This tentative recommendation is being distributed so that interested persons will be advised of the Commission’s tentative conclusions and can make their views known to the Commission. Any comments sent to the Commission will be a part of the public record and will be considered at a public meeting when the Commission determines the provisions it will include in legislation the Commission plans to recommend to the Legislature. It is just as important to advise the Commission that you approve the tentative recommendation as it is to advise the Commission that you believe revisions should be made in the tentative recommendation.

COMMENTS ON THIS TENTATIVE RECOMMENDATION SHOULD BE RECEIVED BY THE COMMISSION NOT LATER THAN July 31, 2001.

The Commission often substantially revises tentative recommendations as a result of the comments it receives. Hence, this tentative recommendation is not necessarily the recommendation the Commission will submit to the Legislature.
SUMMARY OF TENTATIVE RECOMMENDATION

The statutes governing felony sentencing have been criticized as overly complex and difficult to understand. According to a Judicial Council study, errors in sentencing are the single greatest cause of reversal on appeal and account for over half of the reversals on appeal in criminal cases. Previous attempts at reform that involved substantive change to sentence lengths have been unsuccessful. The California Law Revision Commission recommends the nonsubstantive reorganization of sentence enhancement provisions. This will improve the accessibility and comprehensibility of these provisions.

This recommendation was prepared pursuant to Resolution Chapter 81 of the Statutes of 1999.
CRIMINAL SENTENCING: WEAPON AND INJURY ENHANCEMENTS

The California Law Revision Commission recommends a nonsubstantive reorganization of statutes providing sentence enhancements for crimes involving weapons and injuries. This reorganization will make it easier to locate applicable enhancements and will establish a structure for better organization of sentencing provisions in the future.

Existing Law

Felony sentencing is governed by a complex array of statutes and rules of court.1 For the most part, felonies are subject to determinate sentencing provisions, under which fixed terms of imprisonment are specified for each offense.2 Typically, three different terms are specified,3 with the middle term imposed except in cases of aggravation or mitigation.4 A felony violation may also be subject to a sentence enhancement, which provides for an additional term of imprisonment in specified circumstances.5 Rules governing repeat offenders,6 and consecutive terms7 add considerably to the complexity.

1. The principal determinate sentencing statutes can be found at Penal Code Sections 1170-1170.9. See also Cal. R. Ct. 4.401-4.480.
2. Although California has moved toward determinate sentencing, there are still a number of indeterminate sentences. See, e.g., Penal Code §§ 451.5 (ten years to life), 664(e) (life with possibility of parole), 667.75 (life without possibility of parole for 17 years). The interrelationship between determinate and indeterminate sentences adds to the complexity of sentencing law.
3. See, e.g., Penal Code § 213(a)(2) (two, three, or five years imprisonment for robbery of second degree).
5. See, e.g., Penal Code § 12022.53(b) (ten year additional sentence where gun used in commission of robbery).
Problems Under Existing Law

The sentencing laws have been criticized as too complex and difficult to understand. In the words of one appellate opinion:

[The] sentencing statutes are mind-numbingly complicated, and by virtue of continued legislative tinkering, not likely to soon become any easier to apply. As the trial judge in this case remarked: “I regard it as one of the principal credits to my professional career that I had nothing to do with designing the determinate sentencing law.” Such frustration is widely spread. … The frequency with which both simple and vexatious sentencing questions are raised on appeal strongly suggests that the Legislature can and should undertake with the help of bench and bar a solid comprehensive overhaul of the system to help all potential defendants and the public generally.

The complexity of sentencing law creates a number of problems. It makes the process of calculating a sentence more difficult, adding to the burden on trial judges: “The sentencing formulas are complex, inconsistent and confusing. A judge is often required to complete a worksheet which can be more complicated than an IRS form in order to calculate the proper sentence.” The complexity also contributes to a significant rate of reversal on appeal. According to a Judicial Council study, sentencing errors are the single greatest class of errors leading to reversal. In the period studied, sentencing errors accounted for 55% of reversals in criminal cases. If, as a result of the complexity of sentencing laws, a prosecuting attorney fails to properly plead an applicable sentence enhancement at trial, the error cannot be corrected on appeal — the defendant’s sentence will be shorter than is mandated by law.

8. People v. Reyes, 212 Cal. App. 3d 852, 858-59, 260 Cal. Rptr. 846 (1989). For other examples of judicial criticism of the sentencing laws, see People v. Winslow, 40 Cal. App. 4th 680, 684, 46 Cal. Rptr. 2d 901 (1995) (“We agree with the previously articulated criticism of the Determinate Sentencing Act of 1976. It is capable of trapping everyone, even those who profess expertise.”); People v. Sutton, 113 Cal. App. 3d 162, 164, 169 Cal. Rptr. 656 (1980) (sentencing law “a legislative monstrosity, which is bewildering in its complexity. … One result is crystal clear — sentencing today affords a rich field of appellate litigation.”); California Community Release Bd. v. Superior Court, 91 Cal. App. 3d 814, 815 n.1, 154 Cal. Rptr. 383 (1979) (“As a sentencing judge wends his way through the labyrinthine procedures of Section 1170 of the Penal Code, he must wonder, as he utters some of its more esoteric incantations, if, perchance, the Legislature had not exhumed some long departed Byzantine scholar to create its seemingly endless and convoluted complexities. Indeed, in some ways it resembles the best offerings of those who author bureaucratic memoranda, income tax forms, insurance policies or instructions for the assembly of packaged toys.” See also Ross, The Clutter in Criminal Law, California Journal, Oct. 1995, at 18 (“Crimes, enhancements, mandatory sentences and other concepts should be simplified, easy to find and understand, and easy to apply. A commission could accomplish this without making substantive changes in current law.”); Putting Violence Behind Bars: Redefining the Role of California’s Prisons, Little Hoover Comm’n (Jan. 1994) (recommending reform of sentencing law, “which has grown too complex and inequitable through constant, uncoordinated alterations”).

11. See, e.g., People v. Latimer, 5 Cal. 4th 1203, 858 P.2d 611, 23 Cal. Rptr. 2d 144 (1993) (three-year enhancement for kidnapping for the purpose of rape was not plead and proved at trial and could not be imposed on appeal), People v. Hernandez, 46 Cal. 3d 194, 757 P.2d 1013, 249 Cal. Rptr. 850 (1988) (imposition of enhancement violated due process where enhancement had not been plead or proved at trial).
The complexity of the sentencing laws may also make it difficult for the Legislature to assess whether a proposed sentencing provision is necessary (i.e., is not duplicative of existing law), fairly proportional to other comparable sentences, and well coordinated with existing sentencing statutes.

Previous Reform Efforts

In recent years, a number of attempts have been made to rationalize the sentencing statutes. From 1988 to 1995, Senator Lockyer introduced a series of bills to comprehensively reform the sentencing laws. These efforts enjoyed significant support. However, the bills would have done more than reorganize and simplify the law. They would have made a number of substantive changes, including changes to sentence lengths. These changes proved controversial and none of the bills was successfully enacted. In 1997, Senator Lockyer introduced legislation to make a number of less controversial reforms to sentencing laws. That effort was successful.

In 1998, Penal Code Section 666.7 was added to create a nonsubstantive statutory index of all sentence enhancement provisions, organized by length of enhancement. In explaining the purpose of Section 666.7, Senator Schiff writes:

> Over the years, the Legislature has found it expedient to sprinkle enhancements throughout the statutes. This has made our sentencing formulas confusing and has twisted the actual intent of our body of law which should be a balanced justice for all individuals. … Enhancements are also the most complex and chaotic provisions in the Penal Code. There are over one hundred enhancements with nineteen different types of punishments. More so, enhancements may be a single term, multiple terms, or even indeterminate. I think the Assembly Committee on Public Safety’s analysis on SB 58 says it best when it reads, “… most of the complexities of current sentencing law are … the result of the many and varied sentence enhancements.”

13. Although support varied with respect to the different bills, one or more of them were supported by the California District Attorneys Association (which sponsored most of the bills), the California Peace Officers’ Association, the California Police Chiefs’ Association, the California Correctional Peace Officers Association, the Honorable Steven Z. Perren (then chair of the California Judges Association Criminal Law and Procedure Committee), and the Little Hoover Commission. See, e.g., letter from Jeannine L. English, Executive Director of Little Hoover Commission, to Senator Bill Lockyer (Jan 26, 1994), Senate Committee on Judiciary Analysis of Senate Bill 1794 (April 20, 1993), (on file with California Law Revision Commission), letter from Hon. Steven Z. Perren to Richard Piedmonte, Legislative Coordinator, California Judges Association (Aug. 4, 1989), (on file with California Law Revision Commission), letter from Gary S. Mullen, Executive Director, California District Attorneys Association, to Assembly Member Charles W. Quackenbush (June 30, 1989) (on file with California Law Revision Commission).

14. SB 25 (1990) was vetoed by Governor Deukmejian and SB 25 (1992) was vetoed by Governor Wilson. The remainder were not enacted by the Legislature.

15. SB 721 (1997). The bill eliminated complex limits on the length of consecutive sentences and made a number of technical improvements.

17. 1998 Cal. Stat. ch. 395 (SB 1794 (Schiff)).

Therefore, SB 1794 is a small but necessary step in the right direction. I imagine this legislation will become an easy reference guide for members, staffers and judges to consult. But even more importantly, it will allow us to consider sentencing enhancements based on proportionality. Currently, pure economics and cold fiscal considerations determine how severe an enhancement can be added to any piece of legislation. SB 1794 will bring much more fairness and objectivity to the political process when we deliberate on future sentencing enhancements.

In 1999, two bills were introduced to reform weapon- and injury-related sentence enhancements provisions.19 These bills would have slightly lengthened some enhancement terms, eliminated redundant enhancements, and revised the provisions to make the language clearer and more uniform. Both bills failed to pass out of committee.

