Section 9526.5. This is a technical correction.

For redaction of a social security number by a local agency, see Section 7922.200. For truncation of a social security number by a county recorder, see Section 7922.205. For additional exemptions to the California Public Records Act (“CPRA”) and special rules applicable to specific types of public records (including some rules relating to social security numbers), see Sections 7922.000, 7923.600-7929.610; see also Sections 7930.000-7930.215 (alphabetical list of many CPRA exemptions).
For legislative findings and declarations underlying the CPRA, see Section 7921.000. For basic rules protecting access to public records under the CPRA, see Sections 7922.525 (inspection of public record) and 7922.530 (copy of public record); see also Sections 7921.005 and 7921.010 (restricting agency’s ability to transfer public record or otherwise relinquish control over its disclosure).

For general rules governing disclosure of public records, see Sections 7921.300-7921.710. For procedural rules governing requests for public records and related matters, see Sections 7922.500-7922.725; see also Sections 7923.000-7923.510 (enforcement).

For the effect of the CPRA, see Section 7920.200; see also Sections 7920.100-7920.120 (effect of CPRA recodification). For references to some other bodies of law governing public records, see Section 7920.000 Comment.

Note. The provision cross-referenced in Section 6254.28 does not refer to either an “official record” or a “public record,” despite the inference to the contrary in Section 6254.28. Instead, Commercial Code Section 9526.5 refers to and defines an “official filing” and a “public filing”:

9526.5. (a) For purposes of this section, the following terms have the following meanings:

(1) “Official filing” means the permanent archival filing of all instruments, papers, records, and attachments as accepted for filing by a filing office.

(2) “Public filing” means a filing that is an exact copy of an official filing except that any social security number contained in the copied filing is truncated. The public filing shall have the same legal force and effect as the official filing. …

This slight disconnect in terminology probably stems from Section 6254.27 (proposed Section 7922.205), which concerns disclosure of a record in the possession of a county recorder. The article cross-referenced in that adjacent, very similar section does refer to both an “official record” and a “public record.”

Proposed Section 7922.210 would make nonsubstantive revisions to Section 6254.28 to conform to the terminology used in the cross-referenced code section, by (1) replacing the term “official record” with “official filing” and (2) replacing the term “public record” with “public filing.”

The Commission welcomes input on any aspect of its proposed recodification, but it would especially appreciate public comment on this revision.

PART 3. PROCEDURES

CHAPTER 1. REQUEST FOR A PUBLIC RECORD

Article 1. General Principles

7922.500. Nothing in this division shall be construed to permit an agency to delay or obstruct the inspection or copying of public records.

§ 7922.535. Time to respond

7922.535. (a) Each agency, upon a request for a copy of records, shall, within 10 days from receipt of the request, determine whether the request, in whole or in part, seeks copies of disclosable public records in the possession of the agency and shall promptly notify the person making the request of the determination and the reasons therefor. If the agency determines that the request seeks disclosable public records, the agency shall also state the estimated date and time when the records will be made available.

(b) In unusual circumstances, the time limit prescribed in this article and Article 1 (commencing with Section 7922.500) may be extended by written notice from the head of the agency or a designee to the person making the request, setting forth the reasons for the extension and the date on which a determination is expected to be dispatched. No notice shall specify a date that would result in an extension for more than 14 days.

(c) As used in this section, “unusual circumstances” means the following, but only to the extent reasonably necessary to the proper processing of the particular request:

1. The need to search for and collect the requested records from field facilities or other establishments that are separate from the office processing the request.

2. The need to search for, collect, and appropriately examine a voluminous amount of separate and distinct records that are demanded in a single request.

3. The need for consultation, which shall be conducted with all practicable speed, with another agency having substantial interest in the determination of the request or among two or more components of the agency having substantial subject matter interest therein.

4. The need to compile data, to write programming language or a computer program, or to construct a computer report to extract data.

Comment. Subdivision (a) of Section 7922.535 continues the first and fourth sentences of former Section 6253(c) without substantive change.

(b) The notification of denial shall set forth the names and titles or positions of each person responsible for the denial.

(c) An agency shall justify withholding any record by complying with Section 7922.000.

Subdivision (b) continues the second sentence of former Section 6253(d) without substantive change.

Subdivision (c) is new. It is a nonsubstantive signpost provision, included simply to alert readers to the requirements of Section 7922.000 (justification for withholding of record).

§ 7922.545. Posting public record on agency’s Internet Web site

7922.545. (a) In addition to maintaining public records for public inspection during its office hours, a public agency may comply with Section 7922.525 by posting any public record on its Internet Web site and, in response to a request for a public record posted on the Internet Web site, directing a member of the public to the location on the Internet Web site where the public record is posted.

(b) However, if after the public agency directs a member of the public to the Internet Web site, the member of the public requesting the public record requests a copy of the public record due to an inability to access or reproduce the public record from the Internet Web site, the public agency shall promptly provide a copy of the public record pursuant to Section 7922.530.

§ 7923.615. Disclosure of information relating to complaints or requests for assistance

7923.615. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, a state or local law enforcement agency shall make public, subject to the restrictions imposed by Section 841.5 of the Penal Code, the time, substance, and location of all complaints or requests for assistance received by the agency, and the time and nature of the response thereto, except to the extent that disclosure of a particular item of information would endanger the safety of a person involved in an investigation or the successful completion of the investigation or a related investigation. To the extent the information regarding crimes alleged or committed or any other incident investigated is recorded, this includes all of the following:

1. The time, date, and location of occurrence.
2. The time and date of the report.
3. The name and age of the victim.
4. The factual circumstances surrounding the crime or incident.
5. A general description of any injuries, property, or weapons involved.

(b)(1) The name of a victim of any crime defined by Section 220, 261, 261.5, 262, 264, 264.1, 265, 266, 266a, 266b, 266c, 266e, 266f, 266j, 267, 269, 273a, 273d, 273.5, 285, 286, 287, 288, 288.2, 288.3, 288.4, 288.5, 288.7, 289, 422.6, 422.7, 422.75, 646.9, or 647.6 of, or former Section 288a of, the Penal Code may be withheld at the victim’s request, or at the request of the victim’s parent or guardian if the victim is a minor.

(2) When a person is the victim of more than one crime, information disclosing that the person is a victim of a crime defined in any of the sections of the Penal Code set forth in this article may be deleted at the request of the victim, or the victim’s parent or guardian if the victim is a minor, in making the report of the crime, or of any crime or incident accompanying the crime, available to the public in compliance with the requirements of this section.

(c)(1) Subject to the restrictions imposed by Section 841.5 of the Penal Code, the names and images of a victim of human trafficking, as defined in Section 236.1 of the Penal Code, and of that victim’s immediate family, other than a family member who is charged with a criminal offense arising from the same incident, may be withheld at the victim’s request until the investigation or any subsequent prosecution is complete.

(2) For purposes of this article, “immediate family” shall have the same meaning as that provided in paragraph (3) of subdivision (b) of Section 422.4 of the Penal Code.

Comment. Subdivision (a) of Section 7923.615 continues the first sentence of former Section 6254(f)(2)(A) without substantive change. In combination with Sections 7923.610 and 7923.620(a), subdivision (a) also continues the third unnumbered paragraph of former Section 6254(f) without substantive change.

Subdivision (b) continues the second and third sentences of former Section 6254(f)(2)(A) without substantive change. Revisions have been made to reflect that Penal Code Section 288a was renumbered as Penal Code Section 287. See 2018 Cal. Stat. ch. 423, § 49.

Subdivision (c) continues former Section 6254(f)(2)(B) without substantive change.

See Section 7920.520 (“person”).

Note. In 2018, the Legislature enacted a bill renumbering Penal Code Section 288a as Penal Code Section 287. See 2018 Cal. Stat. ch. 423, § 49 (SB 1494 (Committee on Public Safety)). That bill included a conforming revision of Section 6254(f)(2), but the conforming revision was chaptered out by another bill. See Section 9605 (bill conflict rules); 2018 Cal. Stat. ch. 423, §§ 27 (conforming revision), 130 (subordination clause); 2018 Cal. Stat. ch. 960, § 1 (AB 748 (Ting)).

As noted in the accompanying Comment, proposed Section 7923.615 would continue the substance of Section 6254(f)(2), with revisions to reflect the renumbering of Penal Code Section 288a (in the same manner as the conforming revision that was chaptered out).

§ 7923.620. Disclosure of arrestee’s address or victim’s address for specified purposes

7923.620. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, if the requester declares under penalty of perjury that the request is made for a scholarly, journalistic, political, or governmental purpose, or that the request is made for investigation purposes by a licensed private investigator as described in Chapter 11.3 (commencing with Section 7512) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code, a state or local law enforcement agency shall make public the following information, except to the extent that disclosure of a particular item of information would endanger the safety of a person involved in an investigation or would endanger the successful completion of the investigation or a related investigation:

(1) Subject to the restrictions of Section 841.5 of the Penal Code and this article, the current address of every individual arrested by the agency.

(2) Subject to the restrictions of Section 841.5 of the Penal Code and this article, the current address of the victim of a crime. However, the address of the victim of any crime defined by Section 220, 236.1, 261, 261.5, 262, 264, 264.1, 265, 266, 266a, 266b, 266c, 266e, 266f, 266j, 267, 269, 273a, 273d, 273.5, 285, 286, 287, 288, 288.2, 288.3, 288.4, 288.5, 288.7, 289, 422.6, 422.7, 422.75, 646.9, or 647.6 of, or former Section 288a of, the Penal Code shall remain confidential.

(b) Address information obtained pursuant to this section shall not be used directly or indirectly, or furnished to another, to sell a product or service to any individual or group of individuals, and the requester shall execute a declaration to that effect under penalty of perjury.

(c) This section shall not be construed to prohibit or limit a scholarly, journalistic, political, or government use of address information obtained pursuant to this section.
Comment. Subdivision (a) of Section 7923.620 continues the first and second sentences of former Section 6254(f)(3) without substantive change. In combination with Sections 7923.610 and 7923.615(a), subdivision (a) also continues the third unnumbered paragraph of former Section 6254(f) without substantive change. Revisions have been made to reflect that Penal Code Section 288a was renumbered as Penal Code Section 287. See 2018 Cal. Stat. ch. 423, § 49.

Subdivision (b) continues the third sentence of former Section 6254(f)(3) without substantive change.

Subdivision (c) continues the fourth sentence of former Section 6254(f)(3) without substantive change.

See Section 7920.520 (“person”).

Note. In 2018, the Legislature enacted a bill renumbering Penal Code Section 288a as Penal Code Section 287. See 2018 Cal. Stat. ch. 423, § 49 (SB 1494 (Committee on Public Safety)). That bill included a conforming revision of Section 6254(f)(3), but the conforming revision was chaptered out by another bill. See Section 9605 (bill conflict rules); 2018 Cal. Stat. ch. 423, §§ 27 (conforming revision), 130 (subordination clause); 2018 Cal. Stat. ch. 960, § 1 (AB 748 (Ting)).

As noted in the accompanying Comment, proposed Section 7923.620 would continue the substance of Section 6254(f)(3), with revisions to reflect the renumbering of Penal Code Section 288a (in the same manner as the conforming revision that was chaptered out).

§ 7923.625. Video or audio recording relating to critical incident

7923.625. Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, commencing July 1, 2019, a video or audio recording that relates to a critical incident, as defined in subdivision (e), may be withheld only as follows:

(a)(1) During an active criminal or administrative investigation, disclosure of a recording related to a critical incident may be delayed for no longer than 45 calendar days after the date the agency knew or reasonably should have known about the incident, if, based on the facts and circumstances depicted in the recording, disclosure would substantially interfere with the investigation, such as by endangering the safety of a witness or a confidential source. If an agency delays disclosure pursuant to this section, the agency shall provide in writing to the requester the specific basis for the agency’s determination that disclosure would substantially interfere with the investigation and the estimated date for disclosure.

(2) After 45 days from the date the agency knew or reasonably should have known about the incident, and up to one year from that date, the agency may continue to delay disclosure of a recording if the agency demonstrates that disclosure would substantially interfere with the investigation. After one year from the date the agency knew or reasonably should have known about the incident, the agency may continue to delay disclosure of a recording only if the agency demonstrates by clear and convincing evidence that disclosure would substantially interfere with the investigation. If an agency delays disclosure pursuant to this paragraph, the agency shall promptly provide in writing to the requester the specific basis for the agency’s determination that the interest in preventing interference with an active investigation outweighs the public interest in disclosure and provide the estimated date for the disclosure. The agency shall reassess withholding and notify the requester every 30 days. A recording withheld by the agency shall be disclosed promptly when the specific basis for withholding is resolved.

