2001-2002 ANNUAL REPORT

Introduction

The California Law Revision Commission was created in 1953 as the permanent successor to the Code Commission and given responsibility for a continuing substantive review of California statutory and decisional law.¹ The Commission studies the law to discover defects and anachronisms and recommends legislation to make needed reforms.

The Commission assists the Legislature in keeping the law up to date by:

- Intensively studying complex and sometimes controversial subjects
- Identifying major policy questions for legislative attention
- Gathering the views of interested persons and organizations
- Drafting recommended legislation for legislative consideration

The Commission's efforts enable the Legislature to focus on significant policy questions in a recommendation rather than on the technical issues, which can be resolved in the process of preparing background studies, working out intricate legal problems, and drafting implementing legislation. The Commission thus helps the Legislature accomplish needed reforms that otherwise might not be made because of the heavy demands on legislative time. In some cases, the Commission's report demonstrates that no new legislation on a particular topic is needed, thus relieving the Legislature of the need to study the topic.

The Commission consists of:

- A Member of the Senate appointed by the Rules Committee
- A Member of the Assembly appointed by the Speaker
- Seven members appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate
- The Legislative Counsel, who is an ex officio member

The Commission may study only topics that the Legislature has authorized. The Commission now has a calendar of 20 topics.²

The Commission has submitted 334 recommendations to the Legislature — 314 have been enacted in whole or in substantial part.³ Commission recommendations have resulted in the enactment of legislation affecting 19,933 sections of California law: 3,743 sections amended, 9,072 sections added, and 7,118 sections repealed.

The Commission's recommendations, reports, and other selected materials are published in softcover and later collected in hardcover volumes. Recent materials are also available through the Internet. A list of past publications and information on obtaining copies are at the end of this Annual Report.⁴

2002 Legislative Program

In 2002, the Commission plans to submit recommendations to the Legislature concerning the following subjects:

Civil Procedure and Judicial Administration

Statutes Made Obsolete by Trial Court Restructuring. The Commission will recommend amendment or repeal of numerous statutes made obsolete by restructuring of the trial court system as a result of trial court unification, state funding of trial courts, and enactment of the Trial Court Employment Protection and Governance Act.

Cases in Which Court Reporter Is Required. The Commission will recommend revisions to consolidate the rules governing when a court reporter must be provided in civil and criminal cases. Non-substantive revisions would also be made to clarify the application of the statute, consistent with existing law.

2. See list of topics in Calendar of Topics Authorized for Study, Appendix 2 infra p. 37.

3. See Legislative Action on Commission Recommendations, Appendix 3 infra p. 41.

4. See Commission Publications, Appendix 10 infra p. 87.

Debtor-Creditor Law

Debtor-Creditor Law Technical Revisions. The Commission will recommend revisions in the statutes relating to claim and delivery, attachment, and enforcement of judgments to address a number of procedural issues.

Municipal Bankruptcy. The Commission will recommend updating state statutes authorizing public entities to file for bankruptcy protection under the federal Bankruptcy Code.

Eminent Domain

Prejudgment Deposit Appraisal in Eminent Domain. The Commission will recommend that a prejudgment deposit appraisal may be used for impeachment purposes with respect to the trial valuation testimony of the appraiser who prepared the prejudgment deposit appraisal.

Estate Planning, Probate, and Trusts

Rules of Construction for Trusts. The Commission will recommend limitations on, and improvements of, the rules governing construction of wills as applied to trusts and other instruments.

Mechanic's Liens

Mechanic's Lien Law. The Commission will recommend revisions to address the double payment problem arising under home improvement contracts and will also propose a general technical revision and reorganization of the mechanic's lien law.

Stay of Mechanic's Lien Enforcement Pending Arbitration. The Commission will recommend revisions to simplify and improve the procedure for obtaining a stay of a mechanic's lien foreclosure action pending arbitration.

Major Studies in Progress

During 2002, the Commission will work on the following major topics: continuing study of obsolete provisions resulting from trial court restructuring, common interest development law, discovery improvements from other jurisdictions, review of criminal procedures under trial court unification, the Uniform Unincorporated Nonprofit Association Act, and the Uniform Trust Code. The Commission will also consider other subjects to the extent time permits.

Statutes Made Obsolete by Trial Court Restructuring

The Legislature has directed the Commission to recommend repeal of statutes made obsolete by the Trial Court Employment Protection and Governance Act, the Lockyer-Isenberg Trial Court Funding Act of 1997, and the implementation of trial court unification. The Commission's report is due by January 1, 2002. The Commission will recommend amendment or repeal of numerous statutes. However, there remain many others that require further study due to their complexity or as a result of the failure of stakeholders to agree on policy, or simply because more time is needed to adequately address them. The Commission will recommend repeal of the statutory deadline and plans to continue work in this area.

Common Interest Development Law

The Commission will review the statutes affecting common interest housing developments with the goal of setting a clear, consistent, and unified policy regarding their formation and management and the transaction of real property interests located within them. The objective of the review is to clarify the law and eliminate unnecessary or obsolete provisions, to consolidate existing statutes in one place in the codes, and to determine to what extent common interest developments should be subject to regulation. During 2002 the Commission will give priority to issues involving nonjudicial resolution of intra-association disputes and due process in association decisionmaking.

Discovery Improvements from Other Jurisdictions

The Commission in 2002 will review discovery developments in other jurisdictions to determine whether any of them may be appropriate models for improvement of discovery practice in California. Professor Gregory Weber of McGeorge Law School has prepared a background study for the Commission, which the Commission has circulated for comment.

Review of Criminal Procedures Under Trial Court Unification

The Commission is conducting a review of basic court procedures under unification. In 2002, the Commission will begin a study to determine what, if any, changes should be made with respect to criminal procedures. The Commission has retained Professor Gerald Uelmen of Santa Clara University Law School to prepare a background study.

Uniform Unincorporated Nonprofit Association Act

The Commission has commenced work on a project to determine whether the Uniform Unincorporated Nonprofit Association Act should be adopted in California in whole or in part. The Commission is assisted by Professor Michael Hone of the University of San Francisco Law School. The Commission is working closely with the State Bar Nonprofit Organizations Committee.

Uniform Trust Code

The Commission in 2002 will begin a review of the Uniform Trust Code (2000) to determine whether any of its provisions that differ from California law should be adopted here. The Commission has engaged Professor David English of the University of Missouri Law School (Reporter for the Uniform Trust Code) to prepare a comparison of the uniform code with California law.

Other Subjects

The major studies in progress described above will dominate the Commission's time and resources during 2002. The Commission will consider other subjects as time permits, including civil and appellate jurisdiction issues resulting from trial court unification, Evidence Code changes required by electronic communications, general assignments for the benefit of creditors, exhaustion of remedies and ripeness issues in inverse condemnation litigation, shifting of attorney fees between litigants, and statutes of limitation in legal malpractice actions.

Calendar of Topics for Study

The Commission's calendar of topics is set out in Appendix 2.⁵ The Commission recommends no revision of its calendar in 2002.