Proposed Law

Substantive reform of sentencing statutes is politically controversial and very difficult to accomplish. The California Law Revision Commission recommends that sentence enhancement provisions relating to crimes involving weapons and injuries be reorganized, *without affecting their substance.*20 This will simplify the law by placing these provisions in a single location, organized by the nature of the enhancement. Such a reorganization would make it easier for judges and attorneys to locate applicable enhancements, streamlining the sentencing process and reducing the likelihood of errors involving sentence enhancements. Establishment of a single, well-organized location for sentence enhancements would also make it easier for Legislators to coordinate any future sentencing changes with existing law. The proposed law could also serve as a model for reorganization of other sentence enhancement provisions (relating to prior convictions, vulnerable victims, etc.).

The Commission recognizes that changes to section numbers will impose certain transitional costs as practitioners learn the new system, and will require use of tables to correlate references to old section numbers with the new section numbers. However, the Commission believes that reorganization would result in significant benefits, as the reorganized provisions would be easier to use and maintain. The Commission is particularly interested in receiving comments from judges and practitioners on whether the benefits of the proposed reorganization would justify any inconvenience that would result from section renumbering.

19. AB 245 (Cuneen) (weapon enhancements) and SB 226 (Karnette) (injury enhancements).

20. The proposed law would make one minor substantive change, to correct an apparent legislative oversight. See proposed Section 17526 and accompanying note.

PROPOSED LEGISLATION

Penal Code §§ 17000-17587 (added). Sentencing
SEC. ___. Part 6 (commencing with Section 17000) is added to the Penal Code, to read:

PART 6. SENTENCING

TITLE 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 17000. Legislative intent.
17000. The Legislature intends to reserve Sections 17000 to 17999, inclusive, for sentencing provisions.

Comment. Section 17000 is new. It indicates the Legislature’s intent to reserve a block of sections as a location for sections relating to criminal sentencing.

TITLE 2. (RESERVED)

TITLE 3. (RESERVED)

TITLE 4. SENTENCE ENHANCEMENTS

CHAPTER 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1. Purpose of Title

§ 17500. Purpose of title
17500. (a) The purpose of this title is to provide a single location for sentence enhancements relating to weapons and injuries. This will make it easier to determine which of the numerous enhancement provisions apply in a particular case.

(b) Sentence enhancements relating to weapons or injuries shall be located in this title.

(c) A failure to locate a sentence enhancement relating to weapons or injuries in this title has no effect on the validity or meaning of the sentence enhancement.

Comment. Section 17500 is new. It states the purpose of this title as the repository of sentence enhancements relating to weapons and injuries.

§ 17501. Continuation of existing statutes 17501. (a) A provision of this title, insofar as it is substantially the same as a previously existing provision relating to the same subject matter, shall be construed as a restatement and continuation thereof and not as a new enactment, and a reference in a statute to the provision of this part shall be deemed to include a reference to the previously existing provision unless a contrary intent appears.

(b) Restatement and continuation of a provision in this title, by the bill that added this section, is not intended to ratify or abrogate any prior judicial interpretation of that provision.

Comment. Section 17501 is a standard type of provision in the codes. See, e.g., Corp. Code § 2; Fam. Code § 2; Prob. Code § 2(a). See also Gov’t Code §§ 9604 (construction of restatements and continuations), 9605 (construction of amended statutory provision). The last clause makes clear that a statutory reference to a new provision of this title includes a reference to the former law from which it is drawn. Cf. Gov’t Code § 9604 (reference to previously existing provision deemed reference to restatement or continuation).

Subdivision (b) makes clear that mere restatement and continuation of a provision in the bill enacting this section does not indicate any legislative position regarding a prior judicial interpretation of the provision.

A number of terms and phrases are used in the Comments to the sections of this title to indicate the sources of the sections and to describe how they compare with prior law. The following discussion is intended to provide guidance in interpreting the terminology most commonly used in the Comments.

(1) Continues without change. A new provision “continues” a former provision “without change” if the two provisions are identical or nearly so. In some cases, there may be insignificant technical differences, such as where a typographical error or punctuation is corrected without a change in meaning. Some Comments may describe the relationship by simply stating that a new provision “continues” or is “the same as” a former provision.

(2) Continues without substantive change. A new provision “continues” a former provision “without substantive change” if the substantive law remains the same, but the language differs to an insignificant degree. This may include revision of language to make a statute gender-neutral.

(3) Restates without substantive change. A new provision “restates” a former provision “without substantive change” if the substantive law remains the same but the language differs to a significant degree. Some Comments may describe the new provision as being the “same in substance.”

(4) Exceptions, additions, omissions. If part of a former provision is “continued” or “restated,” the Comment may say that the former provision is continued or restated, but also note the specific differences as “exceptions to,” “additions to,” or “omissions from” the former provision.

(5) Generalizes, broadens, restates in general terms. A new provision may be described as “generalizing,” “broadening,” or “restating in general terms” a provision of prior law. This description means that a limited rule has been expanded to cover a broader class of cases.

(6) New. A provision is described as “new” where it has no direct source in prior statutes.

Article 2. Definitions

§ 17505. Great bodily injury

17505. As used in this title, “great bodily injury” means a significant or substantial physical injury.

Comment. Section 17505 generalizes former Section 12022.7(e). This definition is consistent with judicial interpretation of the phrase “great bodily injury” in statutes that do not define the term. See, e.g., People v. Richardson, 23 Cal. App. 3d 403, 100 Cal. Rptr. 251 (1972); People v. Wells, 14 Cal. App. 3d 348, 92 Cal. Rptr. 191 (1971). The definition is also consistent with California jury instructions relating to statutes that use but do not define the phrase “great bodily injury.”
Article 3. Selection of Term

§ 17520. Middle term presumption

17520. Pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1170, if a sentence enhancement is to be imposed and the statute specifies three possible terms, the court shall order imposition of the middle term unless there are circumstances in aggravation or mitigation of the crime. The court shall set forth on the record the facts and reasons for imposing the upper or lower term.

Comment. Section 17520 generalizes former Sections 12021.5(a)-(b), 12022(c)-(d), 12022.2(a)-(b), 12022.3(b), 12022.4, 12022.5(a)(2) & (c), 12022.7(d), without substantive change. This section restates part of Section 1170(b) without substantive change. See also People v. Hall, 8 Cal. 4th 950, 981, 883 P.2d 974, 35 Cal. Rptr. 2d 432 (1994) (Section 1170 governs sentence enhancements); Cal. R. Ct 4.428(b).

§ 17521. Knowledge that firearm is stolen

17521. In applying an enhancement under Section 17530, 17531, 17532, 17534, 17536, 17537, 17538, 17539, 17545, 17546, 17547, 17548, 17550, 17551, or 17552, the fact that a person knew or had reason to believe that a firearm was stolen shall constitute a circumstance in aggravation justifying imposition of the upper term.

Comment. Section 17521 restates former Section 1170.89 without substantive change.

Article 4. Catalog of Enhancements

§ 17523.010. Purpose of article

17523.010. (a) It is the intent of the Legislature that this article serve merely as a nonsubstantive comparative reference of current sentence enhancement provisions. Nothing in this article shall have any substantive effect on the application of any sentence enhancement contained in any provision of law, including: omission of any sentence enhancement provision, inclusion of any obsolete sentence enhancement provision, or inaccurate reference or summary of a sentence enhancement provision.

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature to amend this article as necessary to accurately reflect current sentence enhancement provisions, including the addition of new provisions and the deletion of obsolete provisions.

(c) For the purposes of this article, the term “sentence enhancement” means an additional term of imprisonment in the state prison added to the base term for the underlying offense. A sentence enhancement is imposed because of the nature of the offense at the time the offense was committed or because the defendant suffered a qualifying prior conviction before committing the current offense.
Comment. Section 17523.010 continues the introductory paragraphs of former Section 666.7 without substantive change.

Note. Penal Code Section 666.7 is intended to provide a nonsubstantive cross-reference to all sentence enhancements. These enhancements are organized by the length of the enhancement; grouped into alphabetically designated “schedules” in ascending order of length. Thus, one year enhancements are designated “Schedule A,” one-, two-, or three-year enhancements are designated “Schedule B,” etc. This scheme is inherently difficult to maintain. If a new enhancement is created that does not match any of the existing schedules, it must either be placed at the end (in which case the ascending order is not observed) or in ascending order (in which case the alphabetical designations must be altered somehow to fit in a new schedule), or all of the schedules must be renamed. This problem has already occurred. For example, Penal Code Section 12022.7(d) was added to create a new enhancement of four, five, or six years. In the ascending order scheme, this falls between Schedule J (four years) and Schedule K (four, five, or 10 years). A new schedule must be created to refer to Section 12022.7(d). Should it be designated “Schedule U,” violating the ascending order, should it be placed in ascending order and designated “Schedule J.5” or “Schedule J-2”, or should all of the schedules be renamed? All of these solutions are awkward. Note that SB 205 (McPherson) would update Section 666.7 to correct errors and add new references. It places the new schedules in ascending order and renames all of them to preserve the alphabetical naming.

The proposed law attempts to eliminate the problems inherent in an alphabetical ascending order scheme by replacing it with a scheme that refers to the length of the sentence enhancement itself. Thus, one year enhancements are referenced in “Schedule 1,” one-, two-, or three- year enhancements are referenced in “Schedule 1-2-3,” etc.

Another possibility that should be considered is repeal of the catalog provisions entirely. They are very difficult to maintain and may not be useful to practitioners. Especially if all enhancements are eventually gathered in one well-organized location, the need for a catalog of the type found in Section 666.7 is doubtful. Another possibility would be to preserve the catalog, but eliminate the schedule designations. It isn’t clear that creating schedule names is useful. The Commission would like to receive comments regarding the approaches discussed above.

CHAPTER 2. WEAPON ENHANCEMENTS

§ 17525. Limit on multiple enhancements

17525. When two or more enhancements may be imposed for being armed with or using a dangerous or deadly weapon or a firearm in the commission of a single offense, only the greatest of those enhancements shall be imposed for that offense. This section does not limit the imposition of any other enhancements applicable to that offense, including an enhancement for the infliction of great bodily injury.