(b)(1) If the agency demonstrates, on the facts of the particular case, that the public interest in withholding a video or audio recording clearly outweighs the public interest in disclosure because the release of the recording would, based on the facts and circumstances depicted in the recording, violate the reasonable expectation of privacy of a subject depicted in the recording, the agency shall provide in writing to the requester the specific basis for the expectation of privacy and the public interest served by withholding the recording and may use redaction technology, including blurring or distorting images or audio, to obscure those specific portions of the recording that protect that interest. However, the redaction shall not interfere with the viewer’s ability to fully, completely, and accurately comprehend the events captured in the recording and the recording shall not otherwise be edited or altered.

(2) Except as provided in paragraph (3), if the agency demonstrates that the reasonable expectation of privacy of a subject depicted in the recording cannot adequately be protected through redaction as described in paragraph (1) and that interest outweighs the public interest in disclosure, the agency may withhold the recording from the public, except that the recording, either redacted as provided in paragraph (1) or unredacted, shall be disclosed promptly, upon request, to any of the following:

(A) The subject of the recording whose privacy is to be protected, or the subject’s authorized representative.

(3) If disclosure pursuant to paragraph (2) would substantially interfere with an active criminal or administrative investigation, the agency shall provide in writing to the requester the specific basis for the agency’s determination that disclosure would substantially interfere with the investigation, and provide the video or audio recording. Thereafter, the recording may be withheld by the agency for 45 calendar days, subject to extensions as set forth in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a).

(c) An agency may provide greater public access to video or audio recordings than the minimum standards set forth in this section.

(d) For purposes of this section, a peace officer does not include any peace officer employed by the Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation.

(e) For purposes of this section, a video or audio recording relates to a critical incident if it depicts any of the following incidents:

(1) An incident involving the discharge of a firearm at a person by a peace officer or custodial officer.

(2) An incident in which the use of force by a peace officer or custodial officer against a person resulted in death or in great bodily injury.

(f) This section does not alter, limit, or negate any other rights, remedies, or obligations with respect to public records regarding an incident other than a critical incident as described in subdivision (e).

Article 4. Records Specifically Relating to Crime Victims

§ 7923.750. Video and audio recordings

7923.750. (a) This division does not require disclosure of a video or audio recording that was created during the commission or investigation of the crime of rape, incest, sexual assault, domestic violence, or child abuse that depicts the face, intimate body part, or voice of a victim of the incident depicted in the recording. An agency shall justify withholding such a video or audio recording by demonstrating, pursuant to Section 7922.000 and subdivision (a) of Section 7922.540, that on the facts of the particular case, the public interest served by not disclosing the recording clearly outweighs the public interest served by disclosure of the recording.

(b) When balancing the public interests as required by this section, an agency shall consider both of the following:

(1) The constitutional right to privacy of the person or persons depicted in the recording.

(2) Whether the potential harm to the victim caused by disclosing the recording may be mitigated by redacting the recording to obscure images showing intimate body parts and personally identifying characteristics of the victim or by distorting portions of the recording containing the victim’s voice, provided that the redaction does not prevent a viewer from being able to fully and accurately perceive the events captured on the recording. The recording shall not otherwise be edited or altered.

(c) A victim of a crime described in subdivision (a) who is a subject of a recording, the parent or legal guardian of a minor subject, a deceased subject’s next of kin, or a subject’s legally authorized designee, shall be permitted to inspect the recording and to obtain a copy of the recording. Disclosure under this subdivision does not require that the record be made available to the public pursuant to Section 7921.505.

(d) Nothing in this section shall be construed to affect any other exemption provided by this division.

Comment. Section 7923.750 continues former Section 6254.4.5 without substantive change.

(b) This section shall not apply to a disclosure of the following information, if no information is disclosed that connects the information to a specific victim, derivative victim, or applicant under Article 1 (commencing with Section 13950) of Chapter 5 of Part 4 of Division 3 of Title 2:

The second sentence (shown in italics) establishes a notice requirement for a proposed pesticide registration. Does it belong in the CPRA or should it be recodified elsewhere?

§ 7924.510. Pollution information generally

7924.510. (a) Any information, analysis, plan, or specification that discloses the nature, extent, quantity, or degree of an air contaminant or other pollution that any article, machine, equipment, or other contrivance will produce, which any air pollution control district or air quality management district, or any other state or local agency or district, requires any applicant to provide before the applicant builds, erects, alters, replaces, operates, sells, rents, or uses the article, machine, equipment, or other contrivance, is a public record.

(b) All air or other pollution monitoring data, including data compiled from a stationary source, are public records.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (d) and Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 99150) of Part 65 of the Education Code, a trade secret is not a public record under this section or Section 7924.700.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, all air pollution emission data, including those emission data that constitute trade secrets as defined in subdivision (f), are public records. Data used to calculate emission data are not emission data for the purposes of this subdivision and data that constitute trade secrets and that are used to calculate emission data are not public records.

(e) Data used to calculate the costs of obtaining emissions offsets are not public records. At the time that an air pollution control district or air quality management district issues a permit to construct to an applicant who is required to obtain offsets pursuant to district rules and regulations, data obtained from the applicant consisting of the year the offset transaction occurred, the amount of offsets purchased, by pollutant, and the total cost, by pollutant, of the offsets purchased is a public record. If an application is denied, the data shall not be a public record.

(f) As used in this section, “trade secret” may include, but is not limited to, any formula, plan, pattern, process, tool, mechanism, compound, procedure, production data, or compilation of information that satisfies all of the following requirements:

1. It is not patented.
2. It is known only to certain individuals within a commercial concern who are using it to fabricate, produce, or compound an article of trade or a service having commercial value.
3. It gives its user an opportunity to obtain a business advantage over competitors who do not know or use it.

Subdivision (b) continues former Section 6254.7(b) without substantive change.
Subdivision (c) continues the first sentence of former Section 6254.7(d) without substantive change.

Article 3. Building Standards and Safety Requirements

§ 7924.700. Record relating to housing or building violation 7924.700. (a) A record of a notice or an order that is directed to the owner of any building and relates to violation of a housing or building code, ordinance, statute, or regulation that constitutes a violation of a standard provided in Section 1941.1 of the Civil Code is a public record.

(b) A record of subsequent action with respect to a notice or order described in subdivision (a) is a public record.

Comment. Section 7924.700 continues former Section 6254.7(c) without substantive change.

For a special rule applicable to a trade secret, see Section 7924.510(c).

For provisions of the California Public Records Act (“CPRA”) that relate to pollution, see Sections 7924.500-7924.510; see also Section 7924.900 (internet posting of final enforcement orders of California Environmental Protection Agency and specified entities within that entity). For CPRA provisions that relate to pesticide safety and efficacy information disclosable under the federal Insecticide, Fungicide, and Rodenticide Act, see Sections 7924.300-7924.335.

For procedural rules governing requests for public records and related matters, see Sections 7922.500-7922.725; see also Sections 7923.000-7923.510 (enforcement).

For legislative findings and declarations underlying the CPRA, see Section 7921.000. For basic rules protecting access to public records under the CPRA, see Sections 7922.525 (inspection of public record) and 7922.530 (copy of public record); see also Sections 7921.005 and 7921.010 (restricting agency’s ability to transfer public record or otherwise relinquish control over its disclosure).

For the effect of the CPRA, see Section 7920.200; see also Sections 7920.100-7920.120 (effect of CPRA recodification). For references to some other bodies of law governing public records, see Section 7920.000 Comment.

See Section 7920.530 (“public records”). See also Section 13 (singular includes plural and vice versa).

Note. Subdivisions (a), (b), (d), (e), and (f) of existing Section 6254.7 concern pollution data and other pollution-related matters. In contrast, subdivision (c) concerns violations of building standards and safety requirements. It says:

(c) All records of notices and orders directed to the owner of any building of violations of housing or building codes, ordinances, statutes, or regulations which constitute violations of standards provided in Section 1941.1 of the Civil Code, and records of subsequent action with respect to those notices and orders, are public records.

Because subdivision (c) deals with a distinct topic, the Commission tentatively decided to recodify it in a separate article as shown here (proposed Section 7924.700) instead of in “Article 2. Pollution” with the rest of the substance of Section 6254.7 (proposed Section 7924.510). That organizational scheme would help draw attention to the provision. However, the approach would also slightly complicate the task of conforming the many statutes that cross-refer to Section 6254.7. Would the benefits of this organizational scheme outweigh that detriment? Comments on this point would be helpful.

Article 4. Enforcement Orders

§ 7924.900. Internet posting of final enforcement orders of California Environmental Protection Agency and specified entities within that agency 7924.900. (a) Every final enforcement order issued by an agency listed in subdivision (b) under any provision of law that is administered by an entity listed in subdivision (b), shall be displayed on the entity’s Internet website, if the final enforcement order is a public record that is not exempt from disclosure pursuant to this division.

(b) This section applies to the California Environmental Protection Agency and to all of the following entities within the agency:

(1) The State Air Resources Board.

(3) The State Water Resources Control Board, and each California regional water quality control board.

(4) The Department of Pesticide Regulation.

(5) The Department of Toxic Substances Control.

(c)(1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), for purposes of this section, an enforcement order is final when the time for judicial review has expired on or after January 1, 2001, or when all means of judicial review have been exhausted on or after January 1, 2001.

(2) In addition to the requirements of paragraph (1), with regard to a final enforcement order issued by the State Water Resources Control Board or a California regional water quality control board, this section shall apply only to a final enforcement order adopted by that entity at a public meeting.

(d) An order posted pursuant to this section shall be posted for not less than one year.

(e) The California Environmental Protection Agency shall oversee the implementation of this section.

Comment. Section 7924.900 continues former Section 6253.8(a)-(e) without substantive change. Former Section 6253.8(f), which stated that “[t]his section shall become operative April 1, 2001,” is discontinued as obsolete.

division does not require the disclosure of information required from any taxpayer in connection with the collection of local taxes if that information is received in confidence and disclosure of it to other persons would result in unfair competitive disadvantage to the person supplying the information.

§ 7925.005. Personal financial records required by licensing agency

7925.005. Except as provided in Sections 7924.510, 7924.700, and 7927.605, this division does not require the disclosure of a statement of personal worth or personal financial data required by a licensing agency and filed by an applicant with the licensing agency to establish the applicant’s personal qualification for the license, certificate, or permit requested.

(2) By a person authorized in writing to inspect the records. The authorization shall be from the individual to whom the records pertain.

CHAPTER 8. LITIGATION RECORDS

§ 7927.200. Records relating to pending litigation or pending claim

7927.200. Except as provided in Sections 7924.510, 7924.700, and 7927.605, this division does not require disclosure of any of the following records:

(a) Records pertaining to pending litigation to which the public agency is a party, until the pending litigation has been finally adjudicated or otherwise settled.

(b) Records pertaining to a claim made pursuant to Division 3.6 (commencing with Section 810), until the pending claim has been finally adjudicated or otherwise settled.

Comment. Section 7927.200 continues former Section 6254(b) without substantive change.

For another provision of the California Public Records Act (“CPRA”) that relates specifically to litigation records, see Section 7927.205. For a CPRA provision on preliminary drafts and similar materials, see Section 7927.500. For guidance on private records, privileged materials, and other records protected by law from disclosure, see Sections 7927.700-7927.705.

For the effect of the CPRA, see Section 7920.200; see also Sections 7920.100-7920.120 (effect of CPRA recodification). For references to some other bodies of law governing public records, see Section 7920.000 Comment.

See Section 7920.525 (“public agency”).

§ 7927.205. Memorandum of legal counsel relating to pending litigation 7927.205. Nothing in this division or any other provision of law requires disclosure of a memorandum submitted to a state body or to the legislative body of a local agency by its legal counsel pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 11126 or Section 54956.9 until the pending litigation has been finally adjudicated or otherwise settled. The memorandum is protected by the attorney work-product privilege until the pending litigation has been finally adjudicated or otherwise settled.

Comment. Section 7927.205 continues former Section 6254.25 without substantive change. The cross-reference to Section 11126 has been updated to reflect relocation of the relevant material from subdivision (q) to subdivision (e) of that section.