Function and Procedure of Commission

The principal duties of the Commission⁶ are to:

- (1) Examine the common law and statutes for the purpose of discovering defects and anachronisms.
- (2) Receive and consider suggestions and proposed changes in the law from the American Law Institute, the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws,⁷ bar associations, and other learned bodies, and from judges, public officials, lawyers, and the public generally.
- (3) Recommend such changes in the law as it deems necessary to bring California law into harmony with modern conditions.⁸

The Commission is required to file a report at each regular session of the Legislature containing a calendar of topics selected by it for study, listing both studies in progress and topics intended for future consideration. Under its general authority, the Commission may study only topics that the Legislature, by concurrent resolution, authorizes for study.⁹ However, the Commission may study and recommend revisions to correct technical or minor substantive

7. The Legislative Counsel, an ex officio member of the Law Revision Commission, serves as a Commissioner of the Commission on Uniform State Laws. See Gov't Code § 8261. The Commission's Executive Secretary serves as an Associate Member of the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws.

8. Gov't Code § 8289. The Commission is also directed to recommend the express repeal of all statutes repealed by implication, or held unconstitutional by the California Supreme Court or the United States Supreme Court. defects in state statutes without a prior concurrent resolution.¹⁰ Additionally, some statutes directly confer authority to study particular subjects.¹¹

Background Studies

The Commission's work on a recommendation typically begins after a background study has been prepared. The background study may be prepared by a member of the Commission's staff or by a specialist in the field who is retained as a consultant.¹² Law profes-

10. Gov't Code § 8298.

11. Code of Civil Procedure Section 703.120 requires the Commission to review statutes providing for exemptions from enforcement of money judgments every 10 years and to recommend any needed revisions. The next report will be due in 2003.

Government Code Section 70219 requires the Commission, in consultation with the Judicial Council, to perform follow-up studies taking into consideration the experience in courts that have unified. For a list of specific studies, see Trial Court Unification: Revision of Codes, 28 Cal. L. Revision Comm'n Reports 51, 82-86 (1998). For a status update, see Trial Court Unification: Issues Identified for Future Study, 30 Cal. L. Revision Comm'n Reports 507 (2000).

Government Code Section 71674 requires the Commission to recommend repeal of provisions made obsolete by the Trial Court Employment Protection and Governance Act (Gov't Code § 71600 et seq.), Lockyer-Isenberg Trial Court Funding Act of 1997 (1997 Cal. Stat. ch. 850), and the implementation of trial court unification.

Statutory authority may not be codified. See, e.g., 1996 Cal. Stat. ch. 856, § 12 (study of revisions of Public Utilities Code resulting from utility deregulation, in consultation with Public Utilities Commission).

12. The following persons serve as Commission consultants: James E. Acret, Thelen, Reid & Priest, Pacific Palisades; Prof. Robert P. Alford, Pepperdine University School of Law; Prof. Michael Asimow, UCLA Law School; Prof. David M. English, University of Missouri Law School; Prof. Susan F. French, UCLA Law School; David Gould, McDermott, Will & Emery, Los Angeles; Brian Gurwitz, Deputy District Attorney, Orange County; Prof. Edward C. Halbach, Jr., Berkeley; Judge Joseph B. Harvey (ret.), Susanville; Keith Honda, Principal Administrative Analyst, Monterey County; Prof. Michael Hone, University of San Francisco School of Law; Gordon Hunt, Hunt, Ortmann, Blasco, Palffy & Rossell, Pasadena; Prof. Gideon Kanner, Berger & Norton, Burbank (formerly with Loyola Law School); Prof. J. Clark Kelso, McGeorge School of Law, Institute for Legislative Practice; Prof. William M. McGovern, UCLA Law School; Prof. Miguel A. Mendez, Stanford Law School; Mark Overland, Overland & Gits, Santa Monica; Prof. Frederick Tung, University of San Francisco School of Law; Prof. Gerald F. Uelmen, Santa Clara University School of sors and practicing attorneys who serve as consultants have already acquired the considerable knowledge necessary to understand the specific problems under consideration, and they receive little more than an honorarium for their services. From time to time, expert consultants are also retained to advise the Commission at meetings.

Recommendations

After making its preliminary decisions on a subject, the Commission ordinarily distributes a tentative recommendation to interested persons and organizations, including the State Bar, local and specialized bar associations, public interest organizations, and business and professional associations. Notice of the availability of the tentative recommendation is mailed to interested persons on the Commission's mailing list and publicized in legal newspapers and other relevant publications. Notice is also posted on the Commission's website and emailed to interested persons.

Comments received on the tentative recommendation are considered by the Commission in determining what recommendation, if any, will be made to the Legislature. When the Commission has reached a conclusion on the matter, its recommendation¹³ to the Legislature (including a draft of any necessary legislation) is published and distributed in printed form and in digital form on the Internet. If a background study has been prepared in connection with the recommendation, it may be published by the Commission or in a law review.¹⁴

Law; Prof. Gregory S. Weber, McGeorge School of Law; Judge David S. Wesley, Los Angeles Superior Court.

13. Occasionally one or more members of the Commission may not join in all or part of a recommendation submitted to the Legislature by the Commission. Dissents are noted in the minutes of the meeting at which the recommendation is approved.

14. For relatively recent background studies published in law reviews, see Asimow, The Scope of Judicial Review of Decisions of California Administrative Agencies, 42 UCLA L. Rev. 1157 (1995); Asimow, Toward a New California Administrative Procedure Act: Adjudication Fundamentals, 39 UCLA L. Rev. 1067 (1992); Kasner, Donative and Interspousal Transfers of Community Property in California: Where We Are (or Should Be) After MacDonald, 23 Pac. L.J. 361 (1991). A revised version of Prof. Fellmeth's background study on unfair competition litigation was published as Fellmeth, Unfair Competition Act

Official Comments

The Commission ordinarily prepares an official Comment explaining each section it recommends for enactment, amendment, or repeal. These Comments are included in the Commission's printed recommendations. Comments may be revised by the Commission in later reports to reflect amendments made in the legislative process.¹⁵ Reports provide background with respect to Commission intent in proposing the legislation, such intent being reflected in the Comments to the various sections of the bill contained in the Commission's recommendation, except to the extent that new or revised Comments are set out in the report on the bill as amended.¹⁶

A Comment indicates the derivation of a section and often explains its purpose, its relation to other sections, and potential Enforcement by Agencies, Prosecutors, and Private Litigants: Who's on First?, 15 Cal. Reg. L. Rep. 1 (Winter 1995).

For a list of background studies published in law reviews before 1991, see 10 Cal. L. Revision Comm'n Reports 1108 n.5 (1971); 11 Cal. L. Revision Comm'n Reports 1008 n.5, 1108 n.5 (1973); 13 Cal. L. 15. Many amendments are made on Commission recommendation to address matters brought to the Commission's attention after publication of its recommendation. In some cases, however, a bill may be amended in a way that the Commission believes is not desirable and does not recommend.

16. For an example of such a report, see Appendix 4 infra p. 67. Reports containing new or revised Comments are printed in the next Annual Report following enactment of a recommendation, and may be found by reference to the Cumulative Table of Sections Affected by Commission Recommendations included in each bound volume of the Commission's reports. For a description of legislative committee reports adopted in connection with the bill that became the Evidence Code, see Arellano v. Moreno, 33 Cal. App. 3d 877, 884, 109 Cal. Rptr. 421, 426 (1973).

