

Memorandum 2022-11

2022 Legislative Program (Status Report)

The status of the Commission's legislative program for 2022 is summarized below.<sup>1</sup>

Nonprobate Disposition of Estate

Assembly Member Maienschein introduced AB 1716 to implement the following recommendations:

- Disposition of Estate Without Administration: Liability of Transferee (May 2020).
- Nonprobate Transfers: Liability of a Surviving Spouse Under Probate Code Sections 13550 and 13551, 46 Cal. L. Revision Comm'n Reports 11 (2019).

Toxic Materials

The staff is still working with the Assembly Committee on Environmental Safety and Toxic Materials toward the use of a committee bill to implement the following recommendations:

- Hazardous Substance Account Recodification Act (February 2021).
- Hazardous Substance Account Recodification Act: Conforming Revisions (February 2021).

Public Records Act Clean-Up

The staff is working with the Office of the Legislative Counsel to reintroduce cross-reference corrections that were chaptered out of last year's AB 474 (Chau). The intention is that these technical revisions will be included in the annual Maintenance of the Codes bill.

<sup>1</sup>. Any California Law Revision Commission document referred to in this memorandum can be obtained from the Commission. Recent materials can be downloaded from the Commission's website (www.clrc.ca.gov). Other materials can be obtained by contacting the Commission's staff, through the website or otherwise.

The Commission welcomes written comments at any time during its study process. Any comments received will be a part of the public record and may be considered at a public meeting. However, comments that are received less than five business days prior to a Commission meeting may be presented without staff analysis.

Antitrust Study

The staff is keeping its eye on a resolution that was introduced last year, ACR 95 (Cunningham & Wicks). The resolution would authorize the Commission to study certain aspects of antitrust law. It was recently referred to the Senate Committee on Judiciary.

Respectfully submitted,

Brian Hebert
Executive Director