For another provision of the California Public Records Act (“CPRA”) that relates specifically to litigation records, see Section 7927.200. For a CPRA provision on preliminary drafts and similar materials, see Section 7927.500. For guidance on private records, privileged materials, and other records protected by law from disclosure, see Sections 7927.700-7927.705.

For other special rules applicable to specific types of public records, see the rest of this part (Sections 7923.600-7929.610); see also Sections 7922.000 (CPRA catch-all exemption), 7930.000-7930.215 (alphabetical list of many CPRA exemptions).

For general rules governing disclosure of public records, see Sections 7921.300-7921.710. For general rules governing exemptions from disclosure, see Sections 7922.000-7922.210. For procedural rules governing requests for public records and related matters, see Sections 7922.500-7922.725; see also Sections 7923.000-7923.510 (enforcement).

For legislative findings and declarations underlying the CPRA, see Section 7921.000. For basic rules protecting access to public records under the CPRA, see Sections 7922.525 (inspection of public record) and 7922.530 (copy of public record); see also Sections 7921.005 and 7921.010 (restricting agency’s ability to transfer public record or otherwise relinquish control over its disclosure).

For the effect of the CPRA, see Section 7920.200; see also Sections 7920.100-7920.120 (effect of CPRA recodification). For references to some other bodies of law governing public records, see Section 7920.000 Comment.

See Section 7920.510 (“local agency”).

Note. Existing Section 6254.25 cross-refers to “subdivision (q) of Section 11126.” However, Section 11126 no longer has a subdivision (q); the material in question was relocated to subdivision...
(e) in 1996 (see 1996 Cal. Stat. ch. 1041, § 5). Proposed Section 7927.205 (continuing the substance of Section 6254.25) would correct this erroneous cross-reference, as mentioned in the accompanying Comment.

In addition, the cross-referenced provision (Section 11126) appears to contain an inadvertent drafting error. Some paragraph relabeling and related revisions seem necessary. To fix the problem, the Commission plans to include a technical amendment of Section 11126 with the conforming revisions and repeals for its proposed recodification. For further discussion of this point, see CLRC Staff Memorandum 2017-50, pp. 11-16.

The Commission welcomes input on any aspect of its proposed recodification, but it would especially appreciate public comment on these matters.

CHAPTER 9. MISCELLANEOUS PUBLIC RECORDS

CHAPTER 13. PRIVATE RECORDS, PRIVILEGED MATERIALS, AND OTHER RECORDS PROTECTED BY LAW FROM DISCLOSURE

§ 7927.700. Personnel, medical, and similarly private files

7927.700. Except as provided in Sections 7924.510, 7924.700, and 7927.605, this division does not require disclosure of personnel, medical, or similar files, the disclosure of which would constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.

Comment. Section 7927.700 continues former Section 6254(c) without substantive change.

In addition to this section, many other laws protect personal privacy to one degree or another. See, e.g., Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (“HIPPA”), Pub. Law 104-191, 110 Stat. 1936 (1996); Public Safety Officers Procedural Bill of Rights Act (“POBAR”), Gov’t Code §§ 3300-3312; Penal Code §§ 832.5, 832.7, 832.8.

Note. Proposed Section 7927.700 would continue the substance of Section 6254(c), which refers broadly to “personnel, medical, or similar files, the disclosure of which would constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.” There are also a variety of other, more specific, legal protections for medical, personnel, and similarly private records.

It would be helpful to refer to the most important such legal protections in the Comment to proposed Section 7927.700. The Commission encourages input on which legal protections to mention in this Comment.

The Commission would also appreciate input on any other aspect of this draft, including input on which code provisions, cases, or other legal authorities to mention in any of the Comments. Such assistance would be invaluable, helping to make the proposed recodification user-friendly and effective.

§ 7927.705. Privileged records and other records protected by law from disclosure 7927.705. Except as provided in Sections 7924.510, 7924.700, and 7927.605, this division does not require disclosure of records, the disclosure of which is exempted or prohibited pursuant to federal or state law, including, but not limited to, provisions of the Evidence Code relating to privilege.

Comment. Section 7927.705 continues former Section 6254(k) without substantive change.

§ 7928.010. Special rule for Governor who held office between 1974 and 1988

7928.010. (a)(1) For a Governor who held office between 1974 and 1988, Section 7928.005 does not apply to public records or other writings that were in the Governor’s direct custody or control at the time of leaving office, except to the extent that the Governor may voluntarily transfer those records or other writings to the State Archives.

(2) Subdivision (a) does not apply to enrolled bill files, press releases, speech files, or writings relating to applications for clemency or extradition.

(b)(1) Notwithstanding any other law, the public records and other writings of any Governor who held office between 1974 and 1988 may be transferred to any educational or research institution in California. With respect to public records, however, public access, as otherwise provided for by this division, shall not be restricted for a period greater than 50 years or the death of the Governor, whichever is later.

(2) Records or writings shall not be transferred pursuant to this subdivision unless the institution receiving them agrees to maintain, and does maintain, the materials according to commonly accepted archival standards.

(3) An institution receiving public records pursuant to this subdivision shall not destroy any of those records without first receiving the written approval of the Secretary of State, as custodian of the State Archives. The Secretary of State may require that the records be placed in the State Archives rather than being destroyed.

(4) An institution receiving records or writings pursuant to this subdivision shall allow the Secretary of State, as custodian of the State Archives, to copy, at state expense, and to make available to the public, any and all public records, and inventories, indices, or finding aids relating to those records that the institution makes available to the public generally. PART 6. OTHER EXEMPTIONS FROM DISCLOSURE

CHAPTER 1. INTRODUCTORY PROVISIONS

§ 7930.000. Legislative intent and instructions

7930.000. (a) It is the intent of the Legislature to assist members of the public and state and local agencies in identifying exemptions to the California Public Records
Act. It is the intent of the Legislature that, after January 1, 1999, each addition or amendment to a statute that exempts any information contained in a public record from disclosure pursuant to Section 7927.705 shall be listed and described in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 7930.100) pursuant to a bill authorized by a standing committee of the Legislature to be introduced during the first year of each session of the Legislature.

(b) The statutes and constitutional provisions listed in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 7930.100) may operate to exempt certain records, or portions thereof, from disclosure. The statutes and constitutional provisions listed and described may not be inclusive of all exemptions. The listing of a statute or constitutional provision in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 7930.100) does not itself create an exemption. Requesters of public records and public agencies are cautioned to review the applicable statute or constitutional provision to determine the extent to which it, in light of the circumstances surrounding the request, exempts public records from disclosure.

Comment. Section 7930.000 continues former Section 6275 without substantive change.

For additional guidance on using the alphabetical index in the next chapter (Sections 7930.100-7930.215), see Section 7930.005 (scope and effect of index). For special rules in the California Public Records Act (“CPRA”) that apply to specific types of public records, see Sections 7923.600-7929.600. For the CPRA catch-all exemption, see Section 7922.000.

See Sections 7920.505 (“local agency”), 7920.510 (“member of the public”), 7920.525 (“public records”), 7920.535 (“state agency”).

§ 7930.005. Scope and effect of index

7930.005. Records or information not required to be disclosed pursuant to Section 7927.705 may include, but shall not be limited to, records or information identified in statutes listed in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 7930.100).

Comment. Section 7930.005 continues former Section 6276 without substantive change.

For additional guidance on using the alphabetical index in the next chapter (Sections 7930.100-7930.215), see Section 7930.000 (legislative intent and instructions). For special rules in the California Public Records Act (“CPRA”) that apply to specific types of public records, see Sections 7923.600-7929.600. For the CPRA catch-all exemption, see Section 7922.000.

CHAPTER 2. INDEX

Note. Existing Sections 6276.01-6276.48 comprise an alphabetical list of CPRA exemptions located throughout the codes. This chapter (proposed Sections 7930.100-7930.215) would recodify that list in the same alphabetical format.

Would some other format be more user-friendly? For example, would it be preferable to group the exemptions by subject matter, as in the partial redraft attached to CLRC Staff Memorandum 2019-25 (available at http://www.clrc.ca.gov/pub/2019/MM19-25.pdf)? Is there a better possibility?

For further discussion of this organizational issue, see CLRC Staff Memorandum 2019-25, pp. 1-9.

The Commission welcomes input on any aspect of its proposed recodification, but it would especially appreciate public comment on this matter.
§ 7930.100. Constitutionally-based exemption

7930.100. The following constitutional provision may operate to exempt certain records, or portions thereof, from disclosure pursuant to this division:

Crime victims, confidential information or records, The Victims’ Bill of Rights Act of 2008: Marsy’s Law, Section 28 of Article I of the California Constitution.

Comment. Section 7930.100 continues former Section 6276.01 without substantive change. For the source of the introductory clause, see the third sentence of former Section 6275 (“The statutes and constitutional provisions listed in this article may operate to exempt certain records, or portions thereof, from disclosure.”). That sentence is continued without substantive change in Section 7930.000 and essentially repeated in each section in this chapter.

§ 7930.105. From “Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome” to “Advance Health Care Directive Registry”

7930.105. The following provisions may operate to exempt certain records, or portions thereof, from disclosure pursuant to this division:

Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome, blood test results, written authorization not necessary for disclosure, Section 121010, Health and Safety Code.

Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome, blood test subject, compelling identity of, Section 120975, Health and Safety Code.

Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome, confidentiality of personal data of patients in State Department of Public Health programs, Section 120820, Health and Safety Code.

Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome, confidentiality of information obtained in prevention programs at correctional facilities and law enforcement agencies, Sections 7552 and 7554, Penal Code.

Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome, disclosure of results of HIV test, penalties, Section 120980, Health and Safety Code.

Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome, personal information, insurers tests, confidentiality of, Section 799, Insurance Code.

Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome, public safety and testing disclosure, Sections 121065 and 121070, Health and Safety Code.

Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome Research and Confidentiality Act, production or discovery of records for use in criminal or civil proceedings against subject prohibited, Section 121100, Health and Safety Code.

Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome, test of criminal defendant pursuant to search warrant requested by victim, confidentiality of, Section 1524.1, Penal Code.

Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome, test results, disclosure to patient’s spouse and others, Section 121015, Health and Safety Code.

Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome, test of person under Youth Authority, disclosure of results, Section 1768.9, Welfare and Institutions Code.

Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome Research and Confidentiality Act, financial audits or program evaluations, Section 121085, Health and Safety Code.

Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome Research and Confidentiality Act, personally identifying research records not to be disclosed, Section 121075, Health and Safety Code.

Administrative procedure, adjudicatory hearings, interpreters, Section 11513.

Adoption records, confidentiality of, Section 102730, Health and Safety Code.

Advance Health Care Directive Registry, exemption from disclosure for registration information provided to the Secretary of State, Section 7926.100.

Comment. Section 7930.105 continues former Section 6276.02 without substantive change. For the source of the introductory clause, see the third sentence of former Section 6275 (“The statutes and constitutional provisions listed in this article may operate to exempt certain records, or portions thereof, from disclosure.”). That sentence is continued without substantive change in Section 7930.000 and essentially repeated in each section in this chapter.

Former Section 6276.02 included an entry for: “Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome, confidentiality of test results of person convicted of prostitution, Section 1202.6, Penal Code.” That entry is not included in Section 7930.105 because it is obsolete. Penal Code Section 1202.6 was repealed and added in 2017, and the new provision has nothing to do with confidentiality of AIDS test results. See 2017 Cal. Stat. ch. 537, § 17.

For guidance on using this chapter, see Sections 7930.000 (legislative intent & instructions) and 7930.005 (scope and effect of index). For special rules in the California Public Records Act (“CPRA”) that apply to specific types of public records, see Sections 7923.600-7929.600. For the CPRA catch-all exemption, see Section 7922.000.

Note. Existing Section 6276.02 includes an entry for: “Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome, confidentiality of test results of person convicted of prostitution, Section 1202.6, Penal Code.” However, Penal Code Section 1202.6 was recently repealed and added, and the new provision has nothing to do with confidentiality of AIDS test results. See 2017 Cal. Stat. ch. 537, § 17.

The Commission is not aware of any new provision that continues the substance of the repealed section. Thus, (1) proposed Section 7930.105 would not include the entry quoted above, and (2) the accompanying Comment would explain this omission.

This drafting approach does not pose any risk of a substantive change, because the list of exemptions in this chapter is just an aid for CPRA users (not substantive law) and it does not purport to be exhaustive. See proposed Sections 7930.000 and 7930.005 (existing Sections 6275 and 6276).
If there is a replacement for former Penal Code Section 1202.6 (1996 Cal. Stat. 1023, § 392), however, it would be helpful to list it in proposed Section 7930.005. Does such a replacement exist?