Comment. Section 17525 continues former Section 1170.1(f) without substantive change. See Section 17505 (“great bodily injury” defined).

§ 17526. Firearm deemed nuisance

17526. When a person is found to have used a deadly or dangerous weapon in the commission or attempted commission of a felony, resulting in an enhancement pursuant to this title, and the weapon is owned by that person, the court shall order that the weapon be deemed a nuisance and disposed of in the manner provided in Section 12028.

Comment. Section 17526 generalizes former Sections 12022(b)(3), 12022.5(e), and 12022.53(k). The generalized rule is consistent with other sections providing for confiscation of a weapon used in a crime. See Sections 188.22a(f), 245e(d), 245.3, 417.6, 833.5(e), 12028, 12028.5(e), 12036(c).

Note. The nuisance provision found in Sections 12022(b)(3), 12022.5(e), and 12022.53(k) has been generalized. The nuisance rule would then apply to weapon enhancements under Sections
Tentative Recommendation • March 2001

17530. Any person who is armed with a firearm in the commission or attempted commission of a felony shall, upon conviction of that felony or attempted felony, in addition and consecutive to the punishment prescribed for the felony or attempted felony of which he or she has been convicted, be punished by an additional term of one year, unless the arming is an element of the offense of which he or she was convicted. This additional term applies to any person who is a principal in the commission or attempted commission of a felony if one or more of the principals is armed with a firearm, whether or not the person is personally armed with a firearm.

The additional term provided in this paragraph applies to any person who is a principal in the commission or attempted commission of a felony if one or more of the principals is armed with an assault weapon or machinegun whether or not the person is personally armed with an assault weapon or machinegun.

Comment. Section 17531 is added as part of a nonsubstantive reorganization of sentence enhancements for crimes that involve a weapon. This section restates former Section 12022(a)(2) without substantive change. The first sentence incorporates part of former Section 12022(a)(1) that is implicitly incorporated in former Section 12022(a)(2).

Note. The first sentence has been restated to incorporate substantive elements from Section 12022(a)(1), which are implicitly incorporated in Section 12022(a)(2). The Commission believes that this is a nonsubstantive change, but would like to receive comments on this point.

without change.

addition and consecutive to the punishment prescribed by the felony or attempted felony of which the person has been convicted, be punished by an additional term of one, two, or three years in the state prison.

Comment. Section 17534 is added as part of a nonsubstantive reorganization of sentence enhancements for crimes that involve a weapon. This section continues the first sentence of former Section 12022.4 without change.

12072(g)(4) without substantive change.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any person who is convicted of a felony specified in subdivision (a), and who in the commission of that felony personally used a firearm, shall be punished by a term of imprisonment of 10 years in the state prison, which shall be imposed in addition and consecutive to the punishment prescribed for that felony. The firearm need not be operable or loaded for this enhancement to apply.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any person who is convicted of a felony specified in subdivision (a), and who in the commission of that felony intentionally and personally discharged a firearm, shall be punished by a term of imprisonment of 20 years in the state prison, which shall be imposed in addition and consecutive to the punishment prescribed for that felony.

(f) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, probation shall not be granted to, nor shall the execution or imposition of sentence be suspended for, any person found to come within the provisions of this section.
(g) Notwithstanding Section 1385 or any other provision of law, the court shall not strike an allegation under this section or a finding bringing a person within the provisions of this section.

(h) The total amount of credits awarded pursuant to Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 2930) of Chapter 7 of Title 1 of Part 3 or pursuant to Section 4019 or any other provision of law shall not exceed 15 percent of the total term of imprisonment imposed on a defendant upon whom a sentence is imposed pursuant to this section.

(i) The enhancements specified in this section do not apply to the lawful use or discharge of a firearm by a public officer, as provided in Section 196, or by any person in lawful self-defense, lawful defense of another, or lawful defense of property, as provided in Sections 197, 198, and 198.5.

Comment. Section 17549 is added as part of a nonsubstantive reorganization of sentence enhancements for crimes that involve a weapon. Subdivisions (a)-(e) continue former Section 12022.53(a)-(e) without substantive change. Subdivisions (f)-(i) continue former Section 12022.53(g)-(i) without change. See Section 17505 (“great bodily injury” defined).

§ 17550. Use of firearm or deadly weapon in commission of sexual offenses

17550. For each violation or attempted violation of Section 261, 262, 264.1, 286, 288, 288a, or 289, a person shall receive a three-, four-, or 10-year enhancement if the person uses a firearm or a deadly weapon in the commission of the violation.

Comment. Section 17550 is added as part of a nonsubstantive reorganization of sentence enhancements for crimes that involve a weapon. This section restates former Section 12022.3(a) without substantive change.

§ 17551. Discharge of firearm at an occupied vehicle, resulting in great bodily injury or death

17551. (a) Any person who is convicted of a felony or an attempt to commit a felony, including murder or attempted murder, in which that person discharged a firearm at an occupied motor vehicle which caused great bodily injury or death to the person of another, shall, upon conviction of that felony or attempted felony, in addition and consecutive to the sentence prescribed for the felony or attempted felony, be punished by an additional term of imprisonment in the state prison for five, six, or 10 years.

(b) The additional term provided by this section may be imposed in cases of assault with a firearm under paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 245, or assault with a deadly weapon which is a firearm under Section 245, or murder if the killing was perpetrated by means of shooting a firearm from a motor vehicle, intentionally at another person outside of the vehicle with the intent to inflict great bodily injury or death.

Comment. Section 17551 is added as part of a nonsubstantive reorganization of sentence enhancements for crimes that involve a weapon. This section continues former Section 12022.5(b)(1) and (d) without change. See Section 17505 (“great bodily injury” defined).
§ 17552. Discharge of firearm from vehicle resulting in great bodily injury or death

17552. Any person who, with the intent to inflict great bodily injury or death, inflicts great bodily injury or causes the death of a person, other than an occupant of a motor vehicle, as a result of discharging a firearm from a motor vehicle in the commission of a felony or attempted felony, shall, upon conviction of the felony or attempted felony, in addition and consecutive to the punishment prescribed for the felony or attempted felony of which he or she has been convicted, be punished by an additional term of imprisonment in the state prison for five, six, or 10 years.

Comment. Section 17552 is added as part of a nonsubstantive reorganization of sentence enhancements for crimes that involve a weapon. This section continues former Section 12022.55 without substantive change. See Section 17505 (“great bodily injury” defined).

§ 17553. Discharge of firearm from vehicle that results in paralysis or paraparesis of victim

17553. (a) A person convicted of a violation of subdivision (c) of Section 12034 shall, in addition and consecutive to the punishment for that violation, be punished by an additional term of four years, if as a result of the defendant personally and willfully and maliciously discharging the firearm, the victim suffers paralysis or paraparesis of a major body part, including, but not limited to, the entire hand or foot.

(b) A person convicted of a violation of Section 246 shall, in addition and consecutive to the punishment for that violation, be punished by an additional term of four years, if as a result of the defendant personally and willfully and maliciously discharging the firearm at an occupied motor vehicle from another motor vehicle, the victim suffers paralysis or paraparesis of a major body part, including, but not limited to, the entire hand or foot.

(c) For purposes of this subdivision:

(1) “Paralysis” means a major or complete loss of motor function resulting from injury to the nervous system or to a muscular mechanism.

(2) “Paraparesis” means a significant weakness of a major body part, including, but not limited to, the entire hand or foot, causing the extremity to be functionally impaired and rendered useless to assist with one of the basic skills in life such as eating or walking.

Comment. Section 17553 is added as part of a nonsubstantive reorganization of sentence enhancements for crimes that involve a weapon. This section continues former Section 12022.9(b) without substantive change. Former Section 12022.9(b)(3)(C) is redundant and is not

CHAPTER 3. INJURY ENHANCEMENTS

§ 17560. Limit on multiple enhancements

17560. When two or more enhancements may be imposed for the infliction of great bodily injury in the commission of a single offense, only the greatest of those enhancements shall be imposed for that offense. This section shall not limit the imposition of any other enhancements applicable to that offense, including an enhancement for being armed with or using a dangerous or deadly weapon or a firearm.

Comment. Section 17560 continues former Section 1170.1(g) without substantive change. See Section 17505 ("great bodily injury" defined).

Article 2. Enhancements for Injury

§ 17565. Infliction of great bodily injury in commission of felony

17565. (a) A person who personally inflicts great bodily injury on any person other than an accomplice in the commission or attempted commission of a felony shall, in addition and consecutive to the punishment prescribed for the felony or attempted felony of which he or she has been convicted, be punished by an additional term of three years, unless infliction of great bodily injury is an element of the offense of which he or she is convicted.

(b) This section does not apply to murder or manslaughter or a violation of Section 451 or 452.

Comment. Section 17565 is added as part of a nonsubstantive reorganization of sentence enhancements for crimes that cause an injury. This section continues former Section 12022.7(a) and the first sentence of former subdivision (g) without change. See Section 17505 ("great bodily injury" defined).

§ 17566. Infliction of great bodily injury causing coma or paralysis

17566. (a) A person who personally inflicts great bodily injury on any person other than an accomplice in the commission or attempted commission of a felony which causes the victim to become comatose due to brain injury or to suffer paralysis, as defined in Section 17553, of a permanent nature, shall be punished by an additional and consecutive term of five years.

(b) This section does not apply to murder or manslaughter or a violation of Section 451 or 452.

Comment. Section 17566 is added as part of a nonsubstantive reorganization of sentence enhancements for crimes that cause an injury. Subdivision (a) restates former Section 12022.7(b) without substantive change. The subdivision restates part of former Section 12022.7(a) that was incorporated by reference in former Section 12022.7(b). Subdivision (b) continues former Section 12022.7(f) without substantive change. See Section 17505 ("great bodily injury" defined).

