

STATE OF CALIFORNIA

CALIFORNIA LAW REVISION COMMISSION

TENTATIVE RECOMMENDATION

Collecting Small Estate Without Administration

November 1995

This tentative recommendation is being distributed so that interested persons will be advised of the Commission's tentative conclusions and can make their views known to the Commission. Any comments sent to the Commission will be a part of the public record and will be considered at a public meeting when the Commission determines the provisions it will include in legislation the Commission plans to recommend to the Legislature. It is just as important to advise the Commission that you approve the tentative recommendation as it is to advise the Commission that you believe revisions should be made in the tentative recommendation.

COMMENTS ON THIS TENTATIVE RECOMMENDATION SHOULD BE RECEIVED BY THE COMMISSION NOT LATER THAN January 5, 1996.

The Commission often substantially revises tentative recommendations as a result of the comments it receives. Hence, this tentative recommendation is not necessarily the recommendation the Commission will submit to the Legislature.

COLLECTING SMALL ESTATE WITHOUT ADMINISTRATION

1 If the gross value of a decedent's property in this state is small, various
2 summary procedures may be used to collect or obtain title to decedent's property
3 without the need for court-supervised administration.¹ Various kinds of property
4 are excluded from the maximum estate value for use of summary procedures,
5 including joint tenancy property and property in which the decedent had a life or
6 other interest terminable at death.²

7 The statutory exclusions do not mention property held in a trust revocable³ by
8 the decedent during lifetime. Property in a revocable inter vivos trust is excluded 9 from the $60,000 estate maximum, because such property is not part of the 10 decedent's estate.⁴ The inter vivos trust is now an important estate planning
11 instrument, and it would be helpful to interested persons if the statutory exclusions
12 made specific reference to it.⁵ This would not change existing law.

13 The Commission recommends it be made clear by an express exclusion that 14 property in a revocable inter vivos trust is not included in the decedent's estate for 15 the purpose of the affidavit procedure for collection of decedent's property and 16 other summary collection provisions for small estates.

1. Summary procedures include collecting personal property by affidavit if the gross value of decedent's estate in California does not exceed $60,000, obtaining a court order determining succession if the gross value of the estate in California does not exceed $60,000, and obtaining title to real property by affidavit if the gross value of California real property does not exceed $10,000. See Prob. Code §§ 13000-13210.

2. Prob. Code § 13050.

3. Property in a revocable inter vivos trust is treated for some purposes as decedent's property. See Prob. Code § 19001 (decedent's revocable trust subject to creditors' claims if estate inadequate). Cf. Prob. Code § 18200 (revocable trust subject to creditors' claims during settlor's lifetime). Property in an irrevocable inter vivos trust is more immune to creditors' claims, but may be reached by creditors if the settlor is a beneficiary of the trust, Prob. Code § 15304, or received no consideration for creating it, Civ. Code §§ 3439.04, 3439.05. See generally California Trust Administration § 10.32, at 427 (Cal. Cont. Ed. Bar, Feb. 1995). Property in an irrevocable trust is generally not part of the estate of a deceased settlor for federal estate taxes. Drafting California Revocable Living Trusts § 1.17, at 12 (2d ed. Cal. Cont. Ed. Bar 1984).

5. This was suggested by Judge Richard O. Frazee, Sr., Supervising Judge of the Probate Department of the Orange County Superior Court. Letter from Judge Richard O. Frazee, Sr., to Law Revision Commission (September 13, 1995) (attached to Memorandum 95-59, on file with California Law Revision Commission).

PROPOSED LEGISLATION

Prob. Code § 13050 (amended). Property excluded

SECTION 1. Section 13050 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

13050. (a) For the purposes of this part:

(1) Any property or interest or lien thereon which, at the time of the decedent's death, was held by the decedent as a joint tenant, or in which the decedent had a life or other interest terminable upon the decedent's death, including but not limited to property in a trust revocable by the decedent during lifetime, or which was held by the decedent and passed to the decedent's surviving spouse pursuant to Section 13500, shall be excluded in determining the property or estate of the decedent or its value.

(2) A multiple-party account to which the decedent was a party at the time of the decedent's death shall be excluded in determining the property or estate of the decedent or its value, whether or not all or a portion of the sums on deposit are community property, to the extent that the sums on deposit belong after the death of the decedent to a surviving party, P.O.D. payee, or beneficiary. For the purposes of this paragraph, the terms "multiple-party account," "party," "P.O.D. payee," and "beneficiary" are defined in Article 2 (commencing with Section 5120) of Chapter 1 of Part 2 of Division 5.

(b) For the purposes of this part, all of the following property shall be excluded in determining the property or estate of the decedent or its value:

(1) Any vehicle registered under Division 3 (commencing with Section 4000) of the Vehicle Code or titled under Division 16.5 (commencing with Section 38000) of the Vehicle Code.

(2) Any vessel numbered under Division 3.5 (commencing with Section 9840) of the Vehicle Code.

(3) Any manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, truck camper, or floating home registered under Part 2 (commencing with Section 18000) of Division 13 of the Health and Safety Code.

(c) For the purposes of this part, the value of the following property shall be excluded in determining the value of the decedent's property in this state:

(1) Any amounts due to the decedent for services in the armed forces of the United States.

(2) The amount, not exceeding five thousand dollars ($5,000), of salary or other compensation, including compensation for unused vacation, owing to the decedent for personal services from any employment.

Comment. Subdivision (a)(1) of Section 13050 is amended to add the reference to a trust revocable by the decedent during lifetime. It is a specific application of the principle stated in subdivision (a)(1) that property in which the decedent had an interest terminable at death is excluded in determining the property or estate of the decedent for purposes of this part. This codifies case law. See Estate of Heigho, 186 Cal. App. 2d 360, 365, 9 Cal. Rptr. 196 (1960).