The Commission welcomes input on any aspect of its proposed recodification, but it would especially appreciate public comment on this matter.

§ 7930.110. From “Aeronautics Act” to “Avocado handler transaction records”

Avocado handler transaction records, confidentiality of information, Section 44984, Food and Agricultural Code.

Former Section 6276.04 included an entry for: “Auditor General, access to records for audit purposes, Sections 10527 and 10527.1.” Former Section 6276.04 also included an entry for: “Auditor General, disclosure of audit records, Section 10525.” Those entries are not included in Section 7930.110 because they are obsolete. Sections 10525, 10527, and 10527.1 have been repealed. See 2011 Cal. Stat. ch. 328, § 12.

For guidance on using this chapter, see Sections 7930.000 (legislative intent & instructions) and 7930.005 (scope and effect of index). For special rules in the California Public Records Act (“CPRA”) that apply to specific types of public records, see Sections 7923.600-7929.600. For the CPRA catch-all exemption, see Section 7922.000.

Note. Section 6276.04 includes an entry for: “Auditor General, access to records for audit purposes, Sections 10527 and 10527.1.” Section 6276.04 also includes an entry for: “Auditor General, disclosure of audit records, Section 10525.” However, Sections 10525, 10527, and 10527.1 have been repealed. See 2011 Cal. Stat. ch. 328, § 12.
The Commission is not aware of any new provision that continues the substance of any of the repealed sections. Thus, (1) proposed Section 7930.110 would not include the entries quoted above, and (2) the accompanying Comment would explain this omission.

This drafting approach does not pose any risk of a substantive change, because the list of exemptions in this chapter is just an aid for CPRA users (not substantive law) and it does not purport to be exhaustive. See proposed Sections 7930.000 and 7930.005 (existing Sections 6275 and 6276).

If there is a replacement for former Section 10525, 10527, or 10527.1, however, it would be helpful to list it in proposed Section 7930.110. Does any such replacement exist?

The Commission welcomes input on any aspect of its proposed recodification, but it would especially appreciate public comment on this matter.

§ 7930.115. From “Bank and Corporation Tax” to “Business and professions licensee exemption for social security number”

7930.115. The following provisions may operate to exempt certain records, or portions thereof, from disclosure pursuant to this division:

Bank and Corporation Tax, disclosure of information, Article 2 (commencing with Section 19542), Chapter 7, Part 10.2, Division 2, Revenue and Taxation Code.

Basic Property Insurance Inspection and Placement Plan, confidential reports, Section 10097, Insurance Code.

Bids, confidentiality of, Section 10304, Public Contract Code.

Birth defects, monitoring, confidentiality of information collected, Section 103850, Health and Safety Code.

Blood-alcohol percentage test results, vehicular offenses, confidentiality of, Section 1804, Vehicle Code.

Business and professions licensee exemption for social security number, Section 30, Business and Professions Code.

Former Section 6276.06 included an entry for: “Bank employees, confidentiality of criminal history information, Sections 777.5 and 4990, Financial Code.” That entry has been revised to refer only to Financial Code Section 4990. The reference to Financial Code Section 777.5 is obsolete because that section has been repealed. See 2008 Cal. Stat. ch. 125, § 53.

Notes.

(1) Section 6276.06 includes an entry for: “Bank employees, confidentiality of criminal history information, Sections 777.5 and 4990, Financial Code.” However, Financial Code Section 777.5 has been repealed. See 2008 Cal. Stat. ch. 125, § 53.

The Commission is not aware of any new provision that continues the substance of the repealed section. Thus, proposed Section 7930.115 would include the entry quoted above, but it would only refer to Financial Code Section 4990. The accompanying Comment would explain the omission of Financial Code Section 777.5.

This drafting approach does not pose any risk of a substantive change, because the list of exemptions in this chapter is just an aid for CPRA users (not substantive law) and it does not purport to be exhaustive. See proposed Sections 7930.000 and 7930.005 (existing Sections 6275 and 6276).

If there is a replacement for former Section 777.5, however, it would be helpful to list it in proposed Section 7930.115. Does any such replacement exist?

(2) Section 6276.06 also includes an entry for: “Bank reports, confidentiality of, Section 289, Financial Code.” However, Financial Code Section 289 has been repealed (see 2011 Cal. Stat. ch. 243, § 1). Its substance has been moved to Financial Code Section 459 (compare 2008 Cal. Stat. ch. 501, § 9 with Fin. Code § 459). Accordingly, proposed Section 7930.115 would refer to Financial Code Section 459, instead of Financial Code Section 289.

The Commission welcomes input on any aspect of its proposed recodification, but it would especially appreciate public comment on these matters.

§ 7930.120. From “Cable television subscriber information” to “California Wine Grape Commission”

Comment. Section 7930.120 continues former Section 6276.08 without substantive change. For the source of the introductory clause, see the third sentence of former Section 6275 (“The statutes and constitutional provisions listed in this article may operate to exempt certain records, or portions thereof, from disclosure.”). That sentence is continued without substantive change in Section 7930.000 and essentially repeated in each section in this chapter.

§ 7930.125. From “Cancer registries” to “Community college employee”

Comment. Section 7930.125 continues former Section 6276.10 without substantive change. For the source of the introductory clause, see the third sentence of former Section 6275 (“The statutes and constitutional provisions listed in this article may operate to exempt certain records, or portions thereof, from disclosure.”). That sentence is continued without substantive change in Section 7930.000 and essentially repeated in each section in this chapter.

For guidance on using this chapter, see Sections 7930.000 (legislative intent & instructions) and 7930.005 (scope and effect of index). For special rules in the California Public Records Act (“CPRA”) that apply to specific types of public records, see Sections 7923.600-7929.600. For the CPRA catch-all exemption, see Section 7922.000.

Note. Section 6276.10 includes an entry for: “Community care facilities, confidentiality of client information, Section 1557.5, Health and Safety Code.” There are two, almost identical versions of Section 1557.5 in the Health and Safety Code. Because the two sections are almost identical, it is not necessary to differentiate between them. Like existing Section 6276.10, proposed Section 7930.125 would simply refer to “Section 1557.5, Health and Safety Code.”

§ 7930.130. From “Conservatee” to “Customer list of telephone answering service”

7930.130. The following provisions may operate to exempt certain records, or portions thereof, from disclosure pursuant to this division:

Customer list of employment agency, trade secret, Section 16607, Business and Professions Code.

Customer list of telephone answering service, trade secret, Section 16606, Business and Professions Code.

Comment. Section 7930.130 continues former Section 6276.12 without substantive change. For the source of the introductory clause, see the third sentence of former Section 6275 (“The statutes and constitutional provisions listed in this article may operate to exempt certain records, or portions thereof, from disclosure.”). That sentence is continued without substantive change in Section 7930.000 and essentially repeated in each section in this chapter.

Former Section 6276.12 included an entry for: “Contractor, license applicants, evidence of financial solvency, confidentiality of, Section 7067.5, Business and Professions Code.” That entry is not included in Section 7930.130 because it is obsolete. Business and Professions Code Section 7067.5 has been repealed. See 2015 Cal. Stat. ch. 656, § 8.

For guidance on using this chapter, see Sections 7930.000 (legislative intent & instructions) and 7930.005 (scope and effect of index). For special rules in the California Public Records Act (“CPRA”) that apply to specific types of public records, see Sections 7923.600-7929.600. For the CPRA catch-all exemption, see Section 7922.000.

Note. Section 6276.12 includes an entry for: “Contractor, license applicants, evidence of financial solvency, confidentiality of, Section 7067.5, Business and Professions Code.” However, Business and Professions Code Section 7067.5 has been repealed. See 2015 Cal. Stat. ch. 656, § 8.

There does not appear to be any replacement; former Section 7067.5’s requirement to submit evidence of financial solvency seems to have been eliminated in the bill that repealed the section and increased the amount of the required bond. Thus, (1) proposed Section 7930.130 would not include the entry quoted above, and (2) the accompanying Comment would explain this omission.

The Commission welcomes input on any aspect of its proposed recodification, but it would especially appreciate public comment on this matter.

§ 7930.135. From “Dairy Council of California” to “Driving school and driving instructor license records”

Comment. Section 7930.135 continues former Section 6276.14 without substantive change. For the source of the introductory clause, see the third sentence of former Section 6275 (“The statutes and constitutional provisions listed in this article may operate to exempt certain records, or portions thereof, from disclosure.”). That sentence is continued without substantive change in Section 7930.000 and essentially repeated in each section in this chapter.

Former Section 6276.14 included an entry for: “Developmentally disabled person, confidentiality of patient records, state agencies, Section 4553, Welfare and Institutions Code.” That entry has been revised because Welfare and Institutions Code Section 4553 was repealed in 2002 and replaced by a new provision that has nothing to do with record disclosure (see 2002 Cal. Stat. ch. 676, § 21). The substance of the repealed provision was moved to Welfare and Institutions

Section 7930.135 thus refers to Welfare and Institutions Code Section 4552.5, instead of Welfare and Institutions Code Section 4553.

For guidance on using this chapter, see Sections 7930.000 (legislative intent & instructions) and 7930.005 (scope and effect of index). For special rules in the California Public Records Act (“CPRA”) that apply to specific types of public records, see Sections 7923.600-7929.600. For the CPRA catch-all exemption, see Section 7922.000.

Note. Section 6276.14 includes an entry for: “Developmentally disabled person, confidentiality of patient records, state agencies, Section 4553, Welfare and Institutions Code.” However, Welfare and Institutions Code Section 4553 has been repealed and replaced by a new provision that has nothing to do with record disclosure. See 2002 Cal. Stat. ch. 676, § 21.

Accordingly, proposed Section 7930.135 would refer to Welfare and Institutions Code Section 4552.5, instead of Welfare and Institutions Code Section 4553.

The Commission welcomes input on any aspect of its proposed recodification, but it would especially appreciate public comment on this matter.

For the source of the introductory clause, see the third sentence of former Section 6275 (“The statutes and constitutional provisions listed in this article may operate to exempt certain records, or portions thereof, from disclosure.”). That sentence is continued without substantive change in Section 7930.000 and essentially repeated in each section in this chapter.

§ 7930.145. From “Family Court” to “Fur dealer licensee”

Family Court, records, Section 1818, Family Code.

Farm product processor license, confidentiality of financial statements, Section 55523.6, Food and Agricultural Code.

Franchises, applications, and reports filed with Commissioner of Corporations, disclosure and withholding from public inspection, Section 31504, Corporations Code.

Fur dealer licensee, confidentiality of records, Section 4041, Fish and Game Code.

Comment. Section 7930.145 continues former Section 6276.18 without substantive change. For the source of the introductory clause, see the third sentence of former Section 6275 (“The statutes and constitutional provisions listed in this article may operate to exempt certain records, or portions thereof, from disclosure.”). That sentence is continued without substantive change in Section 7930.000 and essentially repeated in each section in this chapter.

Former Section 6276.19 included an entry for: “Firearms, centralized list of exempted federal firearms licensees, disclosure of information compiled from, Sections 24850 to 24890, inclusive, Penal Code.” That entry has been revised to refer to Penal Code Sections 28475 and 28480. This revision corrects a transposition error (Penal Code §§ 24850-24890 do not exist but Penal Code §§ 28450-28490 do). The revision also deletes irrelevant material that used to be combined with the pertinent material in a long code section (see former Penal Code § 12083 (2009 Cal. Stat. ch. 334, § 4), which was repealed in 2010 and recodified as Penal Code §§ 28450-28490).

Former Section 6267.19 also included an entry for: “Firearms, centralized list of dealers and licensees, disclosure of information compiled from, Sections 26700 to 26915, inclusive, Penal Code.” That entry has been revised to refer only to Penal Code Section 26715. This revision deletes irrelevant material that used to be combined with the pertinent material in a long code section (see former Penal Code § 12071 (2009 Cal. Stat. ch. 335, § 10), which was repealed in 2010 and recodified as Penal Code §§ 26700-26915).

Another entry in former Section 6267.19 was for: “Firearm sale or transfer, confidentiality of records, Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 28050) of Division 6 of Title 4 of Part 6, Penal Code.” That entry has been revised to refer only to Penal Code Section 28060. This revision deletes irrelevant material that used to be combined with the pertinent material in a long code section (see former Penal Code § 12082 (2008 Cal. Stat. ch. 699, § 20), which was repealed in 2010 and recodified as Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 28050) of Division 6 of Title 4 of Part 6 of the Penal Code).