Note. Subdivision (a) restates elements of Section 12022.7(a) that are expressly incorporated in Section 12022.7(b). The Commission believes that this is a nonsubstantive change, but would like to receive comments on this point.

§ 17567. Infliction of great bodily injury on person 70 years of age or older 17567. (a) A person who personally inflicts great bodily injury on a person who is 70 years of age or older, other than an accomplice in the commission or attempted commission of a felony shall, in addition and consecutive to the punishment prescribed for the felony or attempted felony of which he or she has been convicted, be punished by an additional term of five years, unless infliction of great bodily injury is an element of the offense of which he or she is convicted.

(b) This section does not apply to murder or manslaughter or a violation of Section 451 or 452.

§ 17568. Elder abuse resulting in great bodily injury or death

17568. (a) If in the commission of an offense described in subdivision (b) of Section 368, the victim suffers great bodily injury, the defendant shall receive an additional term in the state prison as follows:

(1) Three years if the victim is under 70 years of age.

(2) Five years if the victim is 70 years of age or older.

(b) If in the commission of an offense described in subdivision (b) of Section 368, the defendant proximately causes the death of the victim, the defendant shall receive an additional term in the state prison as follows:

(1) Five years if the victim is under 70 years of age.

(2) Seven years if the victim is 70 years of age or older.

§ 17569. Intentional infliction of injury causing termination of pregnancy

17569. (a) Any person who, during the commission or attempted commission of a felony, knows or reasonably should know that the victim is pregnant, and who, with intent to inflict injury, and without the consent of the woman, personally inflicts injury upon a pregnant woman that results in the termination of the pregnancy shall, in addition and consecutive to the punishment prescribed by the felony or attempted felony of which the person has been convicted, be punished by an additional term of five years in the state prison.

(b) Nothing in this section shall be construed as affecting the applicability of subdivision (a) of Section 187 of the Penal Code.

§ 17570. Infliction of great bodily injury involving domestic violence

17570. (a) A person who personally inflicts great bodily injury under circumstances involving domestic violence in the commission or attempted commission of a felony shall, in addition and consecutive to the punishment prescribed for the felony or attempted felony of which he or she has been convicted, be punished by an additional term of three, four, or five years. As used in this section, “domestic violence” has the meaning provided in subdivision (b) of Section 13700.

(b) This section does not apply to murder or manslaughter or a violation of Section 451 or 452.

Comment. Section 17570 is added as part of a nonsubstantive reorganization of sentence enhancements for crimes that cause an injury. Subdivision (a) continues the first and fourth sentences of former Section 12022.7(e) without change. Subdivision (b) continues the first sentence of former Section 12022.7(g) without substantive change. See Section 17505 (“great bodily injury” defined).

§ 17571. Great bodily injury to child under five years old 17571. A person who personally inflicts great bodily injury on a child under the age of five years in the commission or attempted commission of a felony shall, in addition and consecutive to the punishment prescribed for the felony or attempted felony of which he or she has been convicted, be punished by an additional term of four, five, or six years, unless infliction of great bodily injury is an element of the offense of which he or she is convicted.

Comment. Section 17571 is added as part of a nonsubstantive reorganization of sentence enhancements for crimes that cause an injury. This section continues the first sentence of former Section 12022.7(d) without change. See Section 17505 (“great bodily injury” defined).

§ 17572. Willful harm or injury resulting in death of child 17572. Any person convicted of a violation of Section 273a, who under circumstances or conditions likely to produce great bodily harm or death, willfully causes or permits any child to suffer, or inflicts thereon unjustifiable physical pain or injury that results in death, or having the care or custody of any child, under circumstances likely to produce great bodily harm or death, willfully causes or permits that child to be injured or harmed, and that injury or harm results in death, shall receive a four-year enhancement for each violation, in addition to the sentence provided for that conviction. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed as affecting the applicability of subdivision (a) of Section 187 or Section 192.

Comment. Section 17572 is added as part of a nonsubstantive reorganization of sentence enhancements for crimes that cause an injury. This section continues the first two sentences of former Section 12022.95 without change.

§ 17573. Child abuse involving female genital mutilation

17573. (a) If the act constituting a felony violation of subdivision (a) of Section 273a was female genital mutilation, as defined in subdivision (b), the defendant shall be punished by an additional term of imprisonment in the state prison for one year, in addition and consecutive to the punishment prescribed by Section 273a.

(b) “Female genital mutilation” means the excision or infibulation of the labia majora, labia minora, clitoris, or vulva, performed for nonmedical purposes.

(c) Nothing in this section precludes prosecution under Section 203, 205, or 206 or any other provision of law.
Comment. Section 17573 is added as part of a nonsubstantive reorganization of sentence enhancements for crimes that cause an injury. This section restates language deleted from Section 273.4 without substantive change.

§ 17574. Controlled substance manufacture resulting in great bodily injury to child 17574. Any person convicted of a violation of, or of an attempt to violate, subdivision (a) of Section 11379.6 or Section 11383 of the Health and Safety Code, as those sections relate to methamphetamine or phencyclidine, where the commission of the crime causes any child under 16 years of age to suffer great bodily injury, shall, in addition and consecutive to the punishment prescribed for the felony of which he or she has been convicted, be punished by an additional term of five years in the state prison.

§ 17575. Controlled substance manufacture resulting in death or great bodily injury

17575. (a) Any person convicted of a violation of, or of an attempt to violate, subdivision (a) of Section 11379.6 or Section 11383 of the Health and Safety Code, as those sections relate to methamphetamine or phencyclidine, when the commission or attempted commission of the offense causes the death or great bodily injury of another person other than an accomplice, shall, in addition and consecutive to any other punishment authorized by law, be punished by an additional term of one year in the state prison for each death or injury.

(b) Nothing in this section shall preclude prosecution under both this section and Section 187, 192, 17565, 17566, 17567, or 17570, or any other provision of law. However, a person who is punished under another provision of law for causing death or great bodily injury as described in subdivision (a) shall not receive an additional term of imprisonment under this section.

Note. The purpose of subdivision (b) is unclear. The first sentence provides that a person may be “prosecuted” under Section 17575 as well as any of the specified sections. The second sentence seems to provide that a person may not receive an enhancement under this section if the person is punished under any other law for causing death or great bodily injury. This is probably meant as a reiteration of the general rule that a person may only receive a single enhancement (the greatest) for causing great bodily injury in commission of a single offense. See Section 1170.1(g). If so, it is superfluous. However, it might be read to mean that an enhancement under this section does not apply even if the punishment is for another offense, or if another applicable enhancement is of a lesser duration.

The Commission would like to receive comments on the meaning of subdivision (b) and whether it serves any useful purpose.
§ 17576. Poisoning resulting in great bodily injury or possibility of death 17576. Any violation of subdivision (a) of Section 347 involving the use of a poison or harmful substance that may cause death if ingested or that causes the infliction of great bodily injury on any person shall be punished by an additional term of three years.

§ 17577. Forced ingestion of controlled substance 17577. Any person who, for the purpose of committing a felony, administers by injection, inhalation, ingestion, or any other means, any controlled substance listed in Section 11054, 11055, 11056, 11057, or 11058 of the Health and Safety Code, against the victim’s will by means of force, violence, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury to the victim or another person, shall, in addition and consecutive to the penalty provided for the felony or attempted felony of which he or she has been convicted, be punished by an additional term of three years.

Comment. Section 17577 is added as part of a nonsubstantive reorganization of sentence enhancements for crimes that cause an injury. This section continues former Section 12022.75 without change.

§ 17578. Infliction of great bodily injury in commission of certain sexual offenses 17578. Any person who inflicts great bodily injury on any victim in a violation or attempted violation of paragraph (2), (3), or (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 261, paragraph (1) or (4) of subdivision (a) of Section 262, Section 264.1, subdivision (b) of Section 288, subdivision (a) of Section 289, or sodomy or oral copulation by force, violence, duress, menace, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person as provided in Section 286 or 288a shall receive a five-year enhancement for each such violation in addition to the sentence provided for the felony conviction.

Comment. Section 17578 is added as part of a nonsubstantive reorganization of sentence enhancements for crimes that cause an injury. This section continues former Section 12022.8 without substantive change. See Section 17505 (“great bodily injury” defined).

§ 17579. Commission of certain sexual offenses by person who knows he or she has AIDS

(b) Subdivision (a) applies to the following crimes:
(1) Rape in violation of Section 261.

(3) Rape of a spouse in violation of Section 262.

(4) Sodomy in violation of Section 286.

(5) Oral copulation in violation of Section 288a.

(c) For purposes of proving the knowledge requirement of this section, the prosecuting attorney may use test results received under subdivision (c) of Section 1202.1 or subdivision (g) of Section 1202.6.

Comment. Section 17579 is added as part of a nonsubstantive reorganization of sentence enhancements for crimes that cause an injury. This section continues former Section 12022.85 without change.

(b) The defendant proximately caused great bodily injury to more than one victim in any single violation of Section 451. The additional term provided by this subdivision shall be imposed whenever applicable, including any instance in which there is a violation of subdivision (a) of Section 451.

Comment. Section 17580 is added as part of a nonsubstantive reorganization of sentence enhancements for crimes that cause an injury. This section continues former Section 451.1(a)(2)-(3) without substantive change. See Section 17505 (“great bodily injury” defined).

§ 17581. Aggravated arson resulting in great bodily injury

17581. (a) Notwithstanding any other law, any person who is convicted of a felony violation of Section 452 shall be punished by a one-, two-, or three-year enhancement for each of the following circumstances that is found to be true:

(a) A firefighter, peace officer, or other emergency personnel suffered great bodily injury as a result of the offense. The additional term provided by this subdivision shall be imposed whenever applicable, including any instance in which there is a violation of subdivision (a) of Section 452.

