MINUTES OF MARCH 1, 2007, COMMISSION MEETING

The Commission approved the Minutes of the March 1, 2007, Commission meeting as submitted by the staff.

ADMINISTRATIVE MATTERS

Report of Executive Secretary

The Executive Secretary recognized Elizabeth Lyon, a student at U.C. Hastings Law School who is working for the Commission on a part-time basis.

LEGISLATIVE PROGRAM

The Commission considered Memorandum 2007-9 and its First Supplement, relating to the Commission’s 2007 legislative program. The Commission made the following decisions:
AB 250 (DeVore) — Revocable Transfer on Death Deed

The Commission ratified the amendments to AB 250 described in the memorandum and approved the proposed revisions to related Commission Comments.

The Commission took no action in response to an objection that the revocable TOD deed may be unsuitable for use by some owners of interests in stock cooperatives. That issue will be considered for possible study when the Commission next reviews new topics and priorities.

SB 649 (Committee on Judiciary) — Trial Court Restructuring: Part 3

The Commission ratified the decision to delete the amendment of Government Code Section 71601 from this bill.

STUDY H-821 — MECHANICS LIEN LAW

The Commission considered Memorandum 2007-11 and its First Supplement, concerning the tentative recommendation on Mechanics Lien Law (June 2006). The Commission approved the staff’s recommendations, subject to the following decisions:

Limitation of Owner’s Liability by Recording Payment Bond

The staff will analyze whether the “contract price” referenced in proposed Civil Code Section 7602 should include any price change that results from a contract change.

The Commission made no change to the requirement in proposed Civil Code Section 7602 that the payment bond be recorded prior to commencement.

Notice Prior to Enforcement of Payment Bond Claim

The Commission revised proposed Civil Code Section 7612 as follows:

Civ. Code § 7612. Notice prerequisite to enforcement

7612. A claimant may not enforce the liability on a payment bond unless any of the following conditions is satisfied:

(a) The claimant has given preliminary notice to the extent required by Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 7200).

(b) The claimant has given notice to the principal and surety within the earlier of 75 days after completion of the work of improvement or 15 days after recordation of a notice of completion.
The notice shall comply with the requirements of Article 4 (commencing with Section 7100).

(a) In order to enforce a claim against a payment bond under this part, a claimant shall give the preliminary notice provided in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 7200).

(b) If preliminary notice was not given as provided in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 7200), a claimant may enforce a claim by giving written notice to the surety and the bond principal within 15 days after recordation of a notice of completion. If no notice of completion has been recorded, the time for giving written notice to the surety and the bond principal is extended to 75 days after completion of the work of improvement.

Additional Notice in Conjunction with Stop Work Notice

The staff will analyze whether a direct contractor, when giving a notice under proposed Civil Code Sections 7834 and 7840, should be required to give a copy of the notice to every claimant that has given the direct contractor a preliminary notice.

Judicial Resolution of a Disputed Stop Work Notice

The reference to an “expedited” proceeding in proposed Civil Code Section 7844 will be revised to incorporate language similar to language used in Code of Civil Procedure Sections 1062.3 and 1260.010.

STUDY H-855 — STATUTORY CLARIFICATION AND SIMPLIFICATION OF CID LAW

The Commission considered Memorandum 2007-4 and its First through Fifth Supplements.

The Commission made the following changes to the proposed law:

Cumulative Voting

Proposed Civil Code Section 4640(f) was revised to read as follows:

Notwithstanding Section 7615 of the Corporations Code, if the governing documents of an association permit the use of cumulative voting, cumulative voting shall be used by the association in any election of a director or other officer.

Optional In-Person Voting Procedure

The following provision was added to the proposed law:
(a) Notwithstanding Section 4640, an association may opt to use the procedure provided in this section for a ballot that is cast in person. This section does not apply to a mailed ballot.

(b) The election inspector shall determine the identity, eligibility, voting class, and voting power of a member who votes in person. The election inspector shall provide the member with one ballot for each vote the member may cast. If the members of the association are divided into classes for the purposes of voting, the ballot shall be marked to indicate the voting class of the member. The ballot shall not identify the member in any other way.

(c) If the association allows proxy voting, a member who votes in person shall present to the election inspector any proxy held by the member. The election inspector shall verify the proxy and provide a ballot to the proxyholder to vote pursuant to the proxy. If the proxy includes specific instructions on how to vote, the election inspector shall indelibly mark the ballot to implement the instructions.

(d) The association shall provide a voting booth or other private space in which the member can mark the ballot without revealing how the member voted.

(e) The member shall place the marked ballot into a sealed ballot box.

(f) The ballot shall be counted pursuant to subdivisions (c) and (d) of Section 4645 and is governed by Section 4650.

