First Supplement to Memorandum 2022-2

Open Government Laws

Memorandum 2022-2<sup>1</sup> reports that urgency legislation enacted in 2021<sup>2</sup> temporarily suspended some of the procedural requirements of the Bagley-Keene Act<sup>3</sup> relating to teleconferenced meetings of a state body.<sup>4</sup> As also reported in the memorandum, the code section that suspends those requirements remains in effect only until January 31, 2022, and as of that date is repealed.<sup>5</sup>

On January 5, 2022, the Governor signed an executive order declaring the “sunset date” in that code section suspended until March 31, 2022.<sup>6</sup> The executive order itself expires at 11:59 P.M. on April 1, 2022.<sup>7</sup>

Respectfully submitted,

Steve Cohen
Staff Counsel