(b) The defendant proximately caused great bodily injury to more than one victim in any single violation of Section 452. The additional term provided by this subdivision shall be imposed whenever applicable, including any instance in which there is a violation of subdivision (a) of Section 452.

Comment. Section 17581 is added as part of a nonsubstantive reorganization of sentence enhancements for crimes that cause an injury. This section continues former Section 452.1(a)(2)-(3) without substantive change. See Section 17505 (“great bodily injury” defined).

For the purposes of this section, “each day of violation” has the meaning provided in subdivision (f) of Section 25189.5 of the Health and Safety Code.

Comment. Section 17583 is added as part of a nonsubstantive reorganization of sentence enhancements for crimes that cause an injury. This section restates language deleted from Health and Safety Code Section 25189.5(e) without substantive change. See Section 17505 (“great bodily injury” defined).

§ 17584. Unlawful disposal, transport, or treatment of hazardous waste resulting in great bodily injury or probability of death prison for each additional injured victim. The maximum number of one year enhancements which may be imposed pursuant to this section is three.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the court may strike the enhancements provided in this section if it determines that there are circumstances in mitigation of the additional punishment and states on the record its reasons for striking the additional punishment.

Comment. Section 17585 is added as part of a nonsubstantive reorganization of sentence enhancements for crimes that cause an injury. This section continues language deleted from Vehicle Code Section 23558 without substantive change.

(a) Any person who, in violation of Section 600, and with intent to inflict injury or death, personally causes the death, destruction, or serious physical injury including bone fracture, loss or impairment of function of any bodily member, wounds requiring extensive suturing, or serious crippling, of any horse or dog, shall, upon conviction of a felony under Section 600, in addition and consecutive to the punishment prescribed for the felony, be punished by an additional term of imprisonment in the state prison for one year.

(b) Any person who, in violation of Section 600, and with the intent to inflict such injury, personally causes great bodily injury to any person not an accomplice, shall, upon conviction of a felony under Section 600, in addition and consecutive to the punishment prescribed for the felony, be punished by an additional term of imprisonment in the state prison for two years unless the conduct described in this subdivision is an element of any other offense of which the person is convicted.

§ 17588. Medi-Cal fraud resulting in injury

17588. If the execution of a scheme or artifice to defraud as defined in paragraph (4) of subdivision (b) of Section 14107 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is committed under circumstances likely to cause or that do cause two or more persons great bodily injury, or serious bodily injury, as defined in paragraph (4) of subdivision (f) of Section 243, a term of four years, in addition and consecutive to the term of imprisonment imposed in subdivision (c), shall be imposed for each person who suffers great bodily injury or serious bodily injury.

CONFORMING REVISIONS AND REPEALS

Note. There are a number of sections that contain references to provisions that are renumbered in the proposed law. Proposed legislation to update these cross-references has been prepared. With one exception, these purely technical changes are not set out below. - Vehicle Code Sections 1808.21, 23104, 23566, and 23665.

HEALTH AND SAFETY CODE

Health & Safety Code § 11379.7 (amended). Specified violations involving methamphetamine or phencyclidine

SEC. ___. Section 11379.7 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11379.7. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b) Section 17574 of the Penal Code, any person convicted of a violation of subdivision (a) of Section 11379.6 or Section 11383, or of an attempt to violate subdivision (a) of Section 11379.6 or Section 11383, as those sections relate to methamphetamine or phencyclidine, when the commission or attempted commission of the crime occurs in a structure where any child under 16 years of age is present, shall, in addition and consecutive to the punishment prescribed for the felony of which he or she has been convicted, be punished by an additional term of two years in the state prison.

(b) Any person convicted of a violation of subdivision (a) of Section 11379.6 or Section 11383, or of an attempt to violate subdivision (a) of Section 11379.6 or Section 11383, as those sections relate to methamphetamine or phencyclidine, where the commission of the crime causes any child under 16 years of age to suffer great bodily injury, shall, in addition and consecutive to the punishment prescribed for the felony of which he or she has been convicted, be punished by an additional term of five years in the state prison is subject to a sentence enhancement under Section 17574 or 17575 of the Penal Code.

(e) As used in this section, “structure” means any house, apartment building, shop, warehouse, barn, building, vessel, railroad car, cargo container, motor vehicle, housecar, trailer, trailer coach, camper, mine, floating home, or other enclosed structure capable of holding a child and manufacturing equipment.

(d) As used in this section, “great bodily injury” has the same meaning as defined in Section 12022.7 of the Penal Code.
Comment. The language deleted from Section 11379.7(b) is restated without substantive change in Penal Code Section 17574. A cross-reference to Penal Code Sections 17574 and 17575 has been added. Former subdivision (d) is continued without substantive change in Penal Code Section 17505.

Health & Safety Code § 11379.9 (repealed). Death or great bodily injury resulting from manufacture of methamphetamine or phencyclidine

SEC. ___. Section 11379.9 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

11379.9. (a) Except as provided by Section 11379.7, any person convicted of a violation of, or of an attempt to violate, subdivision (a) of Section 11379.6 or Section 11383, as those sections relate to methamphetamine or phencyclidine, when the commission or attempted commission of the offense causes the death or great bodily injury of another person other than an accomplice, shall, in addition and consecutive to any other punishment authorized by law, be punished by an additional term of one year in the state prison for each death or injury.

(b) Nothing in this section shall preclude prosecution under both this section and Section 187, 192, or 12022.7, or any other provision of law. However, a person who is punished under another provision of law for causing death or great bodily injury as described in subdivision (a) shall not receive an additional term of imprisonment under this section.

Comment. Former Section 11379.9 is continued without substantive change in Penal Code Section 17575. The introductory clause of subdivision (a) is redundant and is not continued. See Section 17560 (only single greatest enhancement for great bodily injury applied). This is a technical, nonsubstantive change.

Note. The introductory clause of subdivision (a) appears to be redundant in light of the general rule provided in proposed Section 17560 and is not continued in the proposed law. The Commission believes that this is a nonsubstantive change, but would like to receive comments on this point.

Health & Safety Code § 25189.5 (amended). Unauthorized disposal, or treatment of hazardous waste

SEC. ___. Section 25189.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25189.5. (a) The disposal of any hazardous waste, or the causing thereof, is prohibited when the disposal is at a facility which does not have a permit from the department issued pursuant to this chapter, or at any point which is not authorized according to this chapter.

(b) Any person who is convicted of knowingly disposing or causing the disposal of any hazardous waste, or who reasonably should have known that he or she was disposing or causing the disposal of any hazardous waste, at a facility which does not have a permit from the department issued pursuant to this chapter, or at any point which is not authorized according to this chapter shall, upon conviction, be punished by imprisonment in a county jail for not more than one year or by imprisonment in the state prison.

(c) Any person who knowingly transports or causes the transportation of hazardous waste, or who reasonably should have known that he or she was causing

(b), (c), or (d), a fine of not less than five thousand dollars ($5,000) nor more than one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) for each day of violation, except as further provided in this subdivision. If the act which violated subdivision (b), (c), or (d) caused great bodily injury, or caused a substantial probability that death could result, the person convicted of violating subdivision (b), (c), or (d) may be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for one, two, or three years, in addition and consecutive to the term specified in subdivision (b), (c), or (d), and may be fined up to two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) for each day of violation Section 17583 of the Penal Code.
(f) For purposes of this section, except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, “each day of violation” means each day on which a violation continues. In any case where a person has disposed or caused the disposal of any hazardous waste in violation of this section, each day that the waste remains disposed of in violation of this section and the person has knowledge thereof is a separate additional violation, unless the person has filed a report of the disposal with the department and is complying with any order concerning the disposal issued by the department, a hearing officer, or court of competent jurisdiction.
Comment. The language deleted from Section 25189.5(e) is restated without substantive change in Penal Code Section 17583.

Health & Safety Code § 25189.7 (amended). Burning or incineration at unpermitted facility or unauthorized point
SEC. ___. Section 25189.7 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:
25189.7. (a) The burning or incineration of any hazardous waste, or the causing thereof, is prohibited when the burning or incineration is at a facility which does not have a permit from the department issued pursuant to this chapter, or at any point which is not authorized according to this chapter.
(b) Any person who is convicted of knowingly burning or incinerating, or causing the burning or incineration of, any hazardous waste, or who reasonably should have known that he or she was burning or incinerating, or causing the burning or incineration of, any hazardous waste, at a facility which does not have a permit from the department issued pursuant to this chapter, or at any point which is not authorized according to this chapter, shall, upon conviction, be punished by imprisonment in a county jail for not more than one year or by imprisonment in the state prison.

(c) The court also shall impose upon a person convicted of violating subdivision (b) a fine of not less than five thousand dollars ($5,000) nor more than one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) for each day of violation, except as otherwise provided in this subdivision. If the act which violated subdivision (b) caused great bodily injury or caused a substantial probability that death could result, the person convicted of violating subdivision (b) may be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for one, two, or three years, in addition and consecutive to the term specified in subdivision (b), and may be fined up to two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) for each day of violation Section 17584 of the Penal Code.

Comment. The language deleted from Section 25189.7(c) is restated without substantive change in Penal Code Section 17584.

PENAL CODE

Penal Code § 273.4 (amended). Female genital mutilation

SEC. ____. Section 273.4 of the Penal Code is repealed.

273.4. (a) If the act constituting a felony violation of subdivision (a) of Section 273a was female genital mutilation, as defined in subdivision (b), the defendant shall be punished by an additional term of imprisonment in the state prison for one year, in addition and consecutive to the punishment prescribed by Section 273a of Section 17573, the defendant is subject to a sentence enhancement under that Section.

(b) “Female genital mutilation” means the excision or infibulation of the labia majora, labia minora, clitoris, or vulva, performed for nonmedical purposes.

(c) Nothing in this section shall preclude prosecution under Section 203, 205, or 206 or any other provision of law.