Nonresidential Associations

Proposed Civil Code Section 4020 was revised to exempt nonresidential associations from the proposed election provisions (i.e., proposed Civil Code Sections 4625-4680).

Revocation of Proxy

Proposed Civil Code Section 4655(g) was revised along the following lines:

A proxy is revocable until a ballot cast pursuant to the proxy is received by the election inspector.

Nomination Procedure

Proposed Civil Code Section 4660(e) was revised along the following lines:

(e) The governing documents may provide a reasonable period for the submission of nominations. If the governing documents may authorize the board to declare that all of the qualified nominees are elected without further action, if after the close of nominations, the number of qualified nominees is equal to or less than the number of directors to be elected, the board may declare the nominees elected without further action.
The Commission considered Memorandum 2007-10, presenting a staff draft of proposed legislation. The Commission approved the staff draft for circulation as a tentative recommendation, subject to the following decisions:

Definitions

Proposed Probate Code Section 21330 was revised to correct a technical error in the designation of subdivisions.

The definition of “protected instrument” was revised to replace the phrase “expressly described” with the phrase “expressly identified.”

Probable Cause

Proposed Probate Code Section 21333 was revised along the following lines:

§ 21333. Enforcement of no contest clause

21333. (a) A no contest clause may be enforced against a beneficiary who brings a direct contest that is within the terms of the no contest clause.

(b) A no contest clause shall not be enforced against a contest that is not a direct contest, regardless of the terms of the instrument.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), a no contest clause shall not be enforced if the contest is brought with probable cause. Probable cause exists if, at the time of instituting the contest, there is evidence that the evidence available to the person who instituted the contest would lead a reasonable person, properly informed and advised, to conclude that it is more likely than not that the contest will be successful.

Prospectivity

Proposed Probate Code Section 21335 was revised along the following lines:

§ 21335. Application of part

21335. (a) This part becomes operative on January 1, 2010.

(b) This part applies does not apply to an instrument of a person who dies on or after if either of the following conditions is satisfied:

(1) The person who created the instrument dies before January 1, 2010.

(2) The instrument is or becomes irrevocable before January 1, 2010.

Preliminary Part

The staff will prepare the narrative “preliminary part” of the tentative recommendation, in consultation with the Commission Chair.
The Commission considered Memorandum 2007-14 and its First Supplement, discussing appellate jurisdiction of bail forfeiture. The Commission directed the staff to prepare a draft of a tentative recommendation clarifying appellate jurisdiction of bail forfeiture along the following lines:

Penal Code § 1305.5 (added). Appeal from order denying motion to vacate bail forfeiture declaration

1305.5. Notwithstanding Sections 85, 580, 904.1, and 904.2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, if a surety or other person appeals from an order of the superior court denying a motion to vacate a bail forfeiture declared under Section 1305, the following rules apply:

(a) If the bail forfeiture was in a felony case, or in a case in which both a felony and a misdemeanor were charged, and the failure to appear occurred after the indictment or filing of the information, the appeal is to the court of appeal and it shall be treated as an appeal in an unlimited civil case, regardless of the amount of bail.

(b) If the bail forfeiture was in a felony case, or in a case in which both a felony and a misdemeanor were charged, and the failure to appear occurred at the preliminary hearing or other proceeding before the filing of an information, the appeal is to the appellate division of the superior court and it shall be treated as an appeal in a limited civil case, regardless of the amount of bail.

(c) If the bail forfeiture was in a misdemeanor case, the appeal is to the appellate division of the superior court and it shall be treated as a limited civil case, regardless of the amount of bail.

Comment. Section 1305.5 is added to clarify the appellate jurisdiction of bail forfeiture matters after trial court unification. The provision preserves the pre-unification status quo. See, e.g., Newman v. Superior Court of Los Angeles County, 67 Cal. 2d 620, 623, 432 P.2d 972, 63 Cal. Rptr. 284 (1967) (amount of bail does not determine jurisdiction of appeal relating to bail forfeiture order); People v. Topa Ins. Co., 32 Cal. App. 4th 296, 38 Cal. Rptr. 2d 167 (1995) (court of appeal heard bail forfeiture appeal involving failure to appear before superior court in felony case, even though bail was less than jurisdictional limit of municipal court); County of Los Angeles v. Am. Bankers Ins. Co., 202 Cal. App. 3d 1291, 249 Cal. Rptr. 540 (1988) (same); see also People v. Clark, 17 Cal. App. 3d 890, 897-898, 95 Cal. Rptr. 411 (1971) (superior court has jurisdiction to try connected misdemeanor even if felony charge eliminated before trial); People v. Leney, 213 Cal. App. 3d 263, 268, 261 Cal. Rptr. 541 (1989) (superior court has jurisdiction to try remaining misdemeanor even if felony charge eliminated before judgment).
Penal Code § 1306 (amended). Procedures after court declares bail forfeiture 1306. (a) When any bond is forfeited and the period of time specified in Section 1305 has elapsed without the forfeiture having been set aside, the court which has declared the forfeiture, regardless of the amount of the bail, shall enter a summary judgment against each bondsman named in the bond in the amount for which the bondsman is bound. The judgment shall be the amount of the bond plus costs, and notwithstanding any other law, no penalty assessments shall be levied or added to the judgment.