Notes.

(1) Section 6276.18 includes an entry for: “Firearms, centralized list of exempted federal firearms licensees, disclosure of information compiled from, Sections 24850 to 24890, inclusive, Penal Code.” (Emphasis added.) The italicized cross-reference is incorrect; there are no such sections in the Penal Code. The numbers were inadvertently transposed in conforming the cross-reference when the Commission’s deadly weapons recodification was enacted. The correct cross-reference is to Penal Code Sections 28450 to 28490, inclusive.

However, this should perhaps be shortened to refer only to Penal Code Sections 28475 and 28480, because the other code sections in the specified range appear to have nothing to do with record disclosure. They were just included in the Section 6276.18 entry because historically they used to be in the same lengthy code section as the material that is now in Penal Code Sections 28475 and 28480.

To help persons using the CPRA index focus on pertinent material, proposed Section 7930.145 would refer only to Penal Code Sections 28475 and 28480. The accompanying Comment would explain this revision.

(2) Section 6276.18 also includes an entry for: “Firearms, centralized list of dealers and licensees, disclosure of information compiled from, Sections 26700 to 26915, inclusive, Penal Code.” This entry should perhaps be shortened to refer only to Penal Code Section 26715, because the other code sections in the specified range appear to have nothing to do with record disclosure. They were just included in the Section 6276.18 entry because historically they used to be in the same lengthy code section as the material that is now in Penal Code Section 26715. To help persons using the exemption index focus on pertinent material, proposed Section 7930.145 would refer only to Penal Code Section 26715.

(3) Another entry in Section 6276.18 is for: “Firearm sale or transfer, confidentiality of records, Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 28050) of Division 6 of Title 4 of Part 6, Penal Code.” This entry should perhaps be shortened to refer only to Penal Code Section 28060, because the other code sections in the specified range appear to have nothing to do with record disclosure. They were just included in the Section 6276.18 entry because historically they used to be in the same lengthy code section as the material that is now in Penal Code Section 28060. To help persons using the exemption index focus on pertinent material, proposed Section 7930.145 would refer only to Penal Code Section 28060.

The Commission welcomes input on any aspect of its proposed recodification, but it would especially appreciate public comment on these matters.

§ 7930.150. From “Gambling Control Act” to “Guardianship”

Gambling Control Act, exemption from disclosure for records of the California Gambling Control Commission and the Department of Justice, Sections 19819 and 19821, Business and Professions Code.

Governor, transfer of public records in control of, restrictions on public access, Sections 7928.005 and 7928.010.

Grand jury, confidentiality of request for special counsel, Section 936.7, Penal Code.

Grand jury, confidentiality of transcription of indictment or accusation, Section 938.1, Penal Code.

Group Insurance, public employees, Section 53202.25.

Guardianship, confidentiality of report regarding the suitability of the proposed guardian, Section 1543, Probate Code.

Guardianship, disclosure of report and recommendation concerning proposed guardianship of person or estate, Section 1513, Probate Code.

Comment. Section 7930.150 continues former Section 6276.22 without substantive change. For the source of the introductory clause, see the third sentence of former Section 6275 ("The statutes and constitutional provisions listed in this article may operate to exempt certain records, or portions thereof, from disclosure."). That sentence is continued without substantive change in Section 7930.000 and essentially repeated in each section in this chapter.

§ 7930.155. From “Hazardous substance tax information” to “Housing authorities”

7930.155. The following provisions may operate to exempt certain records, or portions thereof, from disclosure pursuant to this division:

Hazardous substance tax information, prohibition against disclosure, Section 43651, Revenue and Taxation Code.

Hazardous waste control, business plans, public inspection, Section 25509, Health and Safety Code.

Hazardous waste control, notice of unlawful hazardous waste disposal, Section 25180.5, Health and Safety Code.

Hazardous waste control, trade secrets, disclosure of information, Sections 25512, 25512.1 and 25538, Health and Safety Code.

Hazardous waste licenseholder disclosure statement, confidentiality of, Section 25186.5, Health and Safety Code.

Hazardous waste recycling, list of specified hazardous wastes, trade secrets, Section 25175, Health and Safety Code.

Health care provider disciplinary proceeding, confidentiality of documents, Section 805.1, Business and Professions Code.

Health care service plans, review of quality of care, privileged communications, Sections 1370 and 1380, Health and Safety Code.

Health commissions, special county, confidentiality of peer review proceedings, rates of payment, and trade secrets, Section 14087.31, Welfare and Institutions Code.

Health care provider disciplinary proceeding, confidentiality of documents, Section 805.1, Business and Professions Code.

Health plans governed by a county board of supervisors, exemption from disclosure for records relating to provider rates or payments for a three-year period after execution of the provider contract, Sections 7926.205 and 54956.87.

Hereditary Disorders Act, legislative finding and declaration, confidential information, Sections 124975 and 124980, Health and Safety Code.

HIV, disclosures to blood banks by department or county health officers, Section 1603.1, Health and Safety Code.

Home address of public employees and officers in Department of Motor Vehicles, records, confidentiality, Sections 1808.2 and 1808.4, Vehicle Code.

Horse racing, horses, blood or urine test sample, confidentiality, Section 19577, Business and Professions Code.

Hospital district and municipal hospital records relating to contracts with insurers and service plans, Section 7926.210.

Hospital final accreditation report, Section 7926.000.

Housing authorities, confidentiality of rosters of tenants, Section 34283, Health and Safety Code.

Housing authorities, confidentiality of applications by prospective or current tenants, Section 34332, Health and Safety Code.

Former Section 6276.24 included an entry for: “Hazardous waste control, business plans, public inspection, Section 25506, Health and Safety Code.” That entry has been revised because Health and Safety Code Section 25506 was repealed in 2013 (see 2013 Cal. Stat. § 419, § 2). The current version of Health and Safety Code Section 25506 has nothing to do with record disclosure. The substance of the repealed provision was moved (with revisions) to Health and Safety Code Section 7930.155 thus refers to Health and Safety Code Section 25509, instead of Health and Safety Code
Section 25506.

Former Section 6276.24 also included an entry for: “Hazardous waste control, trade secrets, disclosure of information, Sections 25511 and 25538, Health and Safety Code.” That entry has been revised because Health and Safety Code Section 25511 was repealed in 2013 (see 2013 Cal. Stat.
ch. 419, § 2). The current version of Health and Safety Code Section 25511 has nothing to do with record disclosure. The substance of the repealed provision was moved (with revisions) to Health and Safety Code Sections 25512 and 25512.1 (compare 1985 Cal. Stat. ch. 1167, § 1 with Health & Safety Code §§ 25512, 25512.1). Section 7930.155 thus refers to Health and Safety Code Section 25512 and 25512.1, instead of Health and Safety Code Section 25511.

For guidance on using this chapter, see Sections 7930.000 (legislative intent & instructions) and 7930.005 (scope and effect of index). For special rules in the California Public Records Act (“CPRA”) that apply to specific types of public records, see Sections 7923.600-7929.600. For the CPRA catch-all exemption, see Section 7922.000.

Notes.

(1) Existing Section 6726.24 includes an entry for: “Hazardous waste control, business plans, public inspection, Section 25506, Health and Safety Code.” However, the version of Health and Safety Code Section 25506 relating to record disclosure was repealed in 2013. See 2013 Cal. Stat.
§ 419, § 2. The current version of Health and Safety Code Section 25506 has nothing to do with record disclosure.

The substance of former Health and Safety Code Section 25506 appears to have been moved (with revisions) to Health and Safety Code Section 25509 (compare 1988 Cal. Stat. ch. 1585, § 7 with Health & Safety Code § 25509). Accordingly, proposed Section 7930.155 would refer to

(2) Existing Section 6276.24 includes an entry for: “Hazardous waste control, trade secrets, disclosure of information, Sections 25511 and 25538, Health and Safety Code.” However, the version of Health and Safety Code Section 25511 relating to record disclosure was repealed in

The substance of former Health and Safety Code Section 25511 appears to have been moved ch. 1167, § 1 with Health & Safety Code §§ 25512, 25512.1). Accordingly, proposed Section 7930.155 would refer to Health and Safety Code Sections 25512 and 25512.1, instead of Health and Safety Code Section 25511.

The Commission welcomes input on any aspect of its proposed recodification, but it would especially appreciate public comment on these matters.

§ 7930.160. From “Improper governmental activities reporting” to “Investigative consumer reporting agency”

7930.160. The following provisions may operate to exempt certain records, or portions thereof, from disclosure pursuant to this division:

Improper governmental activities reporting, confidentiality of identity of person providing information, Section 8547.5.
Improper governmental activities reporting, disclosure of information, Section 8547.6.

Industrial loan companies, confidentiality of financial information, Section 18496, Financial Code.

Industrial loan companies, confidentiality of investigation and examination reports, Section 18394, Financial Code.

Influenza vaccine, trade secret information and information relating to recipient of vaccine, Section 120160, Health and Safety Code.

In forma pauperis litigant, rules governing confidentiality of financial information, Section 68633.

Infrastructure information, exemption from disclosure for information voluntarily submitted to the Office of Emergency Services, Section 7929.205.

In-Home Supportive Services Program, exemption from disclosure for information regarding persons paid by the state to provide in-home supportive services, Section 7926.300.

Initiative, referendum, recall, and other petitions, confidentiality of names of signers, Sections 7924.100, 7924.105, and 7924.110.

Insurance claims analysis, confidentiality of information, Section 1875.16, Insurance Code.

Insurance Commissioner, confidential information, Sections 735.5, 1067.11, 1077.3, and 12919, Insurance Code.

Insurance Commissioner, informal conciliation of complaints, confidential communications, Section 1858.02, Insurance Code.

Insurance Commissioner, information from examination or investigation, confidentiality of, Sections 1215.8, 1433, and 1759.3, Insurance Code.

Insurance Commissioner, writings filed with nondisclosure, Section 855, Insurance Code.

Insurance fraud reporting, information acquired not part of public record, Section 1873.1, Insurance Code.

Insurance licensee, confidential information, Section 1666.5, Insurance Code.

Insurer application information, confidentiality of, Section 925.3, Insurance Code.

Insurer financial analysis ratios and examination synopses, confidentiality of, Section 933, Insurance Code.

Department of Resources Recycling and Recovery information, prohibition against disclosure, Section 45982, Revenue and Taxation Code.

International wills, confidentiality of registration information filed with the Secretary of State, Section 6389, Probate Code.

Intervention in regulatory and ratemaking proceedings, audit of customer seeking and award, Section 1804, Public Utilities Code.

Investigation and security records, exemption from disclosure for records of the Attorney General, the Department of Justice, the Office of Emergency Services, and state and local police agencies, Sections 7923.600 to 7923.625, inclusive.
Investigative consumer reporting agency, limitations on furnishing an investigative consumer report, Section 1786.12, Civil Code.

Comment. Section 7930.160 continues former Section 6276.26 without substantive change. For the source of the introductory clause, see the third sentence of former Section 6275 (“The statutes and constitutional provisions listed in this article may operate to exempt certain records, or portions thereof, from disclosure.”). That sentence is continued without substantive change in Section 7930.000 and essentially repeated in each section in this chapter.

Former Section 6276.26 also included an entry for: “In forma pauperis litigant, rules governing confidentiality of financial information, Section 68511.3.” That entry has been revised because Section 68511.3 was repealed (see 2008 Cal. Stat. ch. 462, § 1). Similar (but not identical) material relating to record disclosure is now located in Section 68633 (compare former Section 68511.3(a)(4)-(5) & (c)(1) (2006 Cal. Stat. ch. 538, § 326) with Section 68633(f)). Proposed Section 7930.160 would thus refer to Section 68633, instead of Section 68511.3.

Another entry in former Section 6276.26 was for: “Insurance Commissioner, information from examination or investigation, confidentiality of, Sections 1215.7, 1433, and 1759.3, Insurance Code.” That entry has been revised because the version of Insurance Code Section 1215.7 relating to record disclosure (1969 Cal. Stat. ch. 1275, § 1) was amended and renumbered as Insurance Code Section 1215.8 (see 2012 Cal Stat. ch. 282, § 8). Proposed Section 7930.160 would thus refer to Insurance Code Section 1215.8, instead of Insurance Code Section 1215.7.