Penal Code § 347 (amended). Poisoning or adulterating food, drink, medicine, pharmaceutical products, spring, well, or reservoir

SEC. ____. Section 347 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

347. (a) (1) Every person who willfully mingles any poison or harmful substance with any food, drink, medicine, or pharmaceutical product or who willfully places any poison or harmful substance in any spring, well, reservoir, or public water supply, where the person knows or should have known that the same would be taken by any human being to his or her injury, is guilty of a felony punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for two, four, or five years. imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed one year.
(c) The court may impose the maximum fine for each item tampered with in violation of subdivision (a).

Comment. Former Section 347(a)(2) is continued without substantive change in Section 17576. A cross-reference to Penal Code Section 17576 has been added.

Penal Code § 368 (amended). Abuse of elder or dependent adult

SEC. ___. Section 368 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

368. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that crimes against elders and dependent adults are deserving of special consideration and protection, not unlike the special protections provided for minor children, because elders and dependent adults may be confused, on various medications, mentally or physically impaired, or incompetent, and therefore less able to protect themselves, to understand or report criminal conduct, or to testify in court proceedings on their own behalf.
(b)(1) Any person who, under circumstances or conditions likely to produce suffers great bodily injury, as defined in subdivision (e) of Section 12022.7, the defendant shall receive an additional term in the state prison as follows:

(A) Three years if the victim is under 70 years of age.
(B) Five years if the victim is 70 years of age or older.
(3) If in the commission of an offense described in paragraph (1), the defendant proximately causes the death of the victim, the defendant shall receive an additional term in the state prison as follows:
(A) Five years if the victim is under 70 years of age.
(B) Seven years if the victim is 70 years of age or older.
(c) Any person who, under circumstances or conditions other than those likely to produce great bodily harm or death, willfully causes or permits any elder or dependent adult, with knowledge that he or she is an elder or a dependent adult, to suffer, or inflicts thereon unjustifiable physical pain or mental suffering, or having the care or custody of any elder or dependent adult, willfully causes or permits the person or health of the elder or dependent adult to be injured or willfully causes or permits the elder or dependent adult to be placed in a situation in which his or her person or health may be endangered, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(d) Any person who is not a caretaker who violates any provision of law proscribing theft or embezzlement, with respect to the property of an elder or dependent adult, and who knows or reasonably should know that the victim is an elder or dependent adult, is punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year, or in the state prison for two, three, or four years, when the money, labor, or real or personal property taken is of a value exceeding four hundred dollars ($400); and by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000), by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year, or by both that fine and imprisonment, when the money, labor, or real or personal property taken is of a value not exceeding four hundred dollars ($400).

(f) Any person who commits the false imprisonment of an elder or dependent adult by the use of violence, menace, fraud, or deceit is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for two, three, or four years.

(g) As used in this section, “elder” means any person who is 65 years of age or older.

(h) As used in this section, “dependent adult” means any person who is between the ages of 18 and 64, who has physical or mental limitations which restrict his or her ability to carry out normal activities or to protect his or her rights, including, but not limited to, persons who have physical or developmental disabilities or whose physical or mental abilities have diminished because of age. “Dependent adult” includes any person between the ages of 18 and 64 who is admitted as an inpatient to a 24-hour health facility, as defined in Sections 1250, 1250.2, and 1250.3 of the Health and Safety Code.

(i) As used in this section, “caretaker” means any person who has the care, custody, or control of, or who stands in a position of trust with, an elder or a dependent adult.
(j) Nothing in this section shall preclude prosecution under both this section and Section 187 or 12022.7 or any other provision of law. However, a person shall not receive an additional term of imprisonment under both paragraphs (2) and (3) of subdivision (b) for any single offense, nor shall a person receive an additional term of imprisonment under both Section 12022.7 and paragraph (2) or
(3) of subdivision (b) for any single offense.

Comment. Former Section 368(b)(2)-(3) is continued without substantive change in Section 17568. A cross-reference to Penal Code Section 17568 has been added.
The second sentence of subdivision (j) is redundant and has been deleted. See Section 17560.
This is a technical, nonsubstantive change.

Note. The second sentence in subdivision (j) appears to be redundant with respect to the general rule provided in proposed Section 17560 and is not continued in the proposed law. The Commission believes that this is a nonsubstantive change, but would like to receive comments on this point.

SEC. ___. Section 451.1 of the Penal Code is amended to read:
451.1. (a) Notwithstanding any other law, any person who is convicted of a fire or delay ignition.

(b) The sentence for a felony violation of Section 451 is also subject to enhancement under Section 17580.
The additional term specified in subdivision (a) shall not be imposed unless the existence of any fact required under this section shall be alleged in the accusatory pleading and either admitted by the defendant in open court or found to be true by the trier of fact.
Comment. Former Section 451.1(a)(2)-(3) is continued without substantive change in Section 17580.

Former subdivision (b) is deleted as redundant. See Section 1170.1(e). This is a technical, nonsubstantive change.

Note. Subdivision (b) appears to be redundant with respect to the general rule provided in Section 1170.1(e) and is not continued in the proposed law. The Commission believes that this is a nonsubstantive change, but would like to receive comments on this point.

Penal Code § 452.1 (amended). Aggravated arson

(2) The defendant proximately caused multiple structures to burn in any single violation of Section 452.

(b) The sentence for a felony violation of Section 452 is also subject to enhancement under Section 17581.

The additional term specified in subdivision (a) of Section 452.1 shall not be imposed unless the existence of any fact required under this section shall be alleged in the accusatory pleading and either admitted by the defendant in open court or found to be true by the trier of fact.

Comment. Former Section 452.1(a)(2)-(3) is continued without substantive change in Section 17581.

Former subdivision (b) is deleted as redundant. See Section 1170.1(e). This is a technical, nonsubstantive change.

Note. Subdivision (b) appears to be redundant with respect to the general rule provided in Section 1170.1(e) and is not continued in the proposed law. The Commission believes that this is a nonsubstantive change, but would like to receive comments on this point.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, probation shall not be granted to, nor shall the execution or imposition of a sentence be suspended for, any adult person convicted of felony violations of this section who previously has been convicted of felony violations of this section or Section 548, or of Section 1871.4 of the Insurance Code, or former Section 556 of the Insurance Code, or former Section 1871.1 of the Insurance Code as an adult under charges separately brought and tried two or more times. The existence of any fact that would make a person ineligible for probation under this subdivision shall be alleged in the information or indictment, and either admitted by the defendant in an open court, or found to be true by the jury trying the issue of guilt or by the court where guilt is established by plea of guilty or nolo contendere or by trial by the court sitting without a jury.

(e) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (f), any person who violates subdivision (a) or (b) and who has a prior felony conviction of an offense set forth in either subdivision (a) or (b), in Section 548, in Section 1871.4 of the Insurance Code, in former Section 556 of the Insurance Code, or in former Section 1871.1 of the Insurance Code shall receive a two-year enhancement for each prior felony conviction in addition to the sentence provided in subdivision (c). The existence of any fact that would subject a person to a penalty enhancement shall be alleged in the information or indictment and either admitted by the defendant in open court, or found to be true by the jury trying the issue of guilt or by the court where guilt is established by plea of guilty or nolo contendere or by trial by the court sitting without a jury. Any person who violates this section shall be subject to appropriate orders of restitution pursuant to Section 13967 of the Government Code.

Comment. The language deleted from Section 550(g) is continued without substantive change in Section 17586(a). A cross-reference to Section 17586 has been added.

The second sentence of subdivision (f) is redundant and is not continued. See Section 1170.1(e). The introductory clause of subdivision (g) is redundant and is not continued. See Section 17560. These are technical, nonsubstantive changes.

Note. The second sentence of subdivision (f) appears to be redundant with respect to the general rule provided in Section 1170.1(e) and is not continued in the proposed law. The introductory clauses of subdivisions (a)(1), (a)(2), (c), and (d) appear to be redundant in light of the general rule provided in proposed Section 17560 and are not continued in the proposed law.
The Commission believes that these are nonsubstantive changes, but would like to receive comments on this point.

of lumber or other wood product, is guilty of a felony. The sentence for a violation of this section is subject to enhancement under Section 17582.
(b) Any person who violates subdivision (a) and causes bodily injury to another person other than an accomplice shall, in addition and consecutive to the punishment prescribed for that felony, be punished by an additional prison term of three years.
Comment. Former Section 593a(b) is continued without substantive change in Section 17582.
A cross-reference to Penal Code Section 17582 has been added.

Penal Code § 600 (amended). Harm to or interference with horses or dogs used by peace officers
SEC. ___. Section 600 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

strikes, beats, kicks, cuts, stabs, shoots with a firearm, administers any poison or other harmful or stupefying substance to, or throws, hurls, or projects at, or places any rock, object, or other substance which is used in such a manner as to be capable of producing injury and likely to produce injury, on or in the path of, any horse being used by, or any dog under the supervision of, any peace officer in the discharge or attempted discharge of his or her duties, is guilty of a public offense.
If the injury inflicted is a serious injury, as defined in subdivision (c), the person shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months, two or three years, or in a county jail for not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding two thousand dollars ($2,000), or by both a fine and imprisonment. If the injury inflicted is not a serious injury, the person shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding one thousand agitating, harassing, or hindering the horse or dog shall be punished by imprisonment in a county jail for not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both a fine and imprisonment.

(c) Any person who, in violation of this section, and with intent to inflict such injury or death, personally causes the death, destruction, or serious physical injury including bone fracture, loss or impairment of function of any bodily member, wounds requiring extensive suturing, or serious crippling, of any horse or dog, shall, upon conviction of a felony under this section, in addition and consecutive to the punishment prescribed for the felony, be punished by an additional term of imprisonment in the state prison for one year.

Comment. Former Section 600(c)-(d) is continued without substantive change in Section 17587. A cross reference to Section 17587 has been added. A cross-reference to Penal Code Section 17587 has been added.

The final clause in subdivision (d), “or receives an enhancement under Section 12022.7,” is redundant and is not continued. See Section 17560 (only single greatest enhancement for great bodily injury applied). This is a technical, nonsubstantive change.