(b) If a court grants relief from bail forfeiture, it shall impose a monetary payment as a condition of relief to compensate the people for the costs of returning a defendant to custody pursuant to Section 1305, except for cases where the court determines that in the best interest of justice no costs should be imposed. The amount imposed shall reflect the actual costs of returning the defendant to custody. Failure to act within the required time to make the payment imposed pursuant to this subdivision shall not be the basis for a summary judgment against any or all of the underlying amount of the bail. A summary judgment entered for failure to make the payment imposed under this subdivision is subject to the provisions of Section 1308, and shall apply only to the amount of the costs owing at the time the summary judgment is entered, plus administrative costs and interests.

(c) If, because of the failure of any court to promptly perform the duties enjoined upon it pursuant to this section, summary judgment is not entered within 90 days after the date upon which it may first be entered, the right to do so expires and the bail is exonerated.

(d) A dismissal of the complaint, indictment, or information after the default of the defendant shall not release or affect the obligation of the bail bond or undertaking.

(e) The district attorney or county counsel shall:

(1) Demand immediate payment of the judgment within 30 days after the summary judgment becomes final.

(2) If the judgment remains unpaid for a period of 20 days after demand has been made, shall forthwith enforce the judgment in the manner provided for enforcement of money judgments generally. If the judgment is appealed by the surety or bondsman, the undertaking required to be given in these cases shall be provided by a surety other than the one filing the appeal. The undertaking shall comply with the enforcement requirements of Section 917.1 of the Code of Civil Procedure. Notwithstanding Sections 85, 580, 904.1, and 904.2, jurisdiction of the appeal, and treatment of the appeal as a limited civil case or an unlimited civil case, is governed by Section 1305.5.

(f) The right to enforce a summary judgment entered against a bondsman pursuant to this section shall expire two years after the entry of the judgment.
Comment. Subdivision (a) of Section 1306 is amended to delete language that is obsolete due to trial court unification. Before unification, it was necessary to make clear that a municipal court was authorized to enter summary judgment based on a bail forfeiture even though the amount of bail exceeded the jurisdictional limit of the municipal court. See 1977 Cal. Stat. ch. 889, § 3.5; Newman v. Superior Court of Los Angeles County, 67 Cal. 2d 620, 622, 432 P.2d 972, 63 Cal. Rptr. 284 (1967); see also Department of Consumer Affairs, Analyst’s Report SB 1107 (Song), p. 2. Because municipal courts have been eliminated and the superior court has no jurisdictional limit, that language is no longer needed.

Subdivision (e)(2) is amended to clarify the jurisdiction and treatment of an appeal from a summary judgment based on a bail bond. The amendment preserves the pre-unification status quo. See Section 1305.5 Comment.

STUDY M-300 — NONSUBSTANTIVE REORGANIZATION OF DEADLY WEAPON STATUTES

The Commission considered Memorandum 2007-15 and Memorandum 2007-17, relating to nonsubstantive reorganization of the statutes governing deadly weapons.

The Commission made the following decisions:

General Structure

Title 2 of Part 4 of the Penal Code (hereafter, “Title 2”) should be relabeled as “Sentence Enhancements” instead of “Control of Deadly Weapons.” A new Part 6 should be added to the Penal Code, entitled “Control of Deadly Weapons.” The material now in Title 2, other than the sentence enhancement provisions (Penal Code §§ 12021.5-12022.95), should be relocated to new Part 6. A five-part hierarchy of headings (Part/Title/Division/Chapter/Article) should be used in new Part 6.

Tentative Outline

The Commission discussed the tentative outline attached as Exhibit pages 1-14 to Memorandum 2007-15.

The tentative outline does not include Penal Code Section 12078, a lengthy provision consisting of numerous exceptions to other provisions. The Commission considered the possibility of dividing up the material in that statute, such that each exception is stated close to each general rule it modifies. The Commission decided to try that approach. The staff should not attempt to revise the tentative outline to reflect this decision.