Notes.

(1) Existing Section 6276.26 includes an entry for: “Influenza vaccine, trade secret information and information relating to recipient of vaccine, Section 120155, Health and Safety Code.” However, the version of Health and Safety Code Section 120155 relating to trade secrets and record disclosure (2007 Cal. Stat. ch. 130, § 174) has been amended and renumbered as Health and Safety Code Section 120160 (see 2015 Cal. Stat. ch. 303, § 347). The current version of Health and Safety Code Section 120155 has nothing to do with record disclosure. Accordingly, proposed Section 7930.160 would refer to Health and Safety Code Section 120160, instead of Health and Safety Code Section 120155.

(2) Existing Section 6276.26 also includes an entry for: “In forma pauperis litigant, rules governing confidentiality of financial information, Section 68511.3.” However, Section 68511.3 has been repealed (see 2008 Cal. Stat. ch. 462, § 1). Similar (but not identical) material relating to record disclosure is now located in Section 68633 (compare former Section 68511.3(a)(4)-(5) & (c)(1) (2006 Cal. Stat. ch. 538, § 326) with Section 68633(f)). Accordingly, proposed Section 7930.160 would refer to Section 68633, instead of Section 68511.3. This drafting approach does not pose any risk of a substantive change, because the list of exemptions in this chapter is just an aid for CPRA users (not substantive law). See proposed Section 7930.000 (existing Section 6275).

(3) Another entry in existing Section 6276.26 is for: “Insurance Commissioner, information from examination or investigation, confidentiality of, Sections 1215.7, 1433, and 1759.3, Insurance Code.” However, the current version of Insurance Code Section 1215.7 has nothing to do with record disclosure. The version of Insurance Code Section 1215.7 relating to record disclosure (1969
Cal. Stat. ch. 1275, § 1) was amended and renumbered as Insurance Code Section 1215.8 (see 2012 Cal Stat. ch. 282, § 8). Accordingly, proposed Section 7930.160 would refer to Insurance Code Section 1215.8, instead of Insurance Code Section 1215.7.

The Commission welcomes input on any aspect of its proposed recodification, but it would especially appreciate public comment on these matters.

§ 7930.165. From “Joint Legislative Ethics Committee” to “Los Angeles County Tourism Marketing Commission”

Los Angeles County Tourism Marketing Commission, confidentiality of information obtained from businesses to determine their assessment, Section 13995.108.

Comment. Section 7930.165 continues former Section 6276.28 without substantive change. For the source of the introductory clause, see the third sentence of former Section 6275 (“The statutes and constitutional provisions listed in this article may operate to exempt certain records, or portions thereof, from disclosure.”). That sentence is continued without substantive change in Section 7930.000 and essentially repeated in each section in this chapter.

Former Section 6276.28 included an entry for: “Labor dispute, investigation and mediation records, confidentiality of, Section 65, Labor Code.” That entry has been revised because Labor Code Section 65 was repealed (see 2012 Cal. Stat. ch. 46, § 78). The substance of former Labor Code Section 65 was moved to Section 3601 (compare former Labor Code Section 65 (1997 Cal. Stat. ch. 772, § 11) with Section 3601). Proposed Section 6278.28 would thus refer to Section 3601, instead of Labor Code Section 65.

For guidance on using this chapter, see Sections 7930.000 (legislative intent & instructions) and 7930.005 (scope and effect of index). For special rules in the California Public Records Act (“CPRA”) that apply to specific types of public records, see Sections 7923.600-7929.600. For the CPRA catch-all exemption, see Section 7922.000.

Note. Existing Section 6276.28 includes an entry for: “Labor dispute, investigation and mediation records, confidentiality of, Section 65, Labor Code.” However, Labor Code Section 65 has been repealed (see 2012 Cal. Stat. ch. 46, § 78). Its substance has been moved to Section 3601 (compare former Labor Code Section 65 (1997 Cal. Stat. ch. 772, § 11) with Section 3601). Accordingly, proposed Section 6278.28 would refer to Section 3601, instead of Labor Code Section 65.

The Commission welcomes input on any aspect of its proposed recodification, but it would especially appreciate public comment on this matter.

criminal investigation, Section 54957.8.

Comment. Section 7930.170 continues former Section 6276.30 without substantive change. For the source of the introductory clause, see the third sentence of former Section 6275 (“The statutes and constitutional provisions listed in this article may operate to exempt certain records, or portions thereof, from disclosure.”). That sentence is continued without substantive change in Section 7930.000 and essentially repeated in each section in this chapter.

Former Section 6276.30 included an entry for: “Managed care health plans, confidentiality of proprietary information, Section 14091.3 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.” That entry is not included in Section 7930.170 because it is obsolete. Welfare and Institutions Code Section 14091.3 (2012 Cal. Stat. ch. 23, § 81) was repealed by its own terms on January 1, 2014.

Notes.

(1) Existing Section 6276.30 includes an entry for: “Managed care health plans, confidentiality of proprietary information, Section 14091.3 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.” However, Welfare and Institutions Code Section 14091.3 (2012 Cal. Stat. ch. 23, § 81) was repealed by its own terms on January 1, 2014.

The Commission is not aware of any new provision that continues the substance of the repealed section. Thus, proposed Section 7930.170 would not include the entry quoted above. The accompanying Comment would explain this omission.

This drafting approach does not pose any risk of a substantive change, because the list of exemptions in this chapter is just an aid for CPRA users (not substantive law) and it does not purport to be exhaustive. See proposed Sections 7930.000 and 7930.005 (existing Sections 6275 and 6276).

If there is a replacement for former Welfare and Institutions Code Section 14091.3 (2012 Cal. Stat. ch. 23, § 81), however, it would be helpful to list it in proposed Section 7930.170. Does such a replacement exist?

(2) Existing Section 6276.30 also includes an entry for: “Mentally disordered or mentally ill person, weapons restrictions, confidentiality of information about, Section 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.” At present, there are two versions of Welfare and Institutions Code Section 8103: A version that will sunset by its own terms on January 1, 2020 (2018 Cal. Stat. ch. 861, § 1) and a version that will become operative on January 1, 2020 (2018 Cal. Stat. ch. 861, § 2). However, both versions contain the same language regarding record disclosure (see subdivision (e)(3)). Consequently, proposed Section 7930.170, like existing Section 6276.30, would simply refer to “Section 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.”

The Commission welcomes input on any aspect of its proposed recodification, but it would especially appreciate public comment on these matters.

§ 7930.175. From “Narcotic addict outpatient revocation proceeding” to “Osteopathic physician and surgeon”

7930.175. The following provisions may operate to exempt certain records, or portions thereof, from disclosure pursuant to this division:

Organic food certification organization records, release of, Section 110845, Health and Safety Code.

Osteopathic physician and surgeon, rehabilitation and diversion records, confidentiality of, Section 2369, Business and Professions Code.

Comment. Section 7930.175 continues former Section 6276.32 without substantive change. For the source of the introductory clause, see the third sentence of former Section 6275 (“The statutes and constitutional provisions listed in this article may operate to exempt certain records, or portions thereof, from disclosure.”). That sentence is continued without substantive change in Section 7930.000 and essentially repeated in each section in this chapter.

Former Section 6276.32 included an entry for: “Narcotic addict outpatient revocation proceeding, confidentiality of reports, Section 3152.5, Welfare and Institutions Code.” That entry is not included in Section 7930.175 because it is obsolete. Welfare and Institutions Code Section 3152.5 (1978 Cal. Stat. ch. 856, § 5) was repealed by the terms of former Welfare and Institutions Code Section 3202 (see 2012 Cal. Stat. ch. 41, § 119).

For guidance on using this chapter, see Sections 7930.000 (legislative intent & instructions) and 7930.005 (scope and effect of index). For special rules in the California Public Records Act (“CPRA”) that apply to specific types of public records, see Sections 7923.600-7929.600. For the CPRA catch-all exemption, see Section 7922.000.

Note. Existing Section 6276.32 includes an entry for: “Narcotic addict outpatient revocation proceeding, confidentiality of reports, Section 3152.5, Welfare and Institutions Code.” However, Welfare and Institutions Code Section 3152.5 (1978 Cal. Stat. ch. 856, § 5) was repealed by the terms of former Welfare and Institutions Code Section 3202 (see 2012 Cal. Stat. ch. 41, § 119).

The Commission is not aware of any new provision that continues the substance of the repealed section. Thus, (1) proposed Section 7930.175 would not include the entry quoted above, and (2) the accompanying Comment would explain this omission.

This drafting approach does not pose any risk of a substantive change, because the list of exemptions in this chapter is just an aid for CPRA users (not substantive law) and it does not purport to be exhaustive. See proposed Sections 7930.000 and 7930.005 (existing Sections 6275 and 6276).
If there is a replacement for former Welfare and Institutions Code Section 3152.5 (1978 Cal. Stat. ch. 856, § 5), however, it would be helpful to list it in proposed Section 7930.175. Does such a replacement exist?

The Commission welcomes input on any aspect of its proposed recodification, but it would especially appreciate public comment on this matter.

§ 7930.180. From “Parole revocation proceedings” to “Postmortem or autopsy photos”

7930.180. The following provisions may operate to exempt certain records, or portions thereof, from disclosure pursuant to this division:

Postmortem or autopsy photos, Section 129, Code of Civil Procedure.

Comment. Section 7930.180 continues former Section 6276.34 without substantive change. For the source of the introductory clause, see the third sentence of former Section 6275 (“The statutes and constitutional provisions listed in this article may operate to exempt certain records, or portions thereof, from disclosure.”). That sentence is continued without substantive change in Section 7930.000 and essentially repeated in each section in this chapter.

Former Section 6276.34 included an entry for: “Payment instrument licensee records, inspection of, Section 33206, Financial Code.” That entry is not included in Section 7930.180 because it is obsolete. Financial Code Section 33206 (1996 Cal. Stat. ch. 1064, § 712) has been repealed. See 2010 Cal. Stat. ch. 612, § 4.

Former Section 6276.34 also included an entry for: “Physician and surgeon, rehabilitation and diversion records, confidentiality of, Section 2355, Business and Professions Code.” That entry is not included in Section 7930.180 because it is obsolete. Business and Professions Code Section 2355 (2000 Cal. Stat. ch. 836, § 12) has been repealed. See 2005 Cal. Stat. ch. 674, § 16 (sunset clause, operative Jan. 1, 2009).

Notes.

(1) Existing Section 6276.34 includes an entry for: “Payment instrument licensee records, inspection of, Section 33206, Financial Code.” However, Financial Code Section 33206 (1996 Cal. Stat. ch. 1064, § 712) was part of the Payment Instruments Law (former Fin. Code § 33000 et seq.), which was repealed by a bill enacted in 2010. See 2010 Cal. Stat. ch. 612, § 4.

That bill also repealed the Money Abroad Law (former Fin. Code § 1800 et seq.) and the Travelers Check Act (former Fin. Code § 1851 et seq.). Much of the substance of these three repealed bodies of law was consolidated into the Money Transmission Act (Fin. Code §§ 1800-1872). See, e.g., Senate Committee on Banking, Finance & Insurance Analysis of AB 2789 (June 30, 2010).

The Commission has not found any new provision that continues the substance of the former Financial Code Section 33206. Thus, proposed Section 7930.180 would not include the entry quoted above. The accompanying Comment would explain this omission.

This drafting approach does not pose any risk of a substantive change, because the list of exemptions in this chapter is just an aid for CPRA users (not substantive law) and it does not purport to be exhaustive. See proposed Sections 7930.000 and 7930.005 (existing Sections 6275 and 6276). If there is a replacement for former Financial Code Section 33206 (1996 Cal. Stat. ch. 1064, § 712), however, it would be helpful to list it in proposed Section 7930.180. Does such a replacement exist?

(2) Existing Section 6276.34 also includes an entry for: “Persons with mental health disorders, weapons restrictions, confidentiality of information about, Section 8103, Welfare and Institutions Code.” At present, there are two versions of Welfare and Institutions Code Section 8103: A version that will sunset by its own terms on January 1, 2020 (2018 Cal. Stat. ch. 861, § 1) and a version that will become operative on January 1, 2020 (2018 Cal. Stat. ch. 861, § 2). However, both versions contain the same language regarding record disclosure (see subdivision (e)(3)). Consequently, proposed Section 7930.180, like existing Section 6276.34, would simply refer to “Section 8103, Welfare and Institutions Code.”