Note. The final clause of subdivision (d) appears to be redundant in light of the general rule provided in proposed Section 17560. and is not continued in the proposed law. The Commission believes that this is a nonsubstantive change, but would like to receive comments on this point.

SEC. ___. Section 666.7 of the Penal Code is repealed.

666.7. It is the intent of the Legislature that this section serve merely as a nonsubstantive comparative reference of current sentence enhancement provisions. Penal Code § 1170.1 (amended). Consecutive and aggregate terms

SEC. ___. Section 1170.1 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1170.1 (a) Except as otherwise provided by law, and subject to Section 654, when any person is convicted of two or more felonies, whether in the same proceeding or court or in different proceedings or courts, and whether by judgment rendered by the same or by a different court, and a consecutive term of imprisonment is imposed under Sections 669 and 1170, the aggregate term of imprisonment for all these convictions shall be the sum of the principal term, the subordinate term, and any additional term imposed for applicable enhancements for prior convictions, prior prison terms, and Section 12022.1. The principal term shall consist of the greatest term of imprisonment imposed by the court for any of the crimes, including any term imposed for applicable specific enhancements. The subordinate term for each consecutive offense shall consist of one-third of the middle term of imprisonment prescribed for each other felony conviction for which a consecutive term of imprisonment is imposed, and shall exclude any specific enhancements. The subordinate term for each consecutive offense which is a “violent felony,” as defined in any paragraph of subdivision (c) of Section 667.5, shall consist of one-third of the middle term of imprisonment prescribed for each other felony conviction for an offense that is a violent felony for which a consecutive term of imprisonment is imposed, and shall include one-third of the term imposed for any specific enhancements applicable to those subordinate offenses.

(b) When a consecutive term of imprisonment is imposed under Sections 669 and 1170 for two or more convictions for kidnapping, as defined in Section 207, involving separate victims, the aggregate term shall be calculated as provided in subdivision (a), except that the subordinate term for each subordinate kidnapping conviction shall consist of the full middle term for each kidnapping conviction for which a consecutive term of imprisonment is imposed and shall include the full term imposed for specific enhancements applicable to those subordinate offenses.

(c) In the case of any person convicted of one or more felonies committed while the person is confined in a state prison or is subject to reimprisonment for escape from custody and the law either requires the terms to be served consecutively or the court imposes consecutive terms, the term of imprisonment for all the convictions that the person is required to serve consecutively shall commence from the time the person would otherwise have been released from prison. If the new offenses are consecutive with each other, the principal and subordinate terms shall be calculated as provided in subdivision (a). This subdivision shall be applicable in cases of convictions of more than one offense in different proceedings, and convictions of more than one offense in the same or different proceedings.

(d) When the court imposes a prison sentence for a felony pursuant to Section 1170, the court shall also impose the additional terms provided for any applicable enhancements. The court shall also impose any other additional term that the court determines in its discretion or as required by law shall run consecutive to the term imposed under Section 1170. In considering the imposition of the additional term, the court shall apply the sentencing rules of the Judicial Council.

(e) All enhancements shall be alleged in the accusatory pleading and either admitted by the defendant in open court or found to be true by the trier of fact.

(f) When two or more enhancements may be imposed for being armed with or using a dangerous or deadly weapon or a firearm in the commission of a single offense, only the greatest of those enhancements shall be imposed for that offense. This subdivision shall not limit the imposition of any other enhancements applicable to that offense, including an enhancement for the infliction of great bodily injury.

(g) When two or more enhancements may be imposed for the infliction of great bodily injury in the commission of a single offense, only the greatest of those enhancements shall be imposed for that offense. This subdivision shall not limit the imposition of any other enhancements applicable to that offense, including an enhancement for being armed with or using a dangerous or deadly weapon or a firearm.

(h) For any violation of an offense specified in Section 667.6, the number of enhancements that may be imposed shall not be limited, regardless of whether the enhancements are pursuant to this section, Section 667.6, or some other provision of law. Each of the enhancements shall be a full and separately served enhancement and shall not be merged with any term or with any other enhancement.

Comment. Former Section 1170.1 (f) and (g) are continued without substantive change in Sections 17525 and 17560 respectively.

Penal Code § 1170.2 (amended). Felonies committed prior to July 1, 1977
SEC. ___. Section 1170.2 of the Penal Code is amended to read: 1170.2. (a) In the case of any inmate who committed a felony prior to July 1, 1977, who would have been sentenced under Section 1170 if he or she had committed it after July 1, 1977, the Board of Prison Terms shall determine what the length of time of imprisonment would have been under Section 1170 without consideration of good-time credit and utilizing the middle term of the offense bearing the longest term of imprisonment of which the prisoner was convicted increased by any enhancements justified by matters found to be true and which were imposed by the court at the time of sentencing for such felony. These matters include: being armed with a deadly or dangerous weapon as specified in Section 211a, 460, 3024, or 12022 prior to July 1, 1977, which may result in a one-year enhancement pursuant to the provisions of Section 12022 17531; using a firearm as specified in Section 12022.5 prior to July 1, 1977, which may result in a two-three-, four-, or 10-year enhancement pursuant to the provisions of Section 12022.5 17546; infliction of great bodily injury as specified in Section 213, 264, or 461 prior to July 1, 1977, which may result in a three-year enhancement pursuant to the provisions of Section 12022.7 17565; any prior felony conviction as specified in any statute prior to July 1, 1977, which prior felony conviction is the equivalent of a prior prison term as defined in Section 667.5, which may result in the appropriate enhancement pursuant to the provisions of Section 667.5; and any consecutive sentence.

(b) If the calculation required under subdivision (a) is less than the time to be served prior to a release date set prior to July 1, 1977, or if a release date had not been set, the Board of Prison Terms shall establish the prisoner’s parole date, subject to subdivision (d), on the date calculated under subdivision (a) unless at least two of the commissioners of the Board of Prison Terms after reviewing the prisoner’s file, determine that due to the number of crimes of which the prisoner was convicted, or due to the number of prior convictions suffered by the prisoner, or due to the fact that the prisoner was armed with a deadly weapon when the crime was committed, or used a deadly weapon during the commission of the crime, or inflicted or attempted to inflict great bodily injury on the victim of the crime, the prisoner should serve a term longer than that calculated in subdivision (a), in which event the prisoner shall be entitled to a hearing before a panel consisting of at least two commissioners of the Board of Prison Terms as provided for in Section 3041.5. The Board of Prison Terms shall notify each prisoner who is scheduled for such a hearing within 90 days of July 1, 1977, or within 90 days of the date the prisoner is received by or returned to the custody of the Department of Corrections, whichever is later. The hearing shall be held before October 1, 1978, or within 120 days of receipt of the prisoner, whichever is later. It is the intent of the Legislature that the hearings provided for in this subdivision shall be accomplished in the most expeditious manner possible. At the hearing the prisoner shall be entitled to be represented by legal counsel, a release date shall be set, and the prisoner shall be informed in writing of the extraordinary factors specifically considered determinative and on what basis the release date has been calculated. In fixing a term under this section the board shall be guided by, but not limited to, the term which reasonably could be imposed on a person who committed similar offense under similar circumstances on or after July 1, 1977, and further, the board shall be guided by the following finding and declaration hereby made by the Legislature: that the necessity to protect the public from repetition of extraordinary crimes of violence against the person is the paramount consideration.

(c) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to keep an inmate in the custody of the Department of Corrections for a period of time longer than he would have been kept in its custody under the provisions of law applicable to him prior to July 1, 1977. Nothing in this section shall be deemed to require the release of an inmate sentenced to consecutive sentences under the provisions of law applicable to him prior to July 1, 1977, earlier than if he had been sentenced to concurrent sentences.

(d) In the case of any prisoner who committed a felony prior to July 1, 1977, who would have been sentenced under Section 1170 if the felony was committed on or after July 1, 1977, the good behavior and participation provisions of Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 2930) of Chapter 7 of Title 1 of Part 3 shall apply from July 1, 1977, and thereafter.

(e) In the case of any inmate who committed a felony prior to July 1, 1977, who would have been sentenced under Section 1168 if the felony was committed on or after July 1, 1977, the Board of Prison Terms shall provide for release from prison as provided for by this code.

(f) In the case of any inmate who committed a felony prior to July 1, 1977, the length, conditions, revocation, and other incidents of parole shall be the same as if the prisoner had been sentenced for an offense committed on or after July 1, 1977.

(g) Nothing in this chapter shall affect the eligibility for parole under Article 3 (commencing with Section 3040) of Chapter 8 of Title 1 of Part 3 of an inmate sentenced pursuant to Section 1168 as operative prior to July 1, 1977, for a period of parole as specified in subdivision (b) of Section 3000.
(h) In fixing a term under this section, the Board of Prison Terms shall utilize the terms of imprisonment as provided in Chapter 1139 of the Statutes of 1976 and Chapter 165 of the Statutes of 1977.

Comment. Section 1170.2 is amended to update obsolete references to former Sections 12022, 12022.5, and 12022.7, and to update the term of an enhancement under former Section 12022.5(a).

Note. Subdivision (a) provides for sentencing of crimes committed before July 1, 1977 (the effective date of the Determinate Sentencing Law). With respect to such crimes, “the Board of Prison Terms shall determine what the length of time of imprisonment would have been under Section 1170 without consideration of good-time credit and utilizing the middle term of the offense bearing the longest term of imprisonment of which the prisoner was convicted increased by any enhancements justified by matters found to be true and which were imposed by the court at the time of sentencing for such felony.” The provision then cites examples of matters justifying enhancement. These include possession of a deadly weapon, use of a firearm, infliction of great bodily injury, and prior convictions. The proposed law updates these references to conform to the new section numbers and to reflect the increased term of enhancement for use of a firearm. The Commission believes that these are nonsubstantive changes, but would like to receive comments on whether the proposed changes would create any problems.