The tentative outline should be revised, however, to reflect the following decisions regarding other provisions in Title 2 that are not yet incorporated:

Penal Code § 12020. Manufacture, Import, Sale, Gift, Loan, or Possession of Specified Weapons

As described at pages 8-9 of Memorandum 2007-15, the material in Penal Code Section 12020 should be divided up according to the type of weapon or equipment covered.

Penal Code Section 12028. Unlawful Concealed Carrying of Specified Weapons as Nuisance

As described in detail at page 10 of Memorandum 2007-15, the material in Penal Code Section 12028 should be divided up according to the type of weapon or equipment covered, with generally applicable language placed in the title on “Weapons Generally.”

Penal Code Section 12029. Deadly Weapons that Constitute Nuisance

As described in detail at page 11 of Memorandum 2007-15, the material in Penal Code Section 12029 should be divided up according to the type of weapon
or equipment covered, with generally applicable language placed in the title on “Weapons Generally.”

Penal Code Section 12079. Permit for Possession, Transportation, or Sale of Large Capacity Magazines

The material in Penal Code Section 12079 should be placed close to the material on large capacity magazines that is now in Penal Code Section 12020.

Destructive Devices

Penal Code Sections 12301-12312 relate to “destructive devices.” The tentative outline would place this material in “Title 2. Weapons Generally” of new Part 6 of the Penal Code.

Jason Davis of Trutanich & Michel, LLP, suggested dividing up this material according to the type of weapon or equipment covered, instead of placing all of the material in “Title 2. Weapons Generally.” The Chief Deputy Counsel commented that such an approach might be difficult to implement because not all of the weapons and equipment statutorily defined as “destructive devices” fit cleanly into independent categories; there seems to be some overlap. The Chief Deputy Counsel also said that most people probably do not associate the term “destructive device” with a particular type of weapon. Consequently, it may be reasonable to expect a person to check the portion of the code relating to “destructive devices” in determining what rules apply to a particular weapon.

The Commission decided to encourage further input on treatment of the provisions governing destructive devices, and to revisit the matter later in this study.

Definitions

As described in detail at pages 5-6 of Memorandum 2007-15, the material in Penal Code Section 12001 should be placed in a division entitled “Definitions” at the beginning of new Part 6 of the Penal Code. As the staff prepares proposed legislation, it should consider each of the other definitions in Title 2 and make a preliminary determination of whether to place the definition at the beginning of Part 6, or keep it in closer proximity to the substantive material in which the definition is used.

Judicial Decisions Interpreting or Determining the Constitutionality of Provisions in Title 2

The preliminary part of the Commission’s recommendation should make clear that the legislation proposed by the Commission (1) is not intended to reflect any assessment of the constitutionality of any provision, and (2) is not intended as an endorsement or a disapproval of any judicial decision relating to any of the provisions affected by the reform. The recommendation should include an uncodified provision to the same effect. The staff should prepare a draft of such a provision and present it to the Commission for review.

The substance of Penal Code Section 12091 should be continued in new Part 6 of the Penal Code, even though the provision was held unconstitutional in In re Christopher K., 91 Cal. App. 4th 853, 110 Cal. Rptr. 2d 914 (2001). The Comment to the section continuing the substance of Section 12091 should state that the recodification is not intended to reflect any assessment of the constitutionality of the provision. In general, the same approach should be followed with regard to any other provision in Title 2 that has been held unconstitutional, in whole or in part.
Provisions Outside Title 2

As proposed at page 3 of the tentative outline, the substance of Penal Code Section 653k, relating to switchblade knives, should be included in new Part 6 of the Penal Code.

The Commission discussed the extent to which other provisions not presently located in Title 2 should be incorporated into new Part 6. Among the factors to consider in deciding whether to incorporate a provision are: (1) whether there is a reason for the provision to be in its current location, and (2) for a provision outside the Penal Code, whether it is included in desktop editions of the Penal Code, which are meant to encompass all provisions frequently referenced by persons using the Penal Code.

The Commission did not establish a rule regarding which provisions to incorporate in new Part 6. As the staff works on this study, it should alert the Commission to provisions on deadly weapons that are not in Title 2, and make specific recommendations regarding incorporation of those provisions in new Part 6. The Commission also welcomes input from interested persons regarding which provisions outside Title 2 should be incorporated in new Part 6.

Next Step

The staff should revise the tentative outline consistent with the Commission’s decisions. The staff should also begin preparing proposed legislation for the Commission to review.

STUDY T-101 — TECHNICAL AND MINOR SUBSTANTIVE STATUTORY CORRECTIONS

The Commission considered Memorandum 2007-16, which presents a staff draft tentative recommendation to update statutory references to recording technology. The Commission approved the staff draft to be circulated for comment.