(3) Another entry in existing Section 6276.34 is for: “Physician and surgeon, rehabilitation and diversion records, confidentiality of, Section 2355, Business and Professions Code.” However, Business and Professions Code Section 2355 (2000 Cal. Stat. ch. 836, § 12) has been repealed. See 2005 Cal. Stat. ch. 674, § 16 (sunset clause, operative Jan. 1, 2009).

The Commission has not found any new provision that continues the substance of the former Business and Professions Code Section 2355; the diversion programs to which it pertained appear to have been discontinued. Thus, proposed Section 7930.180 would not include the entry quoted above. The accompanying Comment would explain this omission.

The Commission welcomes input on any aspect of its proposed recodification, but it would especially appreciate public comment on these matters.

Pupil record contents, records of administrative hearing to change contents, confidentiality of, Section 49070, Education Code.

Pupil records, access authorized for specified parties, Section 49076, Education Code.

Pupil records, disclosure in hearing to dismiss or suspend school employee, Section 44944.3, Education Code.

Pupil records, release of directory information to private entities, Sections 49073 and 49073.5, Education Code.

Comment. Section 7930.185 continues former Section 6276.36 without substantive change. For the source of the introductory clause, see the third sentence of former Section 6275 (“The statutes and constitutional provisions listed in this article may operate to exempt certain records, or portions thereof, from disclosure.”). That sentence is continued without substantive change in Section 7930.000 and essentially repeated in each section in this chapter.

Former Section 6276.36 included an entry for: “Public Employees’ Retirement System, confidentiality of data filed by member or beneficiary with board of administration, Section 20134.” That entry has been revised because Section 20134 was repealed and its substance moved to Section 20230. See 1995 Cal. Stat. ch. 379, § 1; compare 1985 Cal. Stat. ch. 1508, § 1 with Section 20230. Section 7930.185 would thus refer to Section 20230, instead of Section 20134.

Former Section 6276.36 also included an entry for: “Pupil records, disclosure in hearing to dismiss or suspend school employee, Section 44944.1, Education Code.” That entry has been revised because Section 44944.1 was repealed and added, and the new provision does not address record disclosure (see 2014 Cal. Stat. ch. 55, §§ 17, 18). The substance of the repealed provision has been moved to Education Code Section 44944.3 (compare 1985 Cal. Stat. ch. 324, § 3 (former Educ. Code § 44944.1) with Educ. Code § 44944.3). Proposed Section 7930.135 would thus refer to Education Code Section 44944.3, instead of Education Code Section 44944.1.

Notes.

(1) Existing Section 6276.36 includes an entry for: “Public Employees’ Retirement System, confidentiality of data filed by member or beneficiary with board of administration, Section 20134.” However, Section 20134 has been repealed (see 1995 Cal. Stat. ch. 379, § 1). Its substance has been moved to Section 20230 (compare 1985 Cal. Stat. ch. 1508, § 1 with Section 20230). Accordingly, proposed Section 7930.185 would refer to Section 20230, instead of Section 20134.

(2) Existing Section 6276.36 also includes an entry for: “Pupil records, disclosure in hearing to dismiss or suspend school employee, Section 44944.1, Education Code.” However, Education Code Section 44944.1 was repealed and added, and the new provision does not address record disclosure. See 2014 Cal. Stat. ch. 55, §§ 17, 18.

The substance of the repealed provision has been moved to Education Code Section 44944.3. Compare 1985 Cal. Stat. ch. 324, § 3 (former Educ. Code § 44944.1) with Educ. Code § 44944.3. Accordingly, proposed Section 7930.185 would refer to Education Code Section 44944.3, instead of Education Code Section 44944.1.

The Commission welcomes input on any aspect of its proposed recodification, but it would especially appreciate public comment on these matters.

§ 7930.190. From “Radioactive materials” to “Reward by Governor”

Records of contract purchasers, inspection by public prohibited, Section 85, Military and Veterans Code.
Records of persons committed to a state hospital pursuant to Section 4135 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

Registered public obligations, inspection of records of security interests in, Section 5060.

Registration of exempt vehicles, nondisclosure of name of person involved in alleged violation, Section 5003, Vehicle Code.

Rehabilitation, Department of, confidential information, Section 19016, Welfare and Institutions Code.

Residence address in any record of Department of Housing and Community Development, confidentiality of, Section 7927.415.

Residence address in any record of Department of Motor Vehicles, confidentiality of, Section 7927.405, Government Code, and Section 1808.21, Vehicle Code.

Residence and mailing addresses in records of Department of Motor Vehicles, confidentiality of, Section 1810.7, Vehicle Code.

Residential care facilities, confidentiality of resident information, Section 1568.08, Health and Safety Code.

Residential care facilities for the elderly, confidentiality of client information, Section 1569.315, Health and Safety Code.

Resource families, identifying information, Section 16519.55, Welfare and Institutions Code.

Restraint of trade, civil action by district attorney, confidential memorandum, Section 16750, Business and Professions Code.

Reward by Governor for information leading to arrest and conviction, confidentiality of person supplying information, Section 1547, Penal Code.

Comment. Section 7930.190 continues former Section 6276.38. For the source of the introductory clause, see the third sentence of former Section 6275 (“The statutes and constitutional provisions listed in this article may operate to exempt certain records, or portions thereof, from disclosure.”). That sentence is continued without substantive change in Section 7930.000 and essentially repeated in each section in this chapter.
The last entry in former Section 6276.38 was for: “Safe surrender site, confidentiality of information pertaining to a parent or individual surrendering a child, Section 1255.7, Health and Safety Code.” That entry is not included in Section 7930.190. Instead, it is included in Section 7930.195, together with other entries that begin with “S.”

For guidance on using this chapter, see Sections 7930.000 (legislative intent & instructions) and 7930.005 (scope and effect of index). For special rules in the California Public Records Act (“CPRA”) that apply to specific types of public records, see Sections 7923.600-7929.600. For the CPRA catch-all exemption, see Section 7922.000.

Both versions require a residential care facility for the elderly to keep and protect “the privacy and confidentiality of” certain records. Most of the differences between the versions are stylistic, but only the first version applies to “the … address … of the client’s physician ….”

Like existing Section 6276.38, proposed Section 7930.190 would simply refer to “Section 1569.315, Health and Safety Code.” Is that the best way to handle this situation?

The Commission welcomes input on any aspect of its proposed recodification, but it would especially appreciate public comment on this matter.

§ 7930.195. From “Safe surrender site” to “Social security numbers within records of local agencies”

7930.195. The following provisions may operate to exempt certain records, or portions thereof, from disclosure pursuant to this division:

Safe surrender site, confidentiality of information pertaining to a parent or individual surrendering a child, Section 1255.7, Health and Safety Code.

Sales and use tax, disclosure of information, Section 7056, Revenue and Taxation Code.

Santa Barbara Regional Health Authority, exemption from disclosure for records maintained by the authority regarding negotiated rates for the California Medical Assistance Program, Section 14499.6, Welfare and Institutions Code.

Savings association employees, disclosure of criminal history information, Section 6525, Financial Code.

Savings associations, inspection of records by shareholders, Section 6050, Financial Code.

School district governing board, disciplinary action, disclosure of pupil information, Section 35146, Education Code.

School meals for needy pupils, confidentiality of records, Section 49558, Education Code.

Sexual assault forms, confidentiality of, Section 13823.5, Penal Code.

Sexual assault counselor and victim, confidential communication, Sections 1035.2, 1035.4, and 1035.8, Evidence Code.

Shorthand reporter’s complaint, Section 8010, Business and Professions Code.

Small family day care homes, identifying information, Section 1596.86, Health and Safety Code.

Social security number, applicant for driver’s license or identification card, nondisclosure of, Section 1653.5, Vehicle Code, and Section 7922.200.

Social Security Number Truncation Program, Article 3.5 (commencing with Section 27300), Chapter 6, Part 3, Division 2, Title 3.

Social security numbers within records of local agencies, nondisclosure of, Section 7922.200.

Comment. Section 7930.195 continues former Section 6276.40. For the source of the introductory clause, see the third sentence of former Section 6275 (“The statutes and constitutional provisions listed in this article may operate to exempt certain records, or portions thereof, from disclosure.”). That sentence is continued without substantive change in Section 7930.000 and essentially repeated in each section in this chapter.

Former Section 6276.38 consisted of entries beginning with “R,” plus an entry for: “Safe surrender site, confidentiality of information pertaining to a parent or individual surrendering a child, Section 1255.7, Health and Safety Code.” The quoted entry belongs with other entries that begin with “S,” not with entries that begin with “R.” Thus, the quoted entry is recodified here in Section 7930.195, not in Section 7930.190.

For guidance on using this chapter, see Sections 7930.000 (legislative intent & instructions) and 7930.005 (scope and effect of index). For special rules in the California Public Records Act (“CPRA”) that apply to specific types of public records, see Sections 7923.600-7929.600. For the CPRA catch-all exemption, see Section 7922.000.

Note. Existing Section 6276.40 includes an entry for: “Social security number, applicant for driver’s license or identification card, nondisclosure of, Section 1653.5, Vehicle Code ....” At present, there are two versions of Vehicle Code Section 1653.5, with different rules governing when they are operative: (1) 2014 Cal. Stat. ch. 452, § 2, and (2) 2014 Cal. Stat. ch. 71, § 168. Both versions restrict disclosure of the social security number of an applicant for a driver’s license or identification card. For that reason, and because only one version will be operative at a time, proposed Section 7930.195, like existing Section 6276.40, would simply refer to “Section 1653.5, Vehicle Code ....” The Commission welcomes input on any aspect of its proposed recodification, but it would especially appreciate public comment on this matter.
§ 7930.200. From “State agency activities relating to unrepresented employees” to “Sturgeon egg processors” 7930.200. The following provisions may operate to exempt certain records, or portions thereof, from disclosure pursuant to this division:
State agency activities relating to unrepresented employees, Section 7928.405.
State agency activities relating to providers of health care, Section 7927.500.

Section 18952.

materials, Section 18934.
State Compensation Insurance Fund, exemption from disclosure for various records maintained by the State Compensation Insurance Fund, Sections 7929.400 to 7929.430, inclusive.
State Contract Act, bids, questionnaires and financial statements, Section 10165, Public Contract Code.
State Contract Act, bids, sealing, opening and reading bids, Section 10304, Public Contract Code.
State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission, confidentiality of proprietary information submitted to, Section 25223, Public Resources Code.

of Public Instruction, confidentiality of, Section 56863, Education Code.
State Long-Term Care Ombudsman, access to government agency records, Section 9723, Welfare and Institutions Code.
State Long-Term Care Ombudsman office, confidentiality of records and files,
Section 9725, Welfare and Institutions Code.
State Long-Term Care Ombudsman office, disclosure of information or communications, Section 9715, Welfare and Institutions Code.
State Lottery Evaluation Report, disclosure, Section 8880.46.
State prisoners, exemption from disclosure for surveys by the California Research Bureau of children of female prisoners, Section 7443, Penal Code.
State summary criminal history information, confidentiality of information, Sections 11105, 11105.1, 11105.3, and 11105.4, Penal Code.
State Teachers’ Retirement System, confidentiality of information filed with the system by a member, participant, or beneficiary, Section 22306, Education Code.
Sterilization of disabled, confidentiality of evaluation report, Section 1955, Probate Code.
Strawberry marketing information, confidentiality of, Section 63124, Food and Agricultural Code.
Structural pest control licensee records relating to pesticide use, confidentiality of, Section 15205, Food and Agricultural Code.

Student driver, records of physical or mental condition, confidentiality of, Section 12661, Vehicle Code.

Student, community college, information received by school counselor, confidentiality of, Section 72621, Education Code.

Student, community college, records, limitations on release, Section 76243, Education Code.

Student, community college, record contents, records of administrative hearing to change contents, confidentiality of, Section 76232, Education Code.

Student, sexual assault on private higher education institution campus, confidentiality of information, Section 94385, Education Code.

Student, sexual assault on public college or university, confidentiality of information, Section 67385, Education Code.

Sturgeon egg processors, records, Section 10004, Fish and Game Code.

Comment. Section 7930.200 continues former Section 6276.42 without substantive change. For the source of the introductory clause, see the third sentence of former Section 6275 (“The statutes and constitutional provisions listed in this article may operate to exempt certain records, or portions thereof, from disclosure.”). That sentence is continued without substantive change in Section 7930.000 and essentially repeated in each section in this chapter.