Penal Code § 1170.89 (repealed). Knowledge that firearm was stolen

SEC. ___. Section 1170.89 of the Penal Code is repealed.

1170.89. Where there is an applicable triad for an enhancement related to the possession of, being armed with, use of, or furnishing or supplying a firearm, set forth in Section 12021.5, 12022, 12022.2, 12022.3, 12022.4, 12022.5, 12022.55, or 12280, the fact that a person knew or had reason to believe that a firearm was stolen shall constitute a circumstance in aggravation of the enhancement justifying imposition of the upper term on that enhancement.

Comment. Former Section 1170.89 is continued without substantive change in Section 17521.

Penal Code § 12021.5 (repealed). Street gang crimes

SEC. ___. Section 12021.5 of the Penal Code is repealed.

The court shall impose the middle term unless there are circumstances in aggravation or mitigation. The court shall state the reasons for its enhancement choice on the record at the time of sentence.

(b) Every person who carries a loaded or unloaded firearm together with a detachable shotgun magazine, a detachable pistol magazine, a detachable magazine, or a belt feeding device on his or her person, or in a vehicle, during the commission or attempted commission of any street gang crimes described in subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 186.22, shall, upon conviction of the felony or attempted felony, be punished by an additional term of imprisonment in the state prison for one, two, or three years in the court’s discretion. The court shall impose the middle term unless there are circumstances in aggravation or mitigation. The court shall state the reasons for its enhancement choice on the record at the time of sentence.

12022. (a)(1) Except as provided in subdivisions (c) and (d), any person who is armed with a firearm in the commission or attempted commission of a felony shall, upon conviction of that felony or attempted felony, in addition and consecutive to the punishment prescribed for the felony or attempted felony of which he or she has been convicted, be punished by an additional term of one year, unless the arming is an element of the offense of which he or she was convicted.
This additional term shall apply to any person who is a principal in the commission or attempted commission of a felony if one or more of the principals is armed with a firearm, whether or not the person is personally armed with a firearm.

(2) Except as provided in subdivision (c), and notwithstanding subdivision (d), if the firearm is an assault weapon, as defined in Section 12276 or Section 12276.1, subdivision shall be three years whether or not the arming is an element of the paragraph shall apply to any person who is a principal in the commission or attempted commission of a felony if one or more of the principals is armed with an assault weapon or machinegun whether or not the person is personally armed with an assault weapon or machinegun.

(b)(1) Any person who personally uses a deadly or dangerous weapon in the commission or attempted commission of a felony shall, upon conviction of that felony or attempted felony, in addition and consecutive to the punishment prescribed for the felony or attempted felony of which he or she has been convicted, be punished by an additional term of one year, unless use of a deadly or dangerous weapon is an element of the offense of which he or she was convicted.

(2) If the person described in paragraph (1) has been convicted of carjacking or attempted carjacking, the additional term shall be one, two, or three years.

(3) When a person is found to have personally used a deadly or dangerous weapon in the commission or attempted commission of a felony as provided in this subdivision and the weapon is owned by that person, the court shall order that the weapon be deemed a nuisance and disposed of in the manner provided in Section 12028.

(c) Notwithstanding the enhancement set forth in subdivision (a), any person

The court shall order the middle term unless there are circumstances in aggravation or mitigation. The court shall state the reasons for its enhancement choice on the record at the time of the sentence.

(e) For purposes of imposing an enhancement under Section 1170.1, the enhancements under this section shall count as one, single enhancement.

(f) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the court may strike the additional punishment for the enhancements provided in subdivision (c) or (d) in an unusual case where the interests of justice would best be served, if the court specifies on the record and enters into the minutes the circumstances indicating that the interests of justice would best be served by that disposition.

When an enhancement specified in this section has been admitted or found to be true, the court shall impose punishment pursuant to this section rather than imposing punishment authorized under any other provision of law, unless another provision of law provides for a greater penalty or a longer term of imprisonment.

(2) The competition or match is conducted on the premises of one of the following:
   (i) A target range that holds a regulatory or business license for the purpose of practicing shooting at that target range.
   (ii) A target range of a public or private club or organization that is organized for the purpose of practicing shooting at targets.

(3) The match or competition is sponsored by, conducted under the auspices of, or approved by, a law enforcement agency or a nationally or state recognized entity that fosters proficiency in, or promotes education about, firearms.
(4) The assault weapon is transported in accordance with Section 12026.1 or 12026.2.

VEHICLE CODE

Veh. Code § 23558 (repealed). Causing bodily injury or death to more than one victim while driving in violation of specified sections

SEC. ___. Section 23558 of the Vehicle Code is repealed

23558. Any person who proximately causes bodily injury or death to more than one victim in any one instance of driving in violation of Section 23153 of this code or in violation of Section 191.5 of, or paragraph (3) of subdivision (c) of Section 192 of, the Penal Code, shall, upon a felony conviction, and notwithstanding subdivision (g) of Section 1170.1 of the Penal Code, receive an enhancement of one year in the state prison for each additional injured victim. The enhanced sentence provided for in this section shall not be imposed unless the fact of the bodily injury to each additional victim is charged in the accusatory pleading and admitted or found to be true by the trier of fact. The maximum number of one year enhancements which may be imposed pursuant to this section is three.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the court may strike the enhancements provided in this section if it determines that there are circumstances in mitigation of the additional punishment and states on the record its reasons for striking the additional punishment.

Comment. Former Section 23558 is continued without substantive change in Penal Code Section 17585. The second sentence is redundant and is not continued. See Penal Code § 1170.1(e). This is a technical, nonsubstantive change.

Note. The second sentence appears to be redundant with respect to the general rule provided in Section 1170.1(e) and is not continued in the proposed law. The Commission believes that this is a nonsubstantive change, but would like to receive comments on this point.

Veh. Code § 23558 (added). Causing bodily injury or death to more than one victim while driving in violation of specified sections

SEC. ___. Section 23558 of the Vehicle Code is added to read:

23558. The sentence for a violation of Section 23153 is subject to enhancement under Section 17585 of the Penal Code.

Comment. Section 23558 is added to provide a cross-reference to Penal Code Section 17585, which continues former Section 23558 without substantive change.

WE L F A R E A N D I N S T I T U T I O N S C O D E

Welf. & Inst.Code § 14107 (amended). Fraudulent claims

SEC. ___. Section 14107 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

14107. (a) Any person, including any applicant or provider as defined in Section 14043.1, or billing agent, as defined in Section 14040.1, who engages in any of the activities identified in subdivision (b) is punishable by imprisonment as set forth in subdivisions (c), (d), and (e), by a fine not exceeding three times the amount of the fraud or improper reimbursement or value of the scheme or artifice, or by both this fine and imprisonment.

(b) The following activities are subject to subdivision (a):

(1) A person, with intent to defraud, presents for allowance or payment any false or fraudulent claim for furnishing services or merchandise under this chapter or Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 14200).

(2) A person knowingly submits false information for the purpose of obtaining greater compensation than that to which he or she is legally entitled for furnishing services or merchandise under this chapter or Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 14200).

(3) A person knowingly submits false information for the purpose of obtaining authorization for furnishing services or merchandise under this chapter or Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 14200).
(4) A person knowingly and willfully executes, or attempts to execute, a scheme or artifice to do either of the following:

(A) Defraud the Medi-Cal program or any other health care program administered by the department or its agents or contractors.

(B) Obtain, by means of false or fraudulent pretenses, representations, or promises, any of the money or property owned by, or under the custody or control of, the Medi-Cal program or any other health care program administered by the department or its agents or contractors, in connection with the delivery of or payment for health care benefits, services, goods, supplies, or merchandise.

(c) A violation of subdivision (a) is punishable by imprisonment in a county jail, or in the state prison for two, three, or five years.

(d) If the execution of a scheme or artifice to defraud as defined in paragraph (4) of subdivision (b) is committed under circumstances likely to cause or that do cause two or more persons great bodily injury, as defined in Section 12022.7 of the Penal Code, or serious bodily injury, as defined in paragraph (4) of subdivision (f) of Section 243 of the Penal Code, a term of four years, in addition and consecutive to the term of imprisonment imposed in subdivision (c), shall be imposed for each person who suffers great bodily injury or serious bodily injury. The additional terms provided in this subdivision shall not be imposed unless the facts showing the circumstances that were likely to cause or that did cause great bodily injury or serious bodily injury to two or more persons are charged in the accusatory pleading and admitted or found to be true by the trier of fact.

(d) The sentence provided in subdivision (c) is subject to enhancement under Section 17588 of the Penal Code.

(e) If the execution of a scheme or artifice to defraud, as defined in paragraph (4) of subdivision (b) results in a death which constitutes a second degree murder, as defined in Section 189 of the Penal Code, the offense shall be punishable, upon conviction, pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 190 of the Penal Code.

(f) Any person, including an applicant or provider as defined in Section 14043.1, or billing agent, as defined in Section 14040.1, who has engaged in any of the activities subject to fine or imprisonment under this section, shall be subject to the asset forfeiture provisions for criminal profiteering.

(g) Pursuant to Section 923 of the Penal Code, the Attorney General may convene a grand jury to investigate and indict for any of the activities subject to fine, imprisonment, or asset forfeiture under this section.

(h) The enforcement remedies provided under this section are not exclusive and shall not preclude the use of any other criminal or civil remedy. However, an act or omission punishable in different ways by this section and other provisions of law shall not be punished under more than one provision, but the penalty to be imposed shall be determined as set forth in Section 654 of the Penal Code.

Comment. The former first sentence of Section 14107(d) is continued without substantive change in Penal Code Section 17588. A cross-reference to Penal Code Section 17585 has been added. The former second sentence of subdivision (d) is redundant and is not continued. See Penal Code Section 1170.1(e).

Note. The second sentence of subdivision (d) appears to be redundant with respect to the general rule provided in Section 1170.1(e) and is not continued in the proposed law. The Commission believes that this is a nonsubstantive change, but would like to receive comments on this point.