On rare occasions, the Commission will approve revised Comments to make important editorial changes or correct obvious errors in past Comments, or where Comments have become inaccurate due to changes in cross-referenced provisions or other revisions. See, e.g., Report of the California Law Revision Commission on Corrected Probate Code Comments, Appendix 8 to the Annual Report for 1991, 21 Cal. L. Revision Comm'n Reports 1, 75 (1991).

issues concerning its meaning or application. The Comments are legislative history and are entitled to substantial weight in construing the statutory provisions.¹⁷ However, while the Commission endeavors in Comments to explain any changes in the law made by a section, the Commission does not claim that every inconsistent case is noted in the Comments, nor can it anticipate judicial conclusions as to the significance of existing case authorities.¹⁸ Hence, failure to note a change in prior law or to refer to an inconsistent judicial decision is not intended to, and should not, influence the construction of a clearly stated statutory provision.¹⁹

Comments are provided to legislative committee members and staff before a bill is heard and throughout the legislative process.

Rptr. 20, 23 (1968); Catch v. Phillips, 73 Cal. App. 4th 648, 654-55, 86 Cal. Rptr. 2d 584, 588 (1999). See also Milligan v. City of Blue Lake, 18 Cal. App. 4th 1745, 1751 n.3, 23 Cal. Rptr. 2d 315, 318-19 n.3 (1993). The Commission concurs with the opinion of the court in Juran that staff memorandums to the Commission should not be considered as legislative history. Id. at 894 n.5, 28 Cal. Rptr. 2d at 594 n.5.

Courts may also rely on the explanatory text of a Commission recommendation. See, e.g., Vournas v. Fidelity Nat'l Title Ins. Co., 73 Cal. App. 4th 668, 673 n.4, 86 Cal. Rptr. 2d 490, 493-94 n.4 (1999). In a recent case, the Supreme Court gave weight to a Commission recommendation, as the "opinion of a learned panel," even though the recommendation has not been enacted. Sierra Club v. San Joaquin Local Agency Formation Comm'n, 21 Cal. 4th 489, 502-03, 981 P.2d 543, 87 Cal. Rptr. 2d 701, 711-12 (1999).

Commission Comments are published by Lexis Law Publishers and West Publishing Company in their print and CD-ROM editions of the annotated codes, and printed in selected codes prepared by other publishers. Comments are also available on Westlaw and Lexis.

18. See, e.g., Arellano v. Moreno, 33 Cal. App. 3d 877, 109 Cal. Rptr. 421 (1973).

19. The Commission does not concur in the Kaplan approach to statutory construction. See Kaplan v. Superior Court, 6 Cal. 3d 150, 158-59, 491 P.2d 1, 5-6, 98 Cal. Rptr. 649, 653-54 (1971). For a reaction to the problem created by the Kaplan approach, see Recommendation Relating to Erroneously Ordered Disclosure of Privileged Information, 11 Cal. L. Revision Comm'n Reports 1163 (1973); 1974 Cal. Stat. ch. 227.

Comments are provided to the Governor's office once a bill has passed the Legislature and is before the Governor for action.

Publications

Commission publications are distributed to the Governor, the Secretary of the Senate, the Chief Clerk of the Assembly, and the Legislative Counsel.²⁰ Commission materials are also distributed to interest groups, lawyers, law professors, courts, district attorneys, and law libraries throughout the state. A large number of interested persons is given an opportunity to study and comment on the Commission's work before it is considered for enactment by the Legislature.²¹

The Commission's reports, recommendations, and studies are republished in hardcover volumes that serve as a permanent record of the Commission's work and, it is believed, a valuable contribution to the legal literature of California.²² These volumes are available at many county law libraries and at some other libraries. Over half of the hardcover volumes are out of print, but others are available for purchase.²³

22. In a recent letter, Peter M. Detwiler, Staff Director of the Senate Committee on Local Government, wrote the following about the Commission's work:

In the early 1980's, while researching a bill analysis on eminent domain, I discovered your Commission's report on that topic. That carefully detailed explanation was my model for compiling Parks, Progress, and Public Policy. A section-by-section presentation and commentary on a statute, along with source and disposition tables can be a tremendous resource for those who come after us. It helps answer the future question, "What were they thinking?"

Thanks for setting a high professional standard for the rest of us.

Electronic Publication and Internet Access

Since June 1995, the Commission has provided a variety of information on the Internet, including online material and downloadable files.²⁴ Interested persons with Internet access can find the current agenda, meeting minutes, background studies, tentative and final recommendations, staff memorandums, and general background information.

Electronic Mail

Email commenting on Commission proposals or suggesting issues for study is given the same consideration as letter correspondence, if the email message includes the name and regular mailing address of the sender. Email to the Commission may be sent to commission@clrc.ca.gov or to staff@clrc.ca.gov.

The Commission distributes about two-thirds of its tentative and final meeting agendas through email and also gives notice of the availability of tentative recommendations and printed reports by email. The Commission encourages use of email as an inexpensive and expedient means of communication with the Commission.

MCLE Credit

The Commission is approved by the State Bar of California as a minimum continuing legal education provider. Participants and attendees at Commission meetings may be eligible to receive MCLE credit. To receive credit for participation or attendance at a meeting, a person must register at the meeting. 27. Seven Commission members are appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate. Gov't Code § 8281. These Commissioners serve staggered four-year terms. Id. The provision in Government Code Section 8281 to the effect that Commission members appointed by the Governor hold office until the appointment and qualification of their successors has been superseded by the rule in Government Code Section 1774 declaring a vacancy if there is no reappointment 60 days following expiration of the term of office. The following persons are on the Commission's staff:

Nathaniel Sterling Executive Secretary	Stan Ulrich Assistant Executive Secretary
Barbara S. Gaal Staff Counsel	Brian P. Hebert Staff Counsel	Lynne I. Urman Staff Counsel

Administrative-Secretarial

Kathleen D. Wilson Administrative Assistant	Victoria V. Matias Secretary

In March 2001, Glista Guilford left the administrative assistant position, and Kathleen D. Wilson was hired as the new administrative assistant in the Palo Alto main office.

During the spring of 2001, Gail Love, a student at the University of Santa Clara Law School, worked for the Commission in Palo Alto under a law school internship program. During the summer, two students at Stanford Law School worked with the Commission — Amy Ash served as a volunteer in the Palo Alto office, and Curtis E. Renoe served through the Stanford Public Interest Law Foundation. Beginning in November 2001, law graduate Ellen Yamshon worked as a volunteer through the Commission's Sacramento office. Legal work for the Commission was also performed by law students in the Institute for Legislative Practice at McGeorge Law School under the direction of Professor J. Clark Kelso.

Commission Budget

The Commission's operations are funded from the state general fund. The amount appropriated to the Commission for the 2001-02 fiscal year from the general fund is $659,000, less $17,000

(representing the Commission's share of an unallocated statewide budget reduction). In addition, the Commission has been directed by Executive Order to reduce its operating expenses by an additional $15,000 during the 2001-02 fiscal year. These reductions will affect the Commission's productivity somewhat.

The Commission has been forewarned of further budget reductions as substantial as $96,000 (15%) for the 2002-03 fiscal year. Should a reduction of that magnitude occur, it would require personnel reductions during 2002 that would have a substantial impact on the Commission's ability to complete the projects identified in this Annual Report in a timely fashion.

The Commission's general fund allocation is supplemented by $15,000 budgeted for income generated from sale of documents to the public, representing reimbursement for the production and shipping cost of the documents.

