Statutes Made Obsolete by Trial Court Restructuring

Request for Public Comment

The California Law Revision Commission seeks public comment on its tentative recommendation relating to statutes made obsolete by trial court restructuring. The tentative recommendation addresses the following areas:

- Court appearance by two-way audiovideo communication (Penal Code §§ 977, 977.2).
- Appellate jurisdiction (Code Civ. Proc. § 904.1(a)(1)(C)). This reform would affect both civil and criminal cases.
- Writ jurisdiction in a small claims case.
- Statutes that might be construed to confer concurrent jurisdiction on the superior courts and the former municipal courts (Bus. & Prof. Code §§ 6455, 12606, 12606.2; Code Civ. Proc. §§ 580, 688.010; Food & Agric. Code §§ 25564, 29733, 43039, 59289; Gov't Code §§ 12965, 12980).

The tentative recommendation is available from the California Law Revision Commission, 4000 Middlefield Road, Room D-1, Palo Alto, CA 94303-4739. The tentative recommendation is also available at the Commission's website (www.clrc.ca.gov) in the pull-down "Reports" menu.

The Commission often substantially revises its recommendations as a result of public comment. To receive timely consideration, comments should be submitted by November 1, 2006.