Former Section 6276.42 included an entry for: “State Teachers’ Retirement System, confidentiality of information filed with the system by a member, participant, or beneficiary, Sections 22306 and 26215, Education Code.” That entry has been revised to refer only to Education Code Section 22306. The reference to Education Code Section 26215 is obsolete because that section was repealed as redundant. See 2017 Cal. Stat. ch. 298, § 11; Senate Committee on Public Employment & Retirement Analysis of AB 1325 (July 10, 2017), p. 5.

For guidance on using this chapter, see Sections 7930.000 (legislative intent & instructions) and 7930.005 (scope and effect of index). For special rules in the California Public Records Act (“CPRA”) that apply to specific types of public records, see Sections 7923.600-7929.600. For the CPRA catch-all exemption, see Section 7922.000.

Note. Existing Section 6276.42 includes an entry for: “State Teachers’ Retirement System, confidentiality of information filed with the system by a member, participant, or beneficiary, Sections 22306 and 26215, Education Code.” However, Education Code Section 26215 has been repealed, apparently because it was considered redundant with Education Code Section 22306. See 2017 Cal. Stat. ch. 298, § 11; Senate Committee on Public Employment & Retirement Analysis of AB 1325 (July 10, 2017), p. 5.

Thus, proposed Section 7930.200 would include the entry quoted above, but it would only refer to Education Code Section 22306. The accompanying Comment would explain the omission of Education Code Section 26215.

The Commission welcomes input on any aspect of its proposed recodification, but it would especially appreciate public comment on this matter.

§ 7930.205. From “Taxpayer information” to “Trust companies”

7930.205. The following provisions may operate to exempt certain records, or portions thereof, from disclosure pursuant to this division:

Taxpayer information, confidentiality, local taxes, Section 7925.000.

Trade secrets, protection by Director of Industrial Relations, Section 6396, Labor Code.

Tribal-state gaming contracts, exemption from disclosure for records of an Indian tribe relating to securitization of annual payments, Section 63048.63.

Trust companies, disclosure of private trust confidential information, Section 1602, Financial Code.

Comment. Section 7930.205 continues former Section 6276.44 without substantive change. For the source of the introductory clause, see the third sentence of former Section 6275 (“The statutes and constitutional provisions listed in this article may operate to exempt certain records, or portions thereof, from disclosure.”). That sentence is continued without substantive change in Section 7930.000 and essentially repeated in each section in this chapter.

Former Section 6276.44 included an entry for: “Trust companies, disclosure of private trust confidential information, Section 1582, Financial Code.” That entry has been revised because Financial Code Section 1582 was repealed in 2011 and replaced by a new provision that has nothing to do with disclosure of private trust confidential information (see 2011 Cal. Stat. ch. 243, §§ 1, 3). The substance of the repealed provision was moved to Financial Code Section 1602 (compare former Fin. Code § 1582 (1996 Cal. Stat. ch. 1064, § 212) with Fin. Code § 1602). Section 7930.205 thus refers to Financial Code Section 1602, instead of Financial Code Section 1582.

For guidance on using this chapter, see Sections 7930.000 (legislative intent & instructions) and 7930.005 (scope and effect of index). For special rules in the California Public Records Act (“CPRA”) that apply to specific types of public records, see Sections 7923.600-7929.600. For the CPRA catch-all exemption, see Section 7922.000.

Note. Existing Section 6276.44 includes an entry for: “Trust companies, disclosure of private trust confidential information, Section 1582, Financial Code.” However, Financial Code Section 1582 was repealed and added in 2011, and the new provision has nothing to do with disclosure of private trust confidential information. See 2011 Cal. Stat. ch. 243, §§ 1, 3.

The Commission welcomes input on any aspect of its proposed recodification, but it would especially appreciate public comment on this matter.

Unclaimed property, Controller records of, disclosure, Section 1582, Code of Civil Procedure.

Unemployment compensation, disclosure of confidential information, Section 2111, Unemployment Insurance Code.

Voting, secrecy, Section 1050, Evidence Code.

Wards and dependent children, inspection of juvenile court documents, Section 827, Welfare and Institutions Code.

Comment. Section 7930.210 continues former Section 6276.46 without substantive change. For the source of the introductory clause, see the third sentence of former Section 6275 (“The statutes and constitutional provisions listed in this article may operate to exempt certain records, or portions thereof, from disclosure.”). That sentence is continued without substantive change in Section 7930.000 and essentially repeated in each section in this chapter.

UNCODIFIED

Legislative findings

SEC. _____. This act would recodify the California Public Records Act (Sections 6250 to 6276.48, inclusive, of the Government Code) in a more user-friendly manner without changing its substance, and make conforming revisions. Consistent with subdivision (b) of Section 3 of Article I of the California Constitution, the Legislature finds and declares:

(1) This act continues the existing substantive balance between the public’s right of access to information concerning the conduct of public business and competing interests. This act does not impose any new limitation on the public’s right of access, which would require findings demonstrating the interest protected by the new limitation and the need for protecting that interest.
(2) By making the California Public Records Act more user-friendly, this act furthers the public’s right of access to information concerning the conduct of public business.

Operative date
SEC. ____. This act becomes operative on ______.

APPENDIX A. CORRECTED CROSS-REFERENCES

In tentatively reorganizing the CPRA, the Commission identified some provisions that appear to contain one or more incomplete or incorrect cross-references. Where the proper cross-reference is obvious, the Commission corrected the cross-reference in its proposed legislation. That approach seems more sensible than tentatively proposing to perpetuate a plainly incorrect cross-reference. Those instances are described in detail below.

- Section 6252(a), defining “local agency,” cross-refers to “subdivisions (c) and (d) of Section 54952.” It seems improbable, however, that the Legislature intended to require an entity to satisfy the requirements of both subdivisions to qualify as a “local agency” under Section 6252(a) for purposes of the CPRA. Proposed Section 7920.510 (continuing the substance of Section 6252(a)) would correct this problem by referring instead to “subdivision (c) or (d) of Section 54952.”

- Section 6253.2 cross-refers to Welfare and Institutions Code Section 12302.25. The 2018 maintenance of the codes bill amended Section 6253.2 to cross-ref to Welfare and Institutions Code Section 12302.25 instead of Section 12302.5, but that amendment was chaptered out by another bill. Proposed Section 7926.300 would incorporate the cross-reference correction that the Legislature approved in the 2018 maintenance of the codes bill.

- Section 6254(f) contains two cross-references to Penal Code Section 288a. In 2018, Penal Code Section 288a was renumbered as Penal Code Section 287. Proposed Sections 7923.615 and 7923.620 would continue the part of Section 6254(f) in question, with revisions to reflect the renumbering of Penal Code Section 288a.

- Section 6254(v)(1) and (v)(2) cross-ref to “Part 6.3 (commencing with Section 12695)” and “Part 6.5 (commencing with Section 12700)” of Division 2 of the Insurance Code, which have been repealed pursuant to sunset provisions. Subdivisions (a) and (b) of proposed Section 7926.225 (continuing the substance of Section 6254(v)(1) and (v)(2)) would update those cross-references by referring to “former Part 6.3 (commencing with Section 12695)” and “former Part 6.5 (commencing with Section 12700)” of Division 2 of the Insurance Code ….”

- Section 6254(y)(1), (y)(2) and (y)(5) cross-refer to “Part 6.4 (commencing with Section 12699.50) of Division 2 of the Insurance Code,” which has been repealed pursuant to a sunset provision. Proposed Section 7926.230 (continuing the substance of Section 6254(y)) would update those cross-references by referring to “former Part 6.4 (commencing with Section 12699.50) of Division 2 of the Insurance Code ….”

- Section 6254.4(c) refers to “the federal Help America Vote Act of 2002 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 15301 et seq.) ….” However, the content of the federal Help America Vote Act was transferred to a new title of the federal code in 2012 (52 U.S.C. § 20901). Proposed Section 7924.000(b) (continuing the substance of 6254.4(c)) would update the cross-reference to reflect the relocation.

- Section 6254.18(f) says: “Within 90 days of separation of an employee, contractor, volunteer, board member, or officer of the reproductive health service facility who has provided notice to a public agency pursuant to subdivision (c), the facility shall provide notice of the separation to the relevant agency or agencies.” The notification requirement is currently located in subdivision (d), not in subdivision (c). Proposed Section 7926.425 would correct that problem by cross-referring to the provision that would continue the substance of subdivision (d) of Section 6254.18 (proposed Section 7926.415), instead of the provision that would continue the substance of subdivision (c).

- In defining “public safety official,” Section 6254.24(b) refers to a “public officer or other person listed in Sections 1808.2 and 1808.6 of the Vehicle Code.” Given the content of Sections 1808.2 and 1808.6, however, it seems improbable that the Legislature intended to require a person to be listed in both of those provisions to qualify as a “public safety official” within the meaning of Section 6254.24. Proposed Section 7920.535(b) (continuing the substance of Section 6254.24(b)) would correct that problem by referring to “Section 1808.2 or 1808.6 of the Vehicle Code.”

- Section 6254.24(g) includes as a “public safety official” an employee “who supervises inmates in a city police department, a county sheriff’s office, the Department of California Highway Patrol, federal, state, or a local detention facility, and a local juvenile hall, camp, ranch, or home ….” It seems improbable that the Legislature intended this provision to include as a “public safety official” only an employee who supervises inmates in one of the enumerated facilities for adults and in one of the enumerated facilities for juveniles. Thus, proposed Section 7920.535(g) (continuing the substance of Section 6254.24(g)) would refer instead to an employee “who supervises inmates in a city police department, a county sheriff’s office, the Department of California Highway Patrol, federal, state, or a local detention facility, or a local juvenile hall, camp, ranch, or home …." 14

Section 6254.25 cross-refers to “subdivision (q) of Section 11126.” However, Section 11126 no longer has a subdivision (q); the material in question was relocated to subdivision (e) in 1996. 15 Proposed Section 7927.205 (continuing the substance of Section 6254.25) would correct the erroneous cross-reference to “subdivision (q) of Section 11126.”

- The second sentence of Section 6268(c) says: “Records or writings shall not be transferred pursuant to this paragraph unless the institution receiving them agrees to maintain, and does maintain, the materials according to commonly accepted archival standards.” 16 Section 6268(c) is not divided into paragraphs; the entire subdivision consists of a single paragraph, making the quoted reference to “this paragraph” (as opposed to “this subdivision”) slightly confusing.

Examination of the legislative history clarifies the situation. The material now labeled as subdivision (c) of Section 6268 used to be in an unlabeled paragraph of that section. 17 The quoted reference to “this paragraph” was thus meant to refer to the entirety of what is now subdivision (c). Accordingly, proposed Section 7928.010(b)(2) (continuing the quoted sentence) would refer to the material continuing subdivision (c) — i.e., proposed Section 7928.010(b) or “this subdivision.”

- Sections 6276.01 to 6276.48 comprise an alphabetical list of CPRA exemptions located throughout the codes. Some of the entries in that list are obsolete and require revisions. For discussion of the obsolete entries and revisions made, see the Comments to proposed Sections 7930.100 to 7930.215.

   Additionally, the cross-referenced provision (Section 11126) appears to contain an inadvertent drafting error; some paragraph relabeling and related revisions seem necessary. The Commission will include a technical amendment of Section 11126 with the conforming revisions and repeals for its proposed recodification. For further discussion of this point, see CLRC Staff Memorandum 2017-50, pp. 11-16.
APPENDIX B. MINOR CLEAN-UP ISSUES FOR POSSIBLE FUTURE LEGISLATIVE ATTENTION

In conducting this strictly nonsubstantive study, the Commission tentatively identified some minor problems in the CPRA, which it probably could not address without potentially raising concerns about the possibility of a substantive change. Those issues are listed here.

As far as the Commission is aware, this list consists of relatively noncontroversial clean-up issues, not issues involving substantial controversy. If any of the issues listed below appears likely to involve substantial controversy, please notify the Commission.

• Consider whether to clarify the usage of the term “local agency” in Section 6252.7 and its continuation (proposed Section 7921.310). 18
• Consider whether to simplify the description in the first sentence of Section 6254.5 (proposed Section 7921.505(a)) of which exemptions are waived. 19
• Consider whether to revise the descriptions in subdivisions (g) and (i) of Section 6254.5 (proposed Section 7921.505(b)(7) & (9)) to make them more readily understandable. 20