The Commission also receives substantial donations of necessary library materials from the legal publishing community, especially California Continuing Education of the Bar, Lexis Law Publishers, and West Publishing Company. The Commission receives additional library materials from other legal publishers and from other law reform agencies on an exchange basis, and has full access to the Stanford University Law Library and the McGeorge Law School Library. The Commission is grateful for their contributions.

Other Activities

The Commission is directed by statute to cooperate with bar associations and other learned, professional, or scientific associations, institutions, or foundations in any manner suitable for the fulfillment of the purposes of the Commission.³⁰

National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws

The Commission is directed by statute to receive and consider proposed changes in the law recommended by the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws.³¹ The Commission's Assembly Member, Howard Wayne, and the Legislative Counsel and Commission member, Bion Gregory, are members of the California Commission on Uniform State Laws and the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws. The Commission's Executive Secretary, Nathaniel Sterling, is an associate member of the National Conference. Commissioner Gregory and Mr. Sterling attended the National Conference in White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia, in August 2001. Matters considered at the conference included uniform acts on mediation, nonjudicial foreclosure, and apportionment of estate taxes.

Other Commissioner Activities

Commissioner David Huebner spoke about the Commission's project on Trial Court Restructuring to the Conference of Presiding Judges and Court Executive Officers in Newport Beach in May.

Continuing Legal Education

The Executive Secretary spoke at CLE International's Conference on Eminent Domain in Los Angeles in June and in San Francisco in November, on the topic "Proposed Legislative Changes: Eminent Domain Issues Before the California Law Revision Commission." The Executive Secretary spoke on the same topic to the Eminent Domain Group in Arizona in March.

Other Staff Activities

In November, the Commission's Assistant Executive Secretary, Stan Ulrich, addressed a forum of the California Hospice and Palliative Care Association in Sacramento on the Health Care Decisions Law and the Wendland decision.

The Assistant Executive Secretary has also continued working on health care decisionmaking issues with the Professional Education Workgroup of the California Coalition for Compassionate Care in Sacramento, and a task force of the California Medical Association.

Report on Statutes Repealed by Implication or Held Unconstitutional

Government Code Section 8290 provides:

The commission shall recommend the express repeal of all statutes repealed by implication, or held unconstitutional by the Supreme Court of the state or the Supreme Court of the United States.

Pursuant to this directive, the Commission has reviewed the decisions of the United States Supreme Court and the California Supreme Court published since the Commission's last Annual Report was prepared³⁵ and has the following to report:

- No decision holding a state statute repealed by implication has been found.³⁶
- No decision of the United States Supreme Court holding a state statute unconstitutional has been found.³⁷

35. This study has been carried through 26 Cal. 4th 1060 and 121 S. Ct. 2629 (2000-01 Term).

36. In Ventura Group Ventures, Inc. v. Ventura Port District, 24 Cal. 4th 1089, 16 P.3d 717, 104 Cal. Rptr. 2d 53 (2001), the California Supreme Court held that the statutes implementing Proposition 13 and its limit of a one percent ad valorem tax on real property supersede Harbors and Navigation Code Section 6361 (requiring the county to levy a special tax to meet the needs of a port district) to the extent they are inconsistent.

37. In Lorillard Tobacco Co. v. Reilly, 121 S. Ct. 2404 (2001), the United States Supreme Court held that the Federal Cigarette Labeling and Advertising Act (FCLAA), 15 U.S.C. § 1331 et seq., preempts Massachusetts' regulations governing outdoor and point-of-sale cigarette advertising, including a provision restricting advertising within a 1,000 foot radius of a public playground, or elementary or secondary school. The FCLAA preemption rule (15 U.S.C. § 1334) provides that no requirement or prohibition based on smoking and health can be imposed under state law with respect to the advertising or promotion of any cigarettes that are properly labeled. Although the FCLAA preemption provision only applies to cigarettes, the Court declined to decide whether the smokeless tobacco regulations were also preempted because the issue was not decided by the Court of Appeal.

Business and Professions Code Section 22961 prohibits the advertisement of tobacco products on outdoor billboards located within 1,000 feet of a public or private elementary, junior high, or high school or public playground. At least to the extent that this statute applies to cigarettes, it may be preempted by the FCLAA.

38. Two decisions of the California Supreme Court imposed constitutional qualifications on the application of state statutes without invalidating the statutory language.

In Conservatorship of Wendland, 26 Cal. 4th 519, 28 P.3d 151, 110 Cal. Rptr. 2d 412 (2001), the court held that, while constitutional on its face, Probate Code Section 2355 (medical treatment of conservatee who lacks capacity to give informed consent) should be construed to minimize the possibility of its unconstitutional application by requiring clear and convincing evidence to support withholding life-sustaining treatment from a conscious conservatee.

In Harrott v. County of Kings, 25 Cal. 4th 1138, 25 P.3d 649, 108 Cal. Rptr. 2d 445 (2001), the court held that a trial court may not find a semiautomatic firearm to be an “AK series” assault weapon under Penal Code Section 12276(e), unless it is so identified by regulation. The court noted that its interpretation avoids potential due process challenges based on the law’s failure to provide persons of ordinary intelligence with a reasonable opportunity to know what is prohibited.

§ 8298. Recommendations concerning minor revisions

8298. The commission may study and recommend revisions to correct technical or minor substantive defects in the statutes of the state without a prior concurrent resolution of the Legislature referring the matter to it for study.

REPORT OF THE CALIFORNIA LAW REVISION COMMISSION ON CHAPTER 44 OF THE STATUTES OF 2001 (SENATE BILL 562)

Civil Procedure Technical Corrections and Authority to Appoint Receivers

Chapter 44 of the Statutes of 2001 was introduced as Senate Bill 562 by Senator Bill Morrow. It implements two California Law Revision Commission recommendations: Civil Procedure: Technical Corrections, 30 Cal. L. Revision Comm'n Reports 479 (2000), and Authority to Appoint Receivers, 30 Cal. L. Revision Comm'n Reports 291 (2000). The revised Comments set out below supersede the comparable Comments in the recommendations and reflect amendments to the bill made during the legislative process.

Code Civ. Proc. § 86 (amended). Miscellaneous limited civil cases

Comment. Subdivision (a)(6) of Section 86 is amended to clarify the jurisdictional classification of a petition to release a mechanic's lien. This is declaratory of existing law. See Section 85 (limited civil cases) & Comment. See also Section 88 (unlimited civil case).

Subdivision (a)(6) is also amended to reflect elimination of the municipal courts as a result of unification with the superior courts pursuant to Article VI, Section 5(e), of the California Constitution. For reclassification of an action in a unified superior court, see Sections 403.010-403.090.

Subdivision (a)(8) is amended to delete the language on circumstances for appointment of a receiver in a limited civil case, and insert a cross-reference to Section 564, which now governs appointment of receivers in both limited and unlimited civil cases. The language deleted from the first clause of subdivision (a)(8) is continued in Section 564(b)(8), but broadened to apply to all cases. See Section 564 Comment. The language deleted from the second clause of subdivision (a)(8) is not continued, because it is redundant with Section 564(b)(3) and (b)(4).

Code Civ. Proc. § 564 (amended). Appointment of receiver

Comment. For purposes of simplification, Section 564 is broadened to govern appointment of a receiver in all cases, regardless of the jurisdictional classification of the case. Formerly, a separate provision governed appointment of a receiver in a limited civil case. 1998 Cal. Stat. ch. 931, § 29 (former Section 86(a)(8)).

Although Section 564 covers both limited and unlimited civil cases, some of the types of actions listed in the statute may only be brought as an unlimited civil case. For example, Section 564(b)(7) refers to appointment of a receiver where the Public Utilities Commission requests a receiver pursuant to Public Utilities Code Section 855 or 5259.5. Such a proceeding may only be brought as an unlimited civil case. See Section 85 & Comment.

To aid practitioners, subdivision (b)(5) of Section 564 is amended to refer to Section 565 (appointment of receiver on dissolution of corporation).

Subdivision (b)(9) (former subdivision (b)(8)) is amended to delete language authorizing appointment of a receiver “where receivers have heretofore been appointed by the usages of courts of equity,” and insert more readily understandable language formerly found in Section 86. This is not a substantive change. The deleted language conferred broad authority to appoint a receiver, but only where other remedies were found to be inadequate. See, e.g., Golden State Glass Corp. v. Superior Court, 13 Cal. 2d 384, 393, 90 P.2d 75 (1939) (superior court should appoint receiver only where necessary to “adequately protect the rights of the parties”); Alhambra-Shumway Mines, Inc. v. Alhambra Gold Mine Corp., 116 Cal. App. 2d 869, 873, 254 P.2d 599 (1953) (where less severe remedy will adequately protect parties, court ordinarily should not appoint receiver); see also Murray v. Murray, 115 Cal. 266, 275, 47 P. 37 (1896) (in equity, receiver may be appointed where plaintiff has equitable claim to property and “receiver is necessary to preserve the same from loss”). Similarly, subdivision (b)(9) authorizes appointment of a receiver only “where necessary to preserve the property or rights of any party.” (Emphasis added.)

As before, the general language of subdivision (b)(9) does not override specific requirements enumerated elsewhere in the statute. See, e.g., Marsch v. Williams, 23 Cal. App. 4th 238, 246 n.8, 28 Cal. Rptr. 2d 402 (1994); Dabney Oil Co. v. Providence Oil Co., 22 Cal. App. 233, 237, 133 P. 1155 (1913).

Subdivision (b)(10) (former subdivision (b)(9)) is amended to correct the cross-reference. Health and Safety Code Section 436.222 was repealed in 1995 and its substance recodified in Section 129173. See 1995 Cal. Stat. ch. 415, §§ 9, 79.5.

For other provisions concerning receivers, see Sections 565-570, 708.610-708.630, 712.060, 1422. See also Civ. Code § 3439.07; Corp. Code §§ 1801, 1803, 16504; Fam. Code § 290; Ins. Code §§ 1064.1-1064.12.

Veh. Code § 16373 (amended). Certification to judgment creditor

Comment. Section 16373 is amended to delete the reference to “docket entries,” and substitute a reference to the register of actions, because courts no longer maintain a record denominated a “docket” in civil cases. Formerly, justice courts maintained a docket in civil cases, which was a record of actions taken in open court, as well as documents filed and other proceedings in the case. See former Gov’t Code §§ 71614 (1953 Cal. Stat. ch. 206, § 1, repealed by 1977 Cal. Stat. ch. 1257, § 71) (judge of justice court shall keep a book denominated a “docket”), 71614.5 (1959 Cal. Stat. ch. 671, § 2, repealed by 1977 Cal. Stat. ch. 1257, § 72) (clerk or judge of justice court shall keep the “docket” and other records of the court). Now actions taken in open court are recorded in the minutes of a superior court. Gov’t Code § 69844; see also Copley Press v. Superior Court, 6 Cal. App. 4th 106, 110, 7 Cal. Rptr. 2d 841 (1992). Documents filed or lodged and other proceedings in a civil case are recorded in the register of actions. See Gov’t Code §§ 69845 (clerk of superior court may keep a register of actions), 69845.5 (alternative to maintaining register of actions in superior court).

The amendment also deletes the clause authorizing the judge to substitute for the clerk if there is no clerk. That provision is obsolete because every superior court has a clerk. See Gov’t Code §§ 24000(c) (county clerk), 26800 (county clerk as clerk of superior court). Additionally, a judge has authority to perform any act that a court clerk is allowed to perform. Code Civ. Proc. § 167.

Veh. Code § 16376 (amended). Action against nonresident

Comment. Section 16376 is amended to insert subdivisions and eliminate the reference to “the docket of a court not of record,” which is obsolete because all courts are “courts of record.” Cal. Const. art. VI, § 1.

Veh. Code § 16379 (amended). Payment of judgment in installments

Comment. Section 16379 is amended to delete the reference to “docket entries,” and substitute a reference to the register of actions, because courts no longer maintain a record denominated a “docket” in civil cases. Formerly, justice courts maintained a docket in civil cases, which was a record of actions taken in open court, as well as documents filed and other proceedings in the case. See former Gov’t Code §§ 71614 (1953 Cal. Stat. ch. 206, § 1, repealed by 1977 Cal. Stat. ch. 1257, § 71)

(judge of justice court shall keep a book denominated a “docket”), 71614.5 (1959 Cal. Stat. ch. 671, § 2, repealed by 1977 Cal. Stat. ch. 1257, § 72) (clerk or judge of justice court shall keep the “docket” and other records of the court). Now actions taken in open court are recorded in the minutes of a superior court. Gov’t Code § 69844; see also Copley Press v. Superior Court, 6 Cal. App. 4th 106, 110, 7 Cal. Rptr. 2d 841 (1992). Documents filed or lodged and other proceedings in a civil case are recorded in the register of actions. See Gov’t Code §§ 69845 (clerk of superior court may keep a register of actions), 69845.5 (alternative to maintaining register of actions in superior court).

REPORT OF THE CALIFORNIA LAW REVISION COMMISSION ON CHAPTER 59 OF THE STATUTES OF 2001 (SENATE BILL 561)

Administrative Rulemaking

Chapter 59 of the Statutes of 2001 was introduced as Senate Bill 561 by Senator Bill Morrow. It implements a California Law Revision Commission recommendation on Administrative Rulemaking Cleanup, 30 Cal. L. Revision Comm'n Reports 533 (2000). The revised Comment set out below supersedes the comparable Comment in the recommendation and reflects an amendment to the bill made during the legislative process.

Gov't Code § 11340.85 (amended). Legislative intent regarding Bureau of State Audits

Comment. Section 11340.85 is amended to harmonize its requirements with those of former Section 11340.8.

Subdivision (b)(4) is amended to provide that agencies are required to accept comments by facsimile or electronic mail. The mandatory aspect of this rule is drawn from former Section 11340.8(a). Subdivision (b)(5) makes clear that an agency is not required to accept rulemaking petitions by facsimile or electronic mail.

Subdivision (c)(1) is amended to improve its clarity. This is a nonsubstantive change. Provisions requiring a "public notice" as defined in paragraph (1) include Sections 11346.4 (notice of proposed action), 11346.8(a) (notice of hearing), 11346.8(b) (notice of continuance or postponement of hearing), and Section 44 of Title 1 of the California Code of Regulations (notice of changes to proposed regulation).

Subdivision (c)(6)-(9) continues former Section 11340.8(b)(6)-(9) without substantive change.

Subdivision (f) continues the introductory statement of intent in former Section 11340.8 without substantive change.

APPENDIX 6

REPORT OF THE CALIFORNIA LAW REVISION COMMISSION ON CHAPTER 230 OF THE STATUTES OF 2001 (ASSEMBLY BILL 1278)

Health Care Decisions Law: Miscellaneous Revisions

Chapter 230 of the Statutes of 2001 was introduced as Assembly Bill 1278 by Assembly Member Howard Wayne. It implements the California Law Revision Commission recommendation on Health Care Decisions Law: Miscellaneous Revisions, 30 Cal. L. Revision Comm'n Reports 621 (2000). The revised Comment set out below supersedes the comparable Comment in the recommendation and reflects an amendment to the bill made during the legislative process.

Health & Safety Code § 7100 (amended). Right to control disposition of remains Comment. Subdivision (a)(1) of Section 7100 is amended to make clear that an agent under a power of attorney for health care is not automatically liable for the costs of disposition of remains. The agent can be liable under this section, however, if the agent (1) makes a specific agreement to pay the costs of disposition or (2) makes decisions, in the absence of an agreement, that result in costs. In the latter case, where there is no specific agreement to pay, the agent is not liable unless the estate or other fund is insufficient. See Section 7100.1; see also Prob. Code §§ 11421 (payment of funeral expenses from estate), 11446 (funeral expenses from estate, not community property).

Subdivision (a)(1) is also amended to make clear that the rights and duties of agents under powers of attorney for health care are subject in the first instance to determination under the Health Care Decisions Law. Thus, if an agent has been granted authority to direct disposition of remains under Probate Code Section 4683(b)(3), then the agent would fall within this section, if the agent assumes that authority, and would be liable as provided in subparagraphs (A) and (B) of subdivision (a)(1). But if the agent has not been granted that authority, either explicitly or by a general grant of authority under the Health Care Decisions Law, the agent does not have any rights, duties, or liabilities under Section 7100(a)(1).

The limitations in subdivision (a)(1) apply only to the person when acting as agent and not where the statute imposes a duty or liability based on some other relationship, such as a spouse under subdivision (a)(2) or a child under subdivision (a)(3).

APPENDIX 7

REPORT OF THE CALIFORNIA LAW REVISION COMMISSION ON CHAPTER 417 OF THE STATUTES OF 2001 (ASSEMBLY BILL 873)

Dissolution and Nonprobate Transfers

Chapter 417 of the Statutes of 2001 was introduced as Assembly Bill 873 by Assembly Member Tom Harman. It includes provisions implementing the California Law Revision Commission recommendations on Effect of Dissolution of Marriage on Nonprobate Transfers, 28 Cal. L. Revision Comm'n Reports 599 (1998), and Estate Planning During Marital Dissolution, 30 Cal. L. Revision Comm'n Reports 603 (2000). The new and revised Comments set out below supersede the comparable Comments in the recommendations and reflect amendments to the bill made during the legislative process.

Fam. Code § 2040 (amended). Automatic temporary restraining order

Comment. Section 2040 is amended to clarify the scope of the automatic temporary restraining order with respect to estate planning changes.

Subdivision (a)(4) restrains modification of a nonprobate transfer "in a manner that affects the disposition of property subject to the transfer." Modifications that are restrained as affecting the disposition of property include a change of beneficiary and a donor's modification of the terms of a power of appointment (this would not include exercise of a power of appointment by a donee). Modifications that are not restrained include naming a new trustee or successor trustee (so long as the change does not affect the trustee's powers or duties with respect to disposition of trust property).

Subdivision (b)(2) provides that the restraining order does not restrain revocation of a nonprobate transfer, provided that notice of the change has been filed and served on the other party. This does not mean that a nonprobate transfer is necessarily subject to revocation by one party without the consent of the other party. The question of whether a nonprobate transfer is subject to unilateral revocation is governed by the terms of the nonprobate transfer and applicable substantive law. See, e.g., Prob. Code § 5506 (action by all surviving joint owners required to cancel beneficiary registration of jointly-owned security); 31 C.F.R. § 353.51 (2000) (restricting changes in ownership of jointly-owned Series EE savings bond).

Subdivision (b)(3) provides that the restraining order does not restrain elimination of a right of survivorship, provided that notice of the change has been filed and served on the other party. This is consistent with Estate of Mitchell, 76 Cal. App. 4th 1378, 91 Cal. Rptr. 2d 192 (1999) (restraining order does not restrain severance of joint tenancy).

Subdivision (b)(4) provides that the restraining order does not restrain creation of one or more revocable or irrevocable unfunded trusts. However, the transfer of property to fund a trust would be restrained under subdivision (a)(2). An unfunded trust created during a dissolution proceeding could serve as a receptacle for property subject to a pour-over provision in a will. Such a trust could also be funded by property that has been released from restraint by the restraining order.

Subdivision (d) defines “nonprobate transfer” for the purposes of this section. The definition expressly incorporates instruments described in Probate Code Section 5000, including a “marital property agreement.” Thus, an agreement between spouses as to how to divide community property between them on either of their deaths is a nonprobate transfer for the purposes of this section. See Prob. Code § 100(b) (agreement as to division of community property on death of spouse).

Prob. Code § 5600 (added). Failure of nonprobate transfer to former spouse

Comment. Subdivision (a) of Section 5600 establishes the general rule that a nonprobate transfer to a former spouse fails if, at the time of the transferor’s death, the former spouse is not the transferor’s surviving spouse, due to the dissolution or annulment of their marriage. “Dissolution or annulment” does not include legal separation. This is consistent with the law governing wills. See Sections 6122(d), 6227. “Surviving spouse” is defined in Section 78. “Nonprobate transfer” does not include life insurance. See subdivision (e).

Paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) provides that a nonprobate transfer to a former spouse does not fail by operation of subdivision (a) if, at the time of the transferor’s death, the nonprobate transfer is not subject to revocation by the transferor. This precludes operation of subdivision (a) where a nonprobate transfer is irrevocable on execution, or later becomes irrevocable by the transferor (for reasons other than the death or incapacity of the transferor). The irrevocability of a trust can be established by certification of the trust's contents. See Section 18100.5.

Paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) provides that a nonprobate transfer to a former spouse does not fail on the transferor's death if there is clear and convincing evidence that the transferor intended to preserve the nonprobate transfer. For example, if after divorcing, the transferor modified the beneficiary terms of a trust without changing the designation of the former spouse as primary beneficiary, this might be sufficiently clear and convincing evidence of the transferor's intent to preserve the nonprobate transfer to the former spouse so as to prevent the operation of subdivision (a).

Subdivision (c) governs the effect of failure of a nonprobate transfer under this section. For the effect of a failed nonprobate transfer of property, see Section 21111. For the effect of a failure of a trustee designation, see Section 15660.

Subdivision (d) makes clear that nothing in this section affects the rights of a good faith purchaser or encumbrancer for value who relies on the apparent failure of a nonprobate transfer under this section or who lacks knowledge of the failure of a nonprobate transfer under this section. For the purpose of this subdivision, "knowledge" of the failure of a nonprobate transfer includes both actual knowledge and constructive knowledge through recordation of a judgment of dissolution or annulment or other relevant document. See Civ. Code § 1213 (recordation as constructive notice to subsequent purchasers and mortgagees). The rights of a subsequent purchaser or encumbrancer are also protected if the purchaser or encumbrancer relies on an affidavit or declaration executed under Section 5602. The remedy for a person injured by a transaction with a subsequent purchaser or encumbrancer for value is against the transacting former spouse and not against the purchaser or encumbrancer.

In general, Section 5003 protects a property holder from liability for transferring the property according to the terms of the instrument making the nonprobate transfer, even if the nonprobate transfer has failed by operation of subdivision (a).

This section may be preempted by federal laws with respect to employer-provided benefits. See Egelhoff v. Egelhoff, 121 S. Ct. 1322 (2001) (ERISA preempts state law revoking spouse's rights as beneficiary of employer-provided life insurance). It is therefore especially important on dissolution or annulment of marriage to review beneficiary designations for employer-provided benefits.

Prob. Code § 5601 (added). Severance of joint tenancy between decedent and former spouse

Comment. Subdivision (a) of Section 5601 establishes the general rule that a joint tenancy between a decedent and the decedent's former spouse is severed if, at the time of the decedent's death, the former spouse is not the decedent's surviving spouse, due to the dissolution or annulment of their marriage. "Dissolution or annulment" does not include legal separation. This is consistent with the law governing wills. See Sections 6122(d), 6227. "Surviving spouse" is defined in Section 78. This effectively reverses the common law rule that dissolution or annulment of marriage does not sever a joint tenancy between spouses. See, e.g., Estate of Layton, 44 Cal. App. 4th 1337, 52 Cal. Rptr. 2d 251 (1996).

Note that property acquired during marriage in joint tenancy form is presumed to be community property on dissolution of marriage or legal separation. See Fam. Code § 2581. See also In re Marriage of Hilke, 4 Cal. 4th 215, 841 P.2d 891, 14 Cal. Rptr. 2d 371 (1992) (community property presumption applies after death of former spouse if court has entered judgment dissolving marriage and reserved jurisdiction over property matters). This section does not affect the community property presumption and does not affect property characterized as community property under that presumption.

This section applies to both real and personal property joint tenancies, and affects property rights that depend on the law of joint tenancy. See, e.g., Veh. Code §§ 4150.5, 5600.5 (property passes as though in joint tenancy). This section does not affect United States Savings Bonds, which are subject to federal regulation. See Conrad v. Conrad, 66 Cal. App. 2d 280, 284-85, 152 P.2d 221, 223 (1944) (federal law controls).

The method provided in this section for severing a joint tenancy is not exclusive. See, e.g., Civ. Code § 683.2.

Where a joint tenancy involves three or more joint tenants, severance by operation of this section converts the decedent's interest into a tenancy in common, but does not sever the joint tenancy as between the other joint tenants. For example, husband, wife, and a third person create a joint tenancy during husband and wife's marriage to each other. On husband's death, wife is not husband's surviving spouse and the joint tenancy is severed by operation of this section. Husband's one third interest becomes a tenancy in common and does not pass by survivorship. The remaining two thirds remain in joint tenancy as between the third person and the former wife.

Paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) provides that a joint tenancy is not severed by operation of subdivision (a) if the joint tenancy is not subject to severance by the decedent (for reasons other than the decedent's death). For example, if the decedent is subject to a court order or binding agreement prohibiting severance of the joint tenancy by the decedent, then the joint tenancy is not severed by operation of subdivision (a).

Subdivision (c) makes clear that nothing in this section affects the rights of a good faith purchaser or encumbrancer who relies on an apparent severance by operation of this section or who lacks knowledge of a severance by operation of this section. For the purpose of this subdivision, “knowledge” of a severance of joint tenancy includes both actual knowledge and constructive knowledge through recordation of a judgment of dissolution or annulment or other relevant document. See Civ. Code § 1213 (recordation as constructive notice to subsequent purchasers and mortgagees). The rights of a subsequent purchaser or encumbrancer are also protected if the purchaser or encumbrancer relies on an affidavit or declaration executed under Section 5602. The remedy for a person injured by a transaction with a subsequent purchaser or encumbrancer is against the transacting joint tenant and not against the purchaser or encumbrancer.

Prob. Code § 5603 (added). Court’s authority not limited

Comment. Section 5603 clarifies the effect of this part.

Prob. Code § 5604 (added). Application of part

Comment. Section 5604 governs the application of this part.

Under subdivision (c), where a dissolution of marriage, or other event terminating a person’s status as a decedent’s surviving spouse occurs before January 1, 2000, that person’s rights as a nonprobate transfer beneficiary or joint tenant of the decedent are not affected by Section 5600 or 5601. See Section 78 (“surviving spouse” defined).

APPENDIX 8

REPORT OF THE CALIFORNIA LAW REVISION COMMISSION ON CHAPTER 428 OF THE STATUTES OF 2001 (ASSEMBLY BILL 237)

Eminent Domain

Chapter 428 of the Statutes of 2001 was introduced as Assembly Bill 237 by Assembly Member Lou Papan. It implements the California Law Revision Commission recommendation on Early Disclosure of Valuation Data and Resolution of Issues in Eminent Domain, 30 Cal. L. Revision Comm'n Reports 567 (2000). The new and revised Comments set out below supplement and supersede the comparable Comments in the recommendation, and reflect amendments made to the bill during the legislative process.

Code Civ. Proc. § 1250.420 (added). ADR authorized

Comment. Section 1250.420 is drawn from Government Code Section 11420.10 (ADR authorized in administrative adjudication). The section is intended to remove any question about the authority of a public entity to refer an eminent domain dispute for alternative dispute resolution. Alternative dispute resolution pursuant to this section is optional, applicable only on agreement of the parties. Nothing in this section limits any authority of parties in any other type of action or proceeding by agreement to refer a dispute that is the subject of the action or proceeding for resolution by alternative dispute resolution.

Under subdivision (a), the mediator may use any mediation technique.

Subdivision (c) parallels the procedure applicable in judicial arbitration. See Sections 1141.20-1141.21. A defendant who elects a trial de novo under this procedure may be subject to assessment of costs and litigation expenses; this is in effect a waiver of the defendant's general protection against assessment of costs and litigation expenses in an eminent domain proceeding. See, e.g., Section 1268.710 (court costs).

Standard protections of confidentiality of communications made in alternative dispute resolution apply to alternative dispute resolution pursuant to this section. See, e.g., Evid. Code §§ 1115-1128 (mediation), 703.5 (testimony by arbitrator or mediator).

Code Civ. Proc. § 1250.430 (added). Stay of trial during ADR

Comment. Section 1250.430 is intended to allow waiver of trial court delay reduction programs and other case processing requirements in order to facilitate productive alternative dispute resolution. This provision may be applied to foster resolution of some or all of the issues between the parties. Nothing in this section limits any authority of the court in any other type of action or proceeding to postpone the date of trial to enable resolution of a dispute by alternative dispute resolution.

Code Civ. Proc. § 1255.010 (amended). Deposit of probable compensation

Comment. Subdivision (b) of Section 1255.010 is amended to prescribe the contents of the written statement or summary of the basis for the deposit appraisal. The detail prescribed is the same as that prescribed for the moving party under Section 1255.030 (increase or decrease in amount of deposit) and for the written statement and summary under Government Code Section 7267.2 (precondemnation offer). The requirement in subdivision (b)(3) that the statement or summary include detail relating to damages to the remainder applies equally in a situation where no compensation for damages to the remainder is provided due to a complete offset by benefits to the remainder.

Code Civ. Proc. § 1255.030 (amended). Increase or decrease in amount of deposit

Comment. Section 1255.030 is amended to prescribe the supporting data that may be required for a motion to increase or decrease the amount of the deposit. The detail prescribed is the same as that prescribed for the written statement or summary under Section 1255.010 (deposit of probable compensation) and for the written statement and summary under Government Code Section 7267.2 (precondemnation offer). It should be noted that the information provided by the moving party under this section is protected from use at trial to the same extent as other evidence related to the deposit or withdrawal. See Section 1255.060 (limitations on use of evidence in connection with deposit).

Code Civ. Proc. § 1258.220 (amended). Date of exchange

Comment. Section 1258.220 is amended to make the exchange date 90, rather than 60, days before trial on the issue of compensation (but not earlier than nine months after the case was filed). As used in subdivision (b), “months” refers to calendar months. See Section 17(4).

The statutory exchange date of 90, rather than 60, days before trial remains subject to the authority of the court to provide relief on motion of a party and showing of good cause. The practicalities of preparing sufficiently to enable a fair exchange within the prescribed period may, in the circumstances of a particular case, constitute good cause for a later exchange date. The need to commence trial within one year in order to preserve the date of valuation may, in the circumstances of a particular case (such as where the date of valuation is not otherwise established by a deposit of probable compensation), constitute good cause for an exchange date less than 90 days before commencement of trial on the issue of compensation. Cf. Sections 1263.110 (date of valuation fixed by deposit), 1263.120 (trial within one year).

Code Civ. Proc. § 1260.040 (added). Resolution of legal issues affecting valuation

Comment. Section 1260.040 is intended to provide a mechanism by which a party may obtain early resolution of an in limine motion or other dispute affecting valuation. It should be noted that the procedure provided in this section is limited to resolution of legal issues that may affect compensation; it may not be used to ascertain just compensation. Cf. Cal. Const. art. I, § 19 (just compensation ascertained by jury unless waived).

Nothing in this section precludes the use of other procedures for the same purpose, including, without limitation, bifurcation of issues and control of the order of proof pursuant to statute, or other pretrial procedure pursuant to court rule.

Gov't Code § 7267.2 (amended). Precondemnation offer

Comment. Section 7267.2 is amended to elaborate the written statement and summary requirement, and to make clear that the public entity may satisfy the requirement by providing the property owner a copy of the appraisal. The provision is drawn from California Code of Regulations, Title 25, Section 6182 (relocation assistance and real property acquisition guidelines). The detail prescribed is the same as that prescribed for the written statement and summary under Code of Civil Procedure Section 1255.010 (deposit of probable compensation) and for the moving party under Section 1255.030 (increase or decrease in amount of deposit). The elaboration provided in this section is not intended as an exclusive listing of the contents of the written statement and summary; other information may be required by law or may be otherwise necessary or desirable.

REPORT OF THE CALIFORNIA LAW REVISION COMMISSION ON CHAPTER 812 OF THE STATUTES OF 2001 (ASSEMBLY BILL 223)

Unnecessary Procedural Differences Between Limited and Unlimited Civil Cases

Chapter 812 of the Statutes of 2001 was introduced as Assembly Bill 223 by Assembly Member Dario Frommer. It includes provisions implementing the California Law Revision Commission recommendation on Unnecessary Procedural Differences Between Limited and Unlimited Civil Cases, 30 Cal. L. Revision Comm'n Reports 443 (2000). The revised Comments set out below supersede the comparable Comments in the recommendation and reflect amendments to the bill made during the legislative process.

Code Civ. Proc. § 425.10 (amended). Contents of complaint

Comment. Section 425.10 is amended to conform the pleading requirements in limited and unlimited civil cases. In a complaint seeking actual or punitive damages for personal injury or wrongful death, the amount demanded should not be stated, regardless of the jurisdictional classification of the action. If the case is a limited civil case, however, the first page of the complaint must (1) identify the case as a limited civil case as required by Section 422.30, and (2) state whether the amount demanded exceeds $10,000, so as to permit determination of the filing fee. See Gov't Code § 72055 (first filing fee in limited civil case). For format requirements, see Cal. R. Ct. Rule 201(f)(8).

Technical changes are also made for conformity with preferred drafting style.

Gov't Code § 72055 (amended). First filing fee in limited civil case

Comment. Subdivision (a) of Section 72055 is amended to delete the requirement that the amount of the demand in a limited civil case be stated on the first page of the first paper immediately below the caption.

It is sufficient to state whether the amount demanded exceeds $10,000, so as to permit determination of the proper filing fee. For formatting requirements, see Cal. R. Ct. 201(f)(8). See also Code Civ. Proc. § 422.30 (caption of complaint in limited civil case shall identify case as a limited civil case). Technical changes are also made for conformity with preferred drafting style.

COMMISSION PUBLICATIONS

Since 1955, the California Law Revision Commission's annual reports, recommendations, and studies have been published in separate pamphlets, which are later bound in a small edition of hardcover volumes.

Beginning in 1991 (Volume 21), Commission publications have been assigned volume numbers on an annual basis. This enables the Commission to continue to print pamphlets without being committed to producing a hardcover volume at any particular time. Producing materials with an annual volume number also makes it easy for libraries to bind their own annual volumes. Cumulative tables and title pages are prepared in connection with each new bound volume. When the Commission's budget permits, this material is separately published to facilitate self-binding.

Individual pamphlets are assigned a sequential publication number to facilitate cataloging and ordering. The publication number is printed on the inside cover of each pamphlet since #189 (Volume 26) and publication numbers have been assigned retroactively to all pamphlets from the first in 1955.

How To Obtain Law Revision Commission Publications

Commission publications may be obtained from:

California Law Revision Commission
4000 Middlefield Road, Room D-1
Palo Alto, CA 94303-4739
Tel: 650-494-1335

Payment in advance is generally required for publications that are available only by purchase. Checks or money orders should be made payable to the "California Law Revision Commission."

Orders should include the titles of the requested publications, the quantity desired, and the street address to which the order is to be sent (not a post office box number).

Prices

The price of hardcover volumes of the Commission's Reports, Recommendations, and Studies is $60. The charge is for the physical volume — thus, the combined Volume 21-22 is priced at $60. California residents must add sales tax.

Printed reports in pamphlet form are available on request. The first copy is free and additional copies are available for the price indicated below.

Where applicable, the price of Commission pamphlets is determined by the number of pages, unless a special price has been set (as with booklets of, say, 400 pages or more):

10 or fewer pages:	$5.50
11-50 pages:	$8.50
51-100 pages:	$18.00
101 or more pages:	$25.00

Whether a charge will be imposed and the amount of the charge are subject to change without notice.

Publication Table

The bound volumes and separate pamphlets listed below are available unless noted as being out of print. For some years, only a few copies remain. If a bound volume is out of print, individual pamphlets from that volume may still be available. Conversely, some pamphlets are unavailable on an individual basis, but can be found in available bound volumes.

Prices are indicated only for individual pamphlets that are still in print.

A frequently updated version of the publication list is available on the Internet at www.clrc.ca.gov — the Commission's website. The Internet version of the publication list also provides a current count of the number of remaining copies of the scarcer bound volumes.

Key to Publication Table

The first column lists the publication number.

The second column gives the publication title, and includes a list of the recommendations and studies included within a pamphlet that contains more than one item.

In the third column, the first line lists the month and year of the publication, followed by a citation to the volume and page number

(in the format vol:page). The second line lists the number of pages in the pamphlet and gives its standard price, unless it is out of print (indicated by OOP).
